Arthur K. Harrison, of Syracuse, was in the city yesterday. B. Frank Ziegler, of the city staff of the Evening Express will spend the day fishing at La Grange. Police Officers Gurell and Goeritz reported for duty tonight after their annual ten day vacation. Eugene G. Ives, of Archbald was in the city yesterday in a white vest, immaculate cravat and blue yachting cap. G. Solomon, a student of the Hebrew university at Cincinnati, is in the city soliciting subscriptions for the American League. Dr. Joseph Parry was shown about the city yesterday by Judge H. M. Edwards. It is fourteen years since Dr. Parry was last in this city. He was astounded at its remarkable growth. Harry Lancaster, of Buffalo, who has been visiting friends in this city for the past few days, left for Wilkes-Barre yesterday, where he will spend a day or two before returning home. A. H. Scanlon, the veteran Delaware Lackawanna and Western baggage master, was smiling yesterday because he is the grandfather of a 15 pound baby boy, born to his daughter, Mrs. P. J. Moohan. Dr. Carl M. Kelley, of Equinunk, celebrated through his connection with the Jennings case, and his brother Dr. W. H. Kelley, of Deep cut, are in the city. Their father is seriously ill at his home in Maplewood. The Penn Avenue Church and Sunday school will go to Lake Ariel Friday, July 7. Tickets, 60 cents; children, 30 cents. Trains leave at 8:30. MANY RULES MADE ABSOLUTE. Work That Was Done in Argument Court Yesterday. Yesterday rules were made absolute in the following cases: City of Scranton against Sweet Gardner, exceptions to affidavit of defense; City of Scranton against John Woyant, rule for judgment; H. A. Wolf & Son against J. A. Wintler, rule for judgment; Margaret A. Jones against G. A. Ammerman, rule to open judgment. These divorce cases were submitted: William B. Thomas against Mary Thomas; Ann C. Fraley against J. W. Fraley. The case of N. Butler against George A. Summers and others, exceptions to report of referee was argued. AN INSANE MAN ARRESTED. He Says That His Place of Residence is at Daryes. A man giving his name as Louis Miller was arrested yesterday afternoon at the new Delaware and Hudson depot by Officer Meiner. He was shoeless, hatless, and carried his coat on his arm. The officer noticed that he had been acting very strangely for some time, and on taking him to the central station it was found that he was insane. He said that his home is at Daryes. Where to Go on the Fourth. Probably the most delightful spot in this vicinity in which to spend the Fourth is Fairview. An attractive programme of healthful sports has been arranged, and a game of base ball between two prominent county teams will be called at 12:30 p. m. Better's hand will be in attendance. The Hanley will furnish the refreshments. The excursion will be under the direct supervision of the Delaware and Hudson, and no rowdism will be tolerated. The comfort of ladies and children will be especially looked after. Athletic sports begin at 2:30 p. m. Low rates from all stations. Special train leaves Bridge Street station at 9:25 a. m. You can get a wheel by day or hour at Bicycle Library 214 Wash. ave.

THE SONS OF SCOTLAND They Met in Annual Convention in This City Yesterday.

BANQUET GIVEN IN THE EVENING Delegates Who Attended the Convention—Silver Cup Given by the Salt Lake City Club Formally Presented to the Association—Changes Made in the Rules of the Club—Next Meeting in Montreal.

The twenty-fifth annual convention of the North American United Caledonian association was held yesterday at the rooms of the Scranton Caledonian club on Wyoming avenue. A delegation was present from some of the most notable Scotchmen of the United States and Canada. The following is a list of the names: Thomas Pollock, Chicago; Florence D. Estlin, John Donaldson and John Pittie, Detroit; James B. Skoock, Captain James Meier, John Pascoch, Scranton; Allan K. McDonald and Peter Klineart, Albany; Hugo Sheridow, William Gardner, George Bain, P. McEwan, J. B. Driver, P. F. Boyce, W. Dundell and R. Keith, of Chicago; Capt. J. B. White, Capt. A. B. Dougall and George Jop, of Fort Wayne, Ind.; William Simpson, D. M. Robertson, W. D. McIntosh, Robert Swan, Hugh Miller, J. M. Wingfield, Albert Trader and David Walker, Toronto, Canada; David Ferguson, James Braik, Buffalo; Alexander Dick, George W. Wallace and James McLuskie, Wilkes-Barre; Duncan McMillan and Robert Ireland, Dutton, Ontario; Alexander Thompson and Andrew D. Weir, of Pittston; Peter Ross and James Lawrence, New York city; William Leitch, Peter Ballingwell, William Martin, John Barleigh, James Irvine, John G. A. Rodgers and Samuel Lamont, Philadelphia. The morning session of the convention was called to order by the chairman, William Rutherford, of Montrose, a prominent banker of that city, and a venerable and well preserved son of happy Scotland. The roll call of the delegates was read by Secretary Peter Ross, of New York city. The first order of business introduced President Rutherford's address. He read a paper on the history of the association that included a comprehensive list of details of the workings of the association since its beginning. Year by year it was observed that Scotchmen had kept growing, until today the people of that nationality need have no fear of giving an account of themselves in any undertaking of any character. PRESENTATION OF SILVER CUP. At its last annual session held in Chicago a year ago, a large silver cup was offered to the association by the Caledonian club, of Salt Lake City. William Gardner, of Chicago, presented the cup personally to the association. It was accepted and a vote of thanks given to the donor. The cup will be awarded as a trophy to the best player of the bagpipes contesting at the annual games of the association. August 15 was adopted as the day on which the Caledonian will observe Scotland's Day. The discussions before the adoption of this date were heated, though good natured. The report of Secretary Ross was a comprehensive document and gave a list as follows where the past conventions of the association were held: 1870, Philadelphia; 1871, Albany; 1872, Toronto; 1873, Philadelphia; 1874, Albany; 1875, Jersey City; 1876, Montreal; 1877, Pittston; 1878, Toronto; 1879, Troy; 1880, Newark; 1881, Montreal; 1882, Milwaukee; 1883, Albany; 1884, Detroit; 1885, Chicago; 1886, Pittston; 1887, Buffalo; 1888, Chicago; 1889, Pittston; 1890, Buffalo; 1891, Chicago; 1892, Buffalo; 1893, Chicago; 1894, Buffalo. For the capable manner in which the chairman and secretary had performed their respective duties, the delegates testified their appreciation by a vote of thanks. Adjournment was made for dinner, and at 1:30 the convention reassembled. The first hour of the afternoon proceedings was occupied with discussion on the reports of committees. Letters of congratulation were received from several Caledonian clubs throughout the country. The letters were placed on file and a vote of thanks tendered in each case to the senders. The subject of amending certain sections of the constitution of the association relating to games was discussed under new business. The discussions among the delegates over the proposed amendments brought out some oratory. Mr. Pittie, of Chicago, and Capt. Meier, of this city, distinguished themselves. RULE FOR SWORD DANCING CHANGED. It was proposed to amend the article covering the Scottish sword dance, so that the dancer would not be debared further from carrying after he had touched the sword. The word "dressed" was to be changed to the word "undressed," wherever it occurred in the article. After a general discussion the amendment was adopted and immediately went into effect. The question of starting out professional athletes from competition for prizes was brought up under the head of defining what latitude an amateur is at liberty to possess himself of before he violates the bounds. The matter was settled by the president, who read the existing rules of the association. It gives a man the privilege of competing for prizes for any length of time providing he is simply taking a vacation and bent upon nothing more than making his expenses. President Rutherford read an invitation from the Caledonian club, of Montreal, asking the delegates to select that city as the place of holding the next convention. Mr. Rutherford acted as a personal favor than unanimous consent be given in accepting the invitation. This was enthusiastically done. William Leitch, of Philadelphia, who served as vice president for the past year, was unanimously elected chairman. Mr. Gardner, of Chicago, was selected to cast the unanimous vote of the convention for the new president. The remainder of the officers were also unanimously chosen, and Mr. Gardner was selected to perform the same honor for each office. Peter Kinnear, of Albany, was elected first vice-president. Upon being installed into office Mr. Kinnear made a

WALSH DID NOT CELEBRATE. The Powder He Intended for That Purpose Exploded Too Soon. Michael Walsh, a young man who is employed in the Mount Pleasant mine, was severely burned by powder yesterday afternoon. Walsh was returning home from work and had taken a small quantity of powder with him to use in charging a cannon last night. At the mouth of the mine he blew out his lamp, and a spark from it ignited the powder he carried, causing it to explode, severely burning him about the face, arms and hands.

PAINT cracks.—It often costs more to prepare a house for repainting that has been painted in the first place with cheap ready-mixed paints, than it would to have painted it twice with strictly pure white lead, ground in pure linseed oil.

Strictly Pure White Lead forms a permanent base for repainting and never has to be burned or scraped off on account of scaling or cracking. It is always smooth and clean. To be sure of getting strictly pure white lead, purchase any of the following brands: "Atlantic," "Boyer-Baumman," "Jewett," "Davis-Chambers," "Fahnestock," "Armstrong & McElroy."
