CITY NOTES.

The joint auditing committee of councils met last evening.

Today is ladies' day at the base ball park. Ladies will be admitted free.

St. Joseph's society will meet at the Foundling Home at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The streets and bridges committee of select council will meet at 7 o'clock this evening.

The annual inspection of police will be conducted by Captain Edwards at the municipal building at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Montgomery, who were arrested Saturday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, were yesterday committed to jail in default of bail to await trial at court for neglecting their children.

The lady and gentleman friends of the Young Women's Christian association are requested to remember the exhibition to be given Friday evening at the Young Men's Christian Association hall by the ladies' gymnasium classes, showing the progress which has been made in this department the past year.

On Friday evening, May 11, the Jefferson and Sturges' "Joshua Whitcomb" company will present this sterling American drama at Music hall. The cast is said to be a strong one, including a double quartette of established excellence. Many popular melodies will be sung. The diagram will open tomorrow at Hulbert's. The prices will be 25, 35 and 50 cents. Nina Lawrence Foster, formerly of "The Trip to Chinatown," will appear in the role of Tot.

MR. ARCHER'S ILLNESS.

Returns from Atlantic City Unimproved. May Go to California.

General Manager Archer, of the Scranton Traction company, arrived home Monday night after a three weeks' absence. His physicial condition, which was much impaired when he left, has not improved and his physician yesterday enjoined perfect rest, free from all excitement, as the only remedy.

Mr. Archer is suffering from a collapse due to overwork, and is a very sick man. He was reclining in an easy chair when a TRIBUNE reporter called on him yesterday. In reply to an inquiry he stated precisely what is printed in the foregoing paragraph. He refused to be interviewed on the condition of the street railways in this city. He stated that he had been given a much needed rest by his employers and would probably seek a restoration of health by a visit to California.

THREE PLAYERS TO BE RELEASED.

It Was so Decided by the Stockholders of the Scranton Club Last Night.

The stockholders of the Scranton Base Ball club met last night and took summary action on the wretched quality of ball furnished by the club.

It was decided to give the walking papers to at least three players and possibly more. The manager was notified to get down to business, or his resignation will be looked for.

Ex-President Alex Dunn, Directors Betts, Robb and Martin said at the meeting that a winning team must be had, if it required the release of every man in the club.

Several new players will arrive in a few days and be given a trial.

HE SOLD SODA WATER

Druggist McGarrah's Trade Last Sunday Cost Him Four Dollars.

ARRESTED BY SECRETARY DONY

The Well Known Druggist Makes No Defense, but Claims That Soda Is Just as Much of a Necessity as Drugs—Testimony of E. J. MacDonald and L. F. Hiorns, Two of Mr. Dony's Assistants.

William H. McGarrah, of the well known firm of McGarrah & Thomas, of Lackawanna avenue, introduced himself to Rev. F. A. Dony in Alderman Post's office last evening.

Mr. McGarrah had been brought before the alderman's court on a charge preferred by Mr. Dony of selling soda water at his store on Sunday.

"There is no malice in this," Mr. McGarrah," said the secretary of the American Sabbath union. "It is purely a loving, friendly action for the betterment of the people of Scranton, he continued.

Both gentlemen shook hands in a very friendly manner and began a quite animated discussion about the Sunday observance movement. Everybody in the court room joined in the talk and Mr. Dony was kept busy answering the arguments put forth by the spectators.

Alderman Post read the charge against Mr. McGarrah, wherein he was charged with selling soda water and keeping his store open for business on Sunday, May 6, contrary to the act of 1794.

ASSISTANT MAC DONALD'S STORY.

Mr. McGarrah termed E. J. MacDonald, the first witness of Mr. Dony, a detective, but this was objected to by Mr. Dony, who claimed that MacDonald was merely one of his assistants in the work and not a detective, by any means.

McDonald gave his testimony after this fashion:

"About half-past 6 o'clock last Sunday evening I was in the store of McGarrah & Thomas on Lackawanna avenue and I saw them selling soda water and receiving pay for the same.

"Did you see them selling anything else?"

"No, sir; nothing but soda water. They would not sell cigars."

"Were you there at any other time during the day?"

"No, sir; only about half past six o'clock."

"Was the store open?"

"Yes, sir; there were a good many persons passing in and out. There were all the facilities for selling soda water. There were a number of glasses upon the counter and a clerk was behind the counter."

"Did you try to buy a cigar?"

"Yes, sir."

"Were you advised to try and buy a cigar?"

"No, sir."

"Were you advised to try and buy soda water?"

"No, sir; not that I know of."

"You certainly know, don't you?"

"I was not instructed to by any of the committee."

"Did you do all this work voluntarily?"

"I was detailed by the Sunday union to find out who was violating the law."

"Were you paid by that union?"

"Yes, sir."

"What was your compensation?"

Rev. Mr. Dony objected to the witness being asked such a question and his objection was sustained."

L. F. HIORN'S TESTIMONY.

L. F. Hiorns, of Quincy avenue, was the next witness called by Mr. Dony. His testimony was as follows:

"Did you see Mr. McGarrah's place open on last Sunday?"

"I did, yes sir."

"State the condition of the corner where the soda water was sold."

"The place looked as if they had intended to do business. There was a large bowl of eggs on the counter, and glasses and soda water glass holders were also there. I didn't see anyone drinking. I saw the clerk there in that portion of the store where soda water is usually sold."

"Did the clerk try and persuade anybody to buy soda water?"

"No, sir."

"Did you attempt to buy a cigar?"

"No, sir; I wasn't even in the store."

"Are you employed by the Sabbath union?"

"I refuse to answer that question."

"Did you voluntarily offer to do the work for the union?"

"I won't answer that question."

"Well, you expected some compensation for your work, didn't you?"

"That I won't answer."

"You are a son of Rev. Richard Hiorns?"

"Yes, sir."

Mr. McGarrah said to the witness that he was very sorry to see him in the alderman's office as a witness, whereupon Hiorns replied with much vigor:

"I consider it no worse for me to go around and see these things sold than it is for your clerks to have to stand there in your stores and sell goods on Sunday, for fear of being discharged, if they refused to do so; and I know what I am talking about, for I was in the drug business for some years."

Mr. McGarrah offered no defense and admitted that he had sold soda on Sunday, but claimed that soda was a necessity, just as much as drugs. Upon this point Mr. Dony disagreed with him.

Alderman Post fined Mr. McGarrah $4 and costs, as provided for in the act of 1794.

Mr. McGarrah announced that he would appeal from the decision of the alderman.

Fully a dozen prominent druggists and cigar dealers will be brought before Alderman Post this afternoon, and the chances are that each will receive the usual fine of $4 and costs.

E. P. KINGSBURY INJURED.

Collar-Bone Broken by Being Hurled from His Carriage.

While being driven from his office to his home yesterday, the pole attached to a buggy containing E. P. Kingsbury and driver became disengaged and the vehicle was overturned. Mr. Kingsbury's collar-bone was broken by the fall and he was generally bruised; the driver escaped uninjured.

The runaway occurred on Madison avenue below Olive street, where the fastening which held the pole to the axle broke. The pole remained attached to the carriage by straps, but beat about the frightened animals' heels. They only ran a short distance before the carriage was overturned. The horses were caught near Pine street by a boy and were not badly hurt.

Noble Plan of Ladies Revealed at Last Night's Meeting.

AID THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

Colonel E. H. Ripple Will Preside at Meeting of Ladies Friday at Y. W. C. A. Rooms—Last Hundred Dollars in Associated Charities' Treasury Was Appropriated Last Night. Demands for Relief and Work.

The meeting of the board of associated charities held last night in the poor board rooms was an important one in that it revealed almost a complete deficit of funds. However, it came out at the meeting that the ladies of the city would come to the rescue and the plan for influxing the treasury is presented below.

In the absence of Colonel E. H. Ripple the chair was occupied by W. T. Smith. Other members present were Luther Keller, John Gibbons, W. J. Thomas, T. J. Kelly, T. J. Moore and Rev. Rogers Israel.

The relief committee report showed that the number of applications for work are many, and that thirty-one men have been given employment during the week.

SUPPORT THIS MOVEMENT.

The plan whereby the treasury is to be supplied with funds, much needed at present, was revealed by the visitation committee, which reported that a number of well known ladies had met Tuesday of last week and formulated a plan for raising funds.

They propose holding a general meeting, at which Colonel E. H. Ripple will preside, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association. It is proposed at this meeting to organize a general canvas of the city for the sale of tickets entitling the holder to membership in the associated charities. The fee of annual membership is $1, and for life membership $50. The board extends an urgent invitation to every lady who has the city's welfare at heart to give the movement encouragement by her attendance.

A list of life and annual members and donors was submitted and approved. The list appears below.

The report of the board's agent, Mrs. Duggan, shows the number of applications for relief and work to be as great as ever, and on motion $100, almost the entire balance in the treasury, was appropriated for giving work and pay to the deserving unemployed.

The demands of destitute men who are willing to work but cannot find employment make it a veritable necessity for all women to be present at the Friday meeting which is mentioned above.

The list of members and contributors is as follows:

LIFE MEMBERS.

John Jermyn, William F. Halstead, William H. Taylor, Cornelia W. Scranton, Mrs. Rosanna G. Tripp, Alfred Hand, J. Benjamin Dimmick, A. H. Vandling, Miss Robinson, William T. Smith, B. H. Throop, F. H. Watkins, E. B. Sturges, William Connell.

Others have contributed to the board's work but did not wish their names published. Several of the merchants have also contributed various articles of merchandise which have been used by Mrs. Duggan in her work.

BOY WITH NINE LIVES.

He Fell Between Two Moving Trains and Escaped Uninjured.

Richard Watson, a lad from the West Side, had a miraculous escape from death yesterday noon.

He jumped from a Bloomsburg coal train at the Scranton street crossing and was struck by a passenger train coming from the opposite direction. He was stunned and knocked between the two tracks.

After the passage of the two trains he was picked up and brought, seemingly half dead, to the Lackawanna avenue station, where he revived and said he was not much hurt.

DEATH OF M. C. DRINKER.

Died in New Mexico While in Search of Health.

A dispatch was received yesterday from New Mexico that M. C. Drinker, of this city, who went to San Juan county two months ago is dead.

Mr. Drinker, who had a large circle of friends here, was 26 years old and a member of Grace Reformed church. He was an employe of the Scranton Gas and Water company, and a member of Company D, Thirteenth regiment and the Elks.

The remains will be brought to this city.

ROMANCE IN LOW LIFE

Wilkes-Barre Husband Locates His Wife and Two Babies.

FOUND HIS CHILDREN AT LAST

Williams, the Third Party to the Story, Committed Crime in Carbondale and Is in the County Jail. Mrs. Steingler Imposed Upon the Associated Charities — Fruitless Search of the Distracted Father.

A romance in low life came to light yesterday in this city when James Steingler, of 33 Haskins street, Wilkes-Barre, found his two little children and the wife who had eloped from a comfortable home two months ago with David Williams, a disreputable character. Williams is in jail here awaiting trial for a heinous crime committed at Carbondale a few weeks ago; the children, two boys aged 2 and 4 years, are in the St. Joseph's Foundling home, and the erring wife has been thriving to a great extent upon the assistance extended her by Mrs. Duggan, agent of the associated charities.

Mr. and Mrs. Steingler were married six years ago by Rev. Father Nagle at Wilkes-Barre and lived happily until several months ago when Williams' admittance to the family circle caused suspicions to arise in the husband's mind. He returned home from work one evening and found neither wife nor children to greet him. Williams, too, was missing and the conclusion was that he had taken Mrs. Steingler away with him.

THE DISTRACTED HUSBAND.

Steingler, as weeks passed by without news of his children (he did not care to regain the wife) became almost distracted. Search for the couple proved fruitless until it was learned that Williams had been engaged in a disreputable piece of work at Carbondale. There it was found that he was in jail here awaiting trial, and Steingler came here yesterday.

Williams had been followed to this city by Mrs. Steingler, who made him frequent visits at the jail. The keepers supposed the couple to be wedded, as did Mrs. Duggan, the Charities agent, who extended every possible relief to the supposed true wife and unfortunate mother.

The children were secured admission to the foundling home and Mrs. Steingler was Saturday given a railroad ticket to Wilkes-Barre, where she said she had an aunt who would care for her. Instead of leaving the city she visited Williams at the jail.

FATHER AND CHILDREN.

Today when Steingler found his children safe and well at the foundling home he clasped them to him and wept bitterly. His home is shattered, so he made arrangements for the sheltering of the little ones at St. Joseph's.

Mrs. Steingler left during the day for Parsons.

ANOTHER NEW INDUSTRY.

Local Company for the Manufacture of Builders' Hardware to Locate a Plant at Priceburg.

Scranton capital, always seeking investment that is profitable to the holders and beneficial to the community, is about to establish an industry that will mean much to this city and more to the borough of Priceburg, where a new factory is about to be established.

A company has been formed in this city, and permanent organization will be effected this afternoon, for the purpose of manufacturing builders' hardware. The company has been capitalized at $100,000 and $33,000 will be devoted to the erection of the necessary buildings. Work on the same will begin at once.

The new plant will be erected in Priceburg and it will absorb the Throop foundry which does a general business. Locks, hinges, window and blind fasteners, keys, window weights, everything necessary in the construction of buildings will be turned out.

The factory will probably be in charge of D. H. Fitzgerald, of this city. Mr. Fitzgerald has been president of a similar plant, the Manhattan Hardware company, in Reading. It will employ about 200 men and boys and the firm will erect 100 houses to accomodate its help. The gentlemen who are interested are very reticent and they will say nothing for publication. It is known that Dr. B. H. Throop will be president of the new firm and Mr. Everhart, of the brass foundry, will be treasurer.

WILL LECTURE IN THIS SECTION.

Rev. Isaac Newton Earle, of Philadelphia, to Speak in This City.

Rev. Isaac Newton Earle, of Philadelphia, will spend the remainder of this month in this vicinity, and will deliver lectures in various churches and Sunday schools.

Mr. Earle will appear at the Green Ridge Presbyterian church this evening and at the Second Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. The titles are "A Bird's Eye View of the Bible" and "A Bird's Eye View of the Life of Christ."

IVORITES IN SESSION.

The Scranton Delegates Reach Fair Haven and Begin Business.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

FAIR HAVEN, Vt., May 8.—The Scranton delegates to the National Grand lodge of American True Ivorites arrived at Fair Haven at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The first session was called to order at 7.30 p. m. by Grand Master W. W. George, of Utica. Committees were appointed and considerable of the routine work was disposed of when the session was adjourned until 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photogravure views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES are DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

BIG DEAL IN REALTY

Fifty-acre Tract to Be Converted Into Building Lots.

$100,000 WAS PAID IN CASH

Lackawanna Iron and Coal Company Sells Its Tract Lying Between Meridian and Twelfth Streets to a Company of Well Known Scranton Business Men—Money for Purchase Was Raised in Five Hours.

That Scranton capital is neither chary nor unavailable is evidenced by the purchase yesterday for $100,000 cash the tract of land containing fifty acres situated between Meridian and Twelfth streets, one side facing Round Woods and the other facing Hyde Park.

The purchase was made from the Lackawanna Iron and Coal company by a number of men representing the progressive business element of the city.

An option for the plot was secured Monday by John T. Richards and John A. Mears. In five hours time during Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning Mr. Richards secured subscriptions to the project to the extent of the purchase price mentioned above.

Application was made yesterday for a charter of the Fairview Park Land company with the following officers: John A. Mears, president; Benjamin Hughes, vice president; John T. Richards, secretary and treasurer; John A. Mears, John T. Richards, Benjamin Hughes, H. A. Knapp, Garret Bogert and J. Alton Davis, board of directors.

WELL KNOWN MEN INTERESTED.

Among the other stockholders are Thomas D. Davis, Judge H. M. Edwards, County Treasurer D. W. Powell, John T. Williams, John H. Williams, John Hale, Conrad Schroeder, Franklin Howell, Sheriff Faber, C. G. Boland, James R. Mears, A. R. Rauh, H. L. Taylor, E. H. House, Thomas Carson, William Davis, Martin Maloney, Philadelphia.

The tract will be divided into 328 building lots. It is claimed that negotiations have been pending for several days with several parties for the locating of manufactories on the lower portion of the plot.

Before the deal was consummated the gentlemen who originated the enterprise investigated the possibility of converting Round Woods into a park. The result is that this piece of woodland will be created into an attractive breathing spot.

At present the land purchased is comparatively unimproved. Maps prepared by the company, however, show that Sixth and Ninth streets below Main avenue and other streets above the latter thoroughfare will be extended and the property generally improved.

The location of what will be named Fairview Park is sightly and healthful. Excellent facilities for drainage are offered, and it is proposed to make the location similar to that of the hill of the central city.

NEGOTIATIONS QUIETLY CONDUCTED.

For several years real estate operators have had the tract in view with a hope of securing it for speculative purposes. The progress of the operations which resulted in yesterday's purchase was known only to the parties interested. The culmination of the deal was a general topic of discussion among realty men late in the afternoon, and the consensus of opinion is that the project will be beneficial to to the city and a source of revenue to the land company.

FALSE REAL ESTATE RUMOR.

Washington Avenue First Presbyterian Church Property Not Sold.

For some time it had been reported that favorable negotiations were pending for the sale of the sight of the First Presbyterian church and the old parsonage lot on Washington avenue, and that the board of church trustees contemplated the purchase of the lot at the corner of Madison avenue and Olive street for $25,000 from the Scranton Gas and Water company. Neither of the reports are quite true.

A member of the board of trustees said yesterday that the old parsonage lot was for sale and that many persons had intimated a desire to purchase, but that no favorable offer had been made.

The board has considered many sites on which to erect a new church, but whether the present property would be used or not is a matter which has not been definitely settled.

The board was offered the Madison avenue corner lot mentioned above for $25,000, but the offer was rejected; whether because the price was fictitious or because the board wants a cheaper property, does not appear.
