CITY NOTES.

The Meadow Brook and National colonies of William Connell & Co. will be held next Saturday. The city companies of the Thirteenth regiment were in Honolale yesterday attending the exercises of Company E. The funeral of the late A. J. Mahon, of Bellevue, will be held at St. Peter's cathedral tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Two sets of harness stolen from the barn of the Stowers' Pecking company were found by the police yesterday on the river bank. The King's Daughters of Elm Park church will serve a supper this evening from 6 to 8 o'clock, which will be unusually elaborate. The Ladies' Aid society of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church will hold a supper on Thursday evening at the church parlors; price 25 cents. The North and South works of the Lackawanna Iron & Steel company will be paid this week. The former on Friday and the latter on Saturday. Tractor company officials have taken no action following Mayor Connell's announcement of the company's right to extend these on certain streets. The Ladies' Social union of the Penn Avenue Baptist church will serve supper this evening from 6 to 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all. The second of a series of games between Yule's college and High school, takes place at Scranton ball park today at 4 p. m. No admission will be charged. The Scranton Base Ball park is undergoing a good rolling down and will be in first class condition for next Saturday's game between Cornell and Lehigh. New Wonderland theatre can be routed by the night or week during the summer months for concerts, conventions, lectures, benefits, etc. Manager Davis resides on the premises. The funeral of the late Thomas Mullen was held yesterday from St. Peter's cathedral where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. J. A. McHugh, assisted by Rev. J. J. Mangano and Rev. M. J. Millan. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The ball bearings were: Thomas Cummings, Anthony Kelly, James Gavigan, Patrick Fleming, James Kelly and Thomas O'Malley.

Open All Night at Lohman's Spruce street.

JENNIE JONES WILL RECOVER. Her Life Spared That She May See the Error of Her Way.

Jennie Jones, the unfortunate woman who attempted her destruction by swallowing two ounces of laudanum Tuesday afternoon in a Center street room, is pronounced out of danger by the physicians at the Lackawanna hospital. The patient is very lame and sore as a result of the artificial respiration and the manipulations employed for seven hours to arouse her from stupor. Both Dr. McAndrews and Dr. Rudolph have been commended by their professional brethren for their treatment of the case by permanent of potassium, digitalis and strychnia. Treatment was not commenced until nearly an hour after the poison had been taken, and the success of the doctors was a prominent topic of discussion in medical circles yesterday. FIXING UP THE SLATE

Democratic Leaders Selecting Their Candidates For This Fall.

NAMES OF THE UNFORTUNATES

Several Persons Selected for Each Office So That when Declinations Begin to Come in There Will Be Some One Left to Uphold the Banner of the Party of Monumental Political Foolhardiness.

There has been considerable hobnobbing and whispering of late among the recognized Democratic county leaders relative to making up a slate to be railroaded through the coming nominating convention.

The slating has been attempted with effort to hold it as secret as possible until a short time before the convention. The leaders thus hope to guard against interference on the part of undesirable candidates who already show signs of a political bee buzzing about their ears.

Three so-called secret meetings have been held; two of the meetings were held at Ziegler's, and THE TRIBUNE is enabled to present for the benefit of all political credos the contemplated ticket.

Here it is, and where more than one name appears for an office the most likely candidate is presented first. Judge—P. P. Smith. Congress—Lemuel Amerman, ex-Sheriff Robinson, C. G. Boland, S. B. Price. Sheriff—James G. Bailey. Treasurer—Charles H. Schadt, John Gibbons. Clerk of the Courts—John J. Fahy, J. O'Boyle, John Durkin. Prothonotary—John J. Bailey, John J. Fahy, Frank O. Megargue. Recorder—James Healey, of Danmore. Registrar of Wills—Henry T. Koehler, Frank Decker. Senator—M. E. McDonald, M. T. Burke, J. P. Commissioner—M. J. Moran, Archibald. District Attorney—John P. Kelly. NOMINATION OWED TO SMITH.

While P. P. Smith was last fall defeated for the judiciary, it is thought that the voters have another try for the office; at least that is what the slatemakers would say, but the real reason is that he is the only available timber willing to be sacrificed.

The leaders claim that as Lemuel Amerman defeated Mr. Seranton in 1891 he stands as good a chance as ever for another election. Ex-Sheriff Robinson would have been willing to make the fight, but presents a prospect of business and a prospective trip as an excuse for declining. Those on the inside say that Mr. Robinson would have been the most likely candidate on the ticket. C. G. Boland and S. B. Price are reserve forces, and in the event of Mr. Amerman withdrawing for business reasons Mr. Boland will no doubt be the nominee, unless, indeed, it be the ultimate decision not to nominate a candidate at all, for fear his free trade proclivities might injure what little chance there is for the county seat. It is known that such an omission is seriously under consideration.

The slatemakers are really the bone of contention, or rather the contention, of the whole list of offices. The party is willing that Mr. Bailey should have it, but Mr. Bailey thinks the more elite office of prothonotary is nearer his height and breadth. He was defeated by only 13 votes by Mr. Pryor, the present incumbent, and will not have to be urged to take the responsibility again. Frank O. Megargue, the well known paper man, is unwillingly put forward by his friends for the prothonotaryship. The slaters feel that if this business representation is urged, Mr. Megargue will be the candidate and Mr. Bailey will have to be content with the arduous or quietly disappear.

SCHADT FOR TREASURER. Councilman Charles H. Schadt, who defeated Mr. Browning of poll tax fame, in the Sixteenth ward, is chosen as the treasury candidate and the German corner of the ticket. Present Sheriff Fahy has to be paid in some way for efforts in behalf of the party, and he was given the choice of the prothonotaryship or court clerkship. It is reported from the meetings that the clerkships more to his liking. John Durkin is also spoken of for the clerkship. The other offices slated, except the senatorial, appear ready to drop in the lap of the convention without any discussion, though if bickerings ensue among candidates slated for better paying offices, some of the smaller fry down the ticket may be thrown overboard to make room for the discontents. The slatemakers don't propose to have any looting by the shining lights. In making the ticket the leaders are reported to be highly pleased with the districts represented. The sections include the Scranton wards, besides Hyde Park, Waverly, Danmore, Carbondale and Archibald.

Many of the friends of M. T. Burke, the present Fourth district representative at the legislature, will be surprised at the announcement of Mr. Burke's candidacy for the senatorship; in fact it is understood at Carbondale that Mr. Burke will fight for a re-nomination against Miles J. McAndrew and James F. Hasley, of Archibald. The truth of the matter is however, that Mr. Burke wishes to climb up the political ladder, and may interfere with Senator McDonald's aspirations for a re-nomination.

BURKE IS IN EARNEST. It is understood that an emissary of Mr. Burke recently conferred with some of the leaders here and urged his patronage candidacy. The inside men are on the fence in the matter. There is a possibility that if Mr. Burke is turned down as a senatorial nominee he will cause the bosses much uneasiness.

CHASE WILL BE A CANDIDATE.

So Says Field; Marshal James Mahon Who Should Know. "I think it is safe to assert that Attorney A. A. Chase will again be a candidate for judge this fall," said Field Marshal James Mahon last evening as he graciously leaned on his cane at Wyoming avenue and Spruce street and thoughtfully rubbed the snow white stubble on his chin. "I have not heard Mr. Chase express any desire to run but from the way his affairs and sentiments throughout the county are shaping I do not see how he can refuse to become a candidate. These who advocated his candidacy before will do so again but with renewed vigor." As to whether or not Mr. Chase would accept a nomination from the People's party if served to him with appropriate trimmings Mr. Mahon refused to say. Pincapies for canning. Courson. INJUNCTION IS CONTINUED.

Judge Gunster Hands Down an Opinion in Davis-Jermyn Case.

Judge Gunster yesterday handed down an opinion in the injunction case of Lesh Jones-Davis against John Jermyn and Contractor Conrad Schroeder. A portion of it is as follows:

The evidence shows that the premises included are part of a double building and that the plaintiff has constructed and erected extensions and additions to it; and that since she went into possession, she had used an out-house, situated on the easterly half of the whole lot in connection therewith. Mr. Jermyn is engaged in the erection of a hotel building which is designed or planned eventually to cover the whole lot. At present his intention is to complete the structure to the inside line of the double building, of which the plaintiff occupies the westerly half. To do this it will be necessary for him to tear down the easterly half of the building. The evidence shows that this can be done without injuring or destroying the westerly half or the extensions or additions thereto. By excavating for the hotel building Mr. Jermyn encroached in the rear and it also became necessary for him to remove the out-house which the plaintiff had used and which she claims the right to use. This structure however was not on the premises described in the lease—that is was not on the westerly half of the lot, while the out-house must have been permitted to use it, or right to do so is not clear. As the present plans of Mr. Jermyn do not contemplate any encroachment upon or injury to the rights of the plaintiff, the injunction might be dissolved, but as it will work him no harm and will secure an observance of the terms of the lease, I think it best that it should be continued. The rule is made absolute and the injunction heretofore granted is continued until otherwise ordered.

A JAUNT TO THE MOUNTAINS.

Scranton Officials Examine the Mendler Quarry at Maxwell—Those Who Were in the Party.

Upon invitation of Joseph Hendler, of Wilkes-Barre, party of Scrantonians, including councilmen, school controllers, city officials and contractors, boarded the 9 o'clock train on the Delaware and Hudson yesterday morning for Maxwell, to inspect the extensive stone quarries owned by Mr. Hendler, on the line of the Lehigh Valley short branch railroad, between Glen Summit and Pictou.

The excursion party was in charge of City Engineer and Freight Agent D. T. Yost, of the Lehigh Valley road. At Avoca the Scranton people were joined by a number of prominent Wilkes-Barreans, among whom were Mr. Hendler, ex-Mayor Robert McKone, Peter Shepherd, William Neuber, Dave Gallen, J. P. Jost, Joswick, and City Passenger Agent S. S. Chan, of the Lehigh Valley railroad.

The stone quarries, which are about seven miles from Avoca, are near the locality made famous by the murder of McGire and Flanagan, by Red Nose Mike several years ago. The excursionists reached the quarry about 10:30 a. m. and spent an enjoyable season reviewing the workings and partaking of refreshments served by their host.

An excellent quality of genuine conglomerate rock is found there, which, according to Mayor McKone, contains 97 per cent. silica, capable of making the finest of glass for opticians. Fifty men are working at the main lease at present, but it is probable that the force will be increased in the near future.

The guests of Mr. Hendler were taken to Wilkes-Barre via Glen Summit, and after spending several hours in viewing the quaint sights of the city returned home delighted with their trip.

The council was represented in the party by Messrs. Regan, Williams, S. Thomas, Robathan, W. Thomas, Golden, Norton, Sweeney, Connell, Clark, Moon, Burns, Wenzel, Robinson, Roche, Hickey, Ross. The school controllers were Secretary Fellows, Messrs. Williams, Curt, Devanney, O'Boyle. Among the other excursionists were: Building Inspector Nelson, Street Commissioner Kirt, M. T. Lusk, city clerk, City Assessor Yood, Assistant City Engineer Sherwood, Assistant Clerk of the Council McLean and Contractors S. Green, Emil Schmidt, Max Phillips, D. J. Roche and W. E. Eritt.

OPENING OF LAUREL HILL PARK.

This Pleasing Resort, Recently Renovated, Will Open May 30. Laurel Hill park will be opened to the public on Decoration Day, May 30. The park having twice been visited by fire and the principal buildings having been destroyed, necessitated the building of a most complete manner. Thus it will open this season with much better accommodations and privileges than ever before.

The park will at all times be guarded by police officers and the strictest order will be observed. The car service from all parts of the city to the park will be better than last year, and persons visiting that place may rest assured that there will be no unnecessary crowding of cars.

The new dancing hall has a floor area of nearly 4,000 square feet, or about 1,000 more than the one of last year. Good music will be engaged for several nights each week, and those fond of this enjoyment will find no other place presenting as many advantages.

Every Wednesday afternoon from 1:30 until 3:30 the park will be devoted exclusively to ladies and children. Such as may wish to pass an enjoyable afternoon, where they may feel perfectly at home and free from petty annoyances, will find this place fully as enjoyable as a private park. A band will make the time pass pleasantly by rendering popular music during these hours.

The admission to the park will be free at all times excepting when rented by societies or organizations of a like nature. The park will be furnished with seats, and swings of all kinds. A soda fountain, ice cream stand, merry-go-round, jumbo roller, shaded pavilions, etc., etc., will be added to the comfort and pleasure of those making use of this beautiful resort.

JURY SAYS NOT GUILTY

C. M. DeLong Acquitted of Obtaining Illegal Fees.

CHARGED WITH BEING ROAD AGENTS

Daniel Mahon and William Reese, of the Ridge, on Trial for Robbing John Flock—A Half Dozen Young Men from Leggett's Creek Answering for Robbing John Early of a Jug of Mountain Dew.

The DeLong case was placed in the hands of the jury yesterday morning and before noon a verdict of not guilty and the costs of the court put upon the county was returned.

There are several other indictments pending against DeLong of substantially the same character, but the district attorney informed a Tribune reporter that none of them will be called up this term of quarter sessions' court. And it is possible that the result of yesterday's case may cause a nolle prosequi to be entered.

Daniel Mahon and William Reese, were arraigned before Judge Sitter yesterday afternoon, charged with having taken a sum of money from John Flock of Archibald on the evening of the 21st of last December. They were defended by Attorney John R. Jones, ex-Judge Stanton assisted District Attorney Kelly in the prosecution.

Flock alleges that the defendants as a party to a robbery, changed with him a sum of money from John Flock of Archibald on the evening of the 21st of last December. He showed several bills in paying for his treats and these, he says, the defendants took from him as he was going home.

DENY FLOCK'S CHARGES.

The accused deny all of Flock's charges and say they know nothing whatever about his money. Flock and a man named William Eldridge testified for the commonwealth. The defendants and William Duffy, who was with them on the night in question, gave evidence for the accused and there was no material difference in their statements. Squire Glidden, Warden Walsh, Tipald P. J. Walsh and Thomas Manly bore testimony to the good character of the accused. The evidence was all in when court adjourned, and will be finished tomorrow morning.

Stephen Seman was found guilty of cruelty to animals. He was immediately sentenced by Judge Sitter to a stay of $5 and costs of prosecution and will serve twenty days in the county jail.

Andrew Mehalik was found not guilty of discharging firearms and the county will pay the costs of the proceeding against him. Charles Wood was found not guilty of the first count in the indictment against him, seduction, but was declared guilty of the second charge, fornication.

In court room No. 2 the first case yesterday afternoon was that of John Early against Edward Padden, John Boylan, Patrick Walsh, Michael Walsh and Anthony Dancy. The charge was assault and battery. Chief of Police W. T. Simpson was prosecutor for Mr. Early.

EARLY'S CAUSE ON COMPLAINT.

The indictment against these young men arose from their motion toward Early on the morning of July 19, 1903. Between 2 and 3 o'clock they serenaded his residence with stones and to make camp, breaking the doors and windows. One of the stones hit Early on the arm and cut it severely.

Beside this, the marauders broke into the cabin, where Early kept a "drop of the crabs," and they carried away with them to a neighboring hedge a jug of "potatoes." Two other young men, Patrick Neary and William Gruer, are implicated on the charge of malicious mischief.

The evidence of the prosecutor was not finished when court adjourned.

CONCERT AT GREEN RIDGE.

It will be Given at the Asbury M. E. Church To-Night. The following program will be rendered at the concert given at the Asbury M. E. church, Green Ridge, to-night:

OF INTEREST TO DELEGATES.

They Can Secure Low Rates by Calling on D. W. Powell.

Delegates to the Republican state convention at Harrisburg on May 23, or others who may desire to attend the proceedings, can call on County Treasurer D. W. Powell, who, in the capacity of chairman of the Republican county committee, has received from the chairman of the state committee a package of orders.

These orders are issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, and by getting one from Treasurer Powell the holder is entitled to a half-fare ticket from Wilkes-Barre to Harrisburg and return.

The order must be presented to the company's ticket agent at Wilkes-Barre, and he will issue a special return ticket, the cost of which will be the regular fare one way.

Tickets are good on any train going from May 19 to 23, inclusive, and must be used in returning not later than May 26.

The order does not include passage between Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, unless future arrangements are made.

GOING TO STATE CONVENTION.

Arrangements Made for Those Who Will Attend from This Part of the State.

The delegates to the state Republican convention, which will be held in Harrisburg on Tuesday next, will leave this city on Monday afternoon. They take the Delaware and Hudson train at Bridge street at 2:35 and go to Wilkes-Barre and then proceed to Harrisburg over the Pennsylvania railroad, arriving there at 8 o'clock on Monday evening.

The delegates from the districts in the vicinity of this city who will compose the party are Alexander Akman, from the First district; Major Everett Warren, from the Second; F. M. Francis, from the Third; and W. J. Schumbehl, editor of the Olympian Gazette, from the Fourth district. Mr. Lancaster, a delegate from Wayne, and the entire delegation from Susquehanna county are expected to leave the city on the same train.

Besides the delegates a large number of well known Republicans of this city and vicinity will go to the convention. Among those already listed are Prothonotary Pryor, Attorneys F. W. Fleitz, John M. Harris, M. W. Lowry and R. H. Holgate; W. S. Miller and C. Mackey, of Waverly; Thomas P. Cosgrove, of Archibald; J. A. Northrup, of Dalton; Edward Harlanberg, of Honolale, and Representative W. K. Peck of Moscow. At Bellefonte they expect to meet the special car containing ex-Governor Beaver and party and they will therefore be present to participate in the oration which will undoubtedly be tendered to the veteran Republican.

At the convention on Tuesday a candidate for governor, lieutenant governor, auditor general and secretary of internal affairs and two congressmen at large will be nominated.

There will be no candidates from Lackawanna or Luzerne counties because the convention and no one from any quarter nearer than Mr. Grow, and there seems no doubt whatever but that he will be renominated without opposition.

There is a general feeling that General Hastings is the most available candidate for governor and it is predicted that he will be nominated on the first ballot.

CONSIGNED TO MOTHER EARTH.

Funeral of M. C. Drinker Held Yesterday Morning. The funeral of M. C. Drinker, of this city, who died in New Mexico, where he had gone for his health, occurred yesterday morning at the Grace Episcopal church. Rev. Alfred K. Bates and Rev. Richard Hiorus officiated. The arrangements were in charge of Arj Williams.

The pall bearers were John D. Ward, A. C. Renshaw, W. L. Pryor, H. D. Shank, Thomas Evans and George Most. The vocal music was rendered by a quartette composed by J. T. Watkins, G. M. DeWitt, L. J. Sisebecker, Louis Conrad and Thomas Byron. Many representatives of Company D and the Elks attended the services. Interment was made at Forest Hill cemetery.

SOME WONDERFUL HORSES.

They Will Be Seen with the Baroum & Bailey Show. The high-jumping horses in the Baroum & Bailey greatest show on earth this year are unsurpassable in style and merit. Some of them have won first prizes at the annual horse show in Madison Square garden, New York, and one, a notable beast, formerly the property of ex-Mayor Grant, of that city, has a record of jumping seven feet, two inches high with a rider weighing 170 pounds.

The long distance leaping, too, is something equally great and record breaking. These equestrian exhibitions will all be seen when the show comes here on Thursday, May 24.
