

Several Summer Specials

50c.

Women's Laundered Shirt Waists in a large variety of styles; turn-over collars and shield fronts. Reduced from 85c. and $1.

29c.

Women's Woven Cheviots and Shirt Waists. Several different styles and materials, tucked back and front. Sold earlier for $1 and $1.25.

Jacquet Duchesse

A special line of choice styles and colorings. These handsome new lawns have been the particular favorite here for a month past and each day they are shown adds to their popularity. 12 1/2c the yard. Equally beautiful are the French Lawns and about one-third the French price.

Printed Percales, 8c.

Superior finish and quality, attractive colorings, made to sell for 12 1/2c.

Lace Stripe Gingham, 15c

From the best Scotch makers; brought across the ocean to sell for 25c.

Standard Black Hose

Warranted not to crack nor stain the feet or underwear. Every pair not answering this guarantee may be returned and the purchase money will be refunded. 25c the pair; reduced from 35c.

Black Japanese

Brocaded Silks

Extra quality. Price, 75c. Regular $1 goods.

Never before did we show so large a collection of Summer Goods to select from and at prices within the reach of all.

GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT

WYOMING.

Mrs. Edward Regell was taken suddenly ill yesterday.

George P. Loomis, of Wilkes-Barre, was visiting his cousin, Miss Mary Reeves, yesterday.

A. W. Vanoy and his daughter, Mrs. B. O. Deaton, will spend a few days at Lake Winona next week.

Mrs. Charles Best is entertaining her sister from York state this week.

J. G. Honlock and family will leave today for Lake Winona.

James Platt has moved his family to Nanicoke.

Young Methodist Episcopal church services: Sunday school, 9:30; prayer meeting services, preaching, 10; by Rev. George Forsyth, of Nanicoke, followed by the Lord's supper; feast in the evening at 7, followed by baptism and reception of members.

Everybody welcome. Seats free. See the Anchor Base Ball team of this town will play three games on the Mt Lookout grounds, near the electric road. First, L-hman team; second, Shickstuney; third, Wannamie. After games they will parade to Peonahall, where they will give a grand ball.

Thomas Conaly is on the sick list.

S. Suttibens and daughter, Will-Morgan and wife, Thomas Morgan and Miss Alice LaFrance will leave for their lake Sunday.

The Presbyterian Sunday school held annual picnic at Institute park Wednesday afternoon. There was a large crowd and all had a delightful time.

Services at the Presbyterian church morning at 11 o'clock as usual.

Afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be an air service on the church which the public is especially invited to attend.

Young People's Society of Christ-avor will hold a lawn social Wednesday afternoon on Wednesday evening of next week. Ice cream lemonade will be served at 7 o'clock.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

Nothing.

MONTROSE.

G. M. Baker, wife and daughter, have returned from a visit with friends in Lackawanna county.

George C. Barnes and family, E. P. Pope and family, and R. B. Little and family, are enjoying the beauties of the coming summer resort, Heart Lake.

N. C. Warner and W. B. Stoddard with their families are spending their vacation at the lake.

M. M. DaWitt, of Scranton, was in Montrose on Thursday looking for a place to start a branch photograph gallery. It is expected that he will open a branch here.

Fordham's delivery horse became frightened last Thursday morning and ran away. A boy was in the buggy and when it struck a tree an eye witness said the boy was thrown at least twelve feet up in the air and turned over repeatedly before he struck the ground. He was only slightly injured, but his escape from serious injury was very remarkable.

Miss Grace Lane, of Binghamton, is the guest of her parents here.

The farmers are busy these days harvesting their crop of hay, which is said to be a fairly good crop except in old meadows.

A large number of summer boarders from New York, Philadelphia and other cities are at present enjoying the beauties of Montrose.

Judge Jessup and family are occupying their residence on Monument square. The judge has been spending the week here.

Chas. P. A. Searle has been making considerable improvements on his home and lawn.

The Montrose Republican is printed in its new building on Public avenue. Editor Taylor may feel justly proud of his beautiful building.

Rev. E. A. Hodge attended the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor convention in Cleveland, O. He went as a delegate, representing the Presbyterian and Baptist societies.

Dr. C. D. Mackey is in New York city taking a special course in medicine.

Chas. Updegrava has traded his two town dwellings for the Daniel Watrous farm near Brooklyn, Pa. He will take up his residence there April 1, 1895.

Walter Jackson is dealing out soda water at the Eagle drug store during the absence of George C. Burns.

A sad accident occurred in Forest Lake last Wednesday. A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oran Green, aged about one year, went out to play and had only been out of her mother's sight about five minutes when she was found in a watering trough drowned.

The parents are heart broken over their loss. The funeral was held yesterday at 1 o'clock.

George Bestwick, deputy postmaster, is enjoying a vacation.

D. A. Lattin and family are occupying the Three Oaks cottage at Heart Lake. This cottage is owned by Captain W. D. B. Atney and is the finest one at the lake.

Mrs. B. Burns is entertaining her father from Binghamton.

Miss Susie Bay, of Binghamton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker.

Wilbur Benjamin from Aitken, Lambert & Co., of New York, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. L. Bosch.

Mrs. H. E. Taylor and children have returned from a three weeks' visit with her parents in Lunenburg.

Adjutant W. S. Miller was here last night and held the last officers' school of the series in the armory. The non-coms of Company G have been very faithful in their attendance at the schools and as a result they are much more competent than formerly to fill their respective positions in the regiment.

W. E. Prall, of Scranton, was here recently and was warmly welcomed by his host of friends.

Miss Tillie and Josie Hawley, of Scranton, are the guests of their parents, Nelson and Mrs. Hawley, on Lookout Hill.

The Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church, met at Mrs. H. S. Conklin's yesterday afternoon.

N. H. Shafer who has been to Clifton Springs for the benefit of his health, is again at his home here very much improved.

The trustees of the Methodist church, have purchased the old church property and have commenced taking it down. The old parsonage will occupy the ground and the lumber in the old church will be used to build a new barn. The new parsonage will be built where the old one now stands.

THROOP.

Mrs. Mary Logan and a friend, of Priceburg, were in town on Wednesday.

Joseph Fahringler, Frank Fahringler, Oliver Simpson, Charles Fahringler and wife, and Miss May Banfield attended the public installation of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, of Providence.

Robert Kennedy has just been presented with a bouncing baby girl.

Frank Williams and Miss Alice Miller, of Hyde Park, spent an hour with Miss May Banfield last evening.

Mrs. J. D. Williams and two of her children, Isaac and Annie, spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. T. J. Williams.

Miss Sacks, of New Albany, is visiting C. D. Sanderson.

Anthony Carlin, street commissioner of Throop borough, is doing good work on S. Anderson street.

Patrick Coar, who received a slight injury at the Pancoast mine, is able to be around again.

The Pancoast mine worked three-quarter time this week.

Services at the Baptist and Methodist Episcopal churches will be as follows: Morning, 10:30; evening, 7; Bible class, 2 p. m.

Criticizing a Young Lady.

"She would be a pretty girl for but one thing."

"What's that?" asked Charley.

George—Her face is always covered with purple and red blotches.

Charley—Oh, that's easily enough disposed of. Used to be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time.

George—What was it?

Charley—Simply blood eruptions. Took a short course of P. P. P. I tell you, it's the boss blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism so bad that you could hear him hammer clear across the country every time he moved. He tried it, and you know what an athletic old gent he is now. If somebody would give Miss Daisy a pointer, she would thank them afterwards. All the drug stores sell it.

HALLSTEAD.

Mrs. Thomas Hays, who for many years has resided at Great Bend, but of late has been living with her son, Sidney Hays, in Scranton, is visiting her son, Theodore Hays, and other acquaintances in this place. Mrs. Hays is a very estimable lady, and her hosts of friends in this place and Great Bend are always glad to welcome her home again.

Secretary Adair, of the Young Men's Christian Association, will speak in the Methodist Episcopal church at Great Bend Sunday, during the absence of the pastor, who is to occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal church, Scranton.

House plants will be thoughtfully received at the Young Men's Christian Association, as an effort is being made to furnish a table with the same.

FOREST CITY.

Miss Lillian Reynolds, of Scranton, visited relatives in this place Wednesday.

The board of trade will have a meeting this evening. A large attendance is desired as important business measures will be adopted.

Miss Elma Graham, of Great Bend, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Larrabee.

The Pelican Athletic club picnic was held Wednesday. It was a success.

H. G. Likely, of the Pioneer city, was meeting old acquaintances in town last evening.

Go with the united Sunday schools of Forest City on their grand excursion and basket picnic, Tuesday, Aug. 19, to Lake Poynter and enjoy a day of pleasure. Train will leave Ontario and Western station at 8:30 a. m. Tickets for round trip, 60 cents; children, 35 cents. The Hillside collieries will be idle during that day.

An open air concert which was given Wednesday evening in front of Davis' drug store attracted a large crowd to that place.

Miss Laura Hillman, of Pottsville, is visiting at the home of Joseph Meyers.

Miss Cecelia Lanning, of Susquehanna, who has been re-elected to teach in the Forest City graded school for next year, is visiting friends in this place for a few days.

Hal Jadin and Jesse Wagner, two popular young men of Carbondale, spent last evening taking in the sights and scenes of this city. Nothing else.

An alarm of fire was sounded by the Chief bell room whistle last evening. The fire originated in the Clifton colliery blacksmith shop. Both hose companies responded, but their services were not needed, as the fire was extinguished by the timely use of a few buckets of water.

F. Cunningham, sr., is lying seriously ill at his home in this borough.

Mrs. W. E. K. L. is accompanied by Fred and Vina Reynolds, leaves today for an extended visit with New York city relatives.

OLYPHANT.

Rev. F. J. Janss, who has been visiting in the southern states for some time past, is expected home today.

Mrs. E. L. Anderson, of Carbondale, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. R. Davis, on Depot street.

Frank Simpson is seriously ill at his home on the West Side.

Wassburn's circus will hold forth at Miss' grove this afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Charles Lewelly and son Robert are visiting at D. L. Berr's.

T. Frank Jordan and M. W. Cummings are in New York city.

Mrs. Albert Kessine, of Providence, is visiting her father on the West Side.

The Bickley Baptist Sunday school will hold a picnic at Laurel Hill park next Thursday.

Rev. J. R. Ellis, of the Bickley Baptist church, is in Toronto, Canada, attending the convention of B. Y. P. U.

John D. Davis died at his home on Hudson street this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Deceased was about 50 years of age and is survived by a wife and four children.

Interment will be made in Hyde Park cemetery at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The Coxeyite Base Ball club played its first game yesterday and defeated a strong picked nine by a score of 18-2.

John Taylor received a dispaton notifying him of the death of his nephew, Mrs. John R. Taylor, from New York city. Mr. Taylor left for that city to attend the funeral.

The many friends of Thomas Flynn will be pained to hear of his sudden death at his home in New Jersey. The remains will be brought here for burial. Funeral announcement later.

PRICEBURG.

The Stars, of Priceburg, accept the challenge of the Stars, of Erie, Pa., to a game of ball to be played on these grounds at the earliest opportunity.

Miss Myrtle Scott has returned home after spending a few days with friends in the North End.

H. Kemmerline, a commissioner appointed by the court of quarter sessions on June 1st, to divide Dickson borough into three wards, met in the borough building on Thursday, July 20, at 10 o'clock in the morning. All those interested should attend as it is a matter of importance.

M. F. Fadden, a well known and respected business man of this town, left on Thursday for Hoboken, N. J., to convey the remains of his brother-in-law, T. F. Fivins, to this place. Much sympathy is felt for the aged father of the unfortunate young man.

Athletic sports are commencing to boom. On Friday Pat Leung defeated Connelton P. Long in a foot race and wrestling match. The Gilgallon brothers are also aspirants for athletic honors. They can toe the scratch every time.

Miss Laura Stetson, of Allentown, is on a visit to friends in this place.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle and give this remedy a fair trial. It is a habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Matthews Bros' drug store.

ARCHBALD.

Friends and well wishers of John D. Edwards, the hospitable landlord of the American hotel, on the Ridge, have made arrangements for holding a picnic at his place today, and at the request of many the various entertainments will be continued on Monday.

Several bands of music from the surrounding towns will be present. A number of gentlemen have arranged for a pigeon match also, that the lovers of the gun and trap may have an opportunity of displaying their skill.

The funeral of the late Mr. Henry Roth took place from here last Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Shaw, pastor of the Presbyterian church conducted the services at the house. Interment took place in the Protestant cemetery. The pall bearers were selected from among the neighbors of the deceased. The funeral was very large and there were many from out of town in attendance.

L. W. Washburne's circus gave two good exhibitions to large audiences here yesterday afternoon and evening.

A writer in this week's Citizen makes suggestions which, if heeded, will do not a little to the beauty of the town. The writer thinks it possible to dam the Lackawanna river in front of Dr. V. D. Bire's residence and make the subject of water there, for use in skating in winter. The cost of doing this would not be great and it would add a great deal to the beauty of Main street in that particular part of the borough. The river at the point in question could be easily suited to the purpose that the Citizen's correspondent refers to.

Mrs. James O'Boyle, of South Main street, is entertaining her sister, Miss Ellis Hart, of Gateway, Ireland.

Connelton E. F. Blake is confined to his home owing to illness.

School Director P. J. Lally was in Scranton yesterday.

CARBONDALE.

Camp Crystal, a party composed of the following young men, will leave this afternoon for an outing at Crystal Lake: El Yarrington, Hd Jadin, B. L. Stuger, J. B. Rowison, W. C. Yarrington, Eugene Hulson, Charles Alexander, Henry Branning, and L. H. Rowison, of Green Ridge.

An enjoyable programme will be rendered this evening by the Mozart band, from the Hotel Anthracite's balcony.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rogers, of 3 Church street, are mourning the death of their 6-weeks-old child, who died Thursday night of cholera infantum.

Funeral this afternoon at 3 o'clock, interment in St. Rose cemetery.

The following excursions will be run to Fairview next week: Monday, July 23, St. Aloysius society, of Kingston; Tuesday, July 24, Polish church of Dickson; Wednesday, July 25, Arch-bald Hose company; Thursday, July 26, St. Luke's society, of Wilkes-Barre; Friday, July 27, Cambria-American society, of Pittston; Saturday, July 28, St. Aloysius society, of Pittston.

Maud Williams, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams, Park street, died on Thursday evening at 10 o'clock of inflammation of the bowels. The funeral will be held this afternoon. Interment will be made in Maplewood cemetery.

Yesterday was the hottest day of the year. At noon the mercury reached 97 in the shade at Mills Bros' hardware store on Main street.

Today the Improved Order of Red Men, No. 119, of Lackawanna, will run an excursion to Fairview.

Will Eitel, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting Carbondale friends.

Miss Mattie Harke, of Salem avenue, is the guest of Peckville friends.

Miss Lizze Ammerman, of Canaan street, is visiting relatives in Susquehanna.

F. E. Burr and family have returned after a week's visit at Crystal Lake as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Morris.

Benjamin Vreeland, of Williams avenue, is seriously ill with typhoid pneumonia.

Mrs. Kirkbride, of Dunstaff street, is ill at her home with congestion of the lungs.

May Quinn, of Fallbrook street, is visiting Carbondale friends.

Intelligence has been received of the safe arrival of William E. Watt at Glasgow.

The Columbia Hose company's excursion to Fairview yesterday was largely attended, and a pleasant day was enjoyed by all.

J. H. Smith, a representative of the Boynton Furnace company, of New York and Chicago, who is stopping at Hotel Anthracite, is able to be about after a five days' illness.

Miss Mams Shozor, of Grove street, is visiting friends in Ekdale.

The infant daughter of William Skull, of Clarke avenue, is recovering from a bad attack of cholera infantum.

Mothers! Mothers! Mothers!!! Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and get no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

DALTON.

Quite a number from this place attended the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor convention at Waterbury last Wednesday afternoon and evening. It is expected that the next one will be held in one of the churches at this place.

Mrs. R. E. Phillips is spending a few days at the home of her parents at Fleetville, Pa.

The Baptist Sunday school of this place expect to run an excursion to Lake Ariel, Aug. 7. The fare is very reasonable, only 90 cents for adults and 60 cents for children, and any one who desires to spend a day at a nice and pleasant place should not miss this opportunity.

A. J. Colborn, of Scranton, was at this place one week last week.

William Anstine and family, of Pierre, S. D., have moved to this place.

Mrs. J. J. Jennings is recovering very rapidly from her long illness.

Byron Decker, of Scranton, spent Sunday at the residence of O. P. Stoll, County Commissioner. Giles Roberts and Surveyor Dunstings were inspecting a bridge near John Stevens' last Wednesday.

H. M. Ives was on the sick list a few days last week.

The base ball club of this place played a game with the Fleetville club at that place last Saturday and won by a score of 28 to 8. They expect to play at Tank amonk today.

Mrs. H. P. Richards, of Taylor, is visiting at this place.

The thermometer registered at 94 in the shade at this place Thursday.

Mrs. Nebuling has been very sick for the past few days, but is reported better.

Miss Jessie Kempher has returned home after spending a few days with friends in Wilkes-Barre.

Misses Katie and Eva Brown, of Scranton, are visiting friends at this place.

Robert Tarabull seems to be the lucky sixteen of this place. He captured six men fine pickerel at Lily lake last Tuesday.

William Sims is the happy papa of another little boy.

MOOSIC.

Mrs. M. Henry is visiting her daughter in New York city.

Mr. Davy is seriously ill at his home on South Main street.

Mrs. Davis, of Hyde Park, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Meitz.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society gathered about 50 on their social Wednesday night.

A young son has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gammell on Brook street.

George Jackson, of Middletown, was severely injured at Old Forge No. 1 on Wednesday. He was preparing to fire a shot and it went off and shot him in the head, crushing his skull.