

BASE BALL

Scranton Takes Two Games from Altoona Without Even a Try.

NOT VERY INTERESTING GAMES

Harrisburg Defeated by Hazleton, Pottsville by Allentown and Easton by the Reading Club—Standing of the Clubs—National and Eastern League Results—Pertinent Base Ball, Cycling and General Sporting Notes.

BASE ball games played yesterday by the State leagues were not particularly interesting, the standing of any of the clubs in the league, except, possibly, to strengthen the chances of Scranton to maintain her hold to fifth place.

The following table gives the percentage of the clubs, together with the number of games won and lost by each, and their standing in the championship race:

Table with columns: Club, W, L, P, Ct. Rows include Harrisburg, Allentown, Hazleton, Reading, Scranton, Pottsville, Altoona, Easton.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Harrisburg at Scranton. Altoona at Hazleton. Pottsville at Easton. Reading at Allentown.

TWO MORE GAMES FROM ALTOONA.

The batsmen were very, very easy for Scranton.

A crowd of about 500 persons saw the home team take two games from Altoona yesterday afternoon by the scores of 10 to 5 in the first, and 11 to 2 in the second game of seven innings.

The results were not due so much to the credit of the home team as to the utterly demoralized and ragged work of the visitors, who in their present condition would be veritable pie for the amateurs of the Young Men's Christian association, Scranton.

Altoona's pitcher, started the first game in fairly good form, but lost heart after five innings and was played and trifled only with the intention of finishing the agony as quickly as possible.

He was also assigned the box in the second game, but after the third inning simply tossed the sphere over the plate. At the bat he was more effective, and, with Third baseman Hartman and Center Fielder Walters counted toward the run-getting.

Probably from lack of interest in the field playing of the home team was only of a mediocre quality. That they did plenty of stick work during both games does not in any measure redound to their credit. It was merely a two-sided proposition—wait for the ball, give it a swipe and then center over the bats.

Mr. McGinnis, the round-bodied, red-faced, humpy-go-lucky little agitator of base ball, contributed anew to the opinion that he will go down in history as a rank and dismal failure in his chosen calling. Although the crowd howled and yelled when Tow-Headed Donoghue lounged in from the second bag to make those mill ticks for which he is noted, it was apparent that Scranton got the best end of most of the decisions. Hartman and Schibbe took decided exceptions to Mr. McGinnis' mandates in the earlier hours of the afternoon, but finally accepted their medicine as inevitable and submitted with very few fusses.

Maloney, Scranton's recent addition to the pitching end of the team, occupied the box in the second game. He is from St. John's college, at Scranton, and has a very large list of curves and does not seem to confine himself to one more than another. He was touched up a little livelier than a really good pitcher ought to be, but did well, all things considered. Appended are the detailed scores:

Score for First Game: SCRANTON vs ALTOONA. Columns: R, H, PO, A, E.

Score for Second Game: SCRANTON vs ALTOONA. Columns: R, H, PO, A, E.

GLINTS FROM THE DIAMOND.

The No. 9 School club defeated the Samaritan Avenue Stars by a score of 14 to 0 yesterday.

Tim Keele will join the Cincinnati about the end of the week. He has accepted their terms.

Dark Ewing has fallen off so much in his play that Cleveland cranks are clamoring for a new right fielder.

Galduv made his reappearance as a league umpire at Louisville Tuesday. Paul Foyers also pitched at Pittsburgh.

Anson is still laboring under the impression that he will secure pitcher Clark of Yale as soon as the college season closes.

According to the official averages the New York club has but three men among the dozen. They are Dwyer, Davis and Van Halstra.

Anson is the only league captain to observe the rules strictly. He has forbidden his players to say a word to the umpire, and has forbidden them to talk to the press.

The Electric Serial club will play the Scranton Athletics a game of ball at the Hobart grounds on Sunday next for $100. Game called at 3 p. m.

There is harder hitting and bigger scores in the league games this season than for many years. It suits the public, judging from the vast crowds that are attending the games.

The Bellevue Pioneers challenge St. Thomas' College club to a game of ball on July 4 at 9 o'clock. Answer through Tim Foyers, 100 North Morgan, manager; Rose Laving captain.

One of the features of the playing of the season has been the base running of Dan Brotherton. "What do you pitch to Brotherton?" asked of Hutchinson. "I send in a straight ball," said Hutchinson, "and then I pray."

Fisher has been loaned to Buffalo by Cleveland, and pitched against Springfield yesterday. Cleveland bought him of Buffalo last fall for $100, but didn't find him last enough. Fisher, pitcher for Eastern the early part of last season.

The base ball club of No. 184, Young Men's Institute, O'Connell council, of Milwaukee, challenges any club of any council in the country to a game of ball on the Milwaukee grounds. Answer through J. J. Turner, John Egan, manager; P. F. Cusick, captain.

The Electric, of Taylor and the Union, of 184th Park, played a very exciting game yesterday on the University grounds at Buffalo. The latter won by a score of 11 to 0. Score by innings:

Electric, 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 4-10. Union, 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 2-11. One of the kind that goes out and one that is imposed for effect and then resubmitted. Manager, Tepena thinks a good deal of the latter. He says that he would like to take no foolishness even from his favorites, and Barrett is at times just a little bit inclined to perpetrate the business of a more or less marked type. Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

The Philadelphia management is making strenuous efforts to get new players. Thompson has rejoined the team and is playing with one hand wrapped up in a cast. Clements will scarcely be likely to play again this season, one of the small bones in his right foot being broken. Never in the history of base ball has any club been so unfortunate in the matter of numerous accidents to its players as Philadelphia have been this year. In the beginning of the season the Philadelphia had what looked like a likely pennant race with the Atlanta Southern league club. Catcher Boyle is a brother of the Philadelphia player of the same name.

In a letter to a friend in Harrisburg, Pitcher Meyers of the Harrisburg club, says: "The stories published in the newspapers that I told Manager Arthur Irwin of the Philadelphia club, that I had a sore arm are absolutely without foundation. My arm is as good and strong as it ever was, and President Meyers knows it. I shall continue to pitch in every other game, and I hope I will win all of them, as I have not lost a game this season. I did not care particularly about going to Philadelphia, as I had promised Manager Hart to play in Louisville if I could get my release from Harrisburg. I don't think Irwin wanted me very badly, as he intimated that he did not want anyone to secure players for his club but himself, and he seemed jealous of the fact that Colonel Rogers had been negotiating for me without consulting him."

In an interview yesterday Manager Irwin said he did not consider the Pennsylvania league a fruitful recruiting field for the National league and declared, "We don't want Pat Massey. He wouldn't last four days, and you couldn't get him into such company with grappling hooks. Harrisburg is enjoying the sensation and is getting all the visiting possible out of the run for his services. Massey is a Philadelphia boy and need to hang around the park there. What do I know of Philadelphia? I know that he is a very fast of his feet. It is absurd to think you can pick winners out of the minor leagues. They must be seasoned in hard campaigns before they become valuable. I think the truth of this is that the plentiful. Take Philadelphia's experi-

SPORTS AT POINT BREEZE.

Massett Not Particularly Rapid Racer Against Time.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—Massett was not a particularly rapid racer in his own record of 2:07 this afternoon at Point Breeze, but the best the speedy pacer could do was 2:09. Turner would not drive the pacer for a second mile as he said the horse had done its best for to-day and that he was a little off. Simmons was a rank favorite in the 2:19 pacing class, and won easily in 2:14 1/2. In the 2:32 class the favorite, Nominator, took the race in one, two, three. Summary:

First race—2:19 pacing, purse $500. Simmons, by Philadelphia (Barnes), first; Dobbie (Hunter), second. Time, 2:14 1/2.

Second race—2:32 class, purse $500. Nominator, by Fringer (Pringle), first; like Wilkes (Kimes), second. Time, 2:14 1/2.

NOTES OF THE COMING MEET.

Sixty grand stand seats were ordered yesterday by the West End club of Wilkes-Barre.

The special train for the eastern parade in Wilkes-Barre will leave Bridge street depot at 10 o'clock Monday evening.

Headquarters will be opened in the Westminister on Wednesday morning, at which time competitors will be given their tickets.

O. S. Brandt and H. A. Allen, of the River wharves, New York, saw their entries in yesterday. They are both class B riders.

Entries exceeding sixty in number have been received and among them every town of importance in Pennsylvania and New York is represented.

A. I. Bunker, of Pittsburg, sent in his entry yesterday. He is a brother of George Bunker who is now in Paris with Zimmerman, and is one of the best class A riders in the country.

The time of entries in some of the leading races is as follows: One mile state championship, 2; two mile handicap, class A, 2; one mile five county championship, 3.

The seats in the grand stand will be suitably covered. The program will open at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. The diamond prizes will also be placed on exhibition there at the same time.

Wilkes will make a desperate effort to win the one-fourth mile state championship race, and Clifton, New York, are out for the one-half mile state championship race with good prospects of success.

The judges appointed to award the prizes to the duo having the largest number of men in line on July 4, and the club making the most, appear to be C. C. Conell, A. P. Duff, Captain E. E. Chase and A. J. Colburn.

Gardner's new Remington racing wheel arrived yesterday. Gardner will be the probable winner of the Philadelphia Pennsylvania championship race. Gray will win this race last year and is riding in very good form this season.

WHIRLS OF THE WHEEL.

Nelson, the Springfield man now in England, who appealed from the N. C. U. decision not to grant him a license, has again been refused.

The use of wheels by letter carriers in Buffalo is being favorably considered. The postoffice in that city is at present allowed $4,000 a year for car fare.

The riders suspended for riding in the Clifton Wheelmen's meet at Baltimore are said to have been warned by the referee before the races were started.

Divided skirts are very objectionable garments in Texas. The city council of El Paso has passed an ordinance prohibiting ladies from appearing on the streets attired in them.

The current number of Cycling devotees considerable space to the arrangements being made for the Scranton meet and also contains photographic reproductions of views about the city.

Bicycle polo may be a rather more expensive pastime than even the most costly variety, for it is said that at a recent match in Dublin, at the Army barrack, only one machine escaped injury.

Her Majesty, the queen of the Netherlands, is at Liverpool with her royal manum because she refuses to sanction her majesty's riding a bicycle. Possibly the royal mother does not deem cycling "quite respectable."

The race committee of the Metropolitan Association of Cycling clubs, who have not backed up in their decision to bar negroes from the Irvington-Milburn race, have resigned and a new committee will take charge of the August track races.

The West End club, of Wilkes-Barre, will be compelled to replace about $200 worth of miscellaneous prizes donated for class A events at the state meet which are not allowed under the rules. The club will give jewelry of great value in place of the forfeited prizes.

Cyclists' slang must be very mystifying to the uninitiated. When a couple of cyclists begin to converse in a loud tone before a crowd of non-cyclists, and tell of "man" "traps," "king" "hunks" and such like, no wonder the outsiders begin to doubt whether or not they are in the right place.

Jack Kelly, an old time racing man, now in Australia, has been giving some interesting facts about his career. His first race was when he was 15 years of age, and Jack Kelly was one of the competitors. It was a scratch event, and the moments of the contest were very thrilling. Kelly was upon the road. The pace may be judged by the fact that the starter also acted as checker half way, driving in a trap and leading the furious scorers. Kelly won the event.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES.

E. J. Baldwin is reported to have won $20,000 on Key St. Santa Anita's victory in the American derby.

Sandow, the strong man, will be in New York in July, and is pleased that Bonnus has agreed to a contest of strength, for which he has offered $10,000 with the New York Herald.

Peter Maher and Frank Craig, the "Harlem Coffee Cooler," have been matched to fight a limited number of rounds in Boston the latter part of next month. Large bets are being made. They will fight for a purse of $1,000.
