

Social Personal

It is probably true that a larger number of persons have left Scranton this summer than during any previous season of recreation. The outpour began in earnest the first of June, though for six weeks preceding many had departed, particularly for European travel.

A gentleman speaking yesterday of the summer season said: "I believe that not less than fifty and perhaps as many as seventy-five Scrantonians are now in Europe, or have been there since the starting of the season. This has been particularly marked for the desire to go abroad, and the same has been true of every year over the one preceding. Next season probably will see the number increase in the same proportion."

A compiled list of Scrantonians who are spending the summer out of town is as follows: Mrs. Frank N. Hallstead and sons, Walter and Frank, jr., of Millin avenue, at East Hampton, L. I.; James Archbold and family, at Marblehead, Mass.; Mrs. Alfred Hand, daughters and nieces, Cottage City; Miss Rosa Roberts, Sag Harbor, N. Y.; Miss Emma Ruelbuzer, Europe; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown and Mrs. Louis McFarland, Saratoga and the Green Mountains; Rev. G. F. McManry, Dunmore, Pa.; Mrs. H. M. Banson, New England station; J. J. Williams and daughter, Miss Grace, New Jersey coast; Hon. and Mrs. John P. Kelly, Misses Louise and Emily Brainard, Atlantic City; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Weston, Europe; John Jerny and S. H. Price, Europe; Mrs. Jane L. De Witt, New York; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Connel, Boston and the east; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McAnulty and daughter, Boulder, Col.; Miss Eliza Ruddy, Rockaway Beach, L. I.; A. P. Bedford and J. G. Bailey, Atlantic City; Rev. Rogers Israel, Mrs. Israel and the Misses Jerny, Eaglesmere, Pa.

Prominent among the pleasantries of the week was the impromptu reception tendered Tuesday evening by the Women's Christian Temperance union to Mrs. C. D. Simpson, who, with Mrs. W. H. Pearce, recently returned from a European trip. The affair was given at the residence of Mrs. Frances T. Vall on Jefferson avenue. Remarks of welcome were made by Mrs. Vall and Mrs. Dr. Hand. Each spoke of the commendable work done by Mrs. Simpson as a member of the Women's Christian Temperance union, and as president of the Central union. Mrs. Simpson responded in a brief but pleasing address in which the ladies were thanked for so cordial a greeting, and reference was made to the trip in foreign lands. Light refreshments completed the evening's enjoyment.

A number of Delaware and Hudson officials came to this city from Scranton on Tuesday night, over the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad from Yatesville, and left early yesterday morning over the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern for New York. In the party were C. R. Menville, of Carbondale, superintendent of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company; R. M. Olyphant, James Roosevelt, Alfred Van Santvoord and Kenneth Olyphant, of New York, and Horace G. Young, of Albany, directors, and George E. Harnay, of New York, architect.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

Thomas Kelly, of West Lackawanna avenue, and Miss Lizzie Regan, of Gibson street, were married at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning at the cathedral by Rev. Father O'Reilly. The best man was Patrick P. Callaghan, of Newark, N. J., a cousin of the groom. The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Regan, sister of the bride. The young couple left for New York and points of interest in the eastern states.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Robert Henderson, in Oxford, N. J., on Monday evening, July 2, at 8 p. m., when Robert Henderson, of Scranton, was united to Miss Helen Brown, of Lake Ariel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William J. Hampton, of the Methodist Episcopal church. Among those present were A. S. Siple, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Henderson, Jr., Mr. Robert Henderson, and Mrs. William J. Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cobb and daughter, Ella, of Scranton.—Scranton Truth.

Miss Ollera E. Fritz, a popular and well known young lady of this city, was married to Nathan B. Brower, of Rochester, in New York city yesterday, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. B. Huntington, the rector of Grace church, New York, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. P. R. Steele, of One Hundred and Sixteenth street.

A surprise party was tendered Thomas Spruce at his home, 812 Prospect avenue, Monday evening in honor of his fortieth birthday.

PERSONAL MENTION: Dr. John O'Malley, of Scranton, Pa., is at the Traymore, the guest of J. J. Jordan, one of the proprietors of the Traymore, who is summing at this popular home with his wife and sister, Miss Lizzie Jordan. The doctor, who by the way, is an athlete of more than ordinary abilities, is tall, handsome and well proportioned, suave and agreeable in conversation and a bachelor. John H. Jordan, of Scranton, returned home yesterday after spending a few days at the Traymore with his brother, J. J. Jordan. Mr. Jordan is one of the surviving reporters who chronicled the news of the Homestead riots a few years ago under the inspiring gaze of Winchester rifles, and attended the trial of the rioters in Philadelphia, last week, when permanent organization was formed.—Atlantic City Review.

Charles R. Pearson, Jr., property of Philadelphia, but for the past month a resident of this city, who here temporarily adjusting the accounts of the Scranton Traction company, has made many friends during his short stay by his genial and straightforward disposition. His work here is about completed and in the beginning of next week he will leave permanently for his home in the Quaker City.

Among the Scrantonians who attended the meeting of the Anthracite Coal Operators' association at Glen Summit Wednesday were: Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Miss Clara Simpson, William Connell, E.
