BODY OF A CHILD FOUND. Unearthed by Workmen in a Field at

Providence. Yesterday morning while some men were engaged in removing stones from a field near Providence, they were horrified to find the body of a newly born child. The remains were lying in a soap box beneath a stone pile, and as the clothes placed over the body were not even damp, the men came to the conclusion that the corpse must have been placed where they found it but a short time previous to the discovery. The body was removed to the Providence police station and Coroner Kelley summoned. An inquest was conducted during the afternoon before a jury composed of Dr. C. E. Connor, John Dr. S. L. Underwood, J. F. Jones, V. for an Birtley, Thomas Jones and Thomas R.

The body of the child was slightly decomposed, but not so much as to render the post mortem difficult. Assisted by Drs. Underwood and Connor, Coroner Kelly conducted what is known as the lung test, by means of which it showed that the case was not one of infanticide.

Nothing was developed which could lead to the identity of the dead child's parents, and this part of the affair still remains a mystery. The jury rendered a verdict to the effect that the infant was stillborn.

Whoever is fortunate enough to so-care the nomination is certain of election, as the Third district is, to borrow's Colonel Fitzsimmons expression, a "Gibraltar" of Republicanism. The convention promises to be interesting, but entirely harmonious

The delegates will leave this city at 1.30 in a special car over the Delaware, Luckewanna and Western road arriving in the Lumber City at 7 p. m. NO ECARCITY OF CANDIDATES.

There is no lack of excellent material for making up a county ticket in the Republican party this year. In fact there are enough of candidates to coastruct several tickets that would carry the county by rousing majorities. It will be for the county convention in its wisdom to say who shall be honored with places on the ticket,

No one disputes the claims of Judge Archbald to the renomination, which his record as a fearless and impartial judge so righly entitles him to receive. For the congressional nomination the battle is lively and interesting. Congressman J. A. Scranton again desires to succeed himself and ex-Mayor John H. Fellows is waging an aggressive fight to prevent the consummation of Mr. Scranton's wishes.

The fight for district attorney is of yesterday. the free-for-all variety. The last candidate to announce himself is Attorney A. A. Vosburg, of Providence. Tuose who occupied the field before he entered were: Attorneys George M. Watson, John R. Jones, M. W. Lowry, Jomes E. Burr, J. Elliot Ross, A. J. Colborn, jr. and S. W. Edgar. The struggle for the nomination between these excellent gentlemen promises to be a battle royal. CANDIDATES FOR TREASURER.

Though the candidates for treasurer are not so numerous the rivalry is strong and aggressive. Thomas Davis, F. L. Wormser, William Franz and Alexander Simpson are the men pitted against each other, and it is needless to inform any one who is acquainted with these gentlemen that they are hard fighters but good losers. Frank Clemons and George Okell are the aspirants for the nomination of sheriff and will battle earnestly for the right to represent the Republicans of the county for that office on the

John H. Thomas will have opposition for a re-nomination to the office of clerk of the courts in the person of Attorney B. F. Akerley, but from present indications Clarence E. Pryor will be tendered a re-nomination for prothonotary without opposition.

The office of recorder of deeds is a desirable one and the candidates are Mr. Reese, of Taylor; George Heister, was fully ascertained that the child of the South Side; Attorney E. H. had never breathed. This, together with other plainly discernable evidence. Shires, of the North End.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE MENTIONED, Captain James Vaughau, William H. Hopkins and others are candidates for register of wills, and T. J. Matthews, of Spring Brook, W. J. Schubmehl, of Olyphant, and other well-known Republicans are mentioned for jury com-

With such material to choose from the county convention cannot fail to build a strong and worthy ticket.

AMONG THE POLITICIANS

Congressman Sibley is reported to have said that he can defeat General Hastings is nominated, and yet even the Populists refuse to take him up.

Henry Coyle expresses himself as confident that the present contest will show that he was legally elected common connmilman of the Twelfth ward over Morgan

There is trouble ahead for M. T. Burke. the Democratic member of the legislature from the Fourth district of this county. It has just developed that among some of the Lackawanna leaders there is a disposition to turn Mr. Burke down for a re-nomination and name in his stead Miles McAndrew a very neurilar vegus, Democrat of drew, a very popular young Democrat of Archbald. Mr. Burke will not go down, however, without a struggis.

however, without a struggle.

The prospective nomination of Adjutant General Walter W. Greenland as the Democratic candidate for governor by the state convention, June 27, came in the nature of a great surprise to that gentleman, and it was stated in a Harrisburg interview that he could not see his way clear to an acceptance, but this position has been modified by his friends, who say emphatically that General Greenland will head the ticket if the nomination comes from the ticket if the nomination comes from the 454 delegates with any degree of unanim-454 delegates with any degree of unanimity. The ticket generally will comprise well known Democrats for lieutenant governor, auditor general, secretary of internal affairs, and congressman-at-large.

Among the number referred to as prospective nominees are Colonel R. Bruce Ricketts, of Larsence; Ex-Sanator Hannibal K. Sloan, of Indiana; De Witt Clinton De Witt, of Bradford; Colonel W. Hayes Grier, of Lancaster; Ex-Congressman Robert E. Klotz, of Carbon; Ex-Representative Wal- and get the best.

Storm, of Monros.—Philadelphia. Times.

That talented Democratic leader, Colonel Frank J. Fitzsimmons, has of late been exercising his rare ingenuity in suggesting hypothetical Democratic county tickets, which, according to his estimate, would render Republican prospects hopeless. Here are two of his latest combinations: For congress, S. B. Price; judge, G. S. Hern; sheriff, P. J. Horan; treasurer, Frank Thompson; prothonotary, Lorenz Zeilller, jr.; recorder, John Lentus; clerk of the courts, Frank P. Brown; recister, C. C. Donovan; jury commissioner, George C. C. Donovan; jury commissioner, George Shoemaker. The other suppostitions ticket which the colonel thinks would inneket which the colonel thinks would in-spire local Democracy with enthusiasm, contains the following names: Congress, E. C. Dimmick: judge, W. H. Gearhart; treasurer, D. J. Campbell; prothon-ctary, John J. Fahey; clerk of the courts, John Menahan; district atterney, T. J. Duggan; recorder, August Wablers; register, John Mawn; jury commissioner, George Shoemaker. It must be admitted that Colonel Fitzsimmons in his work of suggesting ideal candidates has done well. that Colonel Fitzsimmons in his work of suggesting ideal candidates has done well. There are some good names on both of his improbable if not impossible slates, but neither ticket would be invincible. Both have elements of weakness that might easily be pointed out. Then this is not going to be a Democratic year. The voters of Lackawanna county are beginning to en their eyes to the fact that Democratic free trade rule is ruinous to their best interests. They are thinking about the prosperity and plenty of other days—days when the Republican party held the reins of power—and are not to be fooled into voting for men who represent the Cleveland policy of ruin to American interests. Colorel, it cau't be done, so you might as well give it up. Lackuwanna county is going Republican this year. There is another drawback to Colonel Fitzsimions' ideal ticket and that is that several of the men he names could not be induced under any circumstances to accept a Democratic any circumstances to accept a Democratic omination this year.

SUMMER SEASON OF OPERA.

Auspiciously Ushered in at the Frothingham Last Night.

The summer season of comic opera was auspictously ushered in at the Frothingham last evening by the Mackay-Kenney Opera company, watch produced "Giroffe-Giroffa" in a nost creditable manner.

The house was crowded, and the nany pretty numbers in Lecocq's tuneul opera were received with warm evidences of approval. Miss Fannie Myers made a decided hit as the twin sisters. She has a pleasing voice of wide range and the psculiar dramatic powers so essential to the successful omic opera artist. Dan Young proved himself a natural median. The remainder of the cast as up to the high standard of the principals. The chornses were large and well drilled and their singing denonstrated that there are good voices n them. Taken as a whole the company is a good one and should give the people of Scranton a most pleasing and profitable season of comic opera.

"Girofle-Girofle" will be given again tonight and tomorrow night.

RESOLUTIONS

Ask That the Press of the City Give Its Co-operation in Securing a More General Observance of the Lord's Day-Rev. Dr. McLeod Delivers a Word of Counsel to Respectable Law Breakers.

The meeting of the Pastors' union yesterday morning at the Young Men's Christian association building was the most largely attended of any of the meetings since the Sunday closing movement was begun by the executive committee, of which Rev. F. A. Dony is the chairman. Among the features of the meeting was a paper read by Rev. James Mc-Leod, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in which druggists are most severely arraigned and an inference made that the methods of Mr. Dony might have been better chosen, The meeting adopted Dr. McLeod's pa-per and also a set of resolutions soliciting the co-operation of the press. At the special meeting of last Monday a special committee was appointed to formulate an expression of disapproval of the expressed sentiment of the Scranton newspapers against the Sunday movement. A breezy discussion followed the presentrition of this committee's report. Revs. McLeod. Floyd. Stahl, Cooper, Robinson and Davy objected to a clause in the resolution which included all the local papers. Revs. Partridge, Skellenger and Hughes stool by the resolu-tion as originally drafted. However, the word "ali" was finally changed to 'a portion of" in its reference to the press. A BONE OF CONTENTION. A clause to the effect that "all the civilized world" is in favor of the American Sabbath, was also the bone of some contention and was finally eliminated. The resolution as adopted is as follows:

Whereas, "The boly experiment" of es-tablishing "a free colony for all mankind" was the motive of the immortal Penn, af-ter whom our state is called: Whereas, Among the first laws for the benefit of all classes in the state was one for the protection of the "First day of the week," commonly called "Sunday;" Whereas, This law naving for its object the welfare of all classes, has been main-tained by the good sense of the citizens of the state for a hundred years, notwith-standing sporadic efforts have been made from time to time to change it.

Whereas, A tendency for the greed of gain having of late years manifested itself among some of our citizens to violate Sanday laws, a movement was recently inaugday laws, a movement was recently inaugurated in our city to chest this tendency and to secure a better observance of the first day of the week, the day set apart by the state as a day in which the employed and the employer and all classes may claim as their right to rest from toils and the anxietics incident to secular interests.

Whereas, We have the explicit declaration of Him to whose authority we all bow that: "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath," not of course for man's secular interests, for these six days in the week were given; but the six days in the week were given; but the seventh was reserved for man's highest and divinest concerns.

Whereas, With this movement to secure orderly Sunday, th clergy of this city and vicinity, of all de-nominations are manimously and sarnest-ly in cordial accord; and have been surprised and pained to fluit a portion of the press of the city out of sympathy, apparently, with this important movement, and find it inclined rather to criticise the methods rather than leading their ac-knowledged prestige to what the intelli-gent representatives of the press must regent representatives of the press must regard as underlying the very foundations of society, and especially the well-being of the laboring classes. For if the line of demarcation between the first and second days of the week be obliterated, and no rest day from labor sanctioned by law, it will soon be found that seven days labor will be remanerated by six days wags, leaving out of consideration the demoralization that would necessarily follow the obliteration of one day of the week for the spiritual interests of the community. the spiritual interests of the community.

Whereas, the Ministers' union of this city and vicinity, realizing that the great agencies for the maintenance of the civil and religious institutions of our beloved country are the pulpit and the press, and they should act in harmony with each other on all fundamental questions, and that the movement now or root to protect the First Day from becoming secularized and thus destroyed should be carried forward to a successful issue, unanimously and respectfully adopt the following resolution:

Resolved, That we most respectfully and earnestly ask the co-operation of the press of our city to promote the streamous efforts now being put forth to bring about a more general and perfect observance of the Sunday laws of our state, so that all classes of our growing city may have a right to one day in seven for absolute rest rom all secular labor. Respectfully submitted by your commit-

BURR PROCEEDINGS AT AN END

Case Reported Settled in Court Yesterday-Shoemaker Case on Trial Before Judge McPherson.

The case of Joseph Shoemaker against the Delaware, Lackswanna and Western Railroad company was called for trial before Judge Archbaid in the main court room yesterday morning Attorneys S. B. Price and George W. Beale representing the plaintiff and Attorney E. N. Willard and Major Everett Warren the defendant. A jury was impanneled and at the request of Mr. Price the court allowed them to go to Dalton to examine the premises in question. They were accompanied by Attorney Beale as representative for the plaintiff, while S. B. Stilwell went along to serve in a like capacity for the defendant.

The jury returned at 3:45 o'clock and resumed their seats in the jury box Judge McPherson, of Dauphin county, was then on the bench. At torney Beals opened the case for the plaintiff. He said that for some twenty years Joseph Shoemaker lived at Dal-ton where he owned and operated a woolen mill. In 1891 the mill was ignited by a spark from a Delaware, Lackawana and Western engine. This he claimed to be able to prove, although he anticipated that the defense would endeavor to make it appear that the mill had caught fire from an old school house which stood a short distance away and in which a family resided at the time. The school house was destroyed by fire at the same time the mill was burned.

The first witness called was the plaintiff. He gave evidence as to the burning of the mill and other pertinent points, after which he was subjected to cross-examination by Attorney Everett Warren, a process that occupied the entire balance of the afternoon.

Judge Gunster presided in the arbiration room during the forenoon. The case of George Winans and others against Thomas D. Bavan was called before him, Judge Stanton representing the plaintiff and Attorneys J. A. Davis and C. Comegys the defendant.

The suit is brought for the purpose of determining the ownership of a gore of land on North Main avenue twenty-nine feet long, three feet wide at one end and eight inches wide at the other end. Owing to the absonce of an important witness, George Howell, of the West Side bank, the case was continued to the next term of court. Two cases were settled in court yesterday morning, that of the inquisition in the case of Dr. Burr, charged with habitual drunkenness, and the case of the city against Septimus Thomas and

WATER COMPANY'S ANSWER.

Prayer for Dismissal of the Iron and Steel Company's Suit. The attorneys for the Scranton Gas and Water company. Judge Alfred Hand and William J. Hand, yesterday filed in the prothonotary's office an answer to the bill of complaint presented by the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company. The answer contains denial of plaintiff's charge that the defendant com-pany was to furnish water for all purposes, but says it was only for steam, fire hydrants and bydraulies, and for certain stores and dwellings. It is also re-asserted in the answer that the water taken by the plaintiff was surreptitionaly abstracted from the company's pipes and the idea of 'irreparable dam-ages' to the plaintiff is disputed.

The answer also further alleges that the plaintiff's water supply as covered by the contract set forth in the plaintiff's bill has not been threatened by the defendant and will not be out off, but that the steel mill company will be treated with the same courtesy that is extended to all of defendant's customers. The water company pray to be hence dismissed with their reasonable charges, and costs in this behalf expended, so wrongfully sustained.
