Pitchers Hodson and Flanagan Too Much for Kelly's Peanuts.

AN EXCITING TWELVE INNING GAME

Scranton by Timely Hitting in the Twelfth Inning Takes a Lead Which the "Only Mike" Could Not Overcome—Harrisburg, Hazleton and Altoona the Other State League Winners Yesterday—National and Eastern League Results—Various Base Ball, Bicycle, and Other Sporting Notes of Common Concern.

HARRISBURG still continues to lead the State League clubs in the race for the pennant by a good margin, while Hazleton is giving Altoona a hard tussle for second place, following Reading. Scranton appears to hold as tenaciously as ever as leader of the second division as it did earlier in the season to the fall end. However her chances for distancing Reading for the piece are very assuring at present. Altoona, Pottsville and Easton bring up in the rear in the order named.

The following table gives the percentages of the clubs, together with the number of games won and lost by each, and their standing in the championship race:

Club	Won	Lost	Per Ct.
Harrisburg	24	7	.774
Altoona	21	12	.636
Hazleton	21	13	.615
Reading	14	16	.467
Scranton	13	17	.433
Pottsville	12	17	.414
Pottsville	8	17	.320
Easton	7	16	.304

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Easton at Scranton.
Altoona at Hazleton.
Reading at Harrisburg.
Pottsville at Altoona.

EXCITING TWELVE INNING GAME.

It Was a Long Pull and a Hard Pull, but Our Pets Won.

"Now watch me go out and do up those dubs of yours," said King Kelly yesterday afternoon in the cafe under the grand stand, as he wiped the lingering drops of ginger ale from his chestnut mustache.

That was before the game. When the conflict was over and a victory had been recorded for Scranton the lordly Michael said never a word, but he looked unutterable things at Umpire Rinn, and the light that shone in his eyes was not exactly kindly as the general on Pete Browning, Joe Mulvey and other members of his galaxy of stars of the past.

It was one of the most exciting games of the season and twelve innings were played before Scranton could claim it as a victory. "Our pets" got together in the twelfth and lined out sufficient hits to bring four runs across the home plate. After that Kelly gave up the struggle.

IT WAS A PITCHER'S BATTLE. Hodson was the Scranton pitcher and Mark Baldwin did the twirling for the visitors. Before Hodson went out to the park he said he was going to pitch the game of his life, and no certainty did do splendid work. In the first seven innings only twenty-six of Kelly's "Old Guard" had been at bat, and they found the ball for only two singles and a double. The double and single were made by Browning and Mulvey in the fourth, and enabled the visitors to score the only run they obtained until the eighth inning.

During the first three innings the home team fell an easy victim to Baldwin's deceptive curves but in the fourth he gave Stultz a base on balls. Phelan's sacrifice advanced him to second and he went to third on a wild pitch. Messey's single enabled Stultz to score, the first batter coming home on Westlake's drive for three bases. The latter did at third, Rogers going out from Sweeney to Kelly.

CHANGE IN THE SIXTH. In the Sixth Patchen scored another run for the home team. He was given a base on balls, just as far as second on what Stultz intended to be a sacrifice fly, stole third and reached the home plate on Phelan's long drive which was neatly trapped by Old Man Browning.

During the first five innings Kelly had held down first base, but in the sixth he sent Milligan to first and donated the meek and breast plate himself that he might have the opportunity to rattle-dazzle the umpire. His protests and antics drew forth shouts of derision from the audience. It was evident that Michael's kindly title did not impress them a bit. Then the beauty became angry and pointed and shouted, but still the crowd gazed and gazed until "the only" was quite disgusted.

TROUBLE IN THE EIGHTH. It looked like a certain victory for Scranton until the eighth. Baldwin went to first on Westlake's error and Wood followed with a Texas league hit that Hogan and Phelan went for, but between them contrived to let fall to the ground. Wise bunted and Patchen lined the ball to Westlake who failed to handle it properly, and Baldwin was secure on third. Then the king went to the bat and sent a fly out to George Stultz. It was trapped, but before it could be returned to the infield Baldwin had scored.

Browning then came to the rescue with a hit between Messey and Phelan, on which Wood and Wise scored. That put the "Old Guard" in the lead. Mulvey and Milligan, the next batters, were put out, but there was a large, ominous cloud of gloom in the grand stand at that time.

Messey opened the ninth inning for the home team by going out from Mulvey to Milligan, but Westlake had better luck and made a single. Rogers also went out from Mulvey to Milligan, but Westlake moved up to second. It was Hodson's turn to bat, but Manager Swift directed Doran to take his place.

DORAN'S TIMELY HIT. It proved a wise action for Doran hammered the ball for two-bases and Westlake brought in the run that tied the score. Hogan went out on a fly to Browning.

As Hodson had been taken out of the game when Doran was sent to bat in his place, he could not again go in the box and Flanagan was directed to pitch the remainder of the game. He did upper work and was given faultless support.

No runs were scored by either side in the tenth or eleventh, but in the twelfth there was a great display of fireworks. Hogan flung out to Sweeney, but Westlake and Patchen, the second-inning batsman each secured singles. Stultz struck out and the hopes for the game centered in Phelan. He reached first on Sweeney's error and Messey went to the bat with the bases filled and drove out the ball for two bases, allowing Westlake and Patchen to score.

WESTLAKE TO THE RESCUE. Westlake followed with a corking single and Phelan and Messey scored. Rogers, the next batsman, also made a single but the inning was brought to a close by Flanagan, being retired from Wise to Sweeney. Allentown could not score in the twelfth and the battle was won by Scranton. The score:

CLINTS FROM THE DIAMOND. Hogan had an off day at the last yesterday. When Kelly struck out in the sixth inning, a mighty cheer went up, such as had not previously been heard on the grounds. If "our pets" would struggle opener for victory as they did yesterday after the eighth inning, they would win many more games.

The Young Men's Christian Union Base Ball team, of Olyphant, defeated the Adams yesterday afternoon by a score of 10 to 5.

On account of having failed to obey Manager Swift's instructions while at bat yesterday, Higgins was given a day off for repentance.

The American Stars defeated the Penn Avenue Stars yesterday by a score of 7 to 6. The game was played on the Penn Avenue grounds and was witnessed by a large number of persons.

June 12, 1894. To whom it may concern: This is to certify that the base ball grounds known as the "James Boys' Grounds" have been let to the St. Thomas College Base Ball club to use on June 13, 1894. All rights reserved for the said club. (Signed) J. J. MULLANEY, Manager James Boys' Base Ball club.

The stockholders of the Base Ball association held a meeting last evening at which overtures were made for the amicable settlement of the differences that exist with regard to a board of directors. It is probable that at a special meeting to be held tomorrow night a settlement will be arrived at. At the same meeting a constitution and by-laws will be considered.

The Scranton Juniors defeated the boot-blacks by a score of 14 to 5 yesterday. The Juniors are Rooster Tierney, manager; Stanley Meyer, captain; James Cooper, pitcher; Stanley Meyer, catcher; Eugene Troft, second catcher; James Aragona, short stop; Austin Gorman, first base; Frank Aragona, second base; Fred Straw, third base; Charles Schrader, right field; John Brown, center field; Harry Decoration, left field.

NOTES ABOUT BICYCLE MEET. A handsome banner has been stretched across Lackawanna Avenue, advertising the Scranton club's meet on July 4.

The task of supplying refreshments for the wheelmen will be no small one, but the members of the Scranton club need not fear that they will not be equal to it. The club house on Washington Avenue is decorated with handsome banners and signs advertising the meet. Very many members meet there every evening and all are enthusiastic in working for the success of the enterprise inaugurated. This is the greatest undertaking the club has ever had upon its hands, but it is encouraging to see each member rushing forward into a committee of one to work for the success of the affair. The prize offered for the largest number of wheelmen in the parade should excite a great deal of rivalry among the clubs in this section. The prize is valued at $50. A large number of cyclists from Binghamton are expected to participate.

St. H. Clifford, Near Casool, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shephard, Harrisburg, Pa., had a running sore on his leg, eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catwaba, O., had a large sore on his leg. His leg doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely.
