Michael Reap, of Willow Street, Kicked in the Stomach by a Mule. COUNCILMAN HICKEY'S BIRTHDAY Being Twenty-Nine Years Old, the Century Hose Company, of Which He is an Honored Member, Presented Him with a Gold Chain. Church Picnic Held Yesterday—Personal and Shorter Paragraphs.

A very serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to Michael Reap, of Willow street, a driver in the Dodge mine. He was kicked in the abdomen by a vicious mule and his stomach was almost shattered from the force of the blow.

HE WAS NOT LENIENT. Ten Offenders Sent to the County Jail in One Load. Alderman Fitzsimmons held police court yesterday as usual as a consequence Sheriff Fahey has ten new boarders. Of late the police magistrates have been somewhat lenient with offenders and it seemed to have had a bad effect, for each morning the crowd of prisoners awaiting before the station has increased in proportions.

WAR VETERANS' RE-UNION. Will Be Addressed by Many Notable Speakers. The Seven County Veteran association, composed of the Union veterans of Wayne, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Wyoming, Susquehanna and Bradford counties, of Pennsylvania, and Broome county, New York, will meet in annual reunion at Fairview on Wednesday, Aug. 15.

ARE NOT SLOW AT MAYFIELD. Prothonotary Pryor was yesterday directed by Matthew G. Noary, secretary of the school board of Mayfield to enter judgment against Tax Collector Michael White against Jeremiah O. Sullivan and E. T. Edmundson in the sum of $857.92.

DAN HART'S NEW PLAY. It Will Be Produced at San Francisco on Aug. 18. Dan L. Hart, of Wilkes-Barre, whose southern play, "A Daughter of Dixie," was produced at the Frothingham last evening, leaves for San Francisco, Aug. 18, to assist in the initial performance of his latest comedy, "Washington, D. C." Dan Sully, of "A Corner Grocery," fame, and company will appear in Mr. Hart's recent play.
