recaptured all records heretofore made in the Pennsylvania State League of base ball clubs by winning her sixteenth consecutive victory, the last fourteen of which were scheduled to be played and were won on the home grounds. She thus makes her position at the top of the percentage column more secure, and in the event of her winning but a fair share of the games scheduled to be played away from home, will undoubtedly finish the season as the champions.

Allentown, Hazleton and Reading the other State League victors. The position of the clubs has not been changed as a result of the games won and lost yesterday.

The following table gives the percentages of the clubs, the number of games won and lost, and their standing in the championship race:

Table with columns: Won, Lost, Per Cent. Rows include Scranton, Allentown, Pottsville, Lancaster, Hazleton, Reading, Harrisburg, Philadelphia.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Scranton at Reading. Allentown at Harrisburg. Hazleton at Pottsville. Philadelphia at Lancaster.

SIXTEEN STRAIGHT.

The Great Meany Kicked Out of the Box.

We made it sixteen straight. The last game of this series on the home grounds was a very satisfactory one in this respect, that it convinced Harrisburg that they are not in the same class with Scranton and that Meany must be rated two or three rates lower than Hobson.

The Harrisburgs were almost shut out the score being 11 to 1. Meany was clearly knocked out, being compelled to retire in the fifth in favor of Huston. Hodson's pitching and the batting of the locals were the features of the game. Hobson succeeded in making the remarkable record of seven strikes out in succession, a feat never witnessed by Scrantonians since Doc Oberlander did it against the Syracuseans.

In the first inning we landed on Mr. Meany for five runs, Weitzel making a two-bagger, Hogan a single, Massey a two-bagger, Pagan a single and Staltz a three-bagger. Sprague's muff of Weitzel's long fly helped in two of the runs.

Patchen, who had struck out in the first inning, made up for it by opening up the second with a three-bagger to right field fence. Massey brought him in with a pretty single over the short stop's head.

Another runner, coming in on the fourth on Staltz's fumble of Weitzel's short grounder, a single by Hogan and an error by Sprague in fielding Hogan's hit. In this inning Patchen got caught in a dog chase and in trying to help him out Hogan got caught at third. In this inning it looked as if Harrisburg would score. Sales and Wright by reason of singles, and a wild throw by Hodson filled third and second bases respectively and no one was out. Hodson struck out three men in succession and nipped the scores amidst the tumultuous applause of his worshippers.

In the fifth inning he repeated the feat, striking out all three men, making seven in succession the last batter in the third inning having also fallen before his mighty arm. In the fifth inning scored, making a hit and being drawn in by Meany's long drive to right. Wright made a brilliant catch off Patchen's bat in the sixth inning and spoiled two runs which Weitzel and Hogan had all ready to be delivered. We scored two more in the seventh on a hit by Massey, the presentation of a base on balls to Staltz and Weitzel's single. Weitzel got a base on balls in the eighth and scored on Massey's hit. Rogers scored in the ninth on a hit and a two-bagger by Weitzel.

The game was enthralling and the audience amused by the Rear Row Roarers who were more than enthusiastic yesterday. They gave all sorts of yells with a precision worthy of a college crowd, sang songs, whistled figs and dealt marbles as suited the occasion and wound up counting in a union from 1 to 16, concluding the yell with "sixteen straight." Many of the State League migrants were present and seemed to enjoy the "rooting" more than the game.

This is why the roster crowd:

GLINTS FROM THE DIAMOND.

Today and tomorrow Scranton is scheduled to play at Reading.

Hamilton, one of the Phillies, who leads the base runners, has stolen fifty bases.

In two consecutive games, July 24, inclusive, Second Baseman Hallman, of the Phillies, made one error in seventy-five chances.

The West Side Stars challenge the Scranton Stars to a game of ball on Saturday on the Little Woods grounds. William Hughes, captain.

Scranton made the record of the season yesterday for consecutive victories by defeating Harrisburg. It is the sixteenth consecutive league game the club has won.

The Stars of Pottsville challenge the Scranton Stars to a game of ball on Friday next. Answer through THE TRIBUNE. Mike Barry, captain.

Also, Donaghy of Lancaster, predicted last Saturday that Scranton would win as soon as it went away from home. It remains to be seen if this prediction will prove correct.

The Lanesboro Baseball club, composed of summer residents of Dalton, will play a match game of ball on the Owens grounds at that place with the Buck wheaters of Dalton. Game will be called upon arrival of train leaving Scranton at 4 p.m. today.

The race in the Western association (not Western league) continues to be wonderfully close, as the following will show: Lincoln, 39 won, 29 lost; St. Joe, 35—31; Omaha, 35—31; Jacksonville and Peoria, 25—31; Rock Island, 33—33; Des Moines, 31—35; Quincy, 31—45.

WHIRLS OF THE WHEELMEN.

Peter Berlo is at work on a tandem to be used for record breaking purposes.

The Penn wheelmen, of Reading will hold a national circuit race next Sept. 21. Newsboy Lewis Siebert, of Toga, serves a notice of 200 papers on the wheel in thirty-five minutes.

Somebody has forbidden the use of Belmont Driving club track while horses are being worked.

The three great Welsh riders, Michael, James and Linton, live within a few doors of each other in Aberaman, South Wales.

Mrs. Hetzel, of Union Hill, N. J., is an old lady of 80 years. She has just purchased a lady's Columbia bicycle, and rides it daily.

On Friday evening next the Pennsylvania Bicycle club will hold its twelfth anniversary at the club house, West Philadelphia.

Bicycling has become so popular among both sexes in Germantown that that pretty suburb now supports four bicycle establishments.

Somebody has figured it out that, barring breaks and punctures, it costs on an average only 1-32 of a cent for every mile ridden on a modern safety.

It is now pretty definitely settled that Zimmerman, Wheeler, Banker and the rest from the hot sun, Siesta.

Just as necessary in our climate, if we would do it; but here it is business—rushing about and use of energy in the hot sun.

number of other Americans and foreign professional cranks in Europe, will visit this country in September.

George Taylor, the class B racer, seems to be unable to get into good condition this season. He is training constantly but is riding in very poor form.

The Massachusetts Sunday Protective League has issued an appeal to the young men and women of bicycle and boating clubs to avoid all "meets" and "runs" on the Lord's day.

George Banker was very successful on a recent three-weeks' trip through Germany, Austria, Italy and Switzerland. He captured eight firsts, one second and two thirds in eleven races.

London, Leicester, Birmingham, Glasgow and other cities yet to hear from, will give professional tournaments in which Zimmerman will take part, commencing at Birmingham August 15.

The Springfield, Mass., Bicycle club announces $5,000 in prizes for its diamond tournament at Hampden park September 12th and 13th. There will be twenty events, including a one-mile international invitation, unpaired record race, for which a $500 diamond is the first prize.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Track records are falling right and left. It promises to be a record year in more senses than one.

The two-mile trotting record of Russia (4:44) stands to the credit of the American bred stallion Finch.

Flying 214, 204, it is said, never made a break while in the hands. He does little else at times now.

Helen M. (2:39 1/4), by Cobden (2:28 1/4), has won first money in every pacing race that she has started in this year.

Three Axtell 2-year-olds in John Young's stable at Turf, Hants recently stepped quarters better than a 2:23 gait.

There will be a four days' meeting at inland park, near Albany, N. Y., beginning Aug. 14. The purses are $500 each.

Summers, 2:28, by George Wilkes, dam by Melrose, is a fine sire of new 2:29 performers. A pair of his get had entered the list at the close of last week.

It looks as though an outclassed grand circuit performer would not stand much of a show for the money through the New England circuit this season—American Horse breeder.

The old Dilard yearling Hal B promises to shed lustre on his sire this season. He has two engagements out of as many starts, and dropped the last quarter of a fourth last in his second race.

Report says that the interest in fine horse stock, both runners and trotters, is increasing in Hawaii. The fastest trotter ever bred there is Fred Mack, 2:42, so there is much room for improvement.

The case of R. T. Kuebs, who is now imprisoned at Berlin for signing the name Bethel, seems to be assuming a darker aspect as time wears away. It looks now as though Kuebs was guilty of perjury, and some of his friends do not much better. It doesn't pay to indulge in knavish tricks among the foreigners, and if cases of this sort were treated with greater severity in this country, more might be made of the trotting and breeding interests. It is such men as Kuebs who have helped drive many of the better class of men from the trotting race course.—American Horse breeder.

A peculiar disease, which some call "big head," is prevailing among horses in the outskirts of Boston, and is proving fatal in some cases. Francis A. Foster, who farms a few miles out, recently lost a promising filly from this cause, and two other valuable animals are suffering from it, although at last accounts they appear to be improving.

The fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla, once fairly tried, is now the favorite cathartic with everyone who tries them, 25c.

"Dick" Burge, the pugilist, is rapidly recovering from the effects of his recent illness. Burge announces that as soon as he is himself he will fight any man in the world at the weight limit.

George Dixon has replied to the challenge of "Red" Jacobs, an English, for another fight. The colored champion states that Johnson will have to put up a good sized stake or he will refuse to meet him again.

Billy Smith, the English feather-weight, has replied to Billy Higgins' challenge to fight in London at 116 pounds for £500 a side. He said that after the racing season he would be open to the world at 118 pounds.

Corbett says that in the event of his match with Jackson falling through and either Fitzsimmons or Maher getting on a match with Jackson, he would fight the winner. He states also that his next fight will be his last.

Overtures have been made to Jim Hall and Steve O'Donnell, to settle their differences in the arena of the Twin City Athletic club, of St. Paul. The directors of the organization will meet on Aug. 27 as the date of the conflict if the men agree to come together.

Dan Creedon, who is so anxious to fight Bob Fitzsimmons, has decided to look to other quarters in view of the fact that Fitz does not display the slightest desire to meet him. Creedon announces that either Joe Cheynock or Jim Hall would be agreeable opponents for him at catch weights.

According to a San Francisco paper, Peter Jackson will soon come East and join his manager, "Parson" Davies. Jackson declared recently to a reporter that the climate of California has worked wonders with him, so far as his health is concerned. Peter says that he has gained considerable in weight of late, and that his appetite is good.

The managers of Harvard and Cornell University Football associations have signed contracts for the Harvard-Cornell game to be played at Manhattan Field Oct. 27, 1894. Cornell has engaged Marshall Newell, of Harvard '94, for their coach, and as a number of her best men on last year's team will play this year, she expects to have a strong team. Harvard will also have a number of her football men to coach her. The Princeton-Cornell game has been scheduled to be played at Manhattan Field on Oct. 21.

HER ELEVENTH HUSBAND. An Indiana Woman Appears to Have Made a Big Record. VALPARAISO, Ind., July 31.—Mrs. D. Spenser, of Bourbon, though but 44 years old, has just been married to her eleventh husband. She was a bride at 15, and ten years elapsed before her first marriage turned out a failure. She was separated from her second and third husbands and secured a pardon for a conviction in 1871 when she was married. After her death she chose a fifth and sixth husband from among a legion of suitors.

A charge of bigamy was disproved in connection with the marriage of the seventh husband, who gave her statutory grounds for divorce. The eighth husband was secured by advertisement, but he was accidentally killed. At the age of 38 she married S. H. Brown and to this union her first child was born. Brown disappeared and her next marriage with the venerable Dr. Spenser was terminated by his sudden death.

One Man Killed and Several Injured in an Explosion. CHICAGO, July 31.—One man was killed, two fatally and several others seriously injured by an explosion of dynamite at the quarries of Dimes & Shepard in Hawthorn's park. While four of them most seriously injured were on their way to the hospital, two of them died, making a total of three dead within an hour of the accident.
