NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

A Scissors' Grinder Takes Two Tumbles Down the Cedar Avenue Sand Bank.

THE ITALIAN PLAYED CIRCUS

He Started Out in Search of an Alderman to Get Out a Warrant—Opening of St. Luke's Kindergarten School Next Month—The Neptune and William Connell Fire Companies Are Badly in Need of Horses—Other News.

The aged Italian scissors grinder daily seen on the South Side, wandering along ringing a bell and carrying on his shoulders his working paraphernalia, had an experience yesterday that will be apt to cling to his memory. He had climbed the high sand bank skirting Cedar avenue near Palm street, where a crowd of onlookers at play on the level above began to tease him. While descending, the steers threw at him he backed over the bank and the rapidity of the descent results he performed on his downward trip appeared to have had a worse effect on his temper than his body. He got up, dusted himself and started up the bank a second time. The boys allowed him to climb almost to the top and then sent a fusillade of stones toward him. One of the stones hit him and down the bank he went again heels over head. He gazed ruefully at his tormentors, and started in search of an alderman.

ST. LUKE'S KINDERGARTEN.

Fall Term Will Open Next Month with Increased Attendance. The successful past school term of St. Luke's Kindergarten school on Cedar avenue has caused parents to make greater demands for the reception of their children during the coming year than it is feared the school will be able to accommodate. The teacher, Miss Florence Hull, has been commended so highly for her work that it may not be improbable in the near future to see a movement begun for an enlargement of the school.

Harry C. Hawk, of Power's drug store, has assisted very materially in kindergarten school work on this side, and to his efforts in part must be attributed the present popularity and the hope of more extended usefulness of the school in time to come.

THEY NEED THEM AT ONCE.

The Neptune and William Connell Without Proper Services.

If the Neptune Engine company, with its heavy new engine, and the William Connell Hose company, with its cumbersome hose carriage, are not up to the standard in their pance nality at fire, it is a fair question to ask, "Whose fault is it?" As a matter of fact neither company is supplied with decent horses, and so they can be expected to reach fires only as quickly as the tumble down animals can drag the vehicles. A TRIBUNE reporter has been repeatedly besought to put this matter into print for the consideration of the gentlemen of the councils.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS.

The new Neptune steamer will be tested next Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Manley will return today from Saratoga.

Miss Sarah Neudham, of Cedar avenue, is visiting in Elmhurst.

Common Councilman Edward Robinson has been troubled with gastritis for some time, but is now convalescent.

The Saengerbund and Gentile Verein societies of this side, will attend the parade of the Turn-Breiter's next Monday, and also the Mount Zion club.

The South side will send a large delegation to the excursion of the Excelsior Athletic club, which leaves at 10 o'clock to-morrow night for New York.

The funeral of the late Michael Cavanaugh, of 23 Prosper avenue, will take place this morning at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in Hyde Park cemetery, preceded by a high mass of requiem at St. Peter's cathedral.

Mrs. Thomas Egan, of Stone avenue, was laid to rest yesterday in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The large concourse that attended the funeral signified the respect and esteem in which she was held. The pall-bearers were Patrick McCalla, John Hayden, Patrick Ryan, Michael Garvey, John Durkin and Patrick Whelan.

NORTH END.

Rent and a Dog Are Mixed Up in a Law Suit.

The litigant between John T. Costello and Ed E. Gill has not yet reached a final settlement. The development is on the basis, Costello rented a dog, the lease of which is alleged to have been dated on Sunday, April 1, and signed Sunday, April 15. Furthermore the landlord gave the tenant a dog and the poor "how-wow" has been the innocent cause of much trouble, litigation and expense.

Mr. Costello claims that Mr. Gill requested him to take the dog back again and he accordingly obliged him in his request, whilst Mr. Gill claims that though the dog was given he was taken away without his permission. This point was argued before Alderman Baller, who gave judgment in favor of Gill for $5. Against the Costello appeal.

Suit was then entered by Costello for possession of 1418 North Main avenue, and Alderman Horan gave an order for possession of the premises. Against this Gill appealed. Further developments are awaited with interest, although the details are difficult to follow. It is said the case will round up in the county court, and it may, if all threats are carried out, yet surpass the celebrated Jones county calf case.

WHERE IS HE AT?

Residence of an Alderman Said to Disqualify Him.

In a contemporary of yesterday Alderman D. M. Williams, of the First ward, is charged with residing out of the ward, thereby disqualifying himself as an alderman.

Mr. Williams informed a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday that he resides at the residence of Henry Jones, Wayne avenue, and attends regularly at his office from 3 p. m. to 8 p. m. The alderman was very indignant that this unbecoming charge was made upon him and was at a loss to account for the motives which prompted the writer.

WEST SIDE.

A Resume of the Much Talked of Viaduct

The question of having a viaduct over the Delaware Lackawanna and Western tracks is again agitated by the action of the West Side board of trade in announcing that a public meeting would be held. It was thought that the recent decision of court put a further end to the project, but now that it is once more fully revived, the people of the West Side will not be slow in taking a decisive step.

The ordinance now to be passed by council before voters can be appointed. After the appointment of voters and assessment of damages the council will be allowed thirty days to repeal the ordinance. It is now thought that such exorbitant charges will not be made for damages by property holders along that section. The danger wrought in crossing the tracks at this point is a good point in favor of the viaduct. D. D. Evans, T. H. Dale and J. Follows M. son, the committee appointed for the holding of a public meeting, will shortly arrange matters for the demonstration.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PHILLIPS.

The Services Will Be Conducted Tomorrow Afternoon

Mrs. Phillips, wife of Thomas Phillips, of Bromley avenue, who died at her home on Wednesday evening, will be buried tomorrow afternoon.
