

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

Do not spend your time trying to find out what Congress has done,

But come where apparent facts stare you in the face,

We Show only the Newest, Best, the Cheapest Goods to be found.

Beautiful Airy White Goods

As the warm days advance, interest increases in the airy, cloud-like White Goods now on the counters in greater profusion of exquisite conceits than ever before. Conventional designs have been slighted for the expression of newer ideas.

The moderate prices add to the attractiveness of the offering:

PITTSBURGH.

The town council met in special session in the town hall last evening to consider the rules and ordinances submitted by Solicitor Bohan. The quarterly report of Burgess Maloney was presented and approved. Borough Trustee Thomas Kelly tendered his resignation to take effect at once. It was accepted and the election of his successor taken up. There were three aspirants for the position, Councilman Reap presented the name of Charles McLean, Councilman Donnelly announced Ernest Erastus and Councilman Kennedy nominated James Fleming. Mr. McLean was elected on the first ballot. He received six votes, Fleming one and Gago one. The firemen submitted for the approval of the council a communication notifying them of the election of Gas J. Lewellyn as chief of the fire department and praying for his confirmation. It was rejected by a vote of 6 to 4. Kennedy, Tighe, Hannigan and Kearney voted for confirmation and Messrs. Donnelly, Mangan, Lynnott, Maloney, Reap and Clark voted against.

Albert Brown, the firm of Sacks & Brown, next occupied the attention of the council in regard to the order held by him for $1,722.60 drawn in favor of Andrew & Healy and which was still unpaid. His grievance was referred by the committee on finance. Mr. Honnigan moved that the street committee and two additional members be empowered to treat with the Traction company with regard to the settlement of the difference existing between the Traction company and the borough, and in the meantime to restrain the company from entering the borough until such time as they comply with the provisions of the ordinance passed at the last meeting of the council. The reading of the new rules and ordinances for the government of the borough was next taken up, after which an adjournment was taken.

At the direction of President of Council J. J. Mangan, Chief of Police L. F. arrested fifteen of the traction company's workmen yesterday afternoon. The workmen were tearing out the planks that flush the rails at the forks of the road on South Main street. The reason assigned for stopping them was that the company officials have not signed the contract agreed upon between the council and citizens' committee on the one side and the company on the other, although verbally agreeing to it. The foreman of the company says it was necessary to remove the planks in order to string wires along the rails, and it was his indication to replace them immediately. Burgess Maloney was sent for, and he took down the names of the workmen and allowed them to go. Later in the evening another gang was arrested and were ordered to appear before the Burgess Wednesday afternoon for a hearing.
