How Games of the Week Affected Standing

NOT

We Are in Seventh Place, Where We Were One Week Ago, but Our Percentage Is Higher-Scranton Took Two Games from Reading Saturday-Result of Other Games Played. Ball Notes.

HE State league race during the past week was chiefly notable for the defeats administered to the Harrisburg whose percentage fell off .124. Allentown still holds second pince and by a better margin than a week age. Hazleton lost ground, but is still in third place. Altoona was pushing it hard for place until the club met King Kelly's men at Allentown on Saturday and lost two games. Hazleton at the same time defeated Potisville, which materially widened the gap which now separates the clubs. Easton climbed up from eighth to sixth place during the week and Pottsville dropped from sixth to tail end. Scranton is again in seventh position, where it was a week ago, but the percentage is .064 better than it was then. Only three points now than it was then. Only three points now separate us from Easton, and if "our pets" play as they are capable of doing we should be in fourth place by the end of this week, as the club plays on the home grounds every afternoon. Wednesday morning it will play at

TOOK TWO GAMES FROM READING.

Scranton Outplayed Torreyson's Men on Saturday. Manager Swift called his men to gether before Saturday's games and in language that at times bordered on the picturesque told them that they had to lay bell if they had any desire to continue to fill Scranton uniforms. His experience at the directors' meet ing Friday night was still fresh in his mind, and he warned his men that the first indication of tired feeling he observed would be his one to give the possessor thereof ample opportunity to Jack Doran, who was slated to pitch the first game, was told to use the choicest curves in his repertoire and that if his work showed any earmarks "Old Pepper" there would be trouble in store for him. Then the game began.

"Our Pets" evidently profited by the ndvice they received for there was a suap and vigor about their work that was edifying.

WON AT THE START.

In the first inning they touched up Pitcher Rhodes for two runs and in the second they did that gentleman's carves the honor of pounding them for five more runs. After that the game was never for a moment in doubt. Like the election of the Republican state ticket next fall it was simply a question of how much.

After the second inning Mr. Rhodes pulled his attenuated form together, thought of his brief career with Louis. ville and determined that a man who had faced the singgers of the National league should not become dismayed when confronted with a handful of state league hirelings.

During the remainder of the game his work soowed a distinct improvement, but the change came too late. Reading was quable to overcome the lead and Scranton won by the follow-box for Scranton in the second game and Mr. Jones, a south paw twirler. did the same service for Reading. Both were batted very freely.

In the second inning Reading batted out three runs and at once there were demands from the grand stand to have Flanaghan taken out of the game. They were not heeded, however. Scrunton found Jones for six runs in the third, fourth, and fifth innings, which gave the club a lead of one run. Neither side scored in the sixth or seventh and in the eighth a wild throw to first by Pitcher Jones allowed three Scranton men to score. In the eighth Reading succeeded in gleting two men across the plate on an error of Westlake's and hits by Eustace, Jones and Miller.

In the minth Hogan made a home The which placerified the audience of the locals long list of recent defeats, the Allentown Leader says, "That $25 ahould be easily won. The cause of defeat is that Scranton can't play. Give us something hard."

In the ninth Hogan made a home Mussey, Westlake and Higgins were on the bases when Flanaghan went to the plate to bat. He smote the atmosphere vicionaly three times and then retired to the bench, Hogan taking his place at the plate.

HOGAN'S HOME RUN.

The bat squarely met the fourth ball Mr. Jones pitched and it sailed away into left field over Mr. Miller's head. When the ball was returned to the diamond Hogan had crossed the home plate, with Massey, Westlake and Higins ahead of him.

That hit won the game. Reading succeeded in making one run in the ninth, which left the score as follows:

GLINTS FROM THE DIAMOND.

Scranton has urgent need of another George Gore has been doing some heavy batting for Binghamton.

Jack Doran kept the hits well scattered the first game on Saturday. Claire and Humphreys have been left at ome by the Pottsville management. George Staltz and Hogan have base tealing down very close to a science.

Mark Baldwin will occupy the box for King Kelly's nine against Harrisburg to-Pottsville will play here today and to-morrow and Scrauton should win both Pitcher Jones' slow curves fooled the Scranton batamen in an amazing way for everal innings on Saturday. The Troy management is working wires for Catcher Lachance and also for Pitcher Beatin, released by Cleveland. Leamon continues to be the king of state league conchers. In regard to conchers Reading is particularly strong.

There is talk in the Beston management of laying Pitcher Jack Stivetts off without pay until his work shows improvement. Woodcock, formerly the well-known eft-handed pitcher for Brown university, has been secure to coach the Williams college baseball team.

Stenzell, Pittsburg's center fielder, who, it was predicted, would more than fill Van Haitren's shoes, is booked for release un-less he improves in his play. Patchen is not a success in right field.

Manager Swift says that as soon as his lame leg is in condition he will cover that portion of the garden himself. On Decoration day the Young Men's Christian association base ball team will play at Waverly, N. Y., in the morning and at Towards in the afternoon.

Flaneghan was batted bard in the second game Saturday. Hogan saved the game by his home run drive in the ninth inning when the bases were filled.

What Scrauton needs more than anything else is a captain who has the brains and nerve to take command of the team and be captain in more than name.

In a balloting contest for the most popular State lengue player Thayer Torreyson, of Reading, leads the list. And this is the man that Scranton could have signed. Arthur Irwin has made up his mind to retain Jack Boyle on first base, as the latter has begun to hit the ball on the trade mark. This will let collegian Goeckie

Goodbart, of last year's Scranton club, who is doing the back stop work for Reading this season, was given a hearty recep-tion when he stepped to the plate to but

Saturday. Umpire Rinn's decisions during Saturday's games were not perfect, but on the whole his work gave satisfaction. He enforces the rules, which is one thing he should be commended for.

OF INTEREST TO WHEELMEN.

Writing in the Pitt-burg Times, Stephen Hornett says: "Local attendants at the twelfth annual meet of the Pennsylvania division, League of American Wheelmen, to be held in Wilkes-Barre, July 2 and 3, have in store for themselves a rare treat and are probably not aware of the many attractions of the place. Most of those present at the Scranton meet of two years ago remember with pleasure the delightful three days' cuting, and no doubt will be quite ready to repent the visit.
