H. K. Vaughn, the Truth representative at Carbondale, passed the Sabbath at his home in this borough.

A few days ago Alfred Boyle, of Herrick, left his team standing in the road near Ararat with his little 4-year-old boy in the wagon. Suddenly the team started at 2:40 a. m. for Herrick, with the little boy as the driver. The team started down the steep hill by the Herrick Center House and were about half-way down the hill when they came in contact with the hind end of a wagon loaded with apples and belonging to a farmer by the name of Davis. In a moment the wagon and the occupants of the same with the apples were in an elevated position. The little boy jumped landed on the side of the road and after a little cry, went and gathered some of the bruised apples and began eating them with a relish. Mrs. Davis who was in her husband did not expect so luckily, receiving some severe cuts and injuries. Davis' team soon paraded company with their wagon and ran down the railroad track toward Uniondale, passing four trains coming north. They were caught near the nick station at Uniondale. This team escaped without any injuries while one of Boyle's horses was spoiled. Davis was also uninjured.

HEARD AT HONSDALE.

Notes Concerning the Kermess—Other Short Items.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

HONSDALE, May 14.—All day long carriages and wagons have been running to and from Company E's new armory, men and women have been laboring to complete the decorations and set the booths in readiness, and tonight the kermess is fairly on its way. The armory presents a beautiful appearance. The first thing that meets your gaze as you enter is the large stage made to hold its 200 dancers. It is a fine picture. Tonight the dancers make their first appearance before the public, but they can already feel highly complimented on the perfection to which they have attained in dancing. Of the various dances we shall say more later.

On the right of the eight of the entrance is the Spanish booth, where cigarettes, cigars, candy, etc., are sold. Next, in the corner, stands the German bakery, where the hungry can obtain their rye bread, etc. The French booth, presenting the appearance of a medieval castle, is next; here fancy articles will be sold. The Venetian booth, from which Venetian articles and ware will be sold, is at the right hand of the stage and the gypsy booth, with its queer fortune-telling people, at the left. The Japanese booth stands against the left wall. In the left hand corner you can buy fine potted and bedding plants. The flower booth, from which roses and carnations will be disposed of, is at the left of the entrance.

A great deal of confusion has arisen over the use of season tickets. These tickets, costing $3, are good for eleven performances. Each ticket has ten coupons attached, not over three of which can be used at any one evening. The children's dances, "The Little Japs and Flowers and Bees," will not be given in the evening except Saturday night. They dance at the matinee, 4 p. m. Diagram for reserved seats at O. T. Chambers.

Ray Greely, of Scranton, rode over to Honsdale this afternoon on his bicycle.

ARCHBOLD CLEARINGS.

Notes of the Upper Valley Penned by a Live Reporter.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

ARCHBOLD, May 14.—In this town of the Upper Valley, the health of the people is being preserved by the spread of communicable diseases. It was passed at a meeting of the borough council held last Tuesday evening. It is framed on the plan of a model ordinance designed by the State board of health with such changes as were deemed necessary by the board of the borough board. The ordinance should be read carefully and its provisions should be strictly complied with, for severe penalties are imposed for their violation. Arrangements have been made by which the ordinance will be circulated in all parts of the borough.

The forty hours devotion began in St. Thomas' church yesterday morning. At 10:30 o'clock a solemn high mass was sung. Rev. Dr. Lucey having been celebrant, Rev. J. M. Smuller, of Olyphant, deacon, and Rev. T. J. Gomerford, sub-deacon. In the evening Father Smuller preached a highly interesting and very impressive sermon, taking as his text, the cry of the blind man by the roadside: "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me." This service closed with benediction.

The "solitary reaper" has been steadily at work here within the past two days, unless than four having fallen before his fatal scythe. Two of these were old and respected residents of this borough, while the others were children of tender years. Yesterday morning Michael Mueley, of the East Side, passed away after a brief illness. He was known as a quiet and industrious gentleman, endowed with many virtues in life. He came to this borough about twenty-five years ago. He was the father of ex-Councilman E. P. Mueley, P. J. Mueley, M. H. Mueley, Thomas E. Mueley, Mrs. Michael Lane, Mrs. John O'Hara and Mrs. Thomas Farrell, all living in this place.

August Olindeck, of South Main street, also died yesterday morning. He had been sick only a short time. Mr. Olindeck was among the oldest of the German residents of this borough, having lived here since he came to America, forty years ago. He is survived by a large family, among whom are Mrs. Henry Beckman, Mrs. John Otto and Mrs. Anna Olindeck.

Richard, a bright six-year-old child of James Coniglia, of Railroad street, died on Saturday and was buried yesterday afternoon. An infant of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seifong, of Salem street, also died on Saturday. Both children were the joy of their parents, and they are deeply affected over their loss.

After Typhoid and Malaria

Hood's Sarsaparilla Purified and Built Up the System.

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

gentlemen—Two years ago I was taken with a very severe illness, beginning with erysipelas, and then had typhoid and malaria fever. After I got up and out of bed I thought I was cured, but was mistaken. In a short time a tumor broke out on my face, at first causing the skin to be rough and itchy and gradually developing into sores, which spread all over.

My Head Was Covered with them. No one can imagine how I suffered with the great itching and burning. Prescriptions had no effect. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, so I concluded to try a bottle, and I soon found a great change in my condition. The sores began to disappear and I was soon entirely cured. My general health has improved and I feel like a new man altogether. I sleep well at night and I have no trace of that itching and burning sensation." James J. Walsh, Creighton, Pennsylvania.

YES OR NO

A Well-Known Physician, Who, Among Other Things, Is Noted for His Frankness.

No one ever heard Dr. E. Grewer use the phrase "I think" in his practice. The doctor is one of those frank, fearless, honest, positive men who never hesitate to say "yes" or "no" as the case may require. "Can you cure me?" or "I cannot cure you," is his invariable decision after examination, and to this fact fact is attributable his remarkable record without failures. But it would be strange indeed if the doctor were not a most successful and successful practitioner. He has been surgeon-in-chief in more than one of the largest hospitals of this country, was lately Demonstrator of Pathology and Surgery at the Medical-Chirurgical College in Philadelphia, has been elected an honorary member of the Medical Association, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and he is well known as "the sure-you're-right-there-gone" system. It would be more than strange if failure overtook him.

You can consult Dr. Grewer any day at Rooms 3 and 6.
