BUSY DAY IN COURT

Opinion Day is One of the Busiest in Court History.

DELUGE OF JUDICIAL OPINIONS

Judges Archibald, Gunster and Edwards Each Hand Down Important Decisions—The Sweetland Street Bridge, Sunday Soda Water Selling, Grading of Streets, Sewers and Other Important Matter Receive Attention from the Bench.

Yesterday was motion day in court, which is the day set apart during mid-summer in order that the bench may clear away accumulated business before the fall term opens. All three judges sat during the day and an immense amount of business was transacted.

The large number of lengthy and important decisions handed down shows that the judges have not been idle during the summer vacation. Some of these opinions no doubt required careful and lengthy research and no small amount of manual labor. Subjoined will be found the substance of the day's transactions.

SWEETLAND STREET BRIDGE.

Viewers' Report Set Aside by Ruling of Judge Archibald.

The most important decision of the day was that handed down by the president judge, in which he set aside the report of the viewers in the Sweetland street bridge case. In summing up the very lengthy opinion on the question, Judge Archibald says:

The viewers were appointed to ascertain and determine the damages and benefits accruing from the whole and their report should show that they have done so. As it stands, they have only considered a part of the case, and the map which they return is correspondingly defective. The fourth section of the city is sustained.

And now, Aug. 13, 1894, the report of the viewers is set aside, and therefore the case is recommitted to the same viewers for further proceedings and report.

R. W. ARCHIBALD, P. J.

The viewers were Anthony Bauman, John Cawley and C. F. Van Nort, and they awarded damages as follows:

Dominic Healy, $1,500; Mary Keegan, $50; Sarah Collins, $50; Elizabeth Cavannah, $50; James Gorman, $50; Kate Price, $50; James Healy, $100 and $500; Frank Shiffer, $500; Thomas, James, Edward, Julia, Isabelle White and Mrs. Helen Ryan, Mrs. Jennie McDonnell and Mrs. Mary Gibbons, representing the White estate, each $50. The total damages allowed by the viewers is $3,100.

By having "only considered a part of the case," the judge has reference to the viewers' refusal to listen to I. A. Finch's claim for damages, and his statement that the map is defective is based upon the fact that it did not show the whole improvement intended and the lot numbers were not according to city maps but numbers used arbitrarily by the viewers.

MUST BE AN ACCOMPANIMENT.

Sunday Soda Water Must Be a Part of a Menu.

The cases of Druggist Ryan, E. Moses and Baker Hengler, whom Rev. F. A. Dony has arrested for selling unnecessary articles on Sunday, and which cases were appealed from Alderman Post's decision by the defendants, received the attention yesterday of Judge Gunster, who gave an opinion bearing on each particular case.

The weekly report of Secretary Briggs, of the board of health, shows that last week there were thirty-four deaths from all causes and seven cases of contagious disease.

The Daughters of Poshonahs will hold a picnic at Laurel Hill park tomorrow.

By order of the president a meeting of the Ninth ward Republican club is called for Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Central Republican club rooms to elect delegates to the Republican State League convention at Harrisburg Sept. 3.

and from collecting the assessment levied or proposed to be levied.

The gist of the opinion on the question is the complaint of the plaintiffs, that they will have to help bear the expense of sewer laid in streets on which their property does not abut, is not true in one sense, but the evidence shows the section to be constructed in and about the district, and that all the property in the district. They also claim that ordinance under which the improvement was being prosecuted is invalid, but the judge decides otherwise.

STREET GRADING CONSIDERED.

Judge Archibald Deals with This Momentous Question.

Judge Archibald dealt with a number of grading cases in which opinions were handed down as follows:

The Broadway avenue, North Lincoln avenue and Oxford street cases were continued until the next term of argument court to allow the city solicitor to make amendments to the exceptions to the report of the viewers and supply proofs. In the first two cases the city solicitor held that exorbitant damages had been awarded.

In the First street case Judge Archibald strikes off the appeal of the city from the report of the viewers awarding damages.

The proceedings in the Rebecca avenue case were dismissed at the cost of the city.

The tenth and Twelfth street cases were referred back to the viewers for further report.

The appointment of viewers in the Meridian street case was revoked.

MINERS' EXAMINERS APPOINTED.

The Old Boards are Continued for Three Years.

Judge Archibald reappointed the old miners' certificates examining boards for a term of three years, dating from July 1.

The upper district board is composed of Henry Collins, Michael Gilroy and William D. Morris. The local board consists of David Melnyk, George Frey and Miles Gibbons.

THE FLATS FLOOD SUFFERERS.

One Case is Considered by Judge Edwards.

Judge Edwards decided yesterday that Patrick Kearney, who had investigated proceedings to recover from the Central Railroad of New Jersey on account of the floods on the flats, had sued the wrong company.

It was the Wilkes-Barre, and Scranton Railroad company that built the railroad which encroached on the river bed and caused the flood and the judge held that they and not the lessees of the road were responsible. This decision will affect a number of similar cases instituted by other residents of the damaged district.

THE BISHOP NO BETTER

Announcement of His Death Is Momentarily Expected.

WILL NOT BE MOVED TO SCRANTON

Unless Some Pronounced Change in His Condition Occurs He Will Be Allowed to Remain at Cape May. Scranton Priests at the Bedside of the Prostrated Prelate—He Made No Request to Be Taken Here to Die.

News from the bedside of Bishop O'Hara brings no cheer to the anxious thousands who were yesterday pained to hear through THE TRIBUNE of his dangerous illness. He continues in a semi-conscious condition, recognizing those of his friends who are permitted to see him, but only seldom speaking to any one.

Rev. Father Reilly, rector of the cathedral, stated yesterday that there was no truth in the rumor that the bishop had asked to be removed to Scranton that he might die in his room. He never made such a request, and in fact the question of removal was not discussed when Father Reilly was at Cape May. It was thought, however, expedient to have arrangements completed to convey him home if deemed advisable.

MEDICAL AID CONVENIENT.

The bishop will be allowed to remain at Cape May, where everything is propitious for his case. There is no longer the tender attentions of his brother, one of the most eminent physicians of Philadelphia, and being adjacent to Philadelphia it is an easy matter to call in consultation any of the great medical men of that city.

Rev. Father Golden, who was the bishop's companion in his travels, and Rev. N. J. McManus, of Providence, are also at his bedside.

It is an open secret at the Episcopal residence in this city that the announcement of the bishop's death is momentarily expected.

TURNED IN HIS UNIFORM.

Police Officer P. G. Walsh Resigns from the Force.

Police Officer P. G. Walsh is no longer a preserver of the peace. A serious charge filed against him compels him to resign, while on duty, the resignation.

MR. WORMSER OBJECTS

Says Cost of New No. 27 School Will Exceed Appropriation by $9,000.

At last night's meeting of the board of control Controller T. J. Jennings was chosen secretary pro tem, owing to the absence of Secretary Fellows at camp.

The following bids for the heating and ventilating of new No. 19 school were referred to the building committee: B. G. Carpenter & Co., plan No. 1, $3,800; No. 2, $3,500; No. 3, $3,800; No. 4, $3,800; Hunt & Connell, $3,731; Smead Wills Co., $4,560.

On motion of Mr. Wormser, the bids for a retaining wall at No. 27 school were referred to the building committee and the committee was empowered to give the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

The bids for supplies were not read, but were referred to the supply committee, to report at the next regular meeting of the board.

The building committee's recommendation that the contract for building the new No. 27 structure be awarded to Contractor E. G. Hughes for $39,039 was objected to by Mr. Wormser, whose protest sprung from the fact that the amount of the contract was $9,000 more than the appropriation for the erection of the school. Mr. Notz made a very logical appeal in which he gave figures comparing the relative cost of school buildings in the past, and he proved to the satisfaction of all but Mr. Wormser, who voted alone for the first time since he became a member of the board.

The recommendation of the building committee that the mineral under the site of No. 27 school be purchased was adopted.

The supply committee recommended to add the Monroe reader to the list of text books.

On motion of Mr. Mitchell, Cannonier Joseph R. Chase was allowed the privilege of occupying the high school site for the erection of a tent in which he will produce a cyclorama of the battle of Gettysburg the last week of this month.

An adjournment was made until next Monday night.

What Has Become of S. R. Coston? Oh, he is in his tent near Lake Ariel woods, building up for another year of service with the army of the United States.

Old students, students who have not completed the course, and prospective students, are invited to call. The office is always open.

F. E. WOOD, President.

NORTH END.

A FATAL OVERDOSE.

Seven Drops Instead of Five Drops of Wintergreen Oil.

Mrs. Ellen Leader, of Roeker street, Clover hill, died yesterday from an overdose of oil of wintergreen.

Mrs. Leader was a great sufferer from rheumatism, and read in a newspaper that oil of wintergreen was an excellent remedy. Armed with the newspaper extract she went to a local drug store, but before being supplied with the article she was warned to take but five drops at a dose. She was also supplied with a dropper and stated that she thoroughly understood how to use the remedy.

Dr. Thompson, of Providence, was called in seven hours after she was taken ill, but although he has applied all remedies and did his best to save her life, his services were called upon too late in the day as the drug had taken a deadly hold of the patient. Mrs. Leader had evidently been impatient at the slow operation of the oil and in order to accelerate its efficacy had taken seven drachms in twenty-four hours, acting quite contrary to the instructions of the druggist.

Coroner Kelly was communicated with last evening and will probably hold an inquest.
