JERMYN'S GREAT LOSS

His Promising Trotter, Carazo, Buried to Death at Medford, Mass.

ITS RECORD FOR A HALF MILE

It Had Made It in a Minute and It Was Expected to Make a Mile in Two Minutes—Mr. Jermyrn Says the Death of the Animal Means a Loss to Him of $100,000—The Trainer Is Almost Crazy with Grief.

Frank Jermyrn, of this city, sustained a severe loss Monday night through the burning of stable at Medford, a suburb of Boston, which contained his promising trotter, Carazo, which he had on Monday refused $25,000 for.

The dispatches received by Mr. Jermyrn yesterday do not give the details of the cause of the fire simply containing the announcement that the animal was burned to death and that the trainer, a young man named Wilson, was almost crazed with grief over the unfortunate affair.

The manager of the stables besought Mr. Jermyrn to telegraph Wilson that he held him blameless for the burning, for it was feared that the young man's reason would become deranged through brooding over the matter.

PURCHASED TWO YEARS AGO. The horse was purchased by Mr. Jermyrn two years ago as a yearling in Kentucky for $5,000.

THE DEATH OF CARAZO IS NOT ONLY A loss to me but I firmly believe it is a great loss to the turf, said Frank Jermyrn last evening when questioned about the horse by a Tribune reporter.

CLEVER BICYCLE THIEF

He Appropriated a Machine in Auburn, N. Y., and Brought It to This City.

TRADED IT FOR ANOTHER WHEEL

Represented to Florey & Holt That He Was the Owner of the Bicycle and Traded It for a Wheel of Another Make—Bicycle Taken from Auburn Was Then Leased to Harry Stock—The Owner Coming.

Constable Joseph Wosikers last evening seized a Columbia bicycle in the possession of Harry Stock, an employe of the Scranton Illuminating Heat and Power company, which it is alleged was stolen from Edward Leonard, of Auburn, N. Y., on June 5.

After the wheel was stolen from Mr. Leonard at Auburn, he notified the Pope Manufacturing company, who make the Columbia bicycles. The company in turn notified its agents throughout the country of the theft and told them to keep a lookout for a model 34, No. 7,025 bicycle.

The agents notified Fred C. Hand, agent for the Pope company in this city, located the wheel and informed the officers of the company at whose instance the search warrant was issued.

The wheel was leased by Mr. Stock from Florey & Holt. About two weeks ago a young man entered their store on Wyoming avenue and said he wanted to exchange a Columbia bicycle he claimed to be the owner of.

He said his home was at Factoryville, and after some negotiating a deal was arranged by which the wheel was exchanged for one of another make.

After the Columbia had been overhauled and put in good shape it was leased to Mr. Stock by Florey & Holt, who had no knowledge that it had been stolen.

MR. LEONARD WILL BE HERE. On Thursday morning the wheel will be produced in Alderman Fitzsimon's court, when Mr. Leonard will be present to identify his property.

A reward of $50 will be paid by the Pope company for the conviction of the thief.

Florey & Holt say they have a cins by which they think they can trace the man who imposed upon them. They will be the losers by the operation when the wheel is returned to Mr. Leonard.

THOSE PULLMAN COACHES. No Demand Made on D. L. & W. to Have Them Withdrawn.

General Manager Halstead of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad had not returned from Buffalo at a late hour last night.

It was intimated by officials of the road that he would return today in the event of no new developments in the western strikes by noon.

A rumor which had prevailed during Monday night that the Erie and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western companies had been notified not to draw any Pullman cars from Buffalo, could not be verified yesterday.

Trainmaster George M. Halstead told a Tribune reporter that no demand had been made on either of the above lines relative to the use of Pullmans. It could not be learned that any trouble exists or is anticipated along the Lackawanna road.

Several Scranton railroad officials gave their opinion that the strike would not extend as far east as Buffalo.

Lackawanna trains have been running from Buffalo on time and without interruption since the trouble began.
