COMPANY TO BE FORMED

It Will Manufacture Benedict Millhauser's Anti-Friction Bearing Metal.

IT HAS BEEN SEVERELY TESTED

Seems to Be Superior to the Material at Present Used for Axle Journals.

A Company to Manufacture the Invention Has Been Organized—It Will Be Chartered at Once—The Tests Made.

Capitalists of this city are interested in forming a company for the manufacture of an anti-friction bearing which bids fair to revolutionize the use of the material—babbit metal—now applied to car axles and journal of machinery.

The new article is composed of celluloid, zylonite and other similar materials and is secured by letters patent issued in 1890 to Benedict Millhauser, an optician, living at 617 Adams avenue.

Some of the prominent members of the board of trade are interested in the formation of a company, though the patentee has not asked financial aid from that body.

Two years ago a company was chartered under Virginia laws, and since that time experiments have been carried on by the Delaware and Hudson Canal company, Erie and Wyoming Valley and other railroads. The results have far exceeded the expectations of the patentee and the gentleman connected with the enterprise, and they have elicited the interest of well known business men of this city, who, it is reported, will form a company for the manufacture of the bearing on an extensive scale.

SEVERE TEST MADE. Regarding the experiments on the Erie and Wyoming, this road was selected because it has some of the heaviest grades and sharpest curves of any road in this part of the country and gives the bearings of car axles the severest tests.

A passenger train was completely equipped with the celluloid bearings and were only two coaches had previously been drawn over the mountain another coach was added to the train.

Ordinarily with two cars it has been almost impossible to regain a minute's lost time, but the train equipped with celluloid bearings and including an extra coach made up fifteen minutes lost time.

President John B. Smith has ordered a number of the cars fitted with Mr. Millhauser's patent.

The Delaware and Hudson company had run one of the bearings on a car which was run 13,680 miles in 139 days. During the bearing was removed scarcely any wear was perceptible.

With Babbitt metal it is necessary to use brass fittings. Those interested say that with the celluloid articles cast iron fittings can be used and that the average outlay for bearings and axles will be reduced from 33-35 to 25 per cent.

TESTS ON MINE PUMPS. Tests have also been made with the new bearing on mine pumps and machinery by Townsend Peora. Results show them to stand the strain better than the old article and that they are not affected by sulphur water.

The Millhauser Anti-Friction Bearing company, was organized under the Virginia laws only for experimental purposes. Now that the article is said by practical railroad men and mechanics to be a success, those interested will withdraw the present charter for the purpose of organizing under the laws of this state.

DEATH OF MRS. RICHARD BEAMISH. A Young Wife and Mother Who Passed Away Yesterday.

Mrs. Ellen Beamish, wife of Attorney Richard J. Beamish, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home, 319 Franklin avenue, after an illness of several weeks' duration.

Mrs. Beamish was about 23 years of age and was a young woman of many excellent qualities which, when she appeared here to those with whom she came in social contact, she is survived by her husband and two children, the youngest of whom is but five weeks old.

Mrs. Beamish, whose maiden name was Peterson, had been married a little over three years. She was a niece of Richard O'Brien, superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph company in this city.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed, but the final obsequies will take place Monday.

Household Hints. Orange peel dried and grated makes excellent flavoring for cakes and puddings.

To make a pretty plant basket get a large wooden bowl and cover the outside with split peach stones. Varnish or paint and hang with chains.

In roasting meat the principal care should be to have it as juicy as possible, as the juices contain both the nourishment and flavor.

A cup of cold boiled rice added to any griddle cakes or muffins makes them lighter and more wholesome.

Keep a peck or more of lime in an open keg in the cellar to absorb the moisture.

Dark calicoes are best washed in water in which bran has been boiled—a quart of bran in a loose bag to a gallon of water.

Some housewives say that the colors of cotton fabrics will become "set" if salt and water are employed, 3 gills of salt to 4 quarts of water. The calico is dropped in the water while hot, and there remains until it is cold.

SHOWING THE QUEER

Two Bold Counterfeiters Arrested Last Night.

THEY VICTIMIZED MANY PERSONS

Scranton Hotel Men Were Easy Prey for the Snide money Sharps—They Came to Grief at the Coyne House and Were Pulled in by Officer Gleason—The Money is a Poor Imitation—Are Now in the Cooler.

Officer Gleason at 11 o'clock last evening arrested two men against whom there seemed to be a clear case of passing counterfeit money.

The men in question are both what might be termed young in years and are strangers in the city of Scranton. Evidently they struck the town early in the evening, but while here they were very industrious in showing the queer and seemed to have had but little difficulty in passing their bad money upon unsuspecting citizens.

At about ten o'clock the pair entered the Coyne House and called for the drinks. They tendered in payment for the same $2, which was accepted by the bartender, who handed out the change without once suspecting that he had been imposed upon. The bill, however, fell under the eyes of Proprietor Coyne, who immediately concluded that it was spurious money. He said nothing, but when later the two young men returned and attempted to pass another bill of the same character, Officer Gleason happened in and placed the fellows under arrest.

TOOK ARREST COOLLY. Naturally the pair were somewhat crestfallen, but bore themselves with excellent demeanor, considering the kind of business they had been engaged in since they came to town. Both protested that they had done nothing wrong, but it was evidence of bad faith when they refused to give their names. They stated, however, that they were from Wilmington, Delaware, which, of course, nobody believed.

When taken to the police station and examined a large quantity of silver dollars and small change was found in their pockets. The bills, for the most part, were presumed to be bad. Chief Simpson and Sergeant Deister spent some time in counting the money and came to the conclusion that the amount was about $125. The prisoners did not seem inclined to disclose their identity and were locked up in separate cells.

After taking his prisoners to the station Officer Gleason went on a tour of inspection. He found that two men had passed spurious bills, all of the denomination of $2, at a number of places in town. One was left at the Coyne house, Tom Mevins got one, Green Chicks another, two were left at the Conway house, another at the City Hotel, Higgins & Wall were called and at several other places the stuff was accepted just as though it was an Al article. Martin Bird seems to have been the only person who refused to be bitten. The men came into his place and asked for the drinks and threw down one of the spurious $2 bills to pay for the same. Mr. Bird was at one time connected with a bank in Ireland and as soon as his fingers touched the money he discovered its real character and threw the bill back to the men. They then paid for what they ordered in good silver money and left the place.

A TALKATIVE PRISONER. Both of the men were under the influence of drink when arrested. The shorter of the pair feigned sleep immediately after being placed in the cell, but the other was quite talkative. He informed a Tribune reporter that it was nobody's business who he was or where he came from. He continued to talk volubly, however, said he was of good parentage and that if he was convicted his relatives would be none the wiser. The fellow is evidently very self-conceited, but seemed to realize that he had been caught in a bad box.

The bills found in the possession of the men, as well as those passed by them, were of a decidedly bad imitation. All of what the D. B. series of regular counterfeit articles and the number on each of the $2 bills began with the figure 66. The arrest of the men is important, for that they are experts in passing counterfeit money there can be no doubt.

POOR DIRECTORS MEET

They Take Action on a Number of Applications for Out Door Relief.

THE PREMIUMS NOT TO BE PAID

Insurance Companies That Eliminated the Lightning Clause from Their Contracts Will Receive Nothing Until It is Restored—Home Committee Directed to Provide for the Furnishing of the Women's Building.

The poor board met in regular session yesterday afternoon. There were present Messrs. Langstaff, Gibbons, Williams, Topp, Shotton, Murphy and Mr. Swan. The meeting opened with a tilt over the question of insurance, in which Mr. Swan and Mr. Gibbons were arrayed against each other. The latter triumphed and was correspondingly happy.

Then came a long line of applicants for out-door relief. As each took the witness stand he or she was subjected to a vigorous cross examination by Secretary Lynett, whom long experience has made very expert in getting out from the applicant such information as the board may be desirous of obtaining. The usual tales of want and woe, some false, more true, were heard, and the worthy rendered such aid as the members thought proper to confer.

Superintendent Heemer reported that the new building for women is nearly ready for occupancy, and on motion the furnishing was left to the home committee.

A number of bills were approved and ordered paid.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT. The report of Superintendent George W. Beemer, of the farm and almshouse, was read and approved. It showed that the number in the almshouse at the time of the last monthly report was 169. Admitted during April, 23; born, 1; discharged, 19; died, 1; remaining, 168, of whom 113 are males and 55 females.

The report of Out Door Physician W. A. Paine showed the number of his patients to have been 17; number of visits, 64; cases of insanity examined, 1; deaths, 1.

Report of Benjamin P. Evans, resident physician at the almshouse and insane hospital, summarized as follows: Number of prescriptions, 299; number of same persons treated, males, 46; females, 28; insane, males 23; females, 21. Total number of patients treated, 118. Number of patients in asylum April 1, 1894, 183; received in April, 4; discharged, 1. Total number remaining May 1, 1894, 111.

Dr. W. D. Deane's report revealed that he had made 104 visits. Dr. J. A. Masley made 79. Neither reported any deaths. All of the reports were ordered received and placed on file.

OTHER MATTERS. Secretary Lynett stated that some of the insurance companies desired that the electric wires in the poor farm dwellings be placed in approved condition before insurance policies are issued. The matter was referred to the home committee.

The secretary also reported that certain of the companies with which insurance had been placed had returned the policies with the lightning clause stricken out. On motion it was decided to give the bills of said companies for premiums until the lightning clause is restored.

On motion of Mr. Murphy the members of Dunmore and Scranton were exonerated from the payment of personal poor tax, this being the usual custom.

Attorney Scrage was instructed to withdraw the exceptions filed in the case of Winifred Longherty, deceased, as there was no desire on the part of the board to impose additional hardships upon her sister.

The meeting then resolved into an informal discussion of a proposed visit of the members to the farm.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. Under this heading letters of interest will be published when compiled, and addressed to the editor's name. The Tribune will hold responsible for opinions here expressed.

Card from Mr. Doxy. To all Friends of the Great Red Day: The executive committee having charge of the Sunday closing movement in Scranton, thanks most cordially the multitude of helpers, who have so kindly and so bravely closed their places of business on Sunday, for their encouragement and co-operation. That which in the beginning was problematic is now demonstrated. It is evident that business men of this city, in all its industrial departments and of every trade and profession, favor the rest day, and that the people are not divided with reference to its protection. The movement, which started with a purpose to respect every body's rights and opinions and yet move to a definite result, has not answered its purpose. It has brought a hair's breadth from its beginning. Enough of criticism and vituperation has been stirred up to give it health and compactness, but the masses of us have fallen to the ground without leaving a mark. It has not been a movement of cranks or fanatics, nor a crusade against any class of men or kind of business. Its keynote is protection to the American Sabbath, and its plea is that every man needs one day of rest in seven. Believing in the soundness of this platform the executive committee invites conformity to the law throughout the city for tomorrow and every recurring Sabbath, assuring those who keep within the law of its support and promising to those who challenge the law all that the law can do to vindicate itself. F. A. DOXY, Chairman. Scranton, May 4, 1894.

DR. C. W. INGRAHAM. Remarkable Results Obtained by Him in the Treatment of Pulmonary Diseases.

In another column will be noticed the announcement of Dr. C. W. Ingraham, of Binghamton, N. Y., who is to be at the Westminster Hotel, Scranton, Saturday, May 5.

Dr. Ingraham has made a special study of lung diseases and his treatment for consumption is probably the most successful ever instituted.

Asthma, a disease which has long baffled the skill of our best physicians, is cured by his method in more than 90 per cent. of cases treated. Indeed, not a single failure is recorded where the treatment has been faithfully carried out on the part of the patient.

These results, which are wonderful, indeed, are attested by numerous cured patients.
