POLICE COURT NOTINGS.

Charles Minick, of 267 Fifth street, was arrested on a warrant issued by the mayor which charged Minick with committing an assault and battery on his father. It appears that the young man does not work and is engaged in fitting himself for the duties of a Congregationalist, to which vocation his father has well grounded objections. When arraigned yesterday morning young Minick expressed sorrow for his assault upon his father and on his promise to go to work and behave himself as becomes a person who looks upon life as a serious problem, the charge was withdrawn and he was discharged.

Patrick Tighe, aged 15; William Macker, 18; John Judge, 18; Patrick Foley, 14; and Frank Judge, 15, were charged with having made a raid on the cherry tree in the yard of Judge Archibald at Monroe avenue and Ludlow streets. They admitted their guilt and were held in $100 bail each for their appearance at court.

BIG PRICE PAID FOR A LOT.
Kenneb & Carter Paid $37,500 for One of Washington Avenue.

The property on which the paragonage of the First Presbyterian church stands on Washington avenue, has been sold by the trustee of the church to Kennedy & Carter for $37,500. It is 50 feet in front and 150 feet deep, and the price is the largest ever paid for a lot in this city.

It is the intention of the purchasers to at once erect a large business structure on it which will probably be occupied by the Fiske & Spear Hardware company.

Scranton's Business Interests.

This Tribune will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new orders and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of this Tribune will call upon those whose NAMES ARE DESIRED in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring visitors of their residences in this edition will please have notice at the office.

Delightful Outing.
The Young Women's Christian association excursion to Farview on Saturday, June 16, will afford a delightful outing. Lunch will be served on the grounds for 25 cents, and ice cream, fruit, home made candy and lemonade will be for sale. Trains will leave Bridge street at 8 a. m., and Vine street at 8:30 a. m., and will stop at Green Bridge and Providence. Tickets must be exchanged at office for use on regular trains. Tickets 75 cents, adults; 40 children, can be obtained at St. C. & Seeley's, Sanderson's and Y. W. C. A. rooms.

Special Meeting of the Pastor's Union.
A special meeting of the Scranton Pastor's union will be held at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, Monday morning, June 18, at 11 o'clock for the consideration of important business connected with Sunday closing. Full attendance desired.
F. A. DOWD, Secretary.

The Success which Hood's Sarsaparilla has had in freeing old and young from afflictions caused by impure blood is really remarkable.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Children's Day Exercises at Scranton Street Baptist Church.

GAVE A SUNDAY SCHOOL SOCIAL.

Classes Six and Seven of Washburn Street Presbyterian Church entertain at St. David's Hall—Abel Thomas at Point of Death While His Brother is Being Buried—Many Notes and Personal of Interest.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 113 North Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.

One of the most successful affairs which has been given on this side in some time was the entertainment and social of Classes 6 and 7 of the Sunday school of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church in St. David's Hall last evening. The room was exquisitely decorated. On the raised platform were placed large potted plants, the plants being almost hidden in the green foliage. Flowers adorned the walls, which occupied the rear of the room. The four long tables were tastefully arranged with flowers. Wellington Linton was chosen chairman. The classes are under the instruction of Misses Campbell and Nichols, and are composed of the following members: Number 6—Misses Ethel Hutton, Annie Bunnell, Alice Jones, Jennie Devan, Mattie Phillips, Clara Hughes, Katie and Maggie Schellenberger, Ida Hazlett, Hattie McCracken, Mabel Boltry; Number 7—Misses Dora Jacobs, Lilla Porter, Ethel Evans, Mary Jones.

CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES.

Interesting Services to Be Held in Scranton Street Baptist Church.

The Sunday school of the Scranton Street Baptist church will celebrate Children's Day with an interesting service tomorrow at 10 o'clock. The service is entitled "Christ our King" and consists of addresses, dialogues, recitations, choruses, anthems, solos and Scripture readings, and is in charge of Dr. T. M. Sanderling, the leader of the Sunday school chorus. The primary department, under the direction of Miss Alice Watkins, teacher, and Miss Edith Mowers, organist, have made special preparations for the occasion. The church choir, with Thomas G. Evans leader, will sing anthems. The decorations are expected to eclipse all previous efforts. An offering will be taken for Sunday school work among the Freedmen and Indians. Usual Sabbath school services at 2 o'clock will be dispensed with. Rev. William Parsons will preach at the evening service.

A SAD FAMILY AFFLICTION.

William Thomas buried and a Brother at Point of Death.

The funeral of William Thomas, aged 34 years, who resided at the home of Mrs. Martha Davies, took place yesterday afternoon from her home on North Hyde Park avenue, where impressive services were conducted by Rev. Peter Roberts. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery. The pall bearers were David Jones, Benjamin Hughes, Thomas Lawrence, Lot Ludwig, Christopher and Daniel Robertson. The floral tributes were numerous.

Abel Thomas, of Dacker's court, brother of the deceased, William Thomas, is lying very low in a Philadelphia hospital. Mr. Thomas underwent an operation a few days ago from which there is little hope of his recovery. His wife who accompanied him to assist in the nursing, is also ill.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Insurance Companies are Taking South Side Property Owners to Task.

TOMORROW'S Y. W. C. A. EXERCISES

Miss Rose Stalheber Will Lead in the Absence of the Appointed Lecturer. Minooka Residents Anxious to Join the City of Scranton—Interesting Personals and Shorter Paragraphs of Interest.

In accordance with the rules of the Underwriters' Fire Association, the property owners of the South Side who have insured their houses are at work now in complying with any regulations in their policies that bear on the question.

Some of them are afraid that if a fire breaks out and their houses were destroyed no insurance would accrue, from the fact that some fires break out under suspicious circumstances here lately. On that account any possible informality in compliance with the strict rules of the insurance companies is being looked after.

Under the influence of the "China Hall" social given at the home of Miss Mamie Convey of Tech Street.

On Thursday evening a most enjoyable social was given by Miss Mamie Convey at her home on Beech street. The rooms were decorated with taste and every effort was made to make the occasion an enjoyable one. Among the out of town guests were Miss S. O'Connor, Peckville; Messrs W. Sweeney, T. McLoughlin, F. Devine and P. Price, Wilkes-Barre, and J. Nolan and W. Kelly of Pittston. Among those from this city were Misses A. O'Hara, M. Moran, A. Hannon, E. Coyne, L. Coyne, L. Foley, S. AT THE Y. W. C. A. ROOMS.

Miss Stalheber Will Deliver the Lecture Tomorrow at the Usual Hour.

The regular exercises at the South Side Young Women's Christian association were expected to be led by Miss Stalheber. But for the reason that she could not be on hand there was a change made, and Miss Rose Stalheber will deliver the lecture in her stead.

On Sunday afternoon it is the custom to proceed to the regular exercises with a song service. This will be omitted tomorrow, and the opening number will be the lectures.

The title will be "Forget Self, Serve Others," Matthew xxv. 34-36

TO JOIN THE CITY.

A Section of Minooka Wants to Become a Part of Scranton.

The residents from the city line to the street that crosses the steep hill leading to Greenwood are speaking of circulating a petition for the object of knowing who are favorable toward becoming a part of the city of Scranton. Since Taylor avenue and the town Heights were separated from the city, the residents have talked over the matter very often.

It is probable that an application will soon be made to court for admission to the city. Some of the most notable residents are in favor of annexation.

SOUTH SIDE NOTINGS.

The parade of the Scranton Athletic club takes place tonight.
