Dr. Davies, now filling Dr. Howard Crosby's old pulpit in New York city.
 Yesterday's Fire.
 Soon after 11 o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in the double dwelling occupied by L. M. Keene, proprietor of a jewelry shop on Jackson street. The Franklin Engine company extinguished the flames with the use of chemicals. The house is owned by D. M. Jones, of South Main avenue. The loss to the property will be about $100 fully covered by insurance. The damage to the furniture will reach $25. Mr. Keene had no insurance on his household effects.

 By order of
COLONEL E. H. RIPPLE,
 W. S. MILLER, Adjutant.
HEADQUARTERS 13TH REGIMENT.
THIRD BRIGADE, N. G. P.
 SCRANTON, Pa., May 7, 1894.
 Regimental Order No. 14.
 I. In honor of the occasion, the regiment will parade on May 9th, Memorial Day.
 II. Regimental and battalion, field and staff officers, mounted non-commissioned staff, drum corps and companies A, B, C, D, E and F will assemble at the Scranton City Guard armory at 1:15 p. m. in light marching order, great coats will be worn in case of stormy or foggy weather; otherwise they will be in dress uniform, and will be paraded at 1:30; adjutant's call at 1:45 p. m.
 III. Companies E and G are hereby given permission to parade at their respective drill locations.
 IV. The patriotism which inspires the men of this regiment to serve their state so loyally will also inspire them to show honor to the brave men whose devotion, service and sacrifices has preserved our nation, and give this one day of the year to the exercises incident to the memory of our illustrious dead.
 By order of
COLONEL E. H. RIPPLE,
 W. S. MILLER, Adjutant.

IT IS NOW ADMITTABLE.
 In the appointment of Claud C. Conkling to adjutant of the second battalion, Major Whitney has made a wise and excellent selection which has not only met the approval of Colonel Ripple but pleased the rank and file of the regiment as well. Adjutant Conkling, as sergeant major of the regiment, by his conscientious and untiring attention to duty, has always won the plaudit of his superiors. Adjutant Miller has not hesitated to say that Adjutant Conkling was the very best sergeant major the regiment ever boasted of, and it will be hard to fill his place. His strict adherence to discipline, as well as his earnest attention to duty, have earned him the distinction of a model soldier. In the promotion of Mr. Conkling the regiment loses a good sergeant major, yet gains a good officer. The second battalion is fortunate in securing so good an adjutant—one so well fitted for the position.
TO-MORROW AT HONESDALE.
 The regiment will take a day off tomorrow and will in all its martial bearing parade the streets of Honesdale for the admiration of the thousands of Honesdale's and out of town folk who will gather to see the famous regiment and do honor to the kirmess of Company E, which is a prominent part of the program of the evening parade of the regiment opposite the Wayne County hotel will be an unusual attraction, as very people of Honesdale outside of the members of Company E have ever seen a regimental parade under the new regulations. Colonel Ripple, the field and staff officers, and the non-commissioned staff, will be in dress uniform, and will be paraded at 1:30; adjutant's call at 1:45 p. m. in light marching order, great coats will be worn in case of stormy or foggy weather; otherwise they will be in dress uniform, and will be paraded at 1:30; adjutant's call at 1:45 p. m.
BAKER HENGLER GRANTED AN APPEAL.
 Case Will Be Heard at Next Argument Court.
 Henry Hengler, the Lackawanna avenue baker, who was arrested by Rev. Mr. Dony for selling soda water on the Sabbath, was yesterday granted an appeal by Judge Eivaris in chambers.
 Mr. Hengler was represented by A. D. Dean. His motion was not resisted by Mr. Dony and Judge Eivaris thereupon issued an order permitting the defendant to enter an appeal to the court of quarter sessions on payment of the legal costs accrued and in giving bail in the sum of $50 for all costs that may accrue on the appeal and that defendant will prosecute his appeal to effect.
 Jacob Schlager became Mr. Hengler's surety. The case will come up at the next session of argument court when it is probable the status of the Rev. Mr. Dony's plan of campaign will be determined.
TO BEGIN BUSINESS THEMSELVES.

 The union plasterers and bricklayers of this city, who are out on strike, contemplating forming a co-operative association for the purpose of executing contracts for brick laying, plastering, stone laying and other work independent of the contractors and builders who were until recently their employers.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE
 The Neptune Engine Company Will Soon Have a New Steamer.
HE DIDN'T THINK IT WAS LOADED
 But He Found Out the Difference Afterward—The Schools of Lackawanna Township Will Have Only a Nine Month Term and Will Close June 1—Funeral of Mrs. Margaret Feeney—Shorter Paragraphs.

The contract of building the new steamer for the Neptune Engine company was awarded to the American Fire Engine Manufacturing company of Seneca Falls, N. Y. It will be modeled after the latest patterns of the Clapp & Jones make and be similar to the best style of engines now in use by the fire-departments of New York and Chicago. The Neptune Engine company is the fifth oldest volunteer fire organization in the city and has a record of which it can well be proud. Lately the members celebrated the twentieth anniversary of the birth of their organization with a very elaborate banquet, which was also meant as a banquet for the new steamer. When it arrives, it will not last, probably, than six months, the Neptune will be as well equipped as any other organization in the city and the resolution formed is to strive and improve on its already honorable record.
 Lackawanna Township Schools to Close June 1.
 The school directors of Lackawanna township at the regular monthly meeting held last night concluded to close the schools on June 1, making the term but nine months. Lackawanna township is one of the wealthiest corporations in this state; but this year it appears that the school fund will not be ready to meet the needs of the children to be enrolled to fill out even the curtailed term. An account of the erection of the Taylor borough and the annexation of Bellevue to the city, these two valuable sections will not contribute any taxes for the coming term. The state appropriation will also be ready exhausted, and the directors agreed that the schools kept open for the full term would involve the township too deeply in debt.
HE FOUND THAT IT WAS LOADED
 Matthias Schradler, a young man living on the mountain above the Erie and Wyoming railroad tracks, was shot in the stomach yesterday afternoon by another young man named Fred Satterder. It was simply another "didn't-know-it-was-loaded" affair. Matthias had a revolver which he was willing to hypothesize into cash and Fred was willing to become the owner of the fire arm. Both journeyed to the back of the lot to test the program of the weapon. Neither of them thought the revolver was loaded, but it was, and Matthias was convinced of the fact when the bullet struck him. He was taken in a carriage to Dr. Kille's office, where the broken missile was probed for and removed.
 Sheriff Paragraphs.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reese, of Kayser valley, were visiting Foreman Thomas R. Lovering and family, of Greenwood, yesterday.
 The excursion and picnic of the Scranton Athletic club on June 19 to Fenwick will be very largely attended, judging from the number of tickets for the occasion which have been disposed of. The committee on games has made every effort to furnish first class events of healthy pastime and all who attend are guaranteed a day of rare pleasure.
 Miss Anna Lovering, of Greenwood, entertained very happily a number of her South Side friends at her home last night.
 Miss Ella Doherty, a teacher at St. Joseph school, is not able to attend her duties through illness.
 Agnes, the 5-months old daughter of John Kelley, of 789 River street, will be buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Holy Park cemetery.
 The best ball club of Columbus council, Young Men's Institute, challenges the club of O'Connell council, Minooka, to a game, time and place to be hereafter agreed upon.
 Mrs. Margaret Feeney, of 315 Irving avenue, died Sunday at the age of 44 years. She had labored all but a short time. Funeral will occur this morning at 9 o'clock with a mass of requiem at St. Peter's cathedral. Interment in Hyde Park cemetery.
 The members of Electric City council, Royal Arcanum, will not assemble at their rooms and form in line to parade to the water-torium at Germania hall. That plea has been abandoned. Members, therefore, will go from their homes to the hall at any time that suits their convenience.

MUCH INTEREST IN THE HANDICAP.
 Many Scrantonians Will Attend the Big Race at Gravesend.
 There is a good deal of local interest in the outcome of the Brooklyn handicap at Gravesend today. A number of Scrantonians left for New York yesterday for the purpose of attending the big race.
 At the Electric News Transfer company Major Jack Breen was busy all day recording quotations on the handicap. Major Breen gave as his opinion that if the day is fair, Bassiliaw or Henry of Navarro would be likely to finish at the front. With a muddy track the chances favor Elliott or Herald, either of whom is a probable winner.
