

JUNE SHOPPING

That summer is in our midst and its imperative demands confront us...

Dress Goods

There are few suggestions which the shopper will appreciate and aid materially in selecting summer gowns.

Buy the Stylish Goods

Get those patterns which are most suited to your figure and station. And by all means buy what will make you comfortable during the hot summer days.

Covert Cloth Serge, Cheviot Serge, Colored Suitings

French Novelty Dress Goods in two-tone effects—cheeks and stripes. All-wool Twills in Tans, Grays, Browns, Blues, Heliotropes and Changeable Effects.

Challies and Organdies

We are showing the finest assortment of Imported Challies and Organdies that can be found to contain all that can be desired for this most popular fabric.

Summer Silks

Recommenced ladies of good taste will find it most advantageous occasion. An inspection of the various styles is certain to prove of more than ordinary interest.

Shirt Waists

Perfume and Lawn. Printed China Silk Waives. Laundry Waives. Full Length Waives. Laundry Waives in Linen Effects.

French Sateens

Come with the regularity of the seasons. Lovely as ever. Always new in design and soft effects. Broadcloth, figured, plain and fancy colors.

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

JERMYN

Hiram Neal, of Thompson, registered at the St. George, yesterday.

Johnnie, the youngest child of John Monrodd, died yesterday morning.

The social of the Nineteenth Century club at the Windsor hotel on Wednesday evening was a success.

Those attending report an exceptionally pleasant time.

W. K. Beck, of Moscow, was a Jermyrn visitor yesterday.

The freight station of the Ontario and Western railroad was broken into on Wednesday night.

A number of cases containing boots and shoes were broken open and about $100 worth taken.

There is no clue to the thieves. Thursday evening being the last time that Professor Davies (the instructor of the Sacred Heart choir) would meet with them until after the summer vacation.

The choir appreciates the instructions received, also Father Lynott's kindness in providing such an efficient instructor.

A letter expressing the thanks of the choir was sent to the reverend gentleman.

A Gavin is much improving the appearance of the Forest House by a coat of paint.

Editor Bonny and Professor and Mrs. E. D. Boyan accompanied the Mrs. excursion to Niagara Falls.

You will enjoy your Fourth better by staying in town attending the lawn social on the St. James church grounds than by going out of town.

In St. James church Wednesday evening occurred the marriage of Lincoln A. Green to Ellen Corleina Pennington.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride looked lovely in broad white silk and was escorted by her brother, George Pennington, Jr., and Miss Ida Davis.

Rev. Mr. Howells performed the ceremony. The church was crowded with friends and many from out of town.

REMARKED BY R. C. Joiner, of Allen P. O., Hilldale, Mich.: "Nothing gave my rheumatism such quick relief as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—believe it infallible for rheumatism."

KEYSTONE ACADEMY.

H. W. Loomis, of Mexico, N. Y., is visiting his son, Principal Loomis.

B. F. Thomas, E. J. Dunlap, F. M. Carpenter and E. W. Kutzner will spend their vacation in Ulster and Sullivan counties, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. York and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phillips, of Dr. Ruyter, N. Y., are visiting their sister, Mrs. C. E. York.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitford, of Brookfield, N. Y., were recent guests of their son, Professor Whitford.

All pronounce this commencement one of the pleasantest in the history of the school. The attendance of alumni and friends was much larger than usual.

The new catalogue is ready for distribution. It is a very handsome and tasty pamphlet, and is even an improvement on last year's catalogue.

Four Big Successes. Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect cure.

All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold by Matthews Bros' drug store.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

CARBONDALE.

At the annual meeting of the Carbondale board of health on Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected: President, John Copeland; secretary, E. S. Jones; health officer, L. J. Bunnell; sanitary officer, M. L. Barrett.

Minnie Bloomer, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bloomer, is convalescing from a severe illness of Scarlet fever.

H. E. Essign, of Waymart, was a Carbondale visitor yesterday.

Miss Cora Chase, of Sidney, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Miss Grant Nicholson, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Madison, of North Grove street, are mourning the death of their little son, Frederic, who died yesterday morning after two weeks' illness.

Funeral will be held at home this afternoon. Interment will be made in St. Rose cemetery.

This evening will be held the regular weekly prayer meeting in the township school house, Rav. W. B. Grow, leader.

A consignment of furniture which consisted of forty units arrived in this city yesterday morning and in the afternoon was distributed through the bed rooms on the second floor of the new Hotel American.

At the last business meeting of the Baptist society of Christian Endeavor the society desired to purchase an organ for the use in their mission in the township school house.

Miss Iattie Hutchins was in attendance at the commencement exercises at Millersville yesterday.

A committee representing the Maplewood Cemetery association drove to Mayfield Wednesday for the purpose of examining the plot under consideration for the site of the new cemetery.

At the Grand Opera house to-night will be held the annual commencement exercises of St. Rose academy. The members of the graduating class are Misses K. Flannely, H. O'Dowd, K. Gilhoel and M. Walker.

L. H. Bassett and family of Lincoln avenue will leave on Saturday for Ocean Grove where they will enjoy a month's visit.

W. D. Frank, of Scranton, passed last evening with Carbondale friends.

HONESDALE.

At St. Magdalene church yesterday at 9 a. m. Miss Minnie Krantz was united in marriage to Jacob Theobald.

The bride was attended in her wedding dress and wore a veil. The bridesmaids, Miss Annie Krantz and Miss Theobald, wore cream albatross. The groomsmen were Messrs. Krantz and Theobald, brothers of the bride and groom.

A dance will be held this afternoon and evening at the Pioneer hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Theobald have a nicely furnished home on lower Second street.

A number of traps have been taken in the vicinity of Honesdale. Yesterday morning one giving his name as Thos. Connolly, was arrested by Constable Brown near the residence of Homer Green.

When taken in custody he plunged his hands in his inside coat pocket. He was taken before Squier Smith and examined. A long knife was found in his pocket, and a chisel and a small pair of burglar forceps, used in unlocking doors found on his person.

He was taken in custody on answering the description of one of the burglars of the groceryman Henderson at Newburg. Deputy Sheriff Rodolph Fluss, of Newburg, is staying near Honesdale, as he thinks the murderers are near here.

He went to the jail and said that Connolly was not the man. Connolly is still in jail. He had been bugging about Honesdale.

A horse and buggy owned by Harvey Bishop was standing in front of Meninger & Co.'s dry goods store this morning.

The horse and cart of George S. Keen was standing behind Mr. Bishop's buggy. The horse moving forward drew the wheels of the wagon under the buggy and overturned it, damaging the buggy and harness and slightly injuring the horse.

Leon A. Gialo, of Galston, Pa., is visiting in Honesdale.

Mrs. Eva Durland, Louise Durland, Antonette Durland, Mrs. J. D. Weston and Mrs. C. R. Brady are at Upper Woods Lake.

Mrs. Otto Herzog and son, of New York city, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Herzog's father, Henry Grambs.

Criticizing a Young Lady. "She would be a pretty girl for but one thing."

"What's that?" asked Charley. "George—her face is always covered with purple and red blotches."

Charley—Oh, that's easily enough disposed of. Used to be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time.

George—What was it? Charley—Simply blood eruptions. Took a short course of P. P. P. I tell you, it's the best blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism and had that you could hear him holler clear across the country every time he moved. He tried it, and you know what an athletic old gent he is now. If somebody would give Miss Daisy a pointer, she would thank them tenfold. All the drug stores sell it.

FOREST CITY.

Joseph Davis' drug store will open Monday with a complete stock of goods. The store will be conducted by his brother, Alfred Davis, who has had over twenty years experience as a druggist. Pure drugs at reasonable prices at Dr. M. Maxey block.

T. P. Johns and wife, of Pleasant Mount, were callers in this place yesterday.

All citizens who are interested in the prosperity and the gradual improvement of Forest City should attend the board of trade meeting tonight. Business of importance will be transacted and it is desired that all who are members, or wish to become members, be present.

The Epworth League Chapter in this place elected the following officers last Tuesday evening: President, E. M. Maxey; secretary, Miss Jessie Smith; treasurer, Arthur M. Westgate.

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Blakeslee are in Philadelphia.

Among the Scrantonians in town yesterday were Charles R. Sanderson, S. S. Seamans and John G. McAcker.

A very interesting game of checkers will be played at the Olympic club rooms in this place next Monday, commencing at 1 p. m., between John Carbondale, of Scranton, the champion checker player at northeastern Pennsylvania, and Clarence W. Lawrie, of Thompson, who is well known in this place as a very clever player.

G. M. Patterson, M. Lyvane and F. Larkin, prominent Carbondale citizens, were in this borough yesterday.

STROUDSBURG.

The first annual commencement of the East Stroudsburg State Normal school took place this morning at 10 o'clock and it was a success from beginning to end.

The normal school never looked prettier than it did this morning. Flowers, pretty girls and gay dresses were sprinkled among the more staid garments of the older people.

The sweet girl graduates were all that could be desired in the matter of dress. They presented a handsome appearance grouped upon the stage, which was one mass of flowers.

The exercises were under supervision of Professor George P. Bible and president of the board of trustees, and were opened with prayer by Rev. William Yonushon of the East Stroudsburg Presbyterian church. The orations and recitations delivered by members of the class were given in a way that showed careful study and thorough acquaintance with the subjects at hand.

Following are the names of the graduates for 1894: Helen Keltie, Anna Brady, Mary Broadhead, Anna Bash, Hattie Corby, Bessie Connell, Anna Corbett, Lottie Cope, Tillie Cochran, Lizzie Cyphers, Kate Cunningham, Kate Fox, Alice Fisher, Mary Gilligan, Lydia Gilmar, Susie Gordon, Laura Griffin, Anna Gangman, Nellie Gillespie, Lizzie Hays, Emma Henrick, Ethel Hancock, Ella Koberling, Elizabeth Heath, Grace Hicks, Lina Johnson, Marna Kelly, Anna Kelly, Mae Kenny, Jennie Kime, Maggie Kervin, Daisy LaBarre, Teresa McCauley, Mame McHale, Lizzie McCarthy, Esther Moses, Laura Miller, Mary Morrow, Grace Morrow, Mary Malen, Louise Neumiller, Mary O'Da, Katie Orr, Alberta O'Neil, Nellie Richards, Lina Hogan, Winifred Scanlon, Emily Stacker, Gertrude Snyder, Carrie Snyder, Katie Shields, Maud Shields, Margaret Sorenson, Kate Tennant, Nellie Turner, Lila VanDixen, Bess VanDixen, Nettie Vail, Sarah Weaver, Lottie White, Maude Williams, Thomas Costenbader, John Golden, Frank Collins, Edward Colburn, Harry Foster, H. Jackson, Howard Kunkin, J. P. Lord, John McCall, Francis McCarthy, Michael McLonnagan, Richard Rinker.

WAVERLY.

J. K. George, of Chicago, is visiting at the handsome home of his father-in-law, A. J. Smith.

Miss Francis Bolton, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. Grace George.

Richard L. Cowles from the North Carolina Lumber company, and Miss Amy Manley from Providence, have been visiting at A. B. Cowles this week.

A. G. Gilmer's family is here visiting at the home of Mrs. M. A. Sherman.

Martin Tighe, formerly of the Clark Summit hotel, is now catering to the wants of the weary traveler at the Waverly House.

Alex. Barrington, of Scranton, visited at the Little Delmonico on Wednesday.

Mrs. O. H. Jadin and her son, Palmer Jadin, of New York, are occupying their summer cottage at Glenburn.

Will Stevenson, of Sayre, Pa., returned to his home yesterday after spending a few pleasant days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stevenson.

The thermometer has been hovering around the nineties for some time, but politics seems to be about 100 in the shade.

Mrs. Sterling Bedford is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

Washington camp, No. 314 of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, held their regular meeting at Bliss's hall on Wednesday night.

Arthur H. Storrs, from Scranton, is spending the summer at the beautiful home of G. A. Fuller.

Some of the Republicans of this part of the county favor the call for an early convention.

The season at Lily Lake will be opened tonight (Friday) with a grand ball at Dan Coray's new dancing pavilion.

Miss Browncombe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Derman and Miss Emma Stevens, of Scranton, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jermyrn.

Mrs. E. P. Richardson and son Bedford, from Binghamton, are guests at the cozy home of Mrs. Andrew Bedford.

Rev. F. H. Person is expected home from his vacation on Saturday.

BURDOCK BLOOD BROTHERS taken after eating will relieve any feeling of weight or over fullness of the stomach. Sold everywhere.

MINOOKA.

James Macken, of St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore, Md., is visiting Rev. John Longhorne, of Minooka.

Martin W. Cusick, of Main street, left last night on the 12:59 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for Sharpville, Pa., where he will spend a few months.

Dr. Anderson and party are angling at Lake Como this week.

Mrs. Michael Casick, of Sharpville, who has been visiting here since the death of her brother, P. J. Crane, left for her home last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Glennon, of Forty Fort, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Glennon's mother in this place.

William Mahedy and family, of Avoca, have moved to this place, and will reside in a house adjoining J. J. Coyne's store.

PRICEBURG.

As a large force of men was engaged in raising a 30 foot log pole opposite the new school house, it suddenly snapped and broke at the splice in the middle. The pole, which was of pine wood, will be replaced at once by another. Our citizens never get discouraged at a little thing like that.

Mrs. M. J. Morgan, of the boulevard,

GOOD HOUSEKEEPERS

And This Refers to Men as Well as Women. THOUGHTLESS NEGLECT. The Great Danger of Burning Down the Human House—How the Fire Starts.

"Bernard Palissy has gone mad," said everybody; "he is burning up his house to bake his pots."

It was so. Wood happened to be wanting while a batch was in the oven. But the fire must not go out. He began on the garden fence; he ripped it to pieces and threw it in the furnace. Then the furniture of his house; then the floors.

The pots were baked. He was successful at last. After sixteen years of toil, study, experiment and poverty, he had discovered the secret of making earthenware—previously an Italian monopoly.

You have heard that story before? Very likely.

Yes, yes; but there is another sort of house, worth a million cottages like Palissy's. You live in one yourself. And multitudes of them are burning up, some slowly, some fast, but burning, burning, tumbling into cinders, dust ashes.

You don't see the point? Well, you will presently. A blind man can't miss it.

Read what this man says: "I was discharged from the U. S. Army, at Washington Barrack, D. C., on the 11th of last month, on the port surgeon's certificate of disability; disease produced great emaciation; weight at that time 128 pounds; former weight 166 pounds. I had been under treatment for five months, taking medicine, emulsion of cod liver oil, etc. Seeing Paskola recommended for such cases as mine I tried it and in a short time gained eleven pounds. Yours, Henry Chilton, Anacostia, D. C., April 10, 1894.

And this one: "My daughter had suffered several months from loss of appetite and general debility. She had wasted away, and at the same time she began taking Paskola weighed only 112 pounds. After using it for two weeks she had gained eight pounds. She is gaining in health and strength, and can eat and digest beefy food. As a flesh forming food, Paskola is superior to cod liver oil or other preparations for the like purpose.—William Ross, Bridgeton, N. J., April 11, 1894.

Another example: "For 28 years I have been unable to eat any fish or meat and scarcely any vegetables. I have tried many doctors and patent medicines without end. Nothing availed until I took Paskola. Five bottles of it have worked wonders. I can eat anything now. Eating is no longer a torture; it is a pleasure as nature meant it to be. In four weeks I have gained five pounds.—Charles E. Leonard, 413 Mt. Vernon street, Worcester, Mass., March 9, 1894.

Now we see the point. These people's houses, their bodies, were burning. This is no metaphor, no figure of speech; they were actually burning. Ask your doctor; read your physiology. Life is combustion—fire.

The fuel is food—what is not consumed in the ashes. The stomach is the furnace. Indigestion, dyspepsia, all disease, is either a lack of food or with food in plenty—it is the clogging of the furnace.

But shall the fire go out? If it does you die. Nature knows this and makes a fight to save you. She proceeds (like Palissy) to burning the least necessary part of the muscles. Presently you are nothing but skin and bone. If help doesn't come by this time Nature burns the important organs. No help yet? Alas, no fuel remains. The chill of death creeps on apace; frost settles on the heart; the house is untenable. You die of hunger.

Salvation lies not in drugs. Drugs are only poisons to stir up the expiring embers. They don't make heat, they won't turn, they won't build.

Can we feed the body? Can we support life? Can we keep the house warm until the digestive system (through rest and Nature's agency) is order?

Yes, by the use of Paskola, as the above cases prove. Paskola, a food full of nourishing qualities, pre-digested by a new process, enters the blood stream without disturbing the stomach (now helpless and cold) and is at once assimilated by the worn and wasted frame.

Fresh energy, new flesh, revived nervous power, increased strength, immediately result. Appetite, success, other foods digest, and the threatened life building again stands firm.

Will the man, tired, weak, emaciated, consumptive, dyspeptic, cured, men and women of the United States try to understand the value and rationale of this discovery and consent to be helped by it?

A pamphlet on food and digestion will be mailed free on application to The Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade st., New York.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Q. I have a cough. A. Paskola. American public servants should not put themselves in a position to be suspected of yielding to the temptations to vote in such a way as to put money in their pockets. Lawmakers should be especially careful not to become involved in speculations which might influence their votes. In fact they should not speculate at all.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

GOOD HOUSEKEEPERS

And This Refers to Men as Well as Women. THOUGHTLESS NEGLECT. The Great