Some of the recent arrivals at the Lodge, Preston park, were: E. E. Hendrick and family, J. E. Burr and family, George Burrell and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Kimball, A. P. Trautwein and family, all of Carbondale; Rev. Edward Bryson, Milwaukee, Wis.; Miss Patricia Princeton, N. J.; Frank B. Stocker, Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. Slater, Corry, and Curtis Crane and family, of this city.

NEW STREET RAILWAY SCHEDULE.

It will be in effect the latter part of the week.

In a few days there will be a change in the schedule of the following lines of the street car system: Danmore Suburban, Green Ridge Suburban, Green Ridge People's and Nay Aug Falls.

On the Danmore Suburban the cars will not run any farther than the corners, nor will the Laurel Hill cars.

There will be a car running between the Corners and No. 6, which will meet all Laurel Hill cars, making 15-minute trips. Passengers on the Suburban line will not be transferred to the Laurel Hill line being transferred.

The first car on the Nay Aug line will start on in the morning at 6 o'clock instead of at 7, as at present. The last car will leave Franklin avenue on this line at 11 o'clock at night instead of 10.40. There will be a later car on both Green Ridge lines. The schedule, it is expected, will go into effect the latter part of the week.

Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will be attached new covers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are mentioned in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please have notice at the office.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Property Owners on Jackson, Robinson and Ninth Streets Agree to Pave.

THE DEATH OF ANTHONY TIMLIN

He Was a Member of the Father Mathew Society and the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association—Slung Shot Used by John Flynn on Herman Von Zeelan—Blowing of Central Mine Gong Creates Excitement.

The work of securing a majority of feet frontage for the paving of Jackson, Robinson and Ninth streets has been completed at last. There is an ordinance now pending in the council providing for the paving of West Lackawanna avenue from Ninth street to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. It is now hoped that the streets will be paved along that section from Main avenue, thus making it complete before the winter sets in.

The West Side board of trade has done much in this matter. Some time ago a petition was drawn up by the streets and bridges committee of that organization for the three aforesaid streets and a separate one for West Lackawanna avenue. The residents of the latter thoroughfare were more desirous of pushing the matter than the others, hence it was hurried through the city legislature before the petition for the three combined streets was nearly complete.

The total frontage on Ninth street is 331 feet, and the amount signed for is 518. Robinson street has a total of 1,329 feet and the signatures amount to 956. The 537 feet on Jackson street has been signed for by 513. At M. Morse and Assessor H. D. Jones have been by far the most active in the project, and should be highly recommended on its success. It is expected that the petition will be introduced at the next meeting of common council, where it may be presented by President Nasha, a representative of that district.

DEATH OF ANTHONY TIMLIN.

His Funeral Will Take Place on Wednesday Morning.

Anthony Timlin, a respected resident of this city, died on Sunday evening at his home 523 North Summer avenue, after a two weeks' illness. Mr. Timlin was born in county Mayo, Ireland, and came to Scranton thirty-one years ago. He was a member of the Catholic Mutual Benefit association and for thirteen years a faithful member of the Father Mathew society. Mr. Timlin was employed in the Central mines.

He is survived by a wife and ten children. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. A solemn high mass will be held at St. Patrick's church. Interment in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

FLYNN USED A SLING SHOT.

He Will Have to Answer at Court for His Offense.

John Flynn, of Lafayette street, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Herman Von Zeelan of the same street, who alleges that he was struck with a missile thrown from a sling shot at the hands of Flynn.

The case was heard last evening before Alderman Johns, of the Fourth ward. It was alleged that without any provocation Flynn attacked Von Zeelan and received a blow in the eye from the stone. The defendant, a lad of 16 years, was bound over to court in the sum of $300, John Cavley becoming his bondsman.

A GONG CREATES EXCITEMENT.

Many Thought a Mine Accident Had Occurred.

The long blow of the gong which sounded from the Central mines last evening caused crowds of people to flock to the place, and was the cause of no little comment. Some went so far as to say that miners were entombed while others stated that their had been a cave in.

The real cause of the excitement was nothing more than a false alarm sounded by the engineer, William Webber of North Bromley avenue. Some miners who were below had rapped the bell for the carriage and in answering it Mr. Webber pulled the gong instead of the bell. Crowds gathered around the place fearing some accident had happened.

WEDDING CAUSED TROUBLE.

Some of John P. Thomas' Fancy Vegetables Pulled Up.

John J. Morgan, of the Fifth ward, had a warrant issued yesterday for the arrest of John P. Thomas, of Jackson street, who had brutally assaulted him and his younger brother, James Thomas, had planted a peculiar vegetable along the fence, and while wedding the garden a member of the Morgan family pulled it out.

This made Thomas wrathful and he resorted to blows. He was held in $300 bond to appear at court, Thomas H. Jones becoming his bondsman.

Disgraceful Conduct of Special Officer Fred Boyer.

HE ASSAULTED NEIL RUDDY

The Officer Was Drunk and with a Man Named Woodward Was Creating a Disturbance on Pittston Avenue When Ruddy Entered the Crowd—Boyer Hit Him in the Face with His Club.

Special Constable Fred Boyer, of Carbondale, has had enough enough with the law to teach him lessons enough for two lifetimes, but his costly experience appears not to have been put to good account. Sunday night he gave rein to his appetite for drink and had taken a position on Pittston avenue near the Freeman cemetery, where he compelled passers-by to walk in the middle of the street if they wanted to keep out of reach of a policeman's club which he swung above his head with furious gesticulations.

KILLED BY A FALL OF ROCK.

John Radcliffe, of the Flat, Instantly Killed in Jersey No. 2.

John Radcliffe, a married man with a large family, living at 918 South Wyoming avenue, and employed at the Jersey No. 2 shaft in Old Forge, was instantly killed by a fall of rock while at work yesterday afternoon at 4.30.

NORTH END.

William Williams Killed by an Explosion at the Leggett's Creek.

William Williams, aged 50, of Oak street met with a fatal accident yesterday morning at Leggett's Creek mine. Williams was blasting in his chamber at the time and from a statement made by his laborer it appears that the first squib missed fire, Williams then returned with another squib and cut the match shorter and fixed it in the blasting barrel. The result was that after he fired the match the explosion took place before he could get to a place of safety.

Deceased was a married man and leaves a widow and four children. His funeral will take place from his late residence, 324 Oak street, tomorrow at 2 p. m. Interment in Washburn street cemetery.

Much sympathy has been expressed for the widow, who has suffered considerable trouble, having buried two promising daughters in 1880. Mr. Williams and his family came from South Wales in 1857.

PROHIBITIONISTS AT GREEN RIDGE.

Several Addresses Delivered in the League Rooms.

The Green Ridge Prohibition League room was crowded last evening when a Prohibition meeting was addressed by J. M. Howell, Rev. Luther Peck, Hyde Park; D. M. Kinter, Frothingham, and others.

Mr. Peck stated that the first prohibition meeting was held in the garden of Eden, since when God had given laws which were of a prohibitory character. He went to analyze in part the commandments and said that the prohibitory laws of God were intended to benefit many instances in ancient and modern history were quoted illustrating the principle of prohibition as found in laws of various nations. Alexander the Great, although he conquered the world, was himself conquered by drink.

The charge of false pretenses brought by Mrs. Mary Atkinson against William Cole in the Drabish shaft "love and war case," was withdrawn yesterday.

The harmony of Leggett's Creek was disturbed yesterday by a Poland's cow which caused serious deprivations in Thomas Carden's garden. Carden carried the cow home, but the Poland's "whisk" now her. Her cow was changed his ideas and eventually claimed the cow and sympathized with Carden upon the state of his garden; but this did not appear sufficient satisfaction to Carden, who wants something more practical than sympathy in place of the cow's feeding. Alderman Horan has issued a warrant in order to value the luck of the bovine.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

The will of Julius Welmer, late of Danmore was yesterday admitted to probate by Register of Wills Koehler and letters testamentary were granted to Julius Welmer and Charles Koehler.

Richard Liew-Hy, of Vandling, was appointed by the county commissioners yesterday to succeed John McHugh, assessor of voters in the Thirtieth district of Peil township, who has resigned.

The household effects of C. F. Barrows, of Park place, are advertised for sale by Deputy Sheriff George C. Griswold on Friday morning, July 20, at 9 o'clock, at the instance of an assignee.

A summons in assumpsit was issued yesterday by Brammiller & Co., piano manufacturers, against E. C. Becker & Co., of Adams avenue, for a debt of $445.73, with interest from July 16, the date of bringing the suit.

William Abbott began an action in equity for the Republic nomination for legislature in the Fourth district.

Martin McDonough, of Mineola, who was twice a candidate on the Democratic ticket for prothonotary of Lackawanna county and famous throughout the county as a leading figure in the party of free trade and free silver, has buckled on his armor again and will strive for the nomination for prothonotary at the next Democratic county convention. Mr. McDonough has met with two defeats in his political pathway. These reverses do not appear to have disheartened him and he insists that he will come out of the convention as the candidate for prothonotary and will engage with flying colors from the smoke of battle on November 6.

E. B. Hardenbergh, the Republican candidate for senator in the Wayne-Basque-hanna district, has a walk over. The Milford dispatch, a staunch Democratic paper, thus speaks of his candidacy: "E. B. Hardenbergh, of Milford, will be the next senator from the district composed of Wayne and Susquehanna, unless all signs fail. He was unanimously nominated for the position by the Republican convention, which assembled at Montrose on the 18th inst. The district is naturally Republican and Mr. Hardenbergh, who is a popular politician and gentleman, will command the united support of his party. If a Republican may represent the district we shall be pleased to see senator Hardenbergh the successful man."

SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY.

Additions Made to the Lackawanna Colony During the Year That Ended with June Term.

The year of criminal court which closed with the June term of quarter sessions was an extremely busy one, and it required the best efforts of the judges and the district attorney, with the assistance of a special term of court, to keep the calendar from becoming excessively long.

During the year a number of prisoners have been sent to the Eastern penitentiary to serve terms of imprisonment, others were incarcerated in the county jail, while others escaped the just punishment their offenses deserved.

One of the most interesting trials of the year was that of Peter Homebach charged with burning the Elm Park church. He was convicted and is now serving a ten years' sentence in the penitentiary. On the same day, Oct. 21, Augustino Noll received a fifteen years sentence for the murder of one of his countrymen named Prignano at Danmora. Barney McMahon was on the same day sentenced to two years imprisonment. He pleaded guilty to manslaughter in causing the death of his wife at Providence in March preceding.

A week previous John Marrison, the Provost Firebug, was sentenced to two years imprisonment. Joseph Judge, convicted of manslaughter, was on April 23 sent to the penitentiary for six years and on Jan. 27 David Warden, who pleaded guilty to a charge of manslaughter, received a sentence of six years and six months.

John McEwan and James Longhita are spending three years at Philadelphia for robbing Adam Schaff, and Ira Fox is spending the same length of time at the same resort for ravishing a little girl. Clarence Osterhout is doing a fifteen month term for burglary and Michael Farty, of Danmore, one of twenty months for robbery.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS.

[All advertising matter, news items and news items will be promptly attended to and Zang's Barber Shop, Westfall's store, J. W. Humphrey, pharmacist and A. J. Mullica, druggist, Joseph Renard, of Tobyanna Mills, visited friends on this side on Sunday.

George Baker, ex-mayor of Montrose, is visiting his parents on Schimpf's court.

John Blatter, Jr., and his two young sisters, returned from Lake Underwood last evening.

Henry Mahoney, of Colorado, who has been visiting South Side friends, leaves for Denver today.

Mrs. Henry F. Zeigler, of Cedar avenue, has greatly improved in health during the last few days.

Mrs. J. J. Walsh and her sister, Miss Alice Mahon, are visiting friends in Waymart for a few weeks.

The 7-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Senberg, of South Washington avenue, died Sunday morning.

John Sheridan, of Beech street, is entertaining Officer Patrick O'Donnell and wife of New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Mott, of Cedar avenue, were made happy by the arrival of a little son yesterday morning.

The handsome office building which is being erected by Mrs. M. Robinson is rapidly nearing completion.

The 4-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. James Gammon, of Birney avenue, died on Sunday and will be buried today.

Mrs. Michael Sweeney, of Prospect avenue, died on Sunday, and will be buried in Pittston Avenue cemetery today.

There will be an important meeting of the Electric City council, Royal Arceneau, at its rooms in Freeman's hall.

Rev. J. A. Moffitt, curate at St. John's church, is spending a few weeks' vacation at Atlantic City. He left Sunday evening for that point.

J. J. Laughlin, student at St. Mary's college, Baltimore, was a guest of Rev. E. J. Melley over Sunday. He is staying with friends on the South Side.

Mr. John Armstrong, of Cedar avenue, who has been ill for some time from the effects of the grip, will spend a few weeks with friends at Waymart.

The Patriotic Order Sons of America held a regular meeting and installation of officers last night at Freeman's hall on Cedar avenue. The officers for the ensuing term were installed by Simon Laner, district president.

The funeral of Fred Reidebach, of Stone avenue, will take place today. The Patriotic Order Sons of America, headed by their drum corps, will participate. Service will begin at 2 p. m. in the house of his mother, and the remains will afterward be interred at Pittston Avenue cemetery.

At the home of J. J. Burke, of 517 Palm street, a party of friends visited last night. In the party were Samuel Jones, Edward Taylor, and George Reedy, of Peckville; James Keedy, Joseph Patrick and Charles Keedy, of Hyde Park. Refreshments were served. Vocal and instrumental music made the hours pass quickly.

THE LAND IS FENCED OFF.

Teams Cannot Now Pass Over Land Claimed by D., L. & W. Co.

Along Lackawanna avenue are great piles of vitrified brick that will be used in paving between the tracks. The bricks were being hauled from cars in the rear of the Weston mill. The wagons passed over the Delaware Lackawanna and Western company claims to own, and during the afternoon a fence was put up between the Delaware Lackawanna and Western tracks and the old Stowers' Packing house, which prevented teams from continuing to travel on that land.

AMONG THE POLITICIANS.

Up to date Billy Craig has not definitely declared whether his senatorial boom is or is not a reality.

C. P. O'Malley is making an aggressive fight for the Republican nomination for legislature in the Fourth district.

Martin McDonough, of Mineola, who was twice a candidate on the Democratic ticket for prothonotary of Lackawanna county and famous throughout the county as a leading figure in the party of free trade and free silver, has buckled on his armor again and will strive for the nomination for prothonotary at the next Democratic county convention. Mr. McDonough has met with two defeats in his political pathway. These reverses do not appear to have disheartened him and he insists that he will come out of the convention as the candidate for prothonotary and will engage with flying colors from the smoke of battle on November 6.

E. B. Hardenbergh, the Republican candidate for senator in the Wayne-Basque-hanna district, has a walk over. The Milford dispatch, a staunch Democratic paper, thus speaks of his candidacy: "E. B.
