CITY NOTES.

A police drill was conducted at the armory yesterday afternoon. Thomas Aubrey, the baritone who will sing at the Frothingham at the Griffin post entertainment Wednesday night, has a superb voice. The Columbia Volunteers who will take part in the entertainment at the Frothingham Wednesday evening, are in themselves a great card. Miss Lea Heath, who has delighted Scrantonians with her lectures on art, will give a stirring recitation at the Frothingham Wednesday evening. Miss Annette Reynolds, the contralto who will sing at the Grand Army entertainment at the Frothingham Wednesday evening, is a splendid vocalist. There will be free races at the Driving park this afternoon in which Stovie, Bob Ingersoll, and other well known trotters will be given an opportunity of showing what they can do. Colonel Baxter who will deliver the oration at the Frothingham Wednesday evening, is not only a most eloquent speaker, but a finished orator as well. Do not fail to hear him. The weekly Wednesday evening prayer and conference meeting of the First Presbyterian church will be omitted this week in order to allow the members of the church to attend the Decoration Day exercises. The demand for those twenty numbers of the popular "America" portfolios continues to keep a large force of clerks on the jump; but all orders will be filled promptly. One dime a number; money or stamps. No coupon necessary. This evening at Music Hall the drama, "A Confidential Clerk," will be presented by the Father Whitty's Dramatic company for the benefit of Progressive Assembly, Knights of Labor, beginning at 8 o'clock. A social will conclude the dramatic feature. Open All Night at Lohman's Spruce street.

COURT HOUSE NOTES.

Court adjourned yesterday until 9.30 o'clock Wednesday morning. R. T. Black, Jr., was yesterday registered as a law student. He will pursue his studies in the office of ex-Judge P. P. Smith. E. J. Jordan, a member of the Truckhouse bar, was yesterday admitted to practice in the courts of Lackawanna county. When the case of J. N. Remington against T. P. Leonard was called in court yesterday, the plaintiff did not answer, and a non-suit was accordingly allowed. Attachments were issued yesterday for Dr. Kelly and A. Mitchell, defaulting witnesses in the case of John G. Jennings against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company. McGrath & Thomas, druggists, were yesterday permitted to appeal, upon the furnishing of $50 bail, from the decision of Alderman Post convicting them of selling soda water on Sunday. James Doyle, Patrick Feeley, John Cresas, Michael Neo and Charles G. Decker were on order of the court discharged from jail where they had been confined awaiting the action of the grand jury, which failed to find true bills against them. Don't forget that Reishart's market is the cheapest place in the city for all kinds of eatables. Dr. A. E. Bunn, having opened his offices in the Burr building, Washington avenue, will resume the practice of his profession, where he will be glad to serve his old patrons and public in general.

OBSERVING THE DAY

Services at the Cemeteries of the City This Morning.

PARADE IN THE AFTERNOON

It will be an imposing Demonstration—in the Evening Patriotic Entertainments Will Be Given by the Colonel Monies and Ezra Griffin Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Memorial day will be fittingly observed in this city today. Year by year the custom of making beautiful the graves of the nation's honored dead obtains a firmer place in the hearts of the people generally. This morning detachments of Ezra Griffin and Colonel Monies posts of the Grand Army of the Republic will visit the cemeteries of the city, in which the bodies of union soldiers have been laid to rest, and with loving hands lay their offerings of flowers on the graves of their old comrades in arms and plant above their ash a miniature of the flag that they assisted in preserving unassailed. Services appropriate to the day will also be held in each cemetery. Among those who will deliver eulogies at these services are the following: Soldiers' plot at Forest Hill, Rev. W. F. Stahl and Altarney C. W. Dawson; Washburn Street cemetery, Rev. A. W. Cooper; Hyde Park Catholic cemetery, Rev. J. J. McManus; Dunmore cemetery, Rev. J. C. Leacock; Dunmore Catholic cemetery, Rev. M. B. Doolan; Pittston Avenue cemetery, Rev. August Langs; St. Mary's German Catholic cemetery, Rev. George Stopper. At all of these cemeteries the exercises will be of a religious and patriotic character.

PARADE IN THE AFTERNOON

There will be an imposing parade in the afternoon in which the veterans of the city, Thirtieth regiment, Sons of Veterans and other organizations will participate. F. J. Amsden will be the chief marshal and Frank W. Martin, chief of staff. The parade will start promptly at 2.30 p. m. and pass over the following route: Adams avenue to Lackawanna, to Franklin, to Linden street, to Washington avenue, to Gibson street, to Center street and down to court house square. When the column reaches Vine street on the counter-march, the first division will form line on Washington avenue to render honor to the second division which will then take the lead, the first division taking the place of the second division in passing in review. The parade will be reviewed from the steps of the municipal building by Mayor W. L. Connel, officers of the parade and invited guests. The parade will move in four divisions, the first being composed of the Thirtieth regiment, and the second of the veterans and the Sons of Veterans.

EXERCISES FOR THE EVENING

In the evening the Colonel Monies Post will give an entertainment at the Young Men's Christian Association hall, at which Attorney A. J. Colburn will deliver an address and Miss Susan E. Dickinson read an original poem. There will in addition be a fine program of vocal and instrumental music. The Ezra Griffin Post will give an entertainment at the Frothingham theater in the evening, at which the following programs will be rendered: "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground."

Solo by Miss Annette Reynolds, Choruses by Comrades and Audience. "The Song of Hydras, the Ocean." "Elbow." Thomas Aubrey Recitation, "Keenan's Charge." "La Zingarella." Miss Lea Heath, Mrs. Reynolds, Colonel A. E. Baxter "Marching Through Georgia." Chorus by Old Soldiers and Audience. Spectacular Drill. The Columbia Volunteers The Charge, the Battle, Victory, Columbia hymn, recitation, Lieut. Hugh Franey. Seats are now on sale at Powell's music store. Many civic and independent military organizations will decorate the graves of departed members this morning.

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES.

They Were Held at the High School Yesterday Morning. Exercises commemorative of Memorial Day were participated in yesterday from 11 to 1 o'clock by both classes of the high school in the Liberty hall rooms. The numbers presented consisted of essays, recitations, instrumental music, orations, etc., and were enjoyed by many visitors. The program was as follows: Wallace Moser and Mr. Cooper, orations; Miss Edna Kent, original poem; Miss Mabel Ross, Miss Mabel Riddell, Miss Mary Durcan, Edwin Whittemore and Thomas Donaboe, essays; Miss Carolyn, Miss Mand Snyder, Miss Fitzpatrick and Miss Rachel Powell, recitations; William Morris and Emerson Owens, declamations; Wallace Moser, Emerson Owens, Edwin and Charles Whittemore, vocal quartette; Miss Effie Thompson and Miss Lillah Josephs, vocal duet; Miss Mary Harris and Miss Katie Fitzpatrick, piano duet; William Roberts and Victor Wenzel, piano duet. The program was interspersed with chorus singing by the school.

EXERCISES AT No. 9 SCHOOL.

Many of the parents of the pupils of No. 9 school witnessed Decoration day exercises at the school yesterday afternoon. The program was conducted by Mrs. D. K. Ronniman and Miss A. Kessel as follows: March, Miss Maud Stern; recitation, Miss Mary Christophel; violin and organ, Fred Egan and George Friedman; recitation, Miss Flora Werthamer; dialogue, Misses Lizzie Daly, Annie Kennedy, Mayda Opper, Russell Bliss and Willie Huester; violin and organ, John Schneider and Willie Schank; recitation, Claude Coon; piano solo, Miss Mauda Stern; recitation, John Connel; violin and organ, Fred Egan and George Friedman; recitation, Misses Lena Dreischer, Elsie Edwards, Anna Dawson, Katie Hastings, Reinhold Saar.

EXERCISES AT No. 9 SCHOOL.

Exercises of a patriotic character were held at No. 9 school at Pine Brook yesterday afternoon in which children of the different departments participated. The exercises were under the direction of Principal M. H. Jordan. A feature of the exercises was the violin playing of Mary Lally, a little miss of only 6 years of age. Her execution with the bow was remarkably clever.

Signed a Verdict.

The coroner's jury in the case of the death of Patrick McNamara, met in Coroner Kelly's office last evening and signed a verdict to the effect that the boy came to his death on account of a trip of cars getting away from the control of the driver in the Von Storren mine.

They Have Gony Down That is prices at Guernsey Brothers.

A MOST SUCCESSFUL RECITAL.

Miss Catherine Parker Made a Very Favorable Impression.

Miss Catherine Parker last evening made her debut on the professional stage as an elocutist at the Young Men's Christian Association hall before an audience limited only by the capacity of the hall.

The audience was composed of Scranton's most cultured people and the kindly enthusiasm with which Miss Parker was received into her chosen career, but presaged the success which must surely attend this young artist's life.

Of pleasing delivery, with a thorough appreciation of her author's thought and of most magnetic presence, Miss Parker is possessed of the elements which must impress critics of the nicest appreciation.

The most successful, perhaps, of Miss Parker's readings was Austin Dobson's beautiful "Revolutionary Ratic" This was given with a clear comprehension of the meaning of the poem and with a strong appeal to the feelings of her not to friends alone but to all who heard the best forms of elocution. This was but one of the numbers and is but an example.

Her selections ranged from nursery rhymes, through comedy to tragedy, and all were given with a most gratifying ability.

Of those whose assistance Miss Parker one can but say that they with Miss Parker formed a quartette of young women who were artists. Miss Kate Hall Bandy is a pianist of depth of feeling and technique. In spite of the considerable drawback of a poor piano, her work was most universally pleasing. Her rendering of "Lutwaz's Will Jagd" by Kullack, was beautiful and elicited unbounded applause. Miss Bessie Dundy, the violinist, played with a most delightful abandon though guided by a sure knowledge, and in the execution of Godard's "Concerto Romantique" carried all hearts with her. The violin music was a strong feature of the entertainment.

Helen Boice-Hunstick sang in a clear, dramatic voice several beautiful selections, and with the other young ladies completed an evening of real enjoyment.

The General Opinion.

"THE TRIBUNE is the best morning paper reaching our rooms," Thus writes the secretary of the Young Men's Social club of Archbald.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES MEETING.

Resolution Requesting Poor Board's Aid Was Passed.

President Ripple presided at last night's meeting of the directors of the Board of Associated Charities. The other members present were: T. J. Moore, W. T. Smith, J. R. Cohen, W. G. Thomas, T. J. Kelly, E. J. Lynett, Luther Kaller, John Gibbons and the secretary, Rev. Rogers Israel.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $182.50 on hand, and $190 of it was appropriated for the employment of needy men.

The agent, Mrs. W. B. Dugan, reported twenty-three cases visited, thirteen of which were found worthy and ten unworthy. Seven were re-visited.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Whereas, the Board of Associated Charities has, under pressure of the great and immediate necessity of the past winter, expended over $1,500 of its funds in giving work to the unemployed; and Whereas, the funds of the board have been from this cause so greatly diminished as to endanger the work for which the association was organized; and the applications for work containing unmet needs and the present need being very great.

Resolved, That the board of health appeal to his honor, the mayor, to afford such assistance by the regular police force as may be necessary to enforce the rules and regulations of the board of health.

MUST HAVE A PERMIT.

A motion was adopted to the effect that all store keepers and market men who desire to carry their own garbage to the cremator shall be allowed to secure a permit for such purpose, the permit to be delivered by the sanitary policeman when he has approved of their appliances.

THE RIVALS AT THE ACADEMY.

Splendid Performance Given by the Drama of the Liban's Comedy. Mrs. John Drew's art grows finer and more polished with the years. Her Mrs. Malaprop in "The Rivals" at the Academy of Music last night was a finished effort. Her humor was infectious and quite irresistible and her work throughout the play excited the warmest commendation and applause.

Sidney Drew gave a very faithful representation of the drill sergeant, less Bob Acres. Mr. Drew has a most exacting task to perform in that he essays a role which Scrantonians associate with that master of comedy, Joseph Jefferson. Draw is not Jefferson, but his Bob Acres deserves to be ranked among his best creations.

COMEDIAN DREW'S TROUBLES.

Constable Gallagher Wants to Collect a Big Bill of Costs. At Wilkes-Barre yesterday Comedian Sidney Drew was served with a summons on an action brought to recover the amount of a bill he contracted on his last visit to that city.

COMEDIAN DREW'S TROUBLES.

He paid the bill and the proceedings were quashed, but it appears that the cost of Constable Gallagher, who served the papers on Mr. Drew, were not settled and he pursued the actor to this city for satisfaction.

During the performance at the Academy of Music last evening Gallagher and another constable made their appearance on the stage and demanded $15 costs.

Mr. Drew refused to pay that amount and they informed him that he was under arrest. After the performance was over Mr. Drew went before Alderman Fitzsimmons, where Alexander Dunn, jr., and Moses Burgunder went his security. He will fight Mr. Gallagher's claim, which he holds to be extortionate.

Y. W. C. A. Excursion to Fairview.

THE GARBAGE TROUBLE

Rights of Board of Health Scavengers Are Infringed Upon.

THEY HAVE ENTERED A PROTEST

Board of Health Held a Special Meeting to Consider the Question—Mayor Connell Appealed to for Assistance in Protecting the Rights of Scavengers Holding Contracts—Charges Against M. Keenanhan.

Trouble has for some time been brewing between the licensed city scavengers who have contracts for removing garbage to the cremator, and collectors who have no contracts for removing the refuse, but infringe on the rights of the former. A special meeting of the board of health was held yesterday to take action on the matter.

It was decided to appeal to the mayor for police assistance in enforcing the board's regulations. Michael Keenanhan will be called before a special session of the board and inquiry made into a charge of his having infringed on the rights and territory of Robert Harlan in the central portion of the city.
