SCRANTON, JUNE 27, 1914.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

- For Governor: DANIEL H. HASTINGS, OF CENTRAL. For Lieutenant Governor: WALTER LYON, OF ALLEGHENY. For Auditor General: AMOS H. MYLIN, OF LANCASTER.

LACKAWANNA COUNTY is none too poor to expend $500 for the capture of a brutal murderer. If the commissioners of this county cannot be made to feel warranted in offering a reward for Misdala's apprehension, it will be in order to pass the hat for voluntary subscriptions.

Singerly Versus Hastings. The nomination today of William M. Singerly by the Pennsylvania Democracy, already practically assured, will be no less gratifying to Republicans than to Democrats.

The Saloon in Politics. An interesting effort is being made in the New York constitutional convention to "take the saloon out of politics." Delegate McKinstry, of Chautauque county, is the champion of the movement. He proposes to abolish the existing license system and substitute instead a scheme similar to that now in vogue in Ohio.

THE GREAT SOLVENT. American liberty is the solvent which binds into one people all nationalities and tongues and creeds. We have today the living witnesses of its beneficent power. Many of us were in the hot and dusty strife, and, though it is hardly more than a quarter of a century since our lines of battle were drawn, you and I can cordially cry "Hail to the victors!"

Mr. SINGERLY frankly confesses that he doesn't expect to be elected; which is a sample of frankness that would effectually dismantle his boom, could any good liar be found to take his place.

It is a suggestive circumstance that in this age of reason and civilization, on this continent of equal rights, at the very capital of this free government, the fear of his attempted assassination should induce the president of the United States, upon the advice of friends, to redouble the guards around the executive mansion and take extra precautions to keep himself secure from harm.

Unhappily the facts are all in favor of the theory that the most peaceable and conscientious citizen, to whom official responsibility has brought publicity and prominence, is personally unsafe. The law does not afford protection against the sudden crimes of the inflamed maniac.

Violence does not help. Amendment can only come through the operation of causes beyond the control of men who make the laws. The Labor Problem. Philadelphia Record. The SCRANTON TRIBUNE celebrated its third anniversary on June 29 by issuing a handsome illustrated number containing some account of itself and of the bustling city in which it is printed.

admitted into the American labor market free means to degrade the American laborer on a level with the pauper laborers of Europe. I cannot see that it is our duty to sacrifice the future of our land and the welfare of our children to benefit the alien and the stranger.

Many people believe this. Few say it. The others are afraid. Dr. Peters is not. Give him credit at least for courage and candor.

POSTMASTER ERHARDT, whose appointment to the Moscow postmaster-ship replaced Miss Pyle and occasioned adverse criticism, takes exception to a statement in this paper, published June 9, wherein it was said that he was not a representative citizen and that he had accepted his appointment through grateful Democratic influences in this city.

IT IS A FAVORITE excuse of derelict officials that newspaper publicity spoils their chances of successful work. Yet for every criminal that that publicity aids to escape, it sends a score to the penitentiary and the jail.

THE ISSUE of "tariff reform," concerning which the Philadelphia Times talks so glibly, is most assuredly not dead yet.

SENATOR HILL PROTESTS. From the Senate Speech. I protest against that lack of foresight and judgment upon the part of some professed Democrats who always seem anxious to adopt whatever the Republicans and people have repudiated.

THE NEW YORK proposition is not much of an advance beyond the excise law now in vogue in the Empire state; and it is very evidently a failure so far as its purpose of cleansing politics is concerned.

THE HUNDREDS of other foreigners that swarm the coal regions are an important factor in the railway and financial business of this section, remarked Arthur Barke, the Lackawanna's general representative in his speech for action on the strike, and, though it is hardly more than a quarter of a century since our lines of battle were drawn, you and I can cordially cry "Hail to the victors!"

NEW YORK'S BIG TENEMENTS. NEW YORK, June 19.—A census of the tenement house districts, made as a basis for a communication to the tenement house commission, shows the following interesting figures: Population, 1,192,414. Over five years, 1,192,414. Under five years, 180,350.

such a foundation it is increasingly difficult to build stable and equitable government. Those who cry out for better things are, by their own rashness, precipitancy and madness, not only achieving no progress themselves, but are actually inviting the demoralization that they are loudest to condemn.

It is not pleasant to think that in the freest government on earth, under the shadow of the Stars and Stripes, men in positions of public responsibility should be liable to sudden removal by pistol, dirk or bomb. It is not pleasant, from the nature of the risk itself; and it is doubly unpleasant when we reflect upon how widespread is the discontent in which this peril is bred; and how utterly senseless, cruel and unjust that discontent so frequently becomes.

IT IS A FAVORITE excuse of derelict officials that newspaper publicity spoils their chances of successful work. Yet for every criminal that that publicity aids to escape, it sends a score to the penitentiary and the jail.

of taxables in the state increased from 1,575,149 in 1892 to 1,662,959 in 1893, an increase of 6,447.

THE POPULAR TOE SOCIAL.

Wagon Independent. The "toe social" given by the younger and primary department of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, under the direction of Mrs. L. H. Ball, was truly a success, socially and financially.

True in All Large Cities. Baltimore American. Every street car accident is a sad but emphatic argument in favor of the adoption of a good feeder. There should be no unnecessary delay in this matter. Human life is precious.

THEIR DIFFERENT WAYS.

She sought her "rights." Robbed by some cruel chance of life's delights. With dissatisfied and restless soul; With a half belief which she counted whole; Earnest, no doubt, and honest, not unsexed.

She did not seek her "rights." She dreamed not of some path to manhood heights. But followed Nature's way, and deemed it good. And bled from flower to fruit of womanhood; She loved the "tyrant," bore her noble part.

Would die for such as she.—Anon.
