COULDN'T LOSE WITH SUCH BATTING.

A Poor Fielding Game Easily Won by Scranton with the Stick.

The hopes of 1,300 howling spectators rose and fell during the Pottsville-Scranton game yesterday until the lucky ninth inning, when with the score but 6 and 7 in favor of the home team, six more runs were made and the game won for Scranton by a home run, two two-baggers and four singles.

Until the last inning the field work of the home team had been distinguished by the errors of such good players as Hogan and Phelan. Twice did Long Tom Flanagan stride around the box casting glances at Hogan which on anything but a cool day would have withered the premier center fielder.

Apparently the home team had despaired of making the game a secure by field playing, when Patschen in the first half of the ninth strode to the plate and sent the sphere whizzing into far right field only to be captured by Smith, Massey and Phelan followed with a two-bagger and single and occupied third and first bases when Staltz selected a willow to his liking, spat upon his hands and with one fell, murderous smash knocked the leather out of sight into far left field for a home run and incidentally three scores.

Rogers made a single and advanced to second when Westlake was hit by a pitched ball. Flanagan struck out but Rogers and Westlake advanced a batter at Potts. Both scored on Wetzel's drive into short center which netted him one bag. Wetzel was brought home on Patschen's two-base hit to left field. Massey then came out to cover Fuller's head which the latter corralled by a clever running catch.

Neither team scored in the first two innings. In the third Flanagan went out on a grounder to Nree. Wetzel made a two-bagger and Hogan beat Nree's fumble out at first. Both came home on Patschen's hit into extreme right center for two bases and the latter completed the circuit on Massey's red-hot grounder, which escaped Ellis and cavorted among the daisies away out in left field. Massey was caught napping between second and third and Staltz flew out to Hill.

In the fourth Rogers went to first on balls and to second on Westlake's hit, but was caught between there and third, Westlake reaching second and advancing to third on Flanagan's sacrifice to short right field. Wetzel's hit let Westlake score. Hogan went out from Ellis' throw. Two balls were netted in the sixth inning by Rogers' two-bagger and Flanagan's hits, which developed a home run through Nree's wild throw to first.

Pottsville made their first run in the third on Nree's hit into left for two bases and Golden's safe. In the fourth Tighe found the leather for two bases owing to Phelan's error and came home on Ellis' two-bagger into right field. Ellis scored on Smith's hit into left field. A hit by Golden and a two-base drive by Potts in the fifth netted the visitors another run.

A batting streak in the eighth secured two more runs for Pottsville. Golden found the ball for a base and stole second before Potts reached first on a hit. Both came home on Tighe's drive into center and Hogan's fumble and poor throw which allowed Tighe to reach second. Ellis struck out and Smith and Fuller retired on flys to Staltz and Westlake. The final run was secured in the ninth by Hill's hit and Phelan's error in failing to stop Nree's lightning grounder.

A RECKLESS GENERAL.

How the Duke of Wellington Trifled With Great Danger.

One day the Duke of Wellington's French cook came to him for orders. "Oh, get anything," said the Duke, impatiently. "I never think of what I put into my stomach."

What is to be done, then? One cannot live without eating. The only possible help is in a pre-digested food which science has furnished in the form of Paskola. It replaces weak tissue and invigorates the entire system.

"I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion until I was induced by a friend as a last resort to try Paskola. I am more than pleased to testify that Paskola has worked wonders in my case, as I have no distress after eating, and eat whatever the appetite craves. I advise all like sufferers to use Paskola."

This is the story of P. A. Hank, of Valparaiso, Ind. "Before I used Paskola I was very weak. I could not do anything. I tried everything to gain strength but failed. My doctor told me to use Paskola and it is the only thing for a weak stomach."

"I have gained two pounds in a week. There is nothing that helps indigestion like Paskola. I have tried about twelve doctors and have been suffering more than twelve years."

"At times I could work only two days in a week. For nearly three years I spent all I had for doctoring and had given up hope."

Any up-to-date druggist will furnish Paskola. If you wish to know how it works, send for free pamphlet to The Pre-Digested Food Co., 39 Rande St., New York.

son's manager writes W. J. Magon to the effect that, while the mile of Bliss was a good one, Johnson will ride two miles at a 1.54 pace before the season closes, and twenty-seven miles in the hour. With a five day Tom Ek thinks 1.50 will be about Johnson's flying start figure, and 1.56 for a standing start mile.

Washington, D. C., is making quite a bid for prominence as a place where boxing contests can be brought off.

Pat Lynch, the well known steeplechase rider, is educating Crown Prince over the jumps. He says the colt will make a great jumper.

George Holland is in active training for his next round bout with the "Kentucky Rosebud" at Caledonia hall, Philadelphia, on Saturday evening.

Joe Patchen, the stallion that made a pacing record of 2:12 at Davenport, Ia., last week is the fourth of Patchen Wilkes' get to enter the 2:15 list.

The fastest 2-year-old pacer to date this season is the brown colt Judge Hart, by William M. Hill, who won the first heat of a race for his age at Council Bluffs last week in 2:14.

From all accounts old Dallas, 2:11 1/2, the Kentucky-bred pacer, is a faster horse than he ever has been. He began the present campaign by winning. This horse was sold once for $20.

Bill Vernon, who revels in being called the "Haverrstraw Brickmaker," is not after Horace Leads for a mill. Vernon says he will yield to any horse on proposition so long as Leads will let him have a chance to fight him.

Joe Choyanski has two hard contests on hand. He has signed to stop Mike Boden, the "Real Horse," on four rounds, July 30, at the Isabella ball room, Chicago, and a contract to meet Steve O'Donnell, August 14, at the same place, presumably for ten or twenty rounds.

Gold Sense From Luzerne. Wilkes-Barre News-Dealer. There is no reason why a newspaper should give labor and space to candidates for office on the free lunch basis. They are after the offices for the "meat," and it is only right that a just and fair tribute should be exacted for pushing them into public prominence and financial profit.
