GOOD DAY'S RACING

Usual Attendance at Meeting of the Gentlemen Drivers.

MAGNOLIA ONE OF THE WINNERS

Events Captured by Two Favorites and Two Outsiders--Frank Hazard's Dash Was a Ringer--Jack and Frank H in the Leading Division--A Fast Track and Good Fields--Details of the Sport.

The usual number of persons witnessed the races of the Gentlemen's Driving club yesterday. Generally, the heats were closely contested and the track was fast.

Although the first race was announced to be a 2 1/2 mile race, it was not until a half hour later before the horses were called to the post for the first heat and the last heat of the race was not decided until 5:45 o'clock.

Without disparaging the efforts of the club to provide clean and swift races, it is a matter of fact that for improvement in being more expeditious. The twenty minutes allowed between heats of professional races is to give the public time to make bets and is the custom where mile heats are trotted. At the driving club's races only half-mile heats are driven, and with a 5-minute wait between the heats of each race the animals would have a 20-minute rest between heats.

That is the way the grandstand audience of yesterday commented, and as the success of the club's races depends upon the ability to please the spectators, the proper officers will probably rectify the matter at future meetings.

DASH WAS A RINGER. Yesterday's road race and 2 1/2 mile event were won handily by Frank Hazard's Dash and Dr. Hill's Jack. The former made his debut on the track and went both heats under a strong pull. He clearly proved himself eligible to the 2 1/2 mile class and will probably be advanced to that event the next time he starts.

The 3-minute and 2 1/2 mile class developed the best events of the meeting. It required five heats to decide the winner. St. Nick being scratched after being driven two heats and Kitty being withdrawn after coming in hopelessly last in the first heat. The three horses remaining never separated and by more than a few lengths in the last three heats kept the crowd on the tip-toe until the race was decided.

The star performers of the day appeared in the 2 1/2 mile event, and proved conclusively that horse racing purely conducted is indeed the "sport of kings." Magnolia, the favorite, was the speedier of the high grade quintette of entries. Three heats were trotted, and never until the stretch was reached at least, was a heat a sinecure for the winner. Magnolia's victory was a popular one, as she had a host of admirers among the spectators, but the result might have been different if Al Gail had not had a fit of the silks after capturing the first heat.

The summaries follow: Joseph Jermyn, starter; E. J. Goodwin and J. F. Seigel, judges.
