CONCERNING THE STRIKE Labor Leaders Are Indignant at Governor Pattison's Proclamations.

SCOTSDALE IMPORTS AUSTRIANS Train Service Delayed for Want of Fuel--Strikers at Danville Refuse to Allow Coal to Be Mined for Use of St. Elizabeth Hospital, Where Patients Are Suffering for Fuel. The Situation at Cripple Creek.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., May 31. Labor leaders are very indignant over the proclamation issued by Governor Pattison yesterday. They believe it the duty of Governor Pattison to issue another proclamation directing it exclusively to the coke operators and compel them to discontinue with the deputies' services at once.

COXEY HAS HAD ENOUGH. The General Will Quit Commonwealth if He is Let Out of Jail.

WASHINGTON, May 31. Inquiries at the clerk's office of the supreme court of the United States this morning elicited the fact that no motion for the release of Commonwealder Coxeby upon writ of habeas corpus has yet been presented to any judge of the supreme court for action, though it has been stated for several days that Coxeby, with the assistance of one or two of the Populist congressmen, was contemplating such a movement.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 31. The conference of the coal operators of Illinois this morning to arrange prices and come to an agreement whereby the competition of the northern and southern and central Illinois fields could be adjusted to the end of settling the great coal strike, came to naught.

TRAIN SERVICE DELAYED FOR WANT OF FUEL--STRIKERS AT DANVILLE REFUSE TO ALLOW COAL TO BE MINED FOR USE OF ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL, WHERE PATIENTS ARE SUFFERING FOR FUEL. THE SITUATION AT CRIPPLE CREEK.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Pa., May 31. The situation at Cripple Creek is becoming more and more desperate. The strikers are determined to refuse to allow coal to be mined for the use of the St. Elizabeth hospital, where patients are suffering for fuel.

AN ITALIAN'S RAZOR. James McNeil, of Hazleton, Gave It to His Neighbor.

HAZLETON, Pa., May 31. James McNeil, a resident of Pleasant Hill, a village near here, was a victim of a murderous assault last evening at the hands of an Italian desperado. McNeil was standing in the doorway of his house talking to a neighbor when two Italians rushed upon them and one of them fired several shots from a revolver at them and then cut McNeil's throat from ear to ear with a razor.

WHITMANITES ORGANIZE. Pottsville School Board Refuses to Sell Text Books to Private and Parochial Schools.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., May 31. A number of friends and admirers of the late Walt Whitman, the eminent poet, gathered here today for the purpose of organizing an International Walt Whitman society. Dr. D. G. Brinton will be selected as the first president.
