Peter M. Davis, of South Main avenue ho was reported to have been drowned. at Pleasant Beach, has been found. At an early hour last evening Mr. Davis turned home from Nanticoks. When THIBUNE reporter called at the resi-lence of his daughter, Mrs. H. F. May, she stated it was her belief that her rather was not dead. Benjamin Smith, proprietor of a notel on North Main avenue, said that he saw Davis in Wilkes-Barre on Sunday. A search was made in Wilkes-Barre and Nantike, but to no avail. She then thought he must be at Taylor. In fact she was at a loss to explain his absence as he has not been known to miss a day's work in years.

He left home about 6 o'clock on saturday morning, stating he was go-ng to Syracus. List evening Mr. Davis bobted up serenely. His excuse for his absence was that he had met a few old friends. He was unconscious of the great excitement he had created and was greatly surprised when he be-came aware of the fact. His son, Harry Davis, is now at Syracuse searching for

Pretty Wedding at the Simpson M. E. Church Yasterday.

The auditorium of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church was crowded to its utmost caracity yesterday at the marriage of Robert J. Williams, of Chestuat street, to Miss Helen B. Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Potter, of South Main avenue. Long before the appointed hour the seats EEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS I to the church was performed by Rev. D. W. Skellinger, pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, of which both parties are members. Their new edifice is now in course of erection, so the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church was used in its stead.

The wasding was a guictly arranged.

The wedding was a quietly arranged one. It was an unestentatious affair, yet the scene was very pretty. As there were no regular ushers, the friends of the couple were shown to their seats by W. W. Patterson, Frank L. Phillips and H. M. Streeter. At 12 o'clock the bridal couple entered the auditorium. Surrounding the altar were rich decorations of tropical plants, chiefly ferns and palms,

Rev. Mr. Skellinger met the couple at the altar where the ceremony, which was short yet impressive, was performed. The bride was attired in a neat traveling costume of gray, and carried a handsome bouquet of white roses. They were unattended. After e ceremony they were driven to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad depot where the 12 50 train was taken for Phinadelphia. They will visit Washington before they return. Mr. Williams is recognized as a prosperous business man, baving the management of the stores of J. D. Williams & Bros., as well as a large interest in the firm. Their four large stores in the city were closed during the hour Mrs. L. B. Powell is home from a visit of marriage and the employes attended by means of two special cars.

As Soon as the Weather Becomes Cooler a Vigorous Campaign Wil Be Inaugurated to Raise the $25,-000 That Will Be Necessary to Erect the Sheridan Monument-A Form of Certificate Adopted.

Chauncey M. Depew has gone to Europe on his yearly jaunt, and for the present the project to have him lecture in this city for the Sheridan monument association will remain in abe-

The association held a meeting last night, which was presided over by Captain P. D.Licy, J. C. Vaughan reported that he had written to Thomas Torrey, general coal sales agent for the Delaware and Hudson Canal company, requesting bim to ascertain from Mr. Depow when he would be prepared to receive a committee of Scrantonians. Mr. Torrey's reply was as follows:

Mr. J. C. Vangha, secretary P. H. Sheri-dan Monument association, Scranton, Pa.

DEAR SIR: Inclosed please find letter from Mr. Depew in response to my com-munication asking whether he would indicate a date at which it would be con-venient for him to meet your committee. Yours truly, T. H. Torney,

Those present at the meeting thought while the arrangements for securing Mr. Depew will be delayed at least six weeks by his European trip, his an swer indicates that he will give the matter some consideration, and may be secured for an address. It is probable that an effort will be made to have Governor Robert E. Pattison preside

The project of organizing divisions of the association in the various towns of the valley will not be taken up untill the weather becomes cooler. The next meeting of the association will be held on Aug. 1. A form of a certificate that will be given to each contributor to the association was adopted last night and a committee directed to ascertain what the cost will be.

A site for the monument has been seoured at Linden street and Adams avenue, and as soon as the weather becomes cooler a vigorous campaign will be inaugurated to raise the $25,000 that will be necessary to erect the kind of an equestrian statue of "Gallant Little Phil" the association has informally decided upon.
