

If you want

Carpets, Draperies,

Wall Paper or Window

Fall of Babylon Was a Credit to the Sa-The performance of the "Fall of Babylon" on Saturday night even sur-prominent people assembled giving the atories, wood, stato, Minin street, Four-teenth ward. John McCulloch, single dwelling, two stories, wood, main 1829d, wing Sx13, Throop street, First ward. Washburn Street Presbyteriau church, Yesterday the reverend gentleman preached his first sermon, taking for his text the first Epistle of the Corinthians, 2:11: "Different Gifts But One Spirit." The church was beauti-fully decorated and a large number of Shades, come to us.

We have a full line of goods, and our prices are very low.

Williams & McAnulty

127 Wyoming Ave.

CITY NOTES.

There will be a meeting of the board of managers of Florence mission Tuesday, July 3, at 10 p. m.

The recital of the pupils of Professor E. E. Southworth will begin at 4 o'clock at Young Men's Christian Association hall this afternoon

Dr. Joseph Parry will be adjudicator at the big musical festival to be held at Lake Ariel July 4 under the auspices of St. Mary's Catholic church of Dunmore.

On Saturday the coroner's jury in the case of Rush Brader, who committed sui-cide at Providence Friday night, rendered a verdict to the effect that the suicide was premeditated.

The exchanges at the Ecranton Clearing house during the week were: Monday, $120,690.59: Tuesday, $15,675.42: Wednes-day, $127,571.95: Thursday, $1,041,237,01; Friday, $120,029.71; Saturday, $0,150.86: total; $1,633,370.54. During the month of June the exchanges amounted to $3,738,-

Saturday morning Professors . H. D. Buck and A. R. Whitmore, of Wood's Business college, severed their connection with that institution. Prof. Buck has been at the head of the business department for the last sight years and Prof. Whitmore served three years as a spec-ialist in penmanship and actual business practice work. Both are well known turoughout the valley.

turonghout the valley. Three boy tramps were taken into custody by Lieutenant of Police Williams in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yard on the West Side yesterday. They gave their mames as Robert J. Buchannan, age 15, of 640 Grant street, Buffalo, a Western Union messenger boy, bound for Johnsonburg, Elk county; Peter Schaffer, age 19, of 41 Newton street, Buffalo, N. Y., a moulder by trade, and James Hallett, aged 15, also of Buffalo, a paper hanger's assistant. Their relatives have been communicated with.

with. Miss Adelia Penwarden and pupils, kindly assisted by Miss Cora Phillips, igave a delightful musical at her home on Wash-barn street Friday evening. The pupils played with taste and feeling, and gave evidence of skillful instruction. Miss Penwarden closed the programme with a Chopin number which she excelled with the tenderness, fire and delicacy that this composer exasts. The following pupils were represented on the programme: Misses Helen Thayer, Bertha Finn, Cora Brooks, Lillie Jackson, Ada Gleason, Verma Ward, Hattie Hern and May Tran-sue.

-.

Open All Night

at Lohman's Spruce street.

This is a Slik Seasor. Having bought the remaining stock of a leading manufacturer of Taffeta silk, al-though worth $1.25 a yard, we will place though worth $1.35 a yard, we will place them on our counters Saturday morning for only 70 costs. This is the greatest bar-gain to silk ever offered to the ladies of Scranton. Remember they are all new goods in new styles and were never offered for sale before in the city. Price good until goods are all sold. MEARS & HAGEN, ** 415 Lackawana swanne Scranton

** 415 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton.

sed the excellent performances of two stories, wood, main 22x42, wing 3x 14 2-3, wing 4x24, Mulberry street, Soven-teenth ward. Michael McNally, single dwelling, two stories, wood, main 22x30, wing 5x14, Fourth street, Sixth ward. the two previous evenings. There were less delays and the characters and chorus were perfectly at home on the The house was again completely filled, the various numbers and Mrs. Byron Wade, extension to dwell-ing, two stories, wood, wing 14x28, wing 7x20, wing 6x24, Washburn street, Fifth scenes were most enthusiastically ap-At 4 o'clock in the afternoon Direcvard tor Tallie Morgan received a telegram from Joseph P. Burns, of Wilkes Barre, James H. Deacon, extension to dwelling, two stories, wood, 16x16, Webster avenue, Seventeenth ward. who took the character of Belshazzar, James H. Deacon, extension to dwelling, wo stories, wood, bay 3x14, wing 16x16, Vebster avenue, Saventeenth ward. David Reese, double dwelling, two stating that he was suffering from tonsolitis, and asking to be released from his Saturday night engagement. Mr. Morgan wired back that under no circumstances could he be excused, but in order to prepare for the worst, he secured the services of David C. Rich-

IT DID SPLENDID WORK.

cred Music Society.

stage.

plauded.

efore

stories, wood, main 24236, wing 4x24, wing 4x24, Storrs avenue, Sixth ward, Eliza Dagger, single dwelling, two stories, wood, 34x33, South Main street, Fifteenth ards to take the part of Daniel in the Matthew Bugno, store and dwelling, two stories, wood, 22x42, Prospect avenue, Twentioth ward. ast act, and Mr. Watkins was to take the part of Belshazzar. So even if Mr. Burns failed to appear they were ready for the performance. But Mr. Burns J. F. Hoolihan, double dwelling, two sto-ries, wood, 28x40, Margaret street, First was there and sang his part better than ward C. S. VanBuskirk, single dwelling, two

Most of the credit for the stage work was due to the stage manager, John T. stories, wood, main 20%x45, wing, 4%x16, 4%x16, 3%x10, Penn avenue, Thirteenth Watkins, who entered the work with J. E. O'Brisn, double dwelling, two and one half stories, wood, main 2734x56, wings 334x2334, 334x2334, Quincy avenue, Ninth all his heart, and succeeced in bringing out the strongest features of the ward. Very few knew of the thousand and one difficulties that confronted Direc-tor Morgan in his work. In the first place, the knowing ones were ever ready with their disconraging words. ready with their discouraging words. Some said that the work was too heavy :

ward. William Parry, double dwelling, two stories, wood, 88x42, Decker's court, Fourth others that the material that composed the Sacred Music society was too raw and poor to sing such difficult music. ward.

nue, Ninth ward. L. F. Payne, stable 14x29 wood and iron one story, rear Spruce street, Eighth over 500 voices were individually tested and graded by Mr. Morgan. The known vocalists of the city, of course, would bio story, rear sprace street, Eighth ward. E. M. Tewkesbury, alterations and re-pairs, Adams avenue, Ninth ward. Jordon, Hannah & Jordon, three single dwellings, two stories wood, main 24x30, wing 25x14, wing 55x14, Richmond Park, First ward. not unite with such an organization, and all kept pretty well aloof from the chorus, Yet without a cent of com-pensation for his work Mr. Morgan kept right on and assured the society

First ward. W. W. Scronton, storage one-story wood 16x40, Monroe avenue, Seventeenth and the public that the "Fall of Babyion" would be performed and that it would also be a credit to the society ward. Clark Brothers, extension to stores, three stories brick, main 44x45, wing 37x21%, Main avenue, Fourteenth ward. and to the city. Those who witnessed the production most readily testify Joseph Speicker, single dwelling two stories wood, main 20245, bay 35 x10, Harrison avenue, Seventeeuth ward. their appreciation of the performer, and it is not often that a show by local talent can fill a . place like the Froth-

HOW DEACLE MET HIS DEATH.

One thing is settled, that the Sacred Music society will now receive most hearty public support and will be en-The Coroner's Jury Says It was Through couraged to give other works on the order of the "Fall of Babylon." The probabilities are that in addition to new works, the society will again give the "Fall of Babylon" with many new acenio effects next winter.

CALEDONIANS ANNUAL GAMES.

They Will Bo Held at Laurel Hill Park July 4 Scranton Caledonia club has The ingham for three nights.

completed arrangements for its annual games which will be held at Laurel Hill park on July 4. They promse to be the most interesting ever given by the club.

On July 3 will occur the annual convention of the Caledonian clubs of North America which will bring together in this city a large number of representative Scotchmen

FELL OFF A STREET CAR.

Patrick Whelan Received a Bad Scalp Wound by Colliding with Asphalt. Patrick Whelau, employed at the cigar store of J. D. Clark, on Penn avenue, on returning from Laurel Hill Buy the Weber park yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and got the best. At Guernsey Bros.

closest attention to the sermon. He alluded feelingly to the changes that had occurred in his absence and

The Greatest English Staff of Physiciane,

Consisting of fourteen in number, have se-

DECK

to Date. . .

185 WYOMING AVE.

evening.

promised to make the congregation one of the most flourishing on the South Side, if not in Lackawanna county. He is continually receiving visits from his former friends and is much gratified with the reception he has received. To a TRIBUNE reporter last evening he said that he was greatly astonished with the improvements that had been made during the last two years, considering the depressed state of indus-tries. Mr. Lang was accompanied from Washington, Mo, by George Hassman, a pupil of the high school of that place, who will study for one year preparing for the ministry under the personal supervision of Mr. Lang, who will reside at 1014 Prospect avenue.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS.

[All advertising matter, news itoms and new inscriptions, if left at the following business inces, will be promptly attended to Zang's arbor shop, Westpfahl's store, D. W. Humph-ey's pharmacy and A. J. Mulderig's.]

leading wholesale, banking, manufactur-ing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photogravure views of our public build-ings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal rep-resentation of Scranton's many indus-tries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to Henry Hehn leaves for Philadelphia today for a two weeks' stay.

T. W. Tierney, of St. Charles' college, Baltimore, is home on his vacation. Peter C. Miller, of 519 Irving avenue, was esented on Friday with a baby boy.

New alarm box 49 is located on the cor-ner of Crown avenue and Beech street, Mrs. Joseph Eichorn, of Prospect ave-these it will be an invation of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circu-lation is on a plan that cannot fail of good nue, is slowly recovering from a danger ous illness. George Lintel, of Hyde Park, has no-results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of The TRIBUNE will call upon THOSE WHOSE NAMES are DESIRED in this edition and explain in concerne to the second second second cepted a position at Zang's barber shop on Pittston avenue. Harry J. Walden, of Birch street, has entered the bicycle races for novices to take place on July 4. its nature more fully. Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please have notice at Guth's band will compete at the band ournament at Farview on July 16, and topes to secure the first prize. the office.

John Plegemann and Miss Lena Hein were married on Saturday evening at their residence on Moltke avenue by the Rev. Edward Lang. Rev. Holter held Children's services at his church on Cedar avenue yesterday. The church was very prettily decorated or the occasion.

The funeral of Frank, the five-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, took place Saturday at 2.30, interment taking place at Forest Hill cemetery.

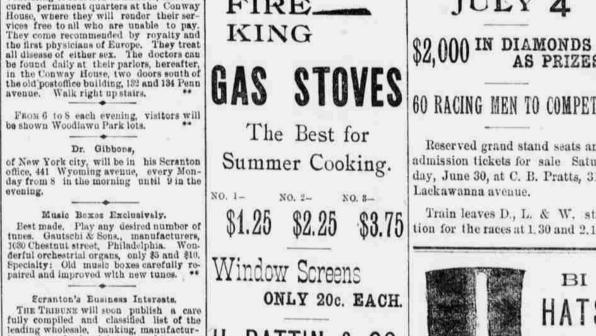

Patrick Cosgrove was on Friday sent to the county jail for thirty days by Alder

Including the painless extracting of teeth by an entirely new pro-COURSE S.C. Snyder, D.D.S.

429 Lacka, Ava.

U.

FIRE_

JULY 4

AS PRIZES

THERE ARE MANY PEOPLE

Who have found experience to be a dear teacher; especially is this true in buying SHOES. When your experience teaches you that you can buy BETTER SHOES of us than at any other place, then we will have your shoe trade. Our shoes won't cost you any more than other shoes not so good.

And Right Up Russet Shoes of Every Description.

BANISTER'S, Cor. Lackawanna and Wyoming Avenues,

BROWN'S BEE HIVE

224 LACKAWANNA AVE Will be opened MONDAY and TUESDAY Evenings.

His Own Neglect. George O. Deacle came to his death in the Marvin shaft by his own neglect on June 11, was the verdict render-ed Saturday night by Coroner Kelly's jury, which investigated the case. At the time Deacle was killed it was reported that the accident which resuited in his death, was caused by the failure on the part of the contractor who employed Deacle to have that portion of the mine in a safe condition. CLEARANCE SALE.

dred. Commencing Monday, July 2, and Continuing Until the Goods Are Sold. tisning Until the Goods Are Sold. No lady can afford to miss this oppor-tunity to secure rare bargains. No hum-bug about the reduction in prices. Printed China Silk worth 40cts., sale price, 19sts.; Fancy Wash Silk worth 50cts., sale price 37% cts.; our entire line of best China Silks, Brocades and Fancias, worth 31, sale price 59cts. A large line of Dress Goods, in-cluding all our Robes, Sateens, Dress Gingham, Oating Cloth, Craponetts, Cal-icoss and Crash, at one half formar prices. Best Calico. 3% cts.; best Gingham, 4% cts.; Gents' Outing Shirts, 21cts.; Ribbons Laces, Embroideries. equal.

MEARS & HAGEN. Buy the Weber

Fred A. Wagner, single dwelling, two and one-half stories, wood, 28x421 Webster avedue, Seventeenth ward. It was perfectly true that when Mr. Morgan took hold of the society the Garney Brown & Co., stores, raised two stories, brick and stone. 50x70, Adams avechorns could not sing. But the object of the society was to train those who were not members of any choir, and