EASTON AGAIN DISBANDS.

For the Second Time This Season Man ager Parks Has Surrendered.

McGuire. Umpire-Gaffney.

The reorganized Easton Base Ball team has gone to the wall. The club owners decided to quit, but told the players they could continue if they would play under the co-operative plan. Some of the players were willing, others were not, hence the disbandment. The players were paid in full Saturday afternoon. Manager Parks went to Gettysburg in the morning. He re-ceived considerable financial assistance when he reorganized the team, and quits, therefore without personal loss. The reorganized team has only won one game since it started to play.

Some of the men received little more than their board for their services, therefore they had very little to get. Manager Smith, of Pottsville, whose club was to have played two games with Easton Saturday afternoon, tried to get the men to play, but they re-Manager Jack Huston, of Harris-burg, virtually presented Saturday's game to Scranton by giving a trial to a to have been officially notified of the disbanding of the Easton team, so he took his men to the ground this after-

Belic hunters did nothing Thursday but slice up Raceland, the famous racer. His mane, his tail, his plates and everything that will keep was clipped off, until there was very little left of the famous breadwinner to bury. There is some talk of erecting a monument to his memory over his grave.

Horace M. Leeds, the Quaker City light-weight, has posted $1,000 to bind a match with Jack McAuliffe at 133 pounds, for $2,500 a side and the lightweight champion-ship of America. Leeds says if McAuliffe doesn't post a forfeit and accept the chai-lenge between July 1 and Aug. 1 he will claim the title of lightweight champion.
