HAWLEY NAMED FOR GOVERNOR

The Scranton Candidate Carries Off the Chief Honor at Williamsport.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN CONCLAVE

They Listen to Oratory Denunciatory of Both the Old Parties, Adopt a Platform Favoring Numerous Items in the Populist Creed, Select a Complete State Ticket and Gird Themselves for the Forthcoming Gubernatorial Campaign.

For Governor, CHARLES L. HAWLEY, of Scranton.
For Lieutenant Governor, HOMER L. CASTLE, of Pittsburg.
For Auditor General, CHARLES PALMER, of Delaware.
For Secretary of Internal Affairs, L. R. GLEASON, of Canton.
For Congressmen at Large, E. K. KANE, of Kane, and REV. L. G. JORDAN, of Philadelphia.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., June 6. THE largest prohibition convention ever held in Pennsylvania convened here this morning and nominated a complete ticket, placed itself on record, and adjourned amid enthusiastic applause. Chairman Patton called the convention to order at 9 o'clock, after which Homer L. Castle was chosen temporary chairman. During his speech he said the Republican party had been weighed in the balance and found wanting. The Democratic party was unfit to join and as a result a new party had to be organized. He called the Republican party a whisky-soaked, monopolistic organization, and his audience applauded. He said that the so-called industrial armies and the men within the halls of congress are none less than a gang of whisky drinkers.

After the appointment of committees a permanent organization was perfected, with Homer L. Castle, of Allegheny, president, several vice presidents, and A. G. Thomson, as Lackawanna's representative among the secretaries.

RAISING SINEWS OF WAR

At the afternoon session two hours were consumed in raising a fund of $5,000 for campaign purposes. The platform reported by the committee declares the liquor traffic to be the foe of morality, the arch enemy of government and a public nuisance; denounces all laws protecting the traffic; declares for prohibition; favors a qualification of intelligence in voters and increased facilities in the public schools for higher education; declares sectarianism in the schools calls for protection of the Sabbath as a day of rest, denounces indiscriminate immigration as a menace to the stability of our government; asks that the naturalization laws be amended, opposes trusts and combinations that interfere with industrial and business interests, favors the election of the president, vice president and senators by the direct vote of the people; declares for the principle of proportionate representation of all in legislative bodies, and in favor of state supervision of public roads; says the tariff should be adjusted through a non-partisan commission and partisan demagoguery on the tariff and other public questions ended, and favors just pensions to soldiers.

The platform was adopted unanimously, and then to the surprise of everybody the nominations were made without contest, candidate after candidate withdrawing until the whole thing simmered down to the following ticket:

Governor, Charles L. Hawley, of Scranton; lieutenant governor, Homer L. Castle, of Pittsburg; auditor general, Charles Palmer, of Delaware; secretary of internal affairs, L. R. Gleason, of Canton; congressmen at large, E. K. Kane, of Kane, and Rev. L. G. Jordan, of Philadelphia. The convention then adjourned.

STATE CHAIRMAN PATTON WAS REJECTED

State Chairman Patton was rejected, and E. D. Nichols, of Wilkes-Barre, and Barr Spangler, of Maricopa, were elected secretary and treasurer respectively, of the state committee. An executive committee of fifteen was chosen.

BANK TAX STILL REMAINS.

By a Vote of 172 to 102 the House Refuses to Repeal It.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—By a vote of 172 to 102 the house of representatives today voted not to repeal the law imposing a tax of 10 per cent. upon the issues of state banks, and other associations than it decided, without the formality of a vote, or even a division, to kill the Brawley bill, to which the other proposition was an amendment. This bill proposed to suspend the operations of the law as to the certificates and other evidences of money issued by clearing houses and other associations during the currency panic of 1893. This latter action was somewhat unexpected, because in the course of the ten days' debate just closed there had been no objection expressed to that proposition.

CHOLERA IN PRUSSIA.

The Hospital at Myslowitz Reported to Be Crowded With Patients.

LONDON, June 6.—A dispatch from Berlin to the Standard says: Several deaths from cholera have occurred among ruffians near Thorn, a town of West Prussia, on the Vistula. There have also been a number of deaths from the disease at Myslowitz, in Prussian Silesia.

Semi-official telegrams report that the outbreak in Myslowitz is not of a serious character, but private dispatches assert that the public hospital at that place is crowded with cholera patients.

THE PREMIER'S NAG WINS.

And Lord Rossberry Has Now Attained His Completed Ambition.

LONDON, June 6.—Lord Rossberry's bay colt Ladas at Epsom today won the derby. Matchbox was second and Rembrandt third. Thus, the destiny mapped out by Lord Rossberry, in his mirror of the rich girl in England, Miss Hannah de Rothchild, he is prime minister of England, and he has won the derby.

Ladas won in a canter by a length and a half, in 2 minutes 45 1/2 seconds. Six lengths separated the second horse, Matchbox, from the third, Rembrandt. The bay colt, Ladas, was also the winner of the 3,000 Guineas on May 9 and of the Newmarket stakes on May 23. The Derby, the greatest of all horse races, is of 6,000 sovereigns, the winner to receive 5,000 ($25,000). Ladas is a direct descendant of Whalebone, who won the Derby for the Duke of Devonshire in 1816. Over 100,000 people, according to estimate, journeyed to Epsom today by road or by rail. Among the royalty and nobility present at the race were the prince and princess of Wales, the Princess Maud of Wales, the duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (the duke of Edinburgh), the duke of Cambridge, the duke and duchess of Portland, the duke of Devonshire, the duke of Westminster, Lord Rossberry, Earl Cadogan, the earl of Coventry, the marquis of Londonderry and Lord Randolph Churchill.

RIOTOUS SPIRIT GROWING.

An Angry Mob of Allen Strikers Destroyed Property and Peace.

MCKEESPORT, Pa., June 6.—An angry mob of 3,000 foreigners, national tube works strikers, returned to McKeesport just after noon, having in their morning raid destroyed two of the largest coal tips on the river. The raiders first halted at David Moore's tipple at Point View. The structure was soon razed to the ground. The rioters then torched the tipple owned by John P. McIntyre. The mob first tore down the platform at the railroad siding, but was stopped on the hill by Mr. Corry, superintendent of the company, who had a revolver. A half dozen men rushed upon him and quickly disarmed him. He denied that any men were at work, but the infuriated foreigners would not listen to him and a committee was appointed to inspect the mine. They returned shortly afterward with twenty five men.

McIntyre arrived and ordered the men off the place. The mob seeing a revolver in his hand shouted: "Teach him a lesson." This was followed by an attack on the tipple, the main picks and axes and in less than fifteen minutes the structure was in ruins. During the rioting several men were trampled upon and a Pittsburg newspaper man was seriously injured. Upon returning to the city the mob took possession of the streets in the vicinity of the tube works, shouting curses and creating the greatest excitement. Finally the marchers disappeared. Trouble and bloodshed is feared before the day is out, as there are no deputies here to contend the rioters. The situation is much the same as prevailed at Homestead before the big battle. The men are in complete possession of the town.

PRECAUTION AGAINST FLOODS.

Sunbury Will Build a Levee to Keep the Water Out.

SUNBURY, Pa., June 6.—The Sunbury council has decided to borrow 100,000 dollars in the construction of a bank two miles long along the Susquehanna river front. The proposed bank will be three feet above high water mark of the floods of 1894 and 1895.

ECHOES OF THE MINE STRIKE.

It is reported that the miners at Wesley, Ill., have attacked the Little Brothers, the sheriff and gained the control of the mine. The miners there, and finally wounded three of them with dynamite bombs.

A Colorado Springs, Colo., dispatch says: The sheriff has wired deputies to desert and await the arrival of the militia. The militia is now on route and the miners will surrender.

It is probable that pending the outcome of the meetings on Friday and Saturday, the operators will defer their promised attempt to resume operations at the mines in the Clearfield regions.

Governor Pattison has been informed that the operators of the Clearfield district will be represented in the conference on 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon 1,500 of the tube workers went to Reynolds, Pa., cut loose and set adrift five coal barges, one of which was loaded. The coal tipple was then destroyed and the creek flooded.

Representatives of the Glasgow, Scotland, mine owners' associations resolved to reduce wages one shilling per day. This result is a direct challenge to the men, who have been threatening to strike for some time.

A Providence dispatch says that nearly every woolen mill in the southern part of Rhode Island, from East Greenwich to the Connecticut line, has shut down. Scarcity of coal and inability to get any orders are the reasons given.

Sheriff Richards, of Allegheny, has sent seventy deputies to Carlton to guard the works of the Youngblood Gas coal company. They were armed with Winchester rifles, and one great effort is to be made to end the coal strike.

A special from West Chester says that members of Company I, Sixth regiment of the Pennsylvania National Guard, are holding themselves in readiness to go to the mining region to assist in quelling disturbances. They have received orders to this effect from brigade headquarters.

The special committee of ten coal operators, representing the coal producers of Western Pennsylvania, will meet in Pittsburgh today. There is now a disposition on the part of the operators to compromise on 40-cent rate for Pennsylvania and 60 cents for the Hocking Valley in Ohio.

The crowd of 4,000 strikers that started for the Duquesne tube works to force the men to work there today were successful. The crowd reached Duquesne at 3:30 yesterday afternoon. The strikers were the works and asked those at work to stop. There were 330 men at work. The men obeyed the order to quit at once. No trouble occurred.

OREGON ECHOES

YET DETONATE

The Imminency of Last Monday's Republican Sweep a Continued Surprise.

THE POPULISTS ARE DUMBFOUNDED

Penoyer and His ilk Literally Swept Into Oblivion by the Indignant Avalanche of Reassured Common Sense—Such a Plurality for the Republican Candidates Was Never Known Before, and It Is Yet Growing—Ohio Republicans Name a Winning Ticket—Other Political News.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 6. THE entire Republican state ticket elected with the possible exception of Irwin for superintendent of instruction. Both Hermann and Ellis are undoubtedly re-elected to congress. The legislators will be divided, with a Republican margin. Nearly complete returns from sixteen counties out of thirty-two give Lord (Rep.) for governor, 19,357; Galloway (Dem.), 6,948; Pierce (Pop.) 11,447. Lord's plurality, 7,910. Lord's plurality will not fall far below 15,000, the largest plurality ever given in Oregon.

For the first time in eight years Oregon will have a Republican governor. The returns indicate that the Republican candidates for congress have polled more votes than the Democrats and Populists combined. In 1892 the Republicans were in a minority in both congressional districts.

Governor Penoyer (Democrat), the present incumbent, was elected by a majority of 5,151. The highest Republican plurality ever given to a Republican in 1890. Until Penoyer was elected the Republican majority varied between this figure and 671.

Somnolent Senators Pass More Than Nine Dreary Hours Debating Dry and Dusty Tariff Schedules.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The senate sat for nine hours and yet made little progress on the tariff bill. The tobacco schedule was quickly disposed of, with very little friction. The question was as to the duty to be imposed on leaf tobacco suitable for cigar wrappers. The house bill fixed the rates at $1 per pound for unstemmed tobacco and $1.25 for stemmed tobacco. These were finally agreed to.

The agricultural schedule "G," met an obstacle at the very start, over the question of duty on wild animals. The house bill fixed the rate at 20 per cent. ad valorem, and the finance committee reported it without amendment. Mr. Hale, Maine, moved to substitute the paragraph of the existing law making the duty on horses and mules $30 per head, and where valued at $150 and over, 30 per cent. ad valorem, and the duty on other live animals, occupied nearly six hours. It was finally rejected—yeas 23, nays 30, and the duty remains 20 per cent. on live animals.

The next paragraph was one imposing a duty of 30 per cent. on buckwheat, corn, oats, wheat, etc., except when imported from countries that impose no duty on the like articles. In this case they are to be free of the tariff and killed instantly. The paragraph was started by Mr. Platt, Connecticut, and was kept up till 7 p. m., when the senate, without action on the paragraph, adjourned.

OHIO REPUBLICANS CONVENE.

They Adopt a Resolving Platform and Name a Strong Ticket.

COLUMBUS, O., June 6.—When ex-Secretary Charles Foster was introduced to today's Republican state convention as its permanent chairman he was received with wild applause. Governor McKinley was also tendered a magnificent ovation. The convention throughout was harmonious and enthusiastic.

The platform declares that the "people of Ohio delight to honor their able, distinguished and patriotic public servant, the Hon. William McKinley," and the convention "most heartily indorses his present clean, honorable, able and efficient administration, and we assure him of our highest confidence and esteem."

It commends the general assembly and the course of "our illustrious senator, John Sherman."

It declares the McKinley act to be "the latest expression of the patriotic principle of the country, and it denounces 'the unjust and intolerable tariff measure known as the Wilson bill, and the senate substitutes thereof, as unpatriotic, favorable to trusts, and sectional.'"

The currency plank is as follows: We favor bimetallic silver as well as gold as one of the great products of the United States. The coinage and use as a circulating medium should be steadily maintained and consequently encouraged by the national government, and we advocate such a policy as will, by discriminating legislation, or otherwise, most speedily restore to silver its rightful place as a money metal.

We denounce the avowed purpose of the Democratic leaders to restore the era of "wild-cat" and "red dog" money by repealing the prohibitory 10 per cent. tax on state bank issues. All money of whatever kind should be under national and not state control.

This was its ticket: Secretary of state, S. M. Taylor; supreme judge, John A. Schaefer; member board public works, Charles G. Grace.

THE INHUMAN SUN DANCE.

Governor Richards, of Montana, Proposes to Stop the Fete.

HELENA, Mont., June 6.—Governor Richards has issued a proclamation forbidding the sun dance of the Crow Indians at Great Falls. The proclamation says: "Investigations into the character of the festival convince me that it is not only inhuman and brutalizing, but unnatural and abhorrent to Christian civilization."

"It aims and proposes as a means to peace and the welfare of communities, inasmuch as it is an initiation ceremony that inducts Indians into the ranks of reorganized warriors. Local authorities of countries are directed to take steps necessary to enforce inhibition."

THE FISH LAKE WRECK.

President Clarke of the Mobile and Ohio Offers a $1,000 Reward.

ST. LOUIS, June 6.—President J. C. Clarke of the Mobile and Ohio railroad has offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the persons who caused the wreck of passenger train No. 5 on that road, near Fish Lake.

Richard Nagel, the man held for causing the wreck, denies that he threw the switch. He says he was walking on his way to Millstadt, when he saw three men turn the switch. He tried to stop the oncoming train by waving his coat and shouting, but failed.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., June 6.—Patrick O'Dowd, who came from Montana to this place to see his former wife, who is now the wife of John Higgins, is undecided yet just what course he will pursue. He had not seen his wife in twenty-seven years and she believed him dead. She married
