At 4 o'clock the mothers and sisters of the pupils assembled at the studio and were treated with an unusually fine programme. The last number was not over until 5.30.

Superintendent George W. Phillips gave an address which was replete with encouraging compliments of the pupils, The remarks of Mr. Phillips were high-ly pleasing to all in attendance.

The proficiency of the pupils was gratifying and Miss Hardenbergh can be assured that the work is most thorough and satisfactory.

The exercises yesterday were delightful, the work of some of the little ones being especially fine. Prizes were awarded to Miss Myrtis Foote, laughter of Frank B.
