WONDERLAND'S BILL CHANGED.

The Galley Slave Will Be Presented Today and Tomorrow.

There was a good sized audience at Wonderland to witness the production of "Our Boy," a successful English comedy by Manager Davis' excellent stock company. While "Our Boy" achieved a remarkable success in London, it was found by Mr. Davis to be quite unattractive to his audience. The dull English humor was too slow for the keen, appreciative audiences at Wonderland. Therefore, Mr. Davis very wisely decided to discontinue "Our Boy."

In its stead he will substitute today and tomorrow the popular "Galley Slave," which pleased so much last week.

Scranton's Business Interests.

The Tribune will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

Don't Miss It. Shoes at manufacturer's prices today, Factory Shoe Store, 411 Lack's ave.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers.

PRISONER NEARLY WALKED AWAY

Constable Burschel Did Not Exercise His Usual Caution—William J. Lewis and Miss Jemima Richards Wedded by Rev. David Jones—Young Men Hold an Interesting Debate—Officers of the Board of Trade to Be Elected—Interesting News Notes.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 1049 Jackson street, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

John Neary, of Providence, was arrested yesterday afternoon on complaint of Morris Simon, a resident of this side, for larceny. Simon was talking to Neary in a Providence saloon, and had with him goods amounting to $5 and a receipt book worth $2. Simon showed the goods to Neary and the latter became anxious to possess them. He offered Simon what the goods were worth and took them home to show to his wife, saying that he would return in a short time with the money. But he never came back. Neary was given a hearing before Alderman Blair and placed in $200 bail to appear at court. At the close of the case, Morgan placed the prisoner in charge of Constable Burschel. Burschel did not exercise his usual caution, and Neary walked off, and has not since been heard of.

Wedded Last Evening. The marriage of Miss Jemima Richards and William J. Lewis was solemnized last evening by Rev. David Jones, of the First Welsh Congregational church, at his home, 121 South Lincoln avenue. The bridesmaid was Miss Cassie Lewis, sister of the bridegroom, and the groomsmen were Phillip Giles. Both ladies wore pretty costumes. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are well known on this side, where they have a large circle of friends who wish them unalloyed happiness during their married life. They will get at once to housekeeping in a neatly furnished home on Lyon street.

Debate on Labor. A large number was present at the weekly meeting of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society held last evening in the rooms of the Welsh Philanthropic society on South Main avenue. Chairman Phillip Davis presided. During the evening there was a debate on "Labor Parades." Much feeling was displayed in welcoming back to their circle W. A. Price, who recently went to Forest City to reside.

Board of Trade. The West Side Board of Trade will meet this evening in Clark's hall. There are several matters of importance awaiting action, and the annual reports will be read. Officers will be elected also. The nominations made at the meeting a month ago were as follows: President, Hon. D. M. Jones; Vice Presidents, William Farrell and T. F. Mason; Secretary, Charles E. Daniels; Treasurer, A. B. Eymon; A. M. Morse and William R. Williams.

Successful Hotel Opening. The new hotel of Fred Warnka, on North Main avenue, was thronged during the opening last evening. The large bar room and private rooms were decked with flowers and brought forth many praises from those present. A mandolin and guitar orchestra consisting of Peter Schaeper, Edward Curtis and W. W. Ross rendered a number of fine selections.

Short News Notes

The West Side Women's Christian Temperance union will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Welsh Philanthropic society rooms on South Main avenue. All ladies are invited.

Rev. William M. Davies, of Fishguard, is visiting at the home of John Thomas, of Washburn street. He will preach at the Plymouth Congregational church next Sunday.

The options on the property for the opening of Swallow to fifty feet in width from Ninth street to North Main avenue have been secured, and are now in the hands of Councilman Laner for the consideration of the council.

Rev. D. W. Skellenger, of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, was in Peckville yesterday.

G. O. Phillips, of Jackson street, has returned from Lehighton.

John A. Edwards, son of 8th E. Edwards, of Price street, is seriously ill.

John Mullen, of North Summer street, who has been very low with pneumonia for the past week, is better.

William Sant of Jackson street, has purchased of William E. Elginton, of South Hyde Park avenue, an acre of ground on the West mountain, which contains a large amount of stone adapted for Belgian block pavement.

A delegation of the members of Hyde Park lodge, No. 339, Free and Accepted Masons, will leave on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train at 6:10 o'clock this evening for Clark's Summit, to take part in the dedicatory ceremonies of a new Masonic hall at that place.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church will conduct a social on Thursday evening in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richards have returned from their bridal tour.

MUD PUDDLES ON GRANT AVENUE.

The Residents Will Ask Councilmen to Repair That Street.

The property owners on Grant avenue, near Jackson street, are suffering from the deplorable condition of that thoroughfare.

In the spring and early winter the road is impassable, and it would require very little to repair it.

The councilmen from the Fourth and Fifth wards will be asked to expend during the coming year a part of the appropriation toward the improvement of Grant avenue.

FAVOR MULBERRY STREET BRIDGE.

Those Who Do So Will Meet at the Court House Tonight.

The persons who believe that the best interests of the city would be served by locating the proposed new bridge that is to connect the West Side with the central city at Mulberry street instead of Linden street, as was decided upon at the last municipal election, have called a meeting to take some definite action in regard to changing the location of the bridge.

Those who favor the Mulberry street site claim that it will be a saving of $50,000 to have the bridge located at this point.

The meeting will be held at the arbitration room in the court house this evening at 8 o'clock, when all persons who are interested are invited to attend.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Kickers Against Twentieth Ward Sewer Work to Make a Decent Showing.

THEY COULD NOT COUNT A QUORUM

A Heavy Team of Blacks Consigned to the Centuries Arrives from Chicago—Peanuts and Circus Sights in South Side Base Ball Park—First Edition of Father Aust's Paper Just Out—Shorter Paragraphs.

Any movement that does not meet with opposition in its course of development is not worth wasting breath in mentioning it. The most sanguine upholders of the sewer in the Twentieth ward were not so far carried away with the project as to fail to see that kickers would come to the surface. But the wonder is that there is so little grumbling. Perhaps in the course of a few months the croakers may blossom out in greater fullness. On Sunday afternoon those opposed to the sewer were invited to meet in Datt's hall. A half dozen men answered the call, but seemingly did not feel much inclined to do any business. It is widely circulated throughout the ward that Common Councilman D. P. Battle is one of the bitterest antagonists of the sewer, and that he busied himself in poisoning the minds of all his friends against it. This does Mr. Battle a great wrong, because he is on the other hand one of the most earnest champions of it. The best people of the ward want sewers, those on whom the burden of expense will fall heaviest, and that arrives very nearly at a guess that at an early date the Twentieth will be fully served.

DE WOLF HOPPER AT THE ACADEMY.

The Well-Known Comedian to Be Seen in Paedrandum Tonight.

"Paedrandum," the comic opera spectacle, which for five months held the boards of the Broadway Theatre, New York city, will be the attraction at the Academy of Music this evening.

De Wolf Hopper, and his merry associates will essay the leading roles of "Paedrandum," in which the big comedian impersonates five different characters. The first is that of a youthful sailor, returning to his sweetheart after a long voyage; the second that of a Spanish bull fighter, which he assumes for the purpose of winning glory and the great prize of the matinee; the third that of a storm-tossed mariner on the ship that bears the principal characters of the opera away to Spain; the fourth an Indian fakir who mystifies the people of Burnet, and the last a Bernese peasant.

MEMORIAL DAY GRAND ARMY PARADE

An Entertainment Will Be Furnished at the Frothingham in the Evening.

Era Griffin post, No. 139, Grand Army of the Republic, will have its usual parade on the afternoon of Memorial Day.

The post will give an entertainment at the Frothingham theater in the evening. The prices of admission are fixed at 25, 50 and 50 cents.

The best local talents of the city will take part in this entertainment. Colonel Dexter, the brilliant Elym veteran, who addressed the Grand Army veterans at the recent Wyoming conference in the Elm Park church, has been extended and has accepted an invitation to deliver an address.

The proceeds, after defraying Memorial Day expenses, will go to the post to defray the cost of any special assistance to the aged veterans who may need assistance.

WILL HAVE A FLOWER SOCIAL.

An Interesting Event to Be Given for Young Women Tonight.

On account of the absence of Dr. F. W. Lang from the city the "Health Talk" advertised for this evening at the Young Women's Christian association will be postponed. Instead, a "Flower Social" will be held, which will be something more than a social affair. It will also give an exhibition of some of the work done during the year.

Young women are cordially invited to enjoy this social gathering, which is free to non-members and members alike.

THREE NEW DIRECTORS.

Lackawanna Hospital Contributors Transact Important Business.

The contributors of the Lackawanna hospital met last night and elected James P. Dickson, Alfred Hand and A. O'Reilly directors for three years.

Annual reports were received from the treasurer, secretary and superintendent. The president's address was received. All was referred to the incoming board of directors, who will meet for organization on Friday next.

NORTH END.

The Father Whitty society held a meeting yesterday at St. Mary's hall and organized a single corps with Charles Barry as conductor. The corps will consist of twelve bugles and seven drums, nineteen instruments in all. It was also arranged to hold a musical and literary entertainment on the evening of May 20, Decoration Day, to defray the necessary expenses of providing the instruments. Mr. Barry intends to make a bugle corps one of the best in the state.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Merzan took place Saturday last from her home on Corbin Street. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

The death of Miss Nettie Griffiths, of Montrose, and well known in this section took place last week at home in the latter place and caused general regret among her many friends. Deceased was a particularly bright and intellectual young lady and her early death in the bloom of youth is greatly deplored.

The Opinion of a Rival.

Wilkes-Barre News-Dialer.

Scrantonians have at last recognized that the slim covered Lackawanna with its tomato cans and lined banks is not only a brawler of dirt but also a most unsightly conjunction to portions of the city which are not the most cleanly and a movement is now being made to have it covered by masonry, on the top of which will be constructed a boulevard. The completion of the proposed work would cost a goodly sum of money, but the outlay would be repaid by those who are carrying citizens who have the welfare of the city at heart.

ABOUT PERSONS WELL KNOWN.

A gentleman who used to visit Scranton more frequently than has been his wont of late, is just now winning as many laurels in a musical direction as he has long been accustomed to win in business relations. Reference is made to Manager Atkin of the Wilkes-Barre lace works, whose singing at the recent Concord concert in Wilkes-Barre was a notable feature. Mr. Atkin is a jovial companion, a member of numerous fraternal orders, including the Elks, and vies with Joseph P. Baras as a robust tenor who knows how to sing.

Rev. Dr. N. G. Parke, of West Pittston, who, at the close of the present year will conclude a half century of continuous service in the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Pittston, will this summer occupy a handsome new cottage at Glen Summit, the plans for which were recently drawn by Architect Duckworth. After the various experiments in the climates of Florida, New England and the seashore, Dr. Parke has decided that nothing better suits his needs than the pure oxygen on Wilkes-Barre mountain, and his countless Scranton friends hope he may be benefited by the coming summer's sojourn.

Representative Galusha A. Grow, whom Scrantonians have recently come to regard as really one of their own citizens, that is to say, a resident of one of Scranton's suburbs, has been chosen as one of the orators at this year's Fourth of July celebration at Woodstock, Conn. The honor is a signal one when it is remembered that speakers at Woodstock are always men of international renown.

In the present appointment of its Supreme concave officials, the Improved Order of Heptasophy has conferred uncommon honors on Archibald Duckworth. As the supreme arbiter in the person of F. L. Brown, the supreme provost in the person of Attorney J. Elliott Ross, and one member of the executive committee appears in the person of Edward H. House, but, then, this is no more than proper, considering the number of flourishing concaves that Scranton and its immediate vicinity gives to the order. The latest of these, Electric City concave No. 299, instituted less than two months ago, already has a membership of nearly 100 and is growing rapidly. Scranton city alone has five flourishing Heptasophy concaves and there are as many more almost everywhere having dates.

The recent graceful action of the employees in the transportation department of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad in presenting Trainmaster George M. Halsted with a handsome watch of rare value attests the esteem in which this popular Scrantonian is held among those with whom he is brought into intimate contact. The watch is a repeater with split second and stop attachment, and with a handsomely engraved leather case containing a 2 karat diamond. It was a birthday token, which its proud recipient will not soon forget exhibiting.

Seniographers Furnished.

We are prepared to furnish business men with first-class seniographers by the day or by the week. Scranton city studio, Scranton Commercial Association, Limited, 123 Spruce street.
