

THE SECRET OF STRENGTH.

(IN 8 ACTS.)

7th ACT.

All the muscles come in play While in this position they Show no signs of pain or strain; How, this strength, did these men gain? By the use of the Genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract.

One dozen bottles have the same nutritive and tonic effect as a large cake of ale, without being intoxicating. Insist upon the GENUINE, which must have the signature of "Johann Hoff" on the neck label of every bottle. BISHOP & MENDLISON CO., Agents, 152 and 154 Franklin St., New York.

A LONG TIME COMING

But Scranton's First Victory Arrived, Being Several Days Overdue.

EASTON WAS OUR FIRST VICTIM

The Locals Make Up Their Minds That They Can Play Ball, and Put Up a Game That Was Astonishingly Good for Them—Hodson and Patchen So Pleased That They Return Thanks with Fervor.

About 600 persons who had confidence in the ability of the Scranton team to play winning ball witnessed the first victory for the locals yesterday afternoon. The victory was complete. There was no doubt of it from the start, although at the close of the Catcher Patchen and Pitcher Hodson kept, presumably to give thanks that the long and seemingly endless chain of defeats had been broken.

Every player on the team played vigorously and Easton was the sufferer, the score at the close of the game being 13 to 1. There is still room for more improvement. Good batting is necessary. The locals must become accustomed to the work. It helps entwine the players, rattles the opposition and pleases the audience. Wetzel should let himself out in throwing across the diamond and Higgins should be quicker in assisting in a double play. Higgins and Wetzel should give thanks to the long and seemingly endless chain of defeats had been broken.

Hogan opened the second inning by hitting safely and was advanced to third after Rogers and Patchen had been put out. He scored on Wetzel's error. Massey's hit Westlake was given a base on balls in the fifth inning and scored on Higgins' hit. In the sixth, Patchen and Rogers singled, both stole second and scored on Massey's triple. Stutz was given a base on balls, stole second and scored on Higgins' hot drive to short. In the ninth Wetzel was given a base on balls, Hogan made a two bagger and both scored on Dwyer's snuff at Patchen's fly.

Hodson pitched for the visitors till the seventh inning, being relieved by Holmes. His work in the first inning practically gave the game to Scranton. Wetzel hit safely and was advanced to base on Wilson's error in fielding Hogan's bunt. The latter was forced out at second, Patchen reaching first in safety, while Wetzel scored. Rogers and Massey were given bases on balls, Stutz singled and Westlake made a triple. The latter scored on Higgins' hit. This was a total of six runs.

interpret it correctly. Each and every one has his own original way of ruling on this point, as they have also of making a strike of an attempted bunt, and between both rules as to the umpire the spectator has a great time of it. And how can it be otherwise? If those who make the national game a business cannot understand the rules which govern it, how can those who follow it for pleasure be expected to do so?

Syracuse was the first and so far the only Eastern league club to play an errorless game this season. At this stage of the game Anson's proclamation of "first place or bust" looks weather beaten and much eaten.

When men like Clements and Thompson steal bases it may be taken for granted that a deal of such work is to be done this season. Of the captains in the league four are third basemen, three are first basemen, two are second basemen, one a shortstop, one a catcher and one a right fielder.

If Keenan holds out, it is the belief of the Wilkes-Barre Times that by the end of the season he will be pursued by some of the magnates of the National league. He is a better batter than any pitcher seen there this year.

THIRD AND TRUE is the verdict of people who take Hood's Sassafras. The good effects of each medicine are soon felt in nerve strength restored, appetite created and health given.

Hood's Pills do not weaken, but aid digestion and tone the stomach. Try them. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs and colics quicker than any other remedy, because it combines the lung-purifying quality of the pine tree with other valuable medicines.
