CITY NOTES.

'The Silver Ledge' will be the mainstay at the Academy of Music this afternoon. The High School Alumni association will hold their annual banquet June 20 in Excelsior hall. The grand jury will present its first report to court this morning. It expects to finish its work this week. Casper Abata yesterday began an action in trespass to recover damages from Fred Murch. He is represented by Attorneys Watson and Zimmerman. The new officers of the Epworth league of the Elm Park church will be installed tonight in the church parlors. A social will follow the installation. The construction gang of the Penn Bridge company, of Beaver Falls, arrived in the city yesterday and will immediately begin work on the Parker street bridge. Colonel Monies post, Grand Army of the Republic, will attend the Penn Avenue Baptist church in a body Sunday evening, to be addressed by Rev. Warren G. Partridge. The Violet club, an association of juveniles, will give an entertainment at the residence of F. W. Hazard, 523 Pine street, this evening for the benefit of the summer home at Dalton. An admission of 25 cents will be charged. Exceptions were yesterday filed to the opinion of the court in the case of Margaret Massey against the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company. That is a preliminary step in order that the case may be carried to the supreme court. Deane's band, of thirty pieces, will leave this morning on the 7:15 Delaware and Hudson train for Wilkes-Barre. The band will accompany the Jolly Ten club of that place to Lehighton, to participate in the women's parade there today. Minnie Lester and her company produced 'Annette, the Dancing Girl,' at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon, and the 'Rose of Killarney' last night. There will be another matinee this afternoon, and tonight 'Fauchon' will be given. Rev. John Cavanaugh, of Dover, N. J., assisted by Rev. John Winstock, of Waverly, is holding services every evening this week in Beer's hall, 801 North Main avenue. Mr. Cavanaugh is a traveling evangelist and holds open air meetings every evening at 7 o'clock. Marriage licenses were granted by the clerk of the courts yesterday to William R. Jones, of Scranton, and Maggie W. Reese, of Taylor; Milford Verney and Jennie Barnes, of Scranton; John Schindler and Catherine Olt, of Taylor; Vincent Mronczanski and Rosalia Figal, of Scranton. Open All Night at Lohman's Spruce street. Action Against the City. Mrs. Julia Walsh yesterday brought suit through Attorney I. H. Burns to recover $5,000 damages from the city of Scranton. Mrs. Walsh is the owner of a property at Phelps street and Washington avenue which she says has been damaged to the extent of $5,000 by the overflowing of the Fourth district main sewer on a number of occasions. The Advantage of Using Rimless Bifocal is very great, as it combines distant and near glasses in one pair and gives the greatest comfort to the wearer. Made only by Dr. Schaeffer, 305 Spruce street. Dr. A. E. Burns, having opened his offices in the Burr building, Washington avenue, will resume the practice of his profession, where he will be glad to serve his old patrons and public in general. MR. MARTIN ARRESTED

Ex-General Master Workman Powderly Prefers Charge of Libel

BAIL IS ENTERED BY ACCUSED

He Says He is Surprised at His Reception in This City—Another Conference Held with Local Knight of Labor Officers Last Night—Martin Will Tell His Story on the Witness Stand.

T. V. Powderly, ex-general master workman of the Knights of Labor, yesterday afternoon gave information before Alderman John Fitzsimmons against H. B. Martin, of Indianapolis, a member of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, charging him with criminal libel. The complaint is based on an interview with Mr. Martin, published in yesterday's Scranton Truth, in which it was alleged that Mr. Powderly had been suspended from membership in the Knights of Labor because he had refused to turn over to his successor in the office of general master certain books and papers belonging to the order. The information made by Mr. Powderly, is couched in the following language: On this twenty-third day of May, 1894, before me, an Alderman of the Eighth ward, of the city of Scranton, appeared T. V. Powderly, who being duly sworn, did depose and say: That he is a citizen of Scranton, Pennsylvania, and held the office of general master workman of the order of Knights of Labor for upwards of fourteen years until his resignation in November, 1893; that on or about Dec. 6, 1893, deponent forwarded to his successor in office, name J. K. Sorensen, all books, documents and property whatsoever in deponent's possession or control belonging to the order of Knights of Labor, and the said J. K. Sorensen acknowledged the receipt of same; that notwithstanding the premises one H. B. Martin, claiming to be a member of the executive board of said Knights of Labor, on the twenty-third day of May, 1894, in the city of Scranton, said, did unlawfully, wilfully and maliciously publish and cause to be published in certain cases in a daily newspaper of large circulation, to wit, the Scranton Truth, published at Scranton, Pennsylvania, a certain false, malicious and defamatory libel, to wit, to blacken the reputation of deponent and thereby expose him to public hatred, contempt and ridicule, which said false and malicious libel is in the following words: THE LIBELIOUS WORDS "Mr. Powderly has been suspended for refusal to turn over to his successor in office, the property of the order in his charge. This paraphernalia relates to the secret work of the organization, books, documents and other articles, all of which are specified in the correspondence which has passed, demanding that the property be handed over." And in answer to the question, "What answer was made to these demands," the said Martin replied: "I don't remember now," said Mr. Martin, "but they were not good reasons for every office of the organization the law explicitly says that a retiring officer shall turn over to his successor all the property of the order," meaning thereby this deponent, and that deponent was suspended from membership in the Knights of Labor because he unlawfully and wrongfully withheld and refused to surrender property in his possession belonging to said order. Deponent avers that he is not new, and to his knowledge has not since Dec. 6, 1893, had in his possession or control any property whatsoever, owned or belonging to said order of Knights of Labor which he wrongfully withheld or refused to surrender, or turn over, and that the said publication was maliciously made by the said H. B. Martin with intent to defame deponent in manner and form as aforesaid, and contrary to the act of general assembly of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania in that behalf made, and against the peace and dignity of the commonwealth.

The information was sworn to before Alderman John Fitzsimmons and bears Mr. Powderly's well-known and familiar signature. Mr. Martin was arrested at the St. Charles hotel, where another secret conference was held with several Knights of Labor in room 48. The conference was for the purpose of considering the arrest of Mr. Martin by ex-General Master Workman Powderly on the charge of libel. The deliberations were secret, but it was ferreted out by a Tribune reporter that there is an awakening in favor of Mr. Powderly, and that the action of the executive board has not met with endorsement. After the meeting broke up Mr. Martin, in an interview, stated that he came here with no intention of using any malicious language against Mr. Powderly. He was surprised when the warrant was read to him. He said that when Mr. Powderly went abroad a brass band was at the depot to meet him instead of an officer with summons. However, when the time comes he will tell his story on the witness stand.

MR. MARTIN ARRESTED

Touching Scene at the County Jail When Mrs. Scott Was Taken to Penitentiary.

A scene of unusual sadness was witnessed at the county jail yesterday morning prior to the removal of Mrs. Clematina Scott to the Eastern Penitentiary. Mrs. Scott is an Italian woman who resides at Old Forge where several months ago she stabbed and seriously wounded an Italian girl. She was convicted and sentenced to spend one year in the Eastern penitentiary. Mrs. Scott is the mother of a 1-year-old boy who has been with her during the time she has been in the county jail. She is now being taken to the penitentiary from her cell which would be separated from her child when she went to the penitentiary who made the corridors of the jail resound with her lamentations. She continued to hope, however, that she might be allowed to take her boy with her, and when they were separated yesterday morning the scene was most touching. She pressed her child passionately to her bosom and raised kisses on his face. When the keepers kindly led her to the door of the jail she twice broke away from them and rushed back to her cell for a final embrace of her child. It was necessary to forcibly take her from the jail to the van that was waiting to carry the prisoner to the depot. Her child went to St. Joseph's Foundling Home. Those who were taken to the penitentiary with Mrs. Scott were: Antonio Ferro, convicted of felonious wounding, five years; James Dickmore, burglar, two years; Joe Rap, three years; Joseph Judge, manslaughter, six years. Sheriff John J. Fahey was assisted by the following deputies in taking the prisoners to Philadelphia: Mr. Bannerman, South Side; J. P. Kelly, Sixth ward; Thomas Cosgrove and James McCormack, West side.

EISTEDFOOD AT PITTSBURGH

It Promises to Be a Most Successful Event.

Judging from the programme and preparations in progress, the coming Eistedfood of the Cambro-American society at Pittsboro on Memorial Day will be very successful. The attendance of singers will be larger than first expected. It is not unlikely that nearly all towns from Scranton to Wilkes-Barre will be represented by their own choirs and as many as twenty solo singers. Recent additions to the programme announced are as follows: Presidents for the day—Hon. Theo. Strong, of West Pittsboro; George S. Ferris, of West Pittsboro; Hon. M. B. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre. Conductors—George A. Edwards, of Wilkes-Barre, and H. M. Edwards, of Scranton. Adjudicators—music, Prof. Edward Brooks, of Brockville, Canada; recitations, Prof. Robert Shiel, of Pittsboro. Soloist—Miss Sadie Kaiser, of Wilkes-Barre. Accompanist—Miss Amelia Bechtold, of Pittsboro.

N. H. SHAFER'S DEPOSITION

He Denies that He Was Responsible for the Arrest of Jaunter Hiller. N. H. Shafer, formerly of this city and now at Montrose, has filed in the office of Prothonotary Pryor through Attorney L. B. Price deposition in the case of Jaunter Hiller against Chief of Police Simpson, W. H. Shafer and H. C. Shafer. The suit is to recover $10,000 for six days alleged false imprisonment on a charge of having caused several mysterious fires in the Old Fellows building several years ago of which Mr. Hiller was janitor. Mr. Shafer denies having caused Hiller's arrest and claims that his first intimation of the fact came to him through the Pinkerton Detective agency. He claims he did not even suggest the arrest and only gave testimony in the case because the Pinkerton detective requested him to do so.

PROCEEDINGS ALL VACATED.

Action of Court with Regard to Dunmore Sewer. Court made an order yesterday vacating the appointment of viewers for the proposed sewer in the Sixth ward of Dunmore, reverting the final confirmation of the report of said viewers and declaring the assessment made null and void.

This action was taken because the ordinance providing for the construction of the sewer was not properly transcribed or signed by the burgess after being transcribed, and for the further reason that the official publication of the ordinance was made in a Sunday paper.

LECTURE BY SAMUEL DICKIE.

Tomorrow evening Scrantonians will have a chance to hear what the leading prohibitionist of America has to say about "Obstacles to Reform." Professor Samuel Dickie, chairman of the Prohibition National committee, will preside at the Frothingham theater. Mr. Dickie is said to be a splendid orator and an able man generally. He is undoubtedly one of the few who honestly and properly transcribe ordinances, and will undoubtedly be greeted by a large audience tomorrow evening.

TWO BONDS APPROVED.

The bond of Horton Gardner, tax collector of Beer township, was approved by the court yesterday. It is in the sum of $10,000 and has the following sureties: George O. Vail, Eugene Vail, G. P. Vail and N. E. Stone. The bond of L. D. Hopkins, tax collector of Newton township, in the sum of $5,000, was also approved. His bondsmen are: Peter Hopkins, Charles H. Bioecker and Joseph Kitcher.

ARE PUSHING THE WORK

Sheridan Monument Association Is Meeting with Success.

THE PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

Sub-Committees Are to Be Appointed in Districts Throughout the County. Public Meetings Will Be Held at Which Popular Subscriptions Will Be Asked For—Special Committee to Take Charge in This City.

That the Sheridan monument movement is to be a success has already been evidenced by the personnel of the ways and means committee of twenty-five members, but the positive success of the project is assured by the business-like report of the plan-of-campaign committee presented at last night's meeting in the board of trade rooms. Captain P. DeLoay, chairman of the ways and means committee, presided at the meeting. The report of the plan of campaign committee, which is composed of John E. Roche, Samuel Samter, John Gibbons, Captain P. DeLoay, J. Kelly, outlines the way the project will be carried out, which is as follows: Various sub-committees are to be appointed in districts throughout the county. Each will hold a public meeting at as early a date as possible at which subscriptions will be invited. Every person paying $1 or more will be entitled to membership in the organization. At these meetings the sub-committees are to be organized to serve permanently.

POWERS OF THE COMMITTEES.

They are to have charge of their own affairs in conducting a money raising campaign and are not to be restricted except in reporting once a month to the secretary of the association at Scranton and at the same time remit any amount over $10. Whenever any assistance or encouragement is necessary, it is to be given by the ways and means committee of twenty-five members. It will be almost especially to secure the assistance of the press. The resolutions of the plan of campaign committee for the chair to appoint the county sub-committee and a special committee for Scranton were adopted. A sub-committee for press work will be appointed. The various committees will be announced by the chairman at the next meeting, which will be held in the board of trade rooms Wednesday evening, June 6.

HOW MCCARTHY WAS SHOT.

He Was Suddenly Attacked Without Warning by an Unknown Italian. William C. McCarthy, living in the rear of 139 River street, who was shot in the head by an unknown Italian on the Bartow road Sunday evening, and who is now at the Lackawanna hospital, is not seriously injured. A Tribune reporter visited the man's home yesterday and learned the particulars of the shooting. Last Sunday McCarthy and his sister-in-law, Miss Rebecca Vanduyke, went to Bartowtown to attend a birthday party at the home of a relative. At 8 o'clock they started for home, and when they arrived at a secluded part of the road, between Sibley and Mudtown, a man whom they believe to be an Italian walked out before them from the hedge and inquired where they were bound. They replied that they were going home, whereupon he brandished a revolver, firing three shots in the air and two at McCarthy and Miss Vanduyke. One of the charges took effect in McCarthy's head, inflicting only a scalp wound, which, however, stunned him. The other bullet went through the rim of Miss Vanduyke's hat. The assailant then ran away and has not since been captured. Officers are after him.

CIRCUS GOODS REPLEVINED.

Almora J. Webb Says the Caroy Paraphernalia Belong to Her. Almora J. Webb yesterday obtained a writ of replevin, through Attorney George W. Deale, to recover possession of canvass and circus paraphernalia which is alleged to be unlawfully held by O. S. Caroy, who is now exhibiting his circus in this city. On May 11, 1893, Alton J. Webb, of Glendon, N. Y., at that time proprietor of a circus, gave a chattel mortgage for $1,000 to Almora J. Webb on the property. Subsequently it was sold for $900 to satisfy claims against Mr. Webb and Caroy became the purchaser. It is contended that with the property covered by a chattel mortgage the sale was illegal. Preparations were being made to have the goods replevined at Albany on Monday, but Mr. Caroy moved his circus out of the state to prevent a prosecution by the Gerritts. Mr. Webb at once followed the circus to this city. It is contended that the difficulty will be amicably arranged between the parties.

ACTION ON DEATH OF D. P. THOMAS.

Members of Press Club Will Attend Funeral This Afternoon. At a meeting of the Scranton Press club held yesterday afternoon a committee consisting of E. J. Lynett and James O'Connor was appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of D. P. Thomas. It was also decided that the club should attend the funeral in a body, and all active and honorary members are requested to meet at the club rooms on Spruce street this afternoon at 1:30 for that purpose. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock, and at 2:30 services will be conducted in Providence Presbyterian church.

THE FIRST OF THE SEASON.

A day at Farview and the delightful ride on the "Gravity Road," with a free entertainment in the pavilion at 4 p. m., will render the excursion on May 31 a pleasant one for all; and indeed the fact that the ladies of the Young Women's Christian association are planning it, assures a successful affair. Lunch will be served for 25 cents, and fruits, ices and home made confectionery will be for sale. Morning train will stop at Green Ridge and Providence. Tickets 75 cents, adults; 40 cents, children under 14 years, can be obtained at Sanderson's, Sreile & Seely's and Young Women's Christian association rooms.

COOL PLACES FOR A NAP.

Harry Jones, a tenant, living at 202 North Ninth street, called at E. Robinson's brewery yesterday while intoxicated and asked for beer. He was refused but went into the ice house for a nap. Jones abused the employees when ejected was arrested and paid a fine of $4 imposed by Alderman Fuller in yesterday's police court.

NEW YORK COAL DEALERS.

They Will Do in the City Sight Seeing This Evening.

One hundred and fifty New Yorkers, members of the New York Retail Coal Dealer's association, will reach this city tonight at 7 o'clock via the Delaware and Hudson from Wilkes-Barre, where they visited numerous collieries yesterday. While in Scranton they will be quartered at the Wyoming, and will be piloted about the city by J. D. Swisher, division passenger agent of the Jersey Central railroad. At Wilkes-Barre the party were in charge of Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company officials, and visited South Wilkes-Barre, No. 5; Nottingham, No. 13; Wawanele, No. 18, and Empire, No. 4, collieries. Various collieries in and about Scranton will be inspected, but particular attention will be bestowed upon the Steel works.

ONE FARE WITHIN THE CITY.

Mr. Beestem Says Wishes of Council Will Be Respected. Acting General Manager Beestem, of the Scranton Traction company, was asked by a Tribune reporter last night what action the company proposed to take following the resolution of council directing the company to charge but one fare on its lines within the city limits. "Our intention," said Mr. Beestem, "is to abide by the provisions of the ordinance. We are now at work preparing a new schedule and arranging our registry system, but the change to a 5-cent fare can be made without confusion."

DEATH DUE TO AN ACCIDENT.

That Was the Finding of the Coroner's Jury in the Case of Henry Peel, of Providence.

An inquest on the death of Henry Peel, a mine laborer killed in the Coney mine Friday morning last, was conducted in the arbitration room at the court house last night by Coroner Kelley and the following jury: James Gilbride, John Farrell, John Brown, Michael Fork, Steven Gallagher and William Kelly. A verdict was rendered to the effect that Peel came to his death by being struck on the head with a mine prop, the fall of which was caused by a blast. Considerable interest was attached to the case by reason of rumored trouble between the deceased and his miner, William Early, owing to the fact of another laborer being employed by the latter in Peel's stead for several days preceding the accident. Early was present at last night's inquest and made a voluntary statement to the jury, though Coroner Kelley told him he was not obliged to testify. Early stated that his relations with the deceased had been friendly and on the morning of the accident he told Peel he was willing for him to return to work, although the new laborer had already commenced work in Early's chamber. This statement was substantiated by Patrick Bennett, a miner. The further testimony of Louis Jones, fire boss, and a score of witnesses showed that Early and Peel had been at work in the chamber preparing a blast. When ready to fire, Early told Peel to remove the tools and seek a place of safety. Peel left the chamber and Early applied the match. After the explosion Peel was found by Early lying near a prop with his skull fractured. He lived but a few moments.

McElroy Is in a Bad State.

Joseph McElroy, the Green Ridge glass blower who was arrested Tuesday while kneeling on Lackawanna avenue and violently beating his head against a stone, performed the same act in Green Ridge yesterday afternoon and was again locked in a police cell. Police Surgeon Fulton prescribed for McElroy, who is evidently a habitué with mania tremens. He imagines nails are being driven into every portion of his body. His case will be heard in today's police court.

Third Legislative District.

In accordance with a resolution of the Republican standing committee of the Third legislative district of Lackawanna county, notice is hereby given of a convention to be held on Tuesday, June 5, 1894, in the arbitration room of the court house, Scranton, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating one candidate for legislative distinction and for the performance of such other business as may properly and legally come before the convention. The basis of representation . . . shall be for every fifty votes cast . . . for the highest office at the last preceding general election." Extract from rule V of Code of Rules. The primaries for the election of delegates will be held at the several polling places on Saturday, June 2, between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m. The respective election districts are entitled to representation in the convention as follows, to wit:

Table listing election districts and their representatives for the Third Legislative District. Includes names like Benton, Clifton, Covington, etc.
