

Social & Personal

The week has been marked by a continuance of the outpouring vacation and fresh-air seeking through rather than even a perceptible influx of this class of travelers. Indications are that the going-out will exceed the coming-in crowds until the last of this month at least.

While it is true that the primary reason for the exodus is the heat, it is equally true that many will remain, particularly at the sylvan retreats, until the first flush of Indian summer. Probably in no state in the Union during that period does nature wear such a ravishing and picturesque garb, as in the Keystone state, where the hills support trees of almost every description and whose tops are not solely embellished with verdure of the hick and evergreen types as in other states. Summer visitors feel as well as see this autumn dress gradually appearing and are loth to return until they witness the grand burst of nature into a sea of colored glory.

Carbondale is all agog over the coming tennis tournament at Farview, Aug. 16, which promises to equal in point of attendance and play the successful contest of past seasons. The tournament committee met Wednesday evening and the reports received show that entries will be numerous and from the local club include Messrs. Moon, Orchard and Max Lathrop in doubles and singles, while Hal Torrence will be entered in the doubles with his brother Aleck, of Tandy, N. J. Aleck Torrence will probably also enter the singles, and C. R. Wyckoff, of Elmira, has signified his intention of being present if nothing new unforeseen prevents. Mr. Wyckoff made an excellent record at this year's invitation tournament at Tuxedo, and should be able to take light for the Delaware and Hudson cup.

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock Miss Jennie, daughter of the Hon. W. W. Mumford, of Starbuck, was united in marriage to Albert Crosley, of the same place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. E. Jepson, of Carbondale, at the bride's home. The rooms were handsomely decorated with demure flowers and ornaments. Promptly at 8 o'clock the wedding procession, consisting of Rev. Jepson, two little flower girls, H. S. Smith and Miss Lena Stark, Mr. Crosley and Miss Mumford, advanced into the parlors to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The ceremony was performed in the presence of nearly a hundred guests.

After the congratulations had been given and received, a four course wedding supper was served in an illuminated tent erected upon the lawn. The classmates of Mrs. Crosley, assisted by other students from Keystone Academy, waited upon the tables.

Those present from abroad were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Devereux, Birmingham, N. Y.; Mrs. Keyoun and daughter, Acerrington, Eng.; Mr. G. Stage, Hancock, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young, Stroudsburg; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Taylor, Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Crosby, Scranton, Pa.; Mrs. E. Crosby and daughter, Sherman, Pa.; Miss M. Brower, Lehigh; Mr. and Mrs. P. Lopez, Susquehanna.

While Scranton people are diverse in their selection of resorts and resorts for spending the heated term, it is probably true that Atlantic City meets with more favor than any other spot, particularly among those who visit the seashore for but a brief period. For a permanent wave-washed summer home, however, Martha's Vineyard seems to be the most popular. Many large numbers of Scrantonians have there established summer homes and the representation has been increasing from year to year, until many now own cottages. Among a large number who left here for Atlantic City during the week were: Misses Emily and Anna Kiesel and Miss Walker, Mrs. George S. Horn and son, Mr. Thomas Phillips and Miss Margaret Phillips, Wallace Ruth, Miss Mary E. Keefe and Miss A. M. Sullivan, Judge H. M. Edwards and family and Miss Gertrude Miller, Miss Margaret Collins, Miss Josephina McCaffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Brien.

Miss Blanche Rollison, daughter of the Rt. Rev. N. S. Rollison, Episcopal bishop of this diocese, and a young lady who has many friends in this city, will be married on Aug. 7, at the Church of the Nativity, at South Bethlehem, to the Rev. Dr. Ellwood Worcester, chaplain of Lehigh university. Dr. Worcester will have charge of the American church in Dresden during the winter.

The coaching party from Bethlehem who have visited this city each summer during the past three years, passed through the city this morning. Their four-in-hand was sent on to Honesdale in charge of the driver while the party took the Gravity train over the Moosico. They will return to their home by the way of Port Jervis and Stroudsburg. The party consisted at the Harrison house as Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weiss, Mrs. W. Meyer, A. R. Allen, Thomas Weiss, Jr., Miss Emma Weiss, Burnie Weiss, of Bethlehem, and T. Silkman, of Scranton.—Last evening's Carbondale Leader.

William Howell and Miss Dora Child, both of the West Side, were married Monday evening at the latter's home by Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Tabernacle church.

NEWS NOTES FROM WALES.
Special Correspondence.
LONDON, July 25.—T. Stockwood, clerk of the Bridgford magistrates, is probably the oldest justice clerk in Wales. He is 89 years of age and has just completed his fiftieth year of office and during that long term none of the decisions given upon his advice have been upset by any of the appellate courts. This unusual feat was celebrated on Saturday.

Owing to a misunderstanding a minister attended one of the Sunday afternoon services at Swansea workhouse, whereupon the master called upon an elderly inmate, said to be a properly ordained minister, who was very young and held a pastorate at Northtown and recently returned from Pennsylvania in an infirm condition. He readily conducted the services, and the reverend minister was called a "masterpiece of theology."

The government reports upon the examinations in the Welsh languages have just been issued. It is the chief inspector's report that the papers from North Wales centers were much superior to those from South Wales. The most unsatisfactory results were from Swansea, and the chief inspector is of the opinion that the papers were surprising in their accuracy.

This report will be interesting as it is about the first authoritative criticism applicable to the Welsh language in the center of Carmarvon and this country is renowned for the sweetness and purity of the spoken Welsh. The palm must evidently be given to Carmarvon.

Upwards of 1,600 persons have been killed in one sea of the Albion colliery, the scene of the recent disaster. The inquiry upon the subject is proceeding and the evidence of the manager is not quite satisfactory. In reply to a question as to the cause of the accident he said: "All I can say is, we found a heavy fall of rock, the top of which about 120 tons, on the end of the double railway on Cliffryd side. There the effect of the explosion has been that the rock has fallen a distance of about ten feet." Asked again: "If that fall brought gas, how was the gas fired?" Was there blasting there?" Replied: "No, there are no open flames or lights."

The real question, however, was the cause of the great fall of rock, and experienced men are of the opinion pronounced by Mahon, and given in your columns a fortnight ago, that there was blasting at the wrong time and that this blasting brought down the rock and fired the dislodged gas.

The Brynmor postmaster's son assists his father in the post office, and is also secretary of the Liberal association, and in reply to complaints from the Tory party the postmaster general has announced that he must drop one of the offices. This appears to be curtailing the liberty of a subject, but it must be recalled that a particular postmaster having charge of political telegrams in a certain district has been proved in the past. Postmasters, like other mortals, have a great deal of human nature, and their tongues will wag when the subject is silver, but silence is golden. The betrayal of party secrets entrusted to them in their official capacity is mean and undignified, and renders it impossible for the opposite party to forward telegrams through his office.

The Welsh Congregational union held its annual meeting in Cardiff last week ago, with representatives from China and America were present. The Rev. J. Bowen Jones, B. A., Brecon, was elected president for the year, and Rev. Ivor Jones, Portmadoc, elected secretary.

W. T. Smith and family have gone to Goodstock, Vt., to visit friends for two or three weeks.

Miss Luella McLarny, of Plymouth, is the guest of Miss Margaret Mitchell of Penn. avenue.

Editor W. J. Schubert and wife, of Olyphant, are touring among cities of central New York.

Mrs. H. A. Bushnell and Miss May Jones are on a two weeks' visit with friends at Windsor, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary Taft, of Hawley, is the guest of Miss Helen Hulbert at her home on Jefferson avenue.

Mrs. John P. Dewler, of Philadelphia, is visiting her brother, Charles Miller, of the Bull's Head hotel.

W. R. Pierce, of the steel works, is spending a ten days' vacation with relatives in New Jersey.

Suggestions That May Enable Many Tribes Readers to Feel Better.

WISDOM FOR THE HOUSEHOLD

These Hints Don't Cost Much, Are Not Copyrighted and If They Don't Do You Any Good You Can Have the Satisfaction of Knowing That They Will Not Do You Any Harm.

Two years ago Dr. Harvey Gilbert, of Bay City, Mich., began the use of sulphur dioxide in the treatment of diphtheria and he now concludes that the constant, but slow combustion of sulphur in the sick room, or in the several air passages in the house where diphtheria prevails will prevent the second case in the house; that it is an effective, a very potent remedy in controlling the disease itself, where it already exists; and that it is perfectly safe and harmless. A plate with sulphur sublimate sprinkled upon it and placed upon a boiling water bath, check all fermentation in the room, and absolutely render all decomposition with which it comes in contact innocuous, without annoyance to the most delicate.

In this warm season many persons are troubled with bodily odors arising from profuse perspiration. An authority declares that these odors are apt to be more perceptible among fleshy brunettes than among thin fair people, and exquisite care is the cost of neatness. The fragrant camphorated bath, made with an ounce of tincture of camphor and tincture of benzoin and two ounces of castile soap, is a favorite remedy and also a wholesome disinfectant; the preparation is equally good after the bath.

If necessary, say the Philadelphia Record, burn candles, wear oilcloth floor coverings and bare windows, reduce the heat expense and discharge the fresh air and take care that each child a bed to himself.
