PITSTON.

William H. Rutledge, of this place, was nominated for representative by the Fifth legislative district Democratic convention held in Burke's hall at Port Griffith yesterday. The hour set for convening was 10 o'clock, but it was within a few minutes of 11 when District Chairman E. J. Burke rapped the convention to order. Besides the candidates and delegates there were present interested statesmen from every nook and corner as far south as Nanticoke. In the absence of District Secretary P. M. Coniff, P. J. Hudly, Pittston, was chosen temporary secretary. John McElaine nominated P. E. Joyce for temporary chairman, but before the motion was put J. H. Mullin stated that it was customary in all Democratic conventions for the acting chairman to appoint the committees on credentials, contested seats and resolutions. Chairman Burke said he would leave that question to the delegates to settle, and Mr. Mullin made a motion that the chairman be empowered to appoint the committees. The motion was defeated, the vote being 21-17. Mr. McElaine then re-moved the nomination of P. E. Joyce for chairman, and it was seconded as before. John McGrath nominated J. H. Mullin for chairman and Charles Curry seconded the nomination. Joyce was elected, the vote standing: Joyce, 29; Mullin, 19. Previous to this the convention decided to vote that the delegates present their credentials before voting on the chairmanship, and two contested delegates were each allowed a vote. The arduous work devolving upon Secretary Rutledge, on motion Michael Neville Donnelly was elected to assist him. Chairman Joyce appointed as a committee on contested seat John McElaine, Patrick Leonard and Peter Wall. The refusal of several delegates to act as a committee on resolutions caused the chairman to instruct the committee on contested seats to fill both positions. The proceedings thus far indicated that the whole move, as predicted in THE TRIBUNE yesterday, was to knock out Finney at all hazards. How well the work was done is best told by the report submitted by the committee on contested seats. It was 1.10 o'clock when the convention reconvened. Where Finney had seventeen delegates up to the time of submitting credentials the committee unseated nine, thereby leaving Mr. Finney but eight. The report caused a whirlwind of indignation among Mr. Finney's friends. Notably among those unseated was George Bus of the Seventh ward of Pittston who defeated Edward Small by a vote of 44 to 24. Notwithstanding this fact Small was seated and Bus required to stand aside. During the interval Mr. Finney and his friends seeing the despicable methods practiced, decided after a careful review of the situation not to allow his name to go before the convention—and upon its presentation by J. H. Mullin, in a speech remarkable for its eloquence, withdrew it.

John McElaine was next accorded the floor and nominated W. H. Rutledge, Frank Laughney nominated James Hawley and John McHugh nominated William Kelly. Delegate J. H. Mullin moved that the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes be dropped after the first ballot. After being submitted to a vote it was passed unanimously. The voting then proceeded after the appointment of J. J. Mangano and Delph Glennon as tellers. The vote resulted: Rutledge, 24; Kelly, 19; Hawley, 3. Mr. Rutledge having received a majority of all votes cast was declared elected. He was called before the convention and in a brief speech thanked the delegates for their honor conferred. He closed by pledging, if elected, to do all in his power to merit the confidence reposed in him. The meeting thereupon adjourned sine die.

NOTES OF THE CONVENTION.
Attorney Tom Shea, of Nanticoke, was present and took more than a passing interest in the proceedings.
Professor K. E. Shiel was an interested spectator throughout the entire proceedings. The professor is a close student of human nature and evidently learned a thing or two while complacently holding down his lofty seat.
Officer P. J. Earley, while acting the part of peace-maker, conducted himself in a manner that won encomiums of praise.

The "dignity" for revenues only was as usual to be found, and in two instances had the effrontery to ask $75 for expenses (7). Happily, however, he went away as empty as he came; a self confessed boodler.
Detective James O'Brien, of the Lohigh Valley railroad, was an active spectator. The conduct of a few of the delegates has sealed their fate, socially speaking, with the lynx-eyed detective.
