

Have those fine art series permanently preserved.

Scranton Tribune

The Tribune Bindery will do it best and cheapest.

EIGHT PAGES--56 COLUMNS.

SCRANTON, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1894.

TWO CENTS A COPY.

THE STATE LEAGUE OFFERS NO ENCOURAGEMENT TO RUFFIANLY BALL PLAYERS

ARE THE REDS IN LEAGUE?

Many Well Known Anarchists Prowling About Washington.

LUCEY PARSONS AND JOHANN MOST

Are Among the Visitors—Chief of Police Moore Denies the Story, but Says All Suspicious Characters Are Being Closely Watched—Scenes at the Commonwealers' Camp.

WASHINGTON, May 3.

THE Red says a rumor that Chicago, New York and Pittsburgh anarchists were in Washington was current yesterday, and was pretty generally spread about the city.

Major Moore, chief of police, settled all of the rumors in a lump by saying: "Nothing in them. Detectives were brought here from other cities," he continued.

"If they are here, I haven't heard of it." Chief Roger O'Mara told that four or five Pittsburgh rioters and anarchists were in Washington.

Mr. O'Mara said nothing of the kind to me. He was here with his wife, and they left for Pittsburgh last night. The Galvin brigade of the Coxy army is due in his city, and he deemed it his duty to be here.

"It is said, Major, that Lucy Parsons is in Washington?" "Just so, just so," and the chief drew up one eye in a very knowing way. "I saw in a Chicago paper several days ago that she was helping to organize Coxyites there, and that she would soon start for Washington. Now that's excuse enough for the newspaper to have her here."

"Seriously, though, there isn't the slightest cause for alarm. The parade has been made. Everything is quiet. If anything happens, it can't be helped, but nothing will happen. They say that my men clubbed persons unnecessarily and unmercifully Tuesday. The commonwealers have received just the complaint from a clubbed person. We had to keep down all foundations for a riot. A few policemen may have drawn their clubs, but none drew their revolvers. Just say that, and tell the people not to worry about Lucy Parsons, John Most, or any of that crowd."

AT THE CAMP GROUND. The Coxyites worked industriously yesterday cleaning up the debris about the camp grounds, piling the rubbish up in places to be carried away, and some of the more artistic commonwealers endeavored to make their surroundings more artistic with paint. Despite their efforts to give the place a presentable appearance and make it comfortable the men suffer many inconveniences, and some of the older men who have homes have become tired and annoyed by their intention of staying here. Among the men are some old theatrical performers, and they made arrangements to give an exhibition today. They style themselves the Commonweal Star Specialty company. They will give a box party to the correspondents who accompanied them during their trip to Washington.

Miss Coxy visited the camp, bringing medicine and some little delicacies to the men. General Coxy has declared his intention to stay here as long as he receives the support of the American people, and carry on the battle. He said he was awaiting reinforcements and was kept advised by telegrams of the movements of the various armies that are moving on to Washington. The men here now, he says, are but a handful of what he will have when the expected arrive.

Chief Marshal Browne has issued his second order, in which he told the commonwealers that by their industry in camp they had shown to the people they were workers and not lazy "hobos," as they have been branded by the newspapers. He detailed his experience in the police court. The marshals were notified not to recruit any more members until further orders. The camp today, says the order, will be known as Camp Brigade-Haines, in honor of a class of citizens who are taxed without representation in legislation, contrary to the constitution of the United States—the women of the land, two of whom bearing the above names of the camp came forward when man was lacking, while Liberty lay manacled.

"Roy Kirk" Mahon, private secretary to Browne, was called to his home at Frostburg, Md., on account of the serious illness of his father. Browne has offered the position to a local reporter.

GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD.

Steps Taken to Preserve the Historical Ground from Trolley Invasion.

THE BRISTLE OF BAYONETS

Warlike Measures Are Necessary to Quell the Cleveland Disturbance.

CITY HALL VERITABLE BARRACKS

State Troops Ordered Out to Aid the Police in Preserving Order—Minnesota Militia Guarding Workingmen from Strikers in the Mesaba Mining Range—Soldiers in Blue Everywhere—Make Ready for a Conflict—The Crowds Are Kept Moving.

CLEVELAND, O., May 3. CITY HALL looked more like a military barracks this morning than a municipal building. There were soldiers in blue everywhere, and on every hand preparations were making for a conflict.

Colonel Keenan, Major Whitney and several officers were stationed in Director McKinnis' office on the second floor, while the mayor had been on hand ready for business since daylight.

Chief of Police Hoehn had a military camp of his own, too. Stationed in his office were at least forty special policemen, and it was proposed to use them the same as the regulars.

Electric trains were held in readiness in the public square to rush soldiers and police to any point where trouble should break out.

Mr. Belasco certainly worked hard to make Mrs. Carter's debut an affair of consequence. He rewrote and arranged to suit her play in which she first appeared at the Broadway theater in November, 1893, "The Ugly Duckling."

Mr. Belasco certainly worked hard to make Mrs. Carter's debut an affair of consequence. He rewrote and arranged to suit her play in which she first appeared at the Broadway theater in November, 1893, "The Ugly Duckling."

She and her instructor became inseparable and the gossip coupled their names in every way. When Mrs. Carter closed her first season several weeks earlier than had been intended and left suddenly for Europe with Mr. Belasco, the story was published that they had eloped. They indignantly denied this allegation on their return.

Mrs. Carter's next appearance was in "Miss Helyett," one of Adrien's comic operas, which had also passed through Mr. Belasco's hands. Her tour was unprofitable, and Mrs. Carter has since then drifted out of the lists of attractions at the leading theaters of New York.

The suit indicates that the hitherto friendly relations between Mr. Belasco and Mrs. Carter have been wholly ruptured. The large amount of money claimed by Mr. Belasco recalls the fact that one of the claims made by Leslie Carter in his sensational suit for divorce was that Mrs. Carter had received large sums from some improper source. She had spent $60,000 in a European trip, although she started with only $2,000.

There were many co-respondents named by Mr. Carter, including Kyrie Bellows, State Senator James F. Pierce, Dr. Gilbert, H. H. Nathan, and D. S. Gregor. Mrs. Carter had been constant in Mr. Belasco's society at one time, and her explanation was that he was giving her lessons for the stage.

She positively denied the charges of infidelity, but she was found guilty, and a decree of divorce was granted against her on May 23, 1893.

WOMEN HAVE ORGANIZED. Female Coxy Sympathizers at Denver Form a Relief Corps.

DENVER, Col., May 3.—The female Coxy sympathizers in this city have organized the "Coxy Army Reserve Corps, No. 1." They will work in connection with the Coxy home reserves, soliciting contributions for the commonwealers at Washington and en route.

A second regiment of the reserves, consisting of 1,200 men, is now being organized.

BRIEF BITS OF HOME NEWS. Canada will institute quarantine against United States cities infected with small-pox.

Fredericksburg, Va., has invited the Army of the Potomac to hold its next meeting there.

The total membership of the National League of Musicians, now in session at Baltimore, is 12,168.

An increase of 10 per cent. in wages has been given the operatives at the Belleville Woolen mill in North Kingston.

Chairman W. L. Wilson is at Baton Rouge, La., as Governor Foster's guest, and will reach Washington in a week.

Father O'Grady, who murdered Miss Gilmartin at Cincinnati because she discarded him, refuses to plead and will be tried for murder next Monday.

Eric Jorgensen, of Norway, co-inventor of the gun adopted by Uncle Sam, is inspecting the manufacture of the new arm at the Springfield (Mass.) armory.

GRIM REAPER'S HARVEST. George Blow, aged 81, at Norfolk, Va., ex-judge and ex-congressman.

Captain William Reed, for forty-nine years a policeman, at Pittsburg, Pa.

At Cleveland, O., Oscar Townsend, general manager of the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling railroad.

Captain William Tucker, aged 77, a pioneer Gloucester, Mass., fisherman, who had circled the globe many times.

THE BRISTLE OF BAYONETS

Warlike Measures Are Necessary to Quell the Cleveland Disturbance.

CITY HALL VERITABLE BARRACKS

State Troops Ordered Out to Aid the Police in Preserving Order—Minnesota Militia Guarding Workingmen from Strikers in the Mesaba Mining Range—Soldiers in Blue Everywhere—Make Ready for a Conflict—The Crowds Are Kept Moving.

CLEVELAND, O., May 3. CITY HALL looked more like a military barracks this morning than a municipal building. There were soldiers in blue everywhere, and on every hand preparations were making for a conflict.

Colonel Keenan, Major Whitney and several officers were stationed in Director McKinnis' office on the second floor, while the mayor had been on hand ready for business since daylight.

Chief of Police Hoehn had a military camp of his own, too. Stationed in his office were at least forty special policemen, and it was proposed to use them the same as the regulars.

Electric trains were held in readiness in the public square to rush soldiers and police to any point where trouble should break out.

Mr. Belasco certainly worked hard to make Mrs. Carter's debut an affair of consequence. He rewrote and arranged to suit her play in which she first appeared at the Broadway theater in November, 1893, "The Ugly Duckling."

She and her instructor became inseparable and the gossip coupled their names in every way. When Mrs. Carter closed her first season several weeks earlier than had been intended and left suddenly for Europe with Mr. Belasco, the story was published that they had eloped. They indignantly denied this allegation on their return.

Mrs. Carter's next appearance was in "Miss Helyett," one of Adrien's comic operas, which had also passed through Mr. Belasco's hands. Her tour was unprofitable, and Mrs. Carter has since then drifted out of the lists of attractions at the leading theaters of New York.

The suit indicates that the hitherto friendly relations between Mr. Belasco and Mrs. Carter have been wholly ruptured. The large amount of money claimed by Mr. Belasco recalls the fact that one of the claims made by Leslie Carter in his sensational suit for divorce was that Mrs. Carter had received large sums from some improper source. She had spent $60,000 in a European trip, although she started with only $2,000.

There were many co-respondents named by Mr. Carter, including Kyrie Bellows, State Senator James F. Pierce, Dr. Gilbert, H. H. Nathan, and D. S. Gregor. Mrs. Carter had been constant in Mr. Belasco's society at one time, and her explanation was that he was giving her lessons for the stage.

She positively denied the charges of infidelity, but she was found guilty, and a decree of divorce was granted against her on May 23, 1893.

WOMEN HAVE ORGANIZED. Female Coxy Sympathizers at Denver Form a Relief Corps.

DENVER, Col., May 3.—The female Coxy sympathizers in this city have organized the "Coxy Army Reserve Corps, No. 1." They will work in connection with the Coxy home reserves, soliciting contributions for the commonwealers at Washington and en route.

A second regiment of the reserves, consisting of 1,200 men, is now being organized.

BRIEF BITS OF HOME NEWS. Canada will institute quarantine against United States cities infected with small-pox.

Fredericksburg, Va., has invited the Army of the Potomac to hold its next meeting there.

The total membership of the National League of Musicians, now in session at Baltimore, is 12,168.

An increase of 10 per cent. in wages has been given the operatives at the Belleville Woolen mill in North Kingston.

Chairman W. L. Wilson is at Baton Rouge, La., as Governor Foster's guest, and will reach Washington in a week.

Father O'Grady, who murdered Miss Gilmartin at Cincinnati because she discarded him, refuses to plead and will be tried for murder next Monday.

GRIM REAPER'S HARVEST. George Blow, aged 81, at Norfolk, Va., ex-judge and ex-congressman.

Captain William Reed, for forty-nine years a policeman, at Pittsburg, Pa.

At Cleveland, O., Oscar Townsend, general manager of the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling railroad.

Captain William Tucker, aged 77, a pioneer Gloucester, Mass., fisherman, who had circled the globe many times.

THE BRISTLE OF BAYONETS

Warlike Measures Are Necessary to Quell the Cleveland Disturbance.

CITY HALL VERITABLE BARRACKS

State Troops Ordered Out to Aid the Police in Preserving Order—Minnesota Militia Guarding Workingmen from Strikers in the Mesaba Mining Range—Soldiers in Blue Everywhere—Make Ready for a Conflict—The Crowds Are Kept Moving.

CLEVELAND, O., May 3. CITY HALL looked more like a military barracks this morning than a municipal building. There were soldiers in blue everywhere, and on every hand preparations were making for a conflict.

Colonel Keenan, Major Whitney and several officers were stationed in Director McKinnis' office on the second floor, while the mayor had been on hand ready for business since daylight.

Chief of Police Hoehn had a military camp of his own, too. Stationed in his office were at least forty special policemen, and it was proposed to use them the same as the regulars.

Electric trains were held in readiness in the public square to rush soldiers and police to any point where trouble should break out.

Mr. Belasco certainly worked hard to make Mrs. Carter's debut an affair of consequence. He rewrote and arranged to suit her play in which she first appeared at the Broadway theater in November, 1893, "The Ugly Duckling."

She and her instructor became inseparable and the gossip coupled their names in every way. When Mrs. Carter closed her first season several weeks earlier than had been intended and left suddenly for Europe with Mr. Belasco, the story was published that they had eloped. They indignantly denied this allegation on their return.

Mrs. Carter's next appearance was in "Miss Helyett," one of Adrien's comic operas, which had also passed through Mr. Belasco's hands. Her tour was unprofitable, and Mrs. Carter has since then drifted out of the lists of attractions at the leading theaters of New York.

The suit indicates that the hitherto friendly relations between Mr. Belasco and Mrs. Carter have been wholly ruptured. The large amount of money claimed by Mr. Belasco recalls the fact that one of the claims made by Leslie Carter in his sensational suit for divorce was that Mrs. Carter had received large sums from some improper source. She had spent $60,000 in a European trip, although she started with only $2,000.

There were many co-respondents named by Mr. Carter, including Kyrie Bellows, State Senator James F. Pierce, Dr. Gilbert, H. H. Nathan, and D. S. Gregor. Mrs. Carter had been constant in Mr. Belasco's society at one time, and her explanation was that he was giving her lessons for the stage.

She positively denied the charges of infidelity, but she was found guilty, and a decree of divorce was granted against her on May 23, 1893.

WOMEN HAVE ORGANIZED. Female Coxy Sympathizers at Denver Form a Relief Corps.

DENVER, Col., May 3.—The female Coxy sympathizers in this city have organized the "Coxy Army Reserve Corps, No. 1." They will work in connection with the Coxy home reserves, soliciting contributions for the commonwealers at Washington and en route.

A second regiment of the reserves, consisting of 1,200 men, is now being organized.

BRIEF BITS OF HOME NEWS. Canada will institute quarantine against United States cities infected with small-pox.

Fredericksburg, Va., has invited the Army of the Potomac to hold its next meeting there.

The total membership of the National League of Musicians, now in session at Baltimore, is 12,168.

An increase of 10 per cent. in wages has been given the operatives at the Belleville Woolen mill in North Kingston.

Chairman W. L. Wilson is at Baton Rouge, La., as Governor Foster's guest, and will reach Washington in a week.

Father O'Grady, who murdered Miss Gilmartin at Cincinnati because she discarded him, refuses to plead and will be tried for murder next Monday.

GRIM REAPER'S HARVEST. George Blow, aged 81, at Norfolk, Va., ex-judge and ex-congressman.

Captain William Reed, for forty-nine years a policeman, at Pittsburg, Pa.

At Cleveland, O., Oscar Townsend, general manager of the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling railroad.

Captain William Tucker, aged 77, a pioneer Gloucester, Mass., fisherman, who had circled the globe many times.

THE TARIFF TALK STILL ON

Amicable Spirit is Manifested on Both Sides of the Senate.

SENATOR CHANDLER SARCASTIC

He Indulges in Remarks at the Expense of President Cleveland—Mr. Quay Resumes the Speech of April 14—Senator Voorhees is Complimented by Mr. Hoar—The House Spends the Day on the River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 3. WHEN the tariff bill was taken up in the senate today there was an amicable spirit manifested on both sides of the chamber, under the influence of which the first amendment fixing the time for the bill to go into effect (after June 30) was allowed to pass over without action. The time will be fixed later on in the session, when a prospect for the passage of the bill dawns in sight.

Senator Chandler, New Hampshire, in an hour's criticism of the bill, indulged in a strain of sarcasm at the expense of President Cleveland, the Democratic members of the finance committee and prominent Democrats who are not members of either house. At the conclusion of Mr. Chandler's remarks Mr. Quay, Pennsylvania, took the floor and proceeded with another installment of the speech begun by him on the 14th of April.

A large part of Mr. Quay's speech consisted of statistical tables. While the clerk was reading one of them, objection was made by Mr. Harris, Tennessee, who insisted that if the papers were to be read the reading must be done by the senator himself, and the order was sustained. As Mr. Quay was starting to read the paper himself, Mr. Mitchell, Oregon, called attention to the absence of a quorum. The roll was thereupon called, and forty-six senators answered to their names. Then Mr. Quay moved to proceed to the consideration of executive business. That motion was rejected—yeas, 13; nays, 82.

MR. HOAR TO THE RESCUE. Then Mr. Hoar, Massachusetts, came to Mr. Quay's relief by a question to Mr. Voorhees as to the estimate made by him on the increased importations that would result from the passage of the tariff bill. Mr. Voorhees replied that no more difficult time than the present could be imagined for making any such estimate, inasmuch as the business of all countries in the world was disturbed and depressed. He had feared not to depart from any subject in making the government safe in its revenue and had not spent much time in guessing what increase of importations would be. He wanted to have the necessary revenue made a sure thing, and that was one of the reasons why he stood by the income tax and why he was somewhat—not entirely—reconciled to place a duty on sugar.

The senate then at 4 p. m. on motion of Mr. Harris, adjourned till tomorrow at 11 a. m. Mr. Hoar crossing over to the Democratic side of the chamber, after adjournment, and complimented Mr. Voorhees on the adroit way in which he had evaded a direct answer to his inquiry.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS. All of today's session in the house was devoted to committee of the whole on general debate on the river and harbor bill, appropriation bill for the year 1894-95. The debate was closed and the bill will be before the house tomorrow for consideration under the five minute rule.

DEATH OF COL. STEINBERGER. Diplomat of the Grant Regime Passes to the Great Beyond.

BOSTON, Mass., May 3.—Col. A. B. Steinberger, who was quite a well known man during the presidency of General Grant from his connection with missions to the Samoan and Hawaiian islands died last night. Col. Steinberger was born 54 years ago in Pennsylvania, but during most of his life when he was not traveling, he made his home in New York city.

In 1873 he was appointed by President Grant to be Samoan, but the exact purpose of his appointment is not generally known even to this day, although it was reported at the time that there was a scheme on foot to annex the island to the United States. Two years later Colonel Steinberger went to Honolulu, again by the direction of the president.

BLINDED BY A TROLLEY FLASH. A Baltimore Woman Loses Her Sight in a Remarkable Way.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 3.—A flash from a trolley wire on one of the electric street railways totally blinded Mrs. Stearner, of 1329 Gough street, three weeks ago, and she has not yet regained her sight. Everything possible has been done for the woman, but apparently to no effect.

Mrs. Stearner was sitting at a window of her home watching the passing cars. Suddenly a particularly bright flash darted from the trolley wire. With an exclamation the lady instantly placed her hands over her eyes to shut out the blinding flash. When she removed her hands she found that she could not see. The optic nerves were paralyzed.

WILL PAY KELLY'S FREIGHT. Governor of Iowa Anxious for the Departure of the Army.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 3.—Governor Jackson received the delegation of Des Moines laboring men who called upon him this morning and after listening to their spokesman renewed his efforts at Council Bluffs to secure rail transportation for Kelly's army across the state and while he would not hold out any hope that arrangements could be made, he would lay the matter before

THE TARIFF TALK STILL ON

Amicable Spirit is Manifested on Both Sides of the Senate.

SENATOR CHANDLER SARCASTIC

He Indulges in Remarks at the Expense of President Cleveland—Mr. Quay Resumes the Speech of April 14—Senator Voorhees is Complimented by Mr. Hoar—The House Spends the Day on the River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 3. WHEN the tariff bill was taken up in the senate today there was an amicable spirit manifested on both sides of the chamber, under the influence of which the first amendment fixing the time for the bill to go into effect (after June 30) was allowed to pass over without action. The time will be fixed later on in the session, when a prospect for the passage of the bill dawns in sight.

Senator Chandler, New Hampshire, in an hour's criticism of the bill, indulged in a strain of sarcasm at the expense of President Cleveland, the Democratic members of the finance committee and prominent Democrats who are not members of either house. At the conclusion of Mr. Chandler's remarks Mr. Quay, Pennsylvania, took the floor and proceeded with another installment of the speech begun by him on the 14th of April.

A large part of Mr. Quay's speech consisted of statistical tables. While the clerk was reading one of them, objection was made by Mr. Harris, Tennessee, who insisted that if the papers were to be read the reading must be done by the senator himself, and the order was sustained. As Mr. Quay was starting to read the paper himself, Mr. Mitchell, Oregon, called attention to the absence of a quorum. The roll was thereupon called, and forty-six senators answered to their names. Then Mr. Quay moved to proceed to the consideration of executive business. That motion was rejected—yeas, 13; nays, 82.

MR. HOAR TO THE RESCUE. Then Mr. Hoar, Massachusetts, came to Mr. Quay's relief by a question to Mr. Voorhees as to the estimate made by him on the increased importations that would result from the passage of the tariff bill. Mr. Voorhees replied that no more difficult time than the present could be imagined for making any such estimate, inasmuch as the business of all countries in the world was disturbed and depressed. He had feared not to depart from any subject in making the government safe in its revenue and had not spent much time in guessing what increase of importations would be. He wanted to have the necessary revenue made a sure thing, and that was one of the reasons why he stood by the income tax and why he was somewhat—not entirely—reconciled to place a duty on sugar.

The senate then at 4 p. m. on motion of Mr. Harris, adjourned till tomorrow at 11 a. m. Mr. Hoar crossing over to the Democratic side of the chamber, after adjournment, and complimented Mr. Voorhees on the adroit way in which he had evaded a direct answer to his inquiry.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS. All of today's session in the house was devoted to committee of the whole on general debate on the river and harbor bill, appropriation bill for the year 1894-95. The debate was closed and the bill will be before the house tomorrow for consideration under the five minute rule.

DEATH OF COL. STEINBERGER. Diplomat of the Grant Regime Passes to the Great Beyond.

BOSTON, Mass., May 3.—Col. A. B. Steinberger, who was quite a well known man during the presidency of General Grant from his connection with missions to the Samoan and Hawaiian islands died last night. Col. Steinberger was born 54 years ago in Pennsylvania, but during most of his life when he was not traveling, he made his home in New York city.

In 1873 he was appointed by President Grant to be Samoan, but the exact purpose of his appointment is not generally known even to this day, although it was reported at the time that there was a scheme on foot to annex the island to the United States. Two years later Colonel Steinberger went to Honolulu, again by the direction of the president.

BLINDED BY A TROLLEY FLASH. A Baltimore Woman Loses Her Sight in a Remarkable Way.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 3.—A flash from a trolley wire on one of the electric street railways totally blinded Mrs. Stearner, of 1329 Gough street, three weeks ago, and she has not yet regained her sight. Everything possible has been done for the woman, but apparently to no effect.

Mrs. Stearner was sitting at a window of her home watching the passing cars. Suddenly a particularly bright flash darted from the trolley wire. With an exclamation the lady instantly placed her hands over her eyes to shut out the blinding flash. When she removed her hands she found that she could not see. The optic nerves were paralyzed.

WILL PAY KELLY'S FREIGHT. Governor of Iowa Anxious for the Departure of the Army.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 3.—Governor Jackson received the delegation of Des Moines laboring men who called upon him this morning and after listening to their spokesman renewed his efforts at Council Bluffs to secure rail transportation for Kelly's army across the state and while he would not hold out any hope that arrangements could be made, he would lay the matter before

FINLEY'S MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

Excellence Well Known Designs Exclusively Ours

In addition to our regular lines, WE ARE CONTINUALLY adding "THE BEST NEW THINGS."

For one week we will offer "The Princess Gown" at 98c.

Also, three special numbers in Cambrie Corset Covers at 15, 23 and 35 cents each

Ladies' LAWN DRESSING Scaques and an elegant line of Shirt Waists and Chemisettes.

510 and 512 Lackawanna Ave.

THE CUTTA PERCHA & RUBBER MFG CO'S FAMOUS Maltese Cross RUBBER BELTING AND HOSE.

CHAR. A. SCHEREN & CO'S PERFORATED ELECTRIC And Oak-tanned Leather Belting.

H. A. Kingsbury AGENT 313 Spruce St., Scranton, Pa.

Lewis, Reilly & Davies A DRIVE

In Russet Shoes.

LEWIS, REILLY & DAVIES 114 Wyoming Ave. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

We Examine Eyes Free of charge. If a doctor is needed you are promptly told so. We also guarantee a perfect fit.

ALL SILVERWARE and Damaged Goods at Arcade Fire will be sold at 50 Per Cent. Below Cost.

W. J. WEICHEL The Jeweler, 408 Spruce Street.

WEATHER FORECAST. WASHINGTON, May 3.—Forecast for Friday: For Eastern Pennsylvania, increasing clouds, showers Friday evening; Friday night, southwest winds, variable winds.

PEIXOTO IS NOT WELL. Small Budget of Brazilian News, Including Report of His Indisposition.

BUENOS AIRES, May 3.—Advice from Rio Janeiro say that President Peixoto is indisposed and has gone to Petropolis. Order has been restored in Curitiba and Parana.

It is stated that General Saravia has fled beyond the Uruguay river.

END OF THE COAL STRIKE. An Early Adjustment of the Differences Between Miners and Operators Expected.

PITTSBURGH, May 3.—The end of the great bituminous coal strike is in sight. At a meeting today here between the operators and the officials of the Union Mine Workers such action was taken as will probably lead within a couple of weeks to return of the miners to work. The miners were represented at the meeting by President John McBride and Secretary Treasurer Patrick McBride, and with the exception of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company the majority of the operators of bituminous mines in the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois were represented either in person or by delegates. The conference adopted the following circular:

To operators and miners of the bituminous mines of the United States: A meeting will be held in Cleveland Tuesday, May 15, at 2 p. m. to take such action as may be deemed wise to bring about an adjustment of the differences that exist between the operators and miners in various states. All operators and miners are invited to attend the meeting.