MANLEY IS INDIGNANT AT CAMP CRAWFORD

Says He Will Not Rest Until the Charges Are Sifted.

HE WANTS AN INVESTIGATION

And Will Ask Councils at the Next Meeting to Appoint a Special Committee—Mayor Connell Gives His Opinion of the Frable Charges. Opinions of Select Councilmen Connell and Westfahl.

The sweltering weather of dog days cannot hold a candle to the colorful register of heat produced by George Frable's investigation against the alibi expenditure ward appropriations of South Side councilmen. The Twelfth ward councilmen against whom Mr. Frable appears to have specially directed his remarks are on the war path, freighted duly with a full assortment of scalpings, knives, and war paint.

Select Councilman James Manley speaks openly, declaring that he will not rest until councils appoint a special committee to investigate the charges in order to fully vindicate his character, which he pronounces will be the result of the investigation. The views of Morgan Sweeney, the member of the lower branch, are substantially the same as Mr. Manley's.

WHAT MAYOR CONNELL SAID. Mayor Connell was seen in his office yesterday afternoon by a TRIBUNE reporter. He said: "I do not believe Mr. Frable meant that any of the councilmen are dishonest or that their methods of expending the ward appropriations savors of crookedness. The councilmen, nearly all of them, can not find time to oversee the work done in their wards and for that reason, perhaps, it is expedient that the money is expended injudiciously."

Alex T. Connell, select councilman of the Twentieth ward, said that Mr. Frable's charges were not worthy of him. "All I have to say," said Mr. Connell, "is that if any citizen or taxpayer of the Twentieth ward, or of any other ward of the city, or of any city in the United States, wishes to examine the papers containing the accounts in my district, I would be glad to have him call on me at any time."

Councilman Westfahl outlined a scheme to remedy the grievance complained of. He believed the ward appropriations might be expended more satisfactorily under the supervision of the street commissioner. With three or four assistants the street commissioner, being empowered to use his discretion in the matter, would be able to do far better work than under the present system.

OPINIONS OF OTHER COUNCILMEN. Councilman Westfahl said he would halt the day when the ward appropriations shall be taken out of the hands of the councilmen; for if every deserving man in the ward is not given a job on the streets, considerable criticism is made. Mr. Westfahl said that since he became a member of the councils and it became a part of his duty to expend the ward appropriation and the work has been done to the best of his ability and the accounts are open any time for inspection.

Mr. McCana, of the Fourteenth ward; Mr. Battle, of the Twentieth; and several other councilmen gave similar opinions.

RODE TO JAIL

Three Vagrants Arrested for Free Passage.

Detective Kemmerer, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, caught three men giving their names as John Martin, Andrew Shy and John Mullen, all of Philadelphia, as they were leaving a train on the Bloomsburg division yesterday afternoon.

The men were in the car at Pittston, where the detective boarded it, and as they left it a short distance below the crossing on Scranton street they were caught. The vagrants were taken before Alderman Blair, who sentenced each of them to ten days in the county jail in default of a $5 fine.

A POLISH MARRIAGE

A Picturesque Scene Witnessed at a Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lingis on North Bromley avenue was the scene of a typical Polish wedding yesterday morning. The contracting parties were their daughter, Miss Mary Lingis and Matthew Breskowitz of the North End.

The female portion of the bridal party was dressed in a picturesque manner, of their native land. After the ceremony an excellent wedding breakfast was served. The newly wedded couple will reside in Providence.

CATHEDRAL PARISH EXCURSION.

3,000 People Enjoy the Bracing Air of Mountain Park. The largest excursion of the year was that of the parish of St. Peter's cathedral which went to Mountain park yesterday. It required seventy-five coaches to carry the pleasure-seekers from this city and the crowd increased later in the day by delegations on the regular trains.

At the grounds the refreshment stands were managed by a tireless corps of waitresses and many games were there to furnish relaxation to the muscular ones bent on feats of strength. A very handsome sum was realized from the proceeds.

The only accident to mar the day's enjoyment befell Thomas Gerrity, of 322 Gibson street, who was assisting in collecting tickets on one of the emergency routes and fell off while the machine was moving rapidly. The accident occurred at noon and Mr. Gerrity was placed on the 1:30 train and brought to this city and the Lackawanna hospital. An examination showed that his leg and one rib were broken.
