

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT JUNE

The Month of Roses and Weddings. The beginning of Summer. The month altogether lovely of the year.

Where shall we go for the summer? What shall we buy for our dresses? How will we have them made, and Where shall we buy the goods?

THESE are questions that always come with the regularity of the season. We have always answered these questions for you to your entire satisfaction.

Good Will, Accommodation, Integrity, and the Best and Cheapest of All Goods are marked features of our store.

Tailor Made Suits.

Traveling men say that Navy Blue and Black Serge Suits of ours at $10.00 are the same as being $12.50 in New York and Boston. They're a marvel, anyway.

OLYPHANT.

The closing reception of the Blakely Social club held at Keystone hall, Wednesday evening, was the most brilliant social affair of the season.

At midnight the merry dancers adjourned to the banquet hall and partook of the sumptuous repast which had been prepared by Caterer Jones, after which dancing was resumed.

GREENWOOD.

Miky Lourey, of Minooka, had his arm sprained today at the Greenwood colony. People flocked to the cemetery yesterday in large numbers, and all the graves of veterans were fixed up in good shape.

"THE FACE OF ROSENFEL."

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she craved for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

MONTRÔSE.

Memorial Day here was rainy, but at the appointed time the Grand Army of the Republic Post, Sons of Veterans, and the fire department marched to the cemetery, where the graves of our fallen heroes were decorated with flowers, after which Hon. J. H. Landis, of Lancaster, Pa., delivered an eloquent address in the armory.

Edgar Turrell, of New York city, is visiting his mother. Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of N. Ayres to Miss Cora, daughter of ex-Sheriff L. B. Miller. The event occurs June 10, at the Lake Side Methodist Episcopal church in Lathrop township.

Prof. Hawk, who has been the instructor of the Montröse corset band, has decided to take up his residence elsewhere, a move that the citizens regret.

R. G. Scott, the clothier, is in New York. Judge and Mrs. D. W. Searle returned on Wednesday from an enjoyable trip through New York state, and in other parts of the country.

Edgar Corfield, of Jersey City, is shaking hands with Montröse friends this week. Montröse fire company No. 3 took in about $900 at their recent trades display and reception.

Montröse sent out four speakers for Memorial Day—A. H. McCullum, W. S. Maxey, Captain W. D. Alney and Professor E. E. James, every one of them eloquent speakers.

Mr. Fordham, of Maple street, expects to take up his residence in Green Ridge, Scranton, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cole.

James C. Winters who has served three years in the regular army battery M. Heavy artillery at New York harbor spent yesterday with Attorney A. M. O'Donnell, former of Scranton, and Foreman Maxey, A. M. O'Donnell and B. F. Maxey made his first visit to coal mine and was much pleased with the sights of the same. His home is at Friendsville, Susquehanna county.

Mrs. D. P. Lappus is in Philadelphia attending the commencement exercises in a business training school from which her daughter, Miss Addie, is an honored member of this year's class.

Adolph Joseph, formerly a prominent merchant in this borough, but at present a resident of Philadelphia, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony a short time ago to Miss Amelia Mabel Binz, of Philadelphia.

Extensive preparation had been made by the Enterprise Hose company for an enjoyable time on Memorial day and such was had. The firemen were at work from the dawn of morn till late at night.

The Mitchell Hoss company, of Carbondale, had intended coming to Forest City in a body with their team, fire wagon, etc., but it being a day of moistening qualities, only a part of the company came. Among those in the company were: Joe Brennan, John Riverton, Thomas Campbell, W. J. Myers, W. Spangle, J. Ward, Peter Riverton, Evaa Thomas, John Lewis, A. J. Mitchell and Sam Small.

They were met at the Ontario and Western station and escorted by the Enterprise with the band at the head, to Maxey's hall where an abundance of good things had been carefully prepared for the occasion.

After dinner the visitors were allowed the freedom of the "city." About 1 o'clock the rain having stopped for a short time, both companies formed in line and paraded Main street. The Enterprise company in their drill made some very difficult maneuvers perfectly and they clearly showed by them the excellent manner in which they had been drilled by C. S. Alexander, the secretary of the company, who captained them.

In the evening the cantata, "Joseph and His Daughter," was rendered in the opera house with nearly every seat taken. The singing of the entire cast and especially those in the leading roles could not have been much better. The large chorus in the cantata for bleeding of tone and harmony was excellent.

The patriotic flag drill by twenty-five ladies, led by Miss Jessie Smith as the goddess of liberty, was a very enjoyable part of the evening's entertainment. They were applauded many times during the drill for their proficiency in performing difficult movements. A great many Forest Citizens would be pleased to have it repeated in the near future. A large share of the credit for the splendid rendition of the cantata and the work of the drill belongs to Professor John Luther Morgan who has been their faithful instructor from the beginning of the cantata. Mrs. H. L. Aldrich, the pianist, also assisted greatly in the success of the cantata.

Taylor. The "Confederate Spy" will be produced again this month. The date has not yet been chosen, but will be about June 14.
