Democratic Tariff Conferers Still at War Among Themselves.

REPUBLICANS ARE SPECTATORS

The Senate and House Conferers Are Unable to Agree Upon Various Items of the Tariff Bill and Each Faction Proposes to Stand by Its Colors--Deadlock Liable to Last Until Next March--Republicans Are Ready to Vote at Any Time.

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 30.

WHEN the tariff conferers met today at 1 o'clock Senator Hays called the roll and the members present were: Mr. Hays, Mr. Aldrich, Mr. Bristow, Mr. Cullum, Mr. Ewing, Mr. Gurnea, Mr. Harney, Mr. Hendricks, Mr. Jones, Mr. McMillan, Mr. Pennington, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Tamm, Mr. Tilden, Mr. Tipton, Mr. Tracy, Mr. Vest, Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Wood.

REPUBLICANS READY TO VOTE

After the conference adjourned Mr. Aldrich said that he had discussed the senate on the third of July--almost one month ago, and that since that time the Republicans had not contributed to any of the delay. They were, he said, ready to vote on the conference report and end the matter as they believed the country was entitled to expect.

DEADLY TROLLEY.

A Nine-Year-Old Boy Almost Car in Two.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—A particularly horrible trolley accident occurred this afternoon on the Chestnut branch of the Philadelphia Traction company. A trolley car was speeding out Belmont avenue some twelve miles an hour, when a 9-year-old boy named Willie Shaw jumped off the back tray and was wagon with a bump of ice in both his little hands ran across the track directly in front of the car.

IN OUR OWN COMMONWEALTH.

All the fontaines at Lebanon have been shut off to economize water. Rather than go to jail for neglect to push sewer improvements, all of Williamsport's councilmen gave bail.
