The Hygienic Treatment of Constipation and Ordinary Dyspepsia.

Sir John Andrews, the English professor, believes that in the vast majority of cases constipation may be successfully overcome by taking a teaspoonful of the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt dissolved in a tumblerful of water (half a pint), cold or hot, early in the morning, and if necessary, on going to bed. Best taken when out-door exercise can be had.

ST. JOHN HAS ANOTHER SAY.

In a Card to the Public He Shies Away

St. John, of the Base Ball association, in a card in the Truth last night had a good deal to say about passes, and incidentally declared that he was afraid the article in Its score that time, but Hazleton was lieve that "he was attempting to make more fortunate. Mr. St. John then went on to say:

"Owing to abuses to which some of the passes issued by the Base Ball association were being subjected, the association at its last Tuesday evening meeting directed me, as its executive officer son for having possession thereof, and it was in pursuance of this duty in the eighth neither club scored, that the cause for THE TRIBUNE'S article was found, Our association objects to no person connected regularly with any newspap r

Furthermore the article had reference only to the interview with Mr. St. John printed in this paper yesterday in which he de-clared that it was the intention of the Haz eton's half of the tenth by flying Base Ball association to take up all newspaper tickets and pay for such advertising of games as it might see fit to unsert. It is a matter of regret to the newspapers that the other directors of the association declare that such a change is not contemplated. Without going into the merits of the question of THE TRIBUNE's right to use ts tickets as it sees fit it may be re marked that Mr St, John said what was not true when he inferred that the tickets of THE TRIBUNE had been found in the hands of bartenders and hotel

THE TRIBUNE'S position in this matter is plain. It feels that it has given the Base Ball associaton value several times over for whatever courtesies it has received and it therefore objects to Mr. St. John or any one else placing it in the position of a mendicant looking for crumbs at the Base Ball as sociation's board, Mr. St. John has taken pains many times this season to have the writer and other newspaper workers of this city infer that the association was treating them most "charitably" in allowing them what he is pleased to term "passes."
