TRI-COUNTY CONVENTION

Four rows of seats extending across the hall had been reserved for occupancy by the juniors during their rally. But when they filed into the edifice at 4.30 o'clock 400 strong, the space reserved for them was found to be far from adequate. At the suggestion of President Chandler, that probably many of the older members were tired from sitting, a couple of hundred delegates and others arose and ranged themselves along the walls and aisles to make room for the younger ones. The circumstance was one highly gratifying to the convention; it showed the force the union had to draw upon. The junior societies represented were: Washburn Street Presbyterian, Second Presbyterian, Green Ridge Presbyterian, Providence Christian, Grace Reformed Episcopal, Plymouth Congregational and First Welsh Congregational church.

The young people were under the general charge of Mrs. D. W. Skellenger and Miss M. E. Dunbar. The former announced that the exercises would be conducted by Master Arthur Phillips, of South Hyde Park avenue. The meeting opened by the singing of two Endeavor selections, after which Master Phillips announced a 5-minute period of spontaneous prayer. It was a remarkable exhibition of ready thoughtfulness and fervent invocations, which even startled some of the older people who had not followed the work of the year before.

A responsive reading of John 14, 1-19, followed the prayers. Master Phillips, in discussing the lesson, said it was one of the most beautiful and encouraging thoughts mentioned in the Bible. The promise and the assurance of the Lord's abiding arm of Jesus is a lesson for the sinner and a guide for the Christian. In the midst of a testimonial period when scores of misses and boys were bobbing up all over the church eager to speak for the Maker, a flood of sunshine broke through the misty atmosphere and shed its bright gleams on the scene.

PRAYING IN CONCERT. A few moments of sentence prayer was concluded by the repeating of the Lord's prayer in concert. Master Ray Sanderson read a paper on "Why should we have a junior league?" When he finished he was greeted by a volume of applause. Master Sanderson contended that the younger organization is essentially an educator for the proper carrying on of the work when the members become older. Then they will not have trouble in getting committees to meet, will not forget to carry their Bibles to meetings, will not have back-seat gigglers and the meetings will be full of interest.

A vocal solo was rendered very acceptably by Master Ralph Allen, of the Second Presbyterian church. Miss Ollie Williams read a paper entitled "The Pledge." Mabel Boldy, Lois Becker, Rhoda Elias, Nettie Davis and Maud Chalmers comprised a quintette of Misses who sang "Our Christian Band." Master Arthur Hull delivered a concise and helpful talk on how to improve committee work.

The exercises of the Juniors were shortened owing to the lateness of the hour, and after saying the Mizpah benediction they filed from the church while singing, "O'ward Christian Soldier." REMAINDER OF PROGRAMME. After the departure of the Juniors the schedule programme of the convention was resumed in the re-organizing of reports and an election of officers. The convention committee reported recommendations that conventions be held twice a year during May and November and that 5 cents be an annual fee from each member to support the expenses.

Secretary Manning, Rev. C. W. Harvey, Rev. D. W. Skellenger and others opposed the semi-annual recommendation. After debate the report was voted to be received and the committee was discharged. The motion was offered to adopt the recommendation of the committee to hold the tri-county convention semi-annually, and upon a rising vote President Chandler announced that he was unable to count the voters. He decided to let the matter pass, consequently conventions will be held semi-annually as in the past and according to the recommendation of the committee.

The officers presented by the nominating committee were unanimously elected as follows: Thomas F. Wells, Scranton, president; George Beale, Scranton, vice president; J. C. Manning, Pittston, secretary; J. J. Parkhurst, Wilkes-Barre, treasurer.

Many of the members after adjournment remained in the church to enjoy a social and supper provided by Plymouth society.

THE EVENING EXERCISES. Address by E. W. Bliss, of Chicago. Resolutions Adopted.

The Jackson Street Baptist church was taxed to its utmost seating capacity when the evening session began at 8 o'clock. The meeting was preceded by devotional exercises and a song praise service. An ovation was rendered by the orchestra of the Sunday school of the Second Presbyterian church. Rev. R. G. Jones, of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church, read a selection from the Scripture. Prayer was offered by Rev. D. C. Hughes, D. D., pastor of the church.

The report of the resolutions committee was read by Secretary Manning and adopted as follows: RESOLUTIONS APPROVED. The union desires first of all to express its very sincere appreciation of the delightful hospitality so freely extended to the delegates by the good people of the city of Scranton and the Plymouth Congregational and other West Side churches; the ushers and the executive committee for their faithful and efficient service. They would make special mention of the courtesy of the Jackson Street Baptist church exhibited in their extending the use of their church building for an evening service.

Secondly, we rejoice in the continued friendship of the daily press to the Endeavor movement, and express our good will to the papers which have helped us, and we trust ourselves and the public by reporting the proceedings. Thirdly, with regard to the future work of the Tri-County union, we desire to lay special stress upon one certain line of work, one of the three suggested by Dr. Clark in Montreal in July last, viz: the movement toward Christian citizenship. We would suggest to our societies that in these three counties there is special and pressing need for the application of Christ's teaching to political matters. We need better laws, and the good laws now on our statute books should be enforced. Hence we need good men and true Christian men in all public offices. Let the societies consider the matter and by fervent prayer and earnest action see what they can do toward the good work.

CHARLES L. JENKINS, Chairman.

A. C. SMITH, SOCIETIES ADMITTED.

St. John's Reformed church, of Free-land, Pa., and the Jenkins Memorial Congregational church, of Jersey, Pa., Christian Endeavor societies, having furnished satisfactory credentials were admitted to the Union.

Ex-President Chandler announced President Wells and introduced him to the audience. Mr. Wells said facetiously that the union must be in bad stress when it had to select an old stage horse like himself to be its presiding officer. After briefly speaking of the purposes and growth of the organization he asked what meant all the commotion caused thereby. It is "Jeans of Nazareth passing by."

Mr. Beale, the newly elected vice-president, was not present to address the meeting. Secretary J. C. Manning said he thanked the union for the honor again conferred; he accepted the office for a fourth time because he would be associated with Mr. Wells. He also said the responsibility of each and every member was increased on account of the great feast of good things they had heard that day. He urged that the individual members stand by the officers and render them the service that will strengthen the movement.

Treasurer Parkhurst spoke briefly. The enthusiasm of the union, he said, is an incentive sufficient to guide him in his work. The anthem "Praise ye the Lord," was sung by the Plymouth church choir. ADDRESS OF MR. BLISS. Mr. Chandler announced that Major White, who was to have addressed the convention, was called away by the death of his son. His place would be acceptably filled by E. W. Bliss, of Chicago, one of the best of workers selected by Mr. Moody to carry on the coming Lackawanna valley campaign. Mr. Bliss' remarks were from the verse, "Forgetting the things which are behind." People are much disposed to live in the past. They make a mistake in an effort to get the best future profit by the errors of the past. Formerly, that is thirty or thirty-five years ago, people came to church without much urging. It was a duty then; now it is a custom. However, the last year of evangelistic work shows the greatest results of a like period for several years. In your valley there is promise of a very successful season for Mr. Moody.

The present is the accepted time to reach forth and grasp in the Master's name a great victory. Let every year be the best year. You show me a man who does not get the best out of his life, show you that nothing but God's power can stand up before him. After reaching forth, push, push you're way forward. Harness the spirit of the world's fair crowd, or like the Chicago business man, you must keep up with the crowd or jump into the lake.

THE DIFFERENCE IN OUR DAY. This rush is the difference between our and our fathers' day; everything now is get, get, get along. We have to press our way right up the throat and there plead our cause. To win, in the battle must be pushed to the very gates. Let patience be a handmaiden in the sense of running a race with patience; never give up and don't swerve from the direct path. Like Bismarck, Christian Endeavor has no second line of defense; the enemy may turn your left or your right, but press on.

A consecration service was conducted by Mr. Bliss after his address. The pledges came rapidly and many persons were upon their feet simultaneously. It was soon found that the throng was almost unanimous in the desire to "push forward," so Mr. Bliss expedited the service by asking all to stand who would pledge themselves not to falter. The response was a general rising. Prayer was offered by Rev. N. F. Stahl, of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church.

The convention adjourned after reciting the Mizpah benediction.

WEST SIDE. Mrs. Kate Dumbrosky, a woman well known in police circles, and Mrs. Annie Gibson, both residents of Robinson street, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Lieutenant Davis and Officers Jones and Lowry for fighting. The woman got into an angry dispute, which soon led to blows. They will have a hearing this morning.

Interested Yesterday Afternoon. The funeral of Annie, the daughter of George Schmiedel, of Avenue B, who died on Wednesday last, occurred yesterday afternoon from the parental home. Services of an impressive nature were held. Interment was made in St. John's Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were Misses Bridget Harrison, Kate Sweeney, Katie Beck and Barbara Kotz.

Left the Rails. Car No. 48 of the Hyde Park line left the rails while making a trip toward the central city last evening. The car got off on Robinson street and ran a short distance obliquely into the mud. The train was delayed for such a length of time that the passengers for the next trips had to change cars.

Nobs of News. The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society will close for the summer on Monday evening. All members are particularly requested to be present at the close of the exercises. Cake and ice cream will be served. The society will resume in September, having last Monday evening elected officers who will take charge in the fall.

The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Jones, of Washington street, who died on Tuesday morning, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family home. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Company F will participate in the Grand Army of the Republic parade on Memorial day. They will meet at noon.

Henry E. Rees, a survivor of the Johnstown flood, will give a stereoscopic entertainment in the Jackson street Baptist church on Monday evening.

The pupils of the Plymouth Congregational church Sunday school, will give a cantata in the church on next Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Mrs. Levi Thomas, of Jackson street, is ill.

The closing meeting of the Welsh Philosophical society will be held this evening in its rooms on South Main avenue.

A report of the tri-county Christian Endeavor societies' convention in the Plymouth Congregational and Jackson Street Baptist churches yesterday, will be found in another column of this paper.

The funeral of Willie Coleman, the son of Mrs. M. H. Coleman, will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the family home on North Pittston avenue.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

John Looney, of Orchard Street, injured in Pine Brook Shift.

MAKES USE OF THE SIDEWALK. Constable Woelker's Bicycle May Get Him Into Trouble-Coming Services at Young Men's Christian Association Rooms-Another Candidate for Jury Commissioner-Exercises at No. 3 School on Decoration Day. Other Notes.

John Looney, a married man living at 514 Orchard street, and employed as a miner in the Pine Brook shaft of the Lackawanna Iron and Coal company, was severely injured while at work yesterday afternoon. He was preparing to go home and had a blast lamp ready to set off. The lamp sputtered and flickered out and he went toward the face of the chamber to relight it. When about 20 feet away from the charge, it exploded and buried him beneath a heap of coal. Assistance soon reached him and he was brought to his home, where Dr. Ives who was called in found him bruised internally and suffering from painful injuries on both legs. Looney will recover.

Tomorrow's Services at Y. W. C. A. The exercises at the South Side Young Woman's Christian association rooms will be held at 8.15 tomorrow afternoon as usual. A song service lasting fifteen minutes will form a prelude to the sermon of Rev. Richard Hiron, who has consented to address the young ladies of the organization. It is an unusual occurrence for a male preacher to assume the leading part in Young Women's Christian association services. Rev. Mr. Hiron's has prepared an interesting sermon for tomorrow, and all who can should hear him.

On Monday evening the educational and Bible classes will have class day exercises, to which all of the current year's students are invited. On Tuesday afternoon a May party will be tendered the junior department, beginning at 4 o'clock, after school hours. The class exercises on Monday night will terminate Bible studies for the season, and they will not be resumed until September.

Constable Woelker and His Bicycle. Guardian of the peace of the Eleventh ward, Joseph F. Woelker owns a bicycle and uses it daily. Nobody objects to that. But he occupies the sidewalk more than one-half of the time, and there are a great many who do object to that. It does not take much argument to convince the people of the South Side that Constable Woelker was some months ago one of the first to complain if he saw a bicyclist riding on the sidewalk. It is a violation of a city ordinance to occupy the sidewalk, and Woelker was the cause of arresting a local barber about a year ago for such violation. A prominent citizen of Cedar avenue was heard to remark in the presence of a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday that the next time Joseph commits himself in this respect, a warrant will be read to him and a dose of his own medicine administered.

Memorial Exercises at No. 3 School. Next Tuesday afternoon commencing at 1.30 the pupils of No. 3 preparatory school on River street will present an appropriate and well varied programme in honor of Memorial Day. Vocal and instrumental music and selected recitations of patriotic impulse will be rendered. The exercises will be held in Mrs. D. L. Benniman's room, and under her instruction the pupils have prepared themselves very becomingly to celebrate the patriotic occasion. The school will be closed on Memorial Day.

Shorter Paragraphs. The funeral of Genevieve, the 2-year-old daughter of John Murray, of 926 South Wyoming avenue, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Hyde Park cemetery.

The new drug store and residence of F. L. Terpe, at the corner of Cedar avenue and Birch street, will be 35x50 and 2 stories high. It will be built of brick and when finished will be one of the finest buildings on the South Side.

A young mail carrier arrived at the home of Joseph Shiel, of Willow street, yesterday. The cigars were generously passed around in honor of it.

The South works will be idle today; but will resume operations Monday. Certain repairs will be made.

The cellar of the house of John Toole, of Prospect avenue, was soaked with water yesterday and much damage done to the walls. Twelve chickens were drowned.

Mother's Mothers! Mothers!!! Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children. Nothing will soothe and cure a child so quickly as this.
