SCRANTON, AUGUST 27, 1894. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. For Governor: DANIEL H. HASTINGS, GEN. For Lieutenant Governor: WALTER LYON, OF ALLEGHENY. For Auditor General: AMOS H. MYLIN, OF LANCASTER.

It is pleasing to notice that the local support of Major Warren's candidacy for the state league presidency comes from all elements in the ranks of his party. This is one of the facts which will attest his popularity and availability.

The President's Authority. In the Albany Law Journal of Aug. 4, James J. Hamilton, of this city, contributes a lucid article, explaining the limitations of federal authority as contrasted with the authority of the several states.

Mr. Hamilton points out that "one cause of error on the part of some who have criticized the president's action in sending government troops into Illinois without waiting to be requested by Governor Altgeld to do so, is a failure on the part of the critics to distinguish between an insurrection against the government of the state and an insurrection against the government of the United States."

There appears to be some question in the mind of President Cleveland as to whether the pen is mightier than the jaw. The Military Drill in Schools. Although the advantages of military drill in the public schools are generally conceded, little has been done toward securing them.

WHY HE QUIT: A retiring newspaper man gives this philosophical reason for quitting the business: "A child is born, the doctor in attendance gets $10, the editor notes it and gets 9, if it christens, the minister gets $10, the editor writes it up, gets 9; if it marries, the minister gets another fee, the editor gets a piece of cake or 90; in course of time it dies, the doctor gets from $5 to $10, the minister another $5, the undertaker $25 to $50—the editor publishes it and receives 9000—and the privilege of running free of charge a card of thanks."

THE LOSS ACCOUNTED FOR: The serpent of Lake Como, Minn., is only fourteen feet long this year. Last year it was thirty feet long. The loss of the sixteen feet is attributed to Democratic tariff tinkering.—Buffalo Courier. PROPER QUALIFICATIONS: First Patriot—Mr. Greenhead wants to be elected senator. Second Patriot—What kind of man is he? "Us boys called on him last night to talk things over, and I've gotter splittin' headache this mornin'!" "I'm fer him."—Arkansas Traveller. DIDN'T HAVE TIME: "Visit—our last servant left you without giving notice. Housekeeper—Yes, she poured kerosene on the fire and was blown out of the window."—New York Journal. EVIDENCE OF KNOWLEDGE: "Does Miss Blank understand the game of base ball?" Harold—Yes, she finds fault with the umpire all the time.—Chicago Inter-Ocean. THE MODERN SUMMER GIRL: The maiden frail and airy, She who emits the fairy, Has by Dame Fashion's stern decree become passe of late. Her charms which once delighted, Now are almost wholly slighted. In fact, the fragile maiden's very sadly out of date. We used to bow before her, But no longer we adore her; Her baby ways and helplessness our hearts cannot beguile; The pale, anguished creature's Lily-white, un-guarded features We do not now appreciate because they're out of style. Now in the golden summer We adore the glad newcomer, Who does away with childishness and all that sort of thing. She's thorough going at rowing, Swimming, tennis, fencing, throwing, And rides a wheel with all the grace of birds upon the wing. She's happy, strong and agile, Not the least bit pale and fragile; She doesn't faint because her face may catch a shade of tan; She's neither weak nor stupid, But she's just the girl that Cupid With honest joy can join for life with any lucky man.—Chicago Journal. Without Opposition. Philadelphia Press. Major Everett Warren of Scranton, appears to have no opposition as a candidate for president of the State League of clubs, the election for which will take place at the coming meeting in Harrisburg.

services of the militia in times of insurrection and invasion are "natural incidents to the duties of superintending the common defense, and of watching over the internal peace;" he notes that Mr. Justice Story, in delivering the opinion of the court in Martin v. Mott, 12 Wheat. 19-30, declared that "these powers must be so construed as to the modes of their exercise as not to defeat the great end in view." In the same decision it is said to be the unanimous opinion of the court that the authority to decide whether the exigency calling for the exercise of the president's powers under the act of congress has arisen, belongs exclusively to the president, and that his decision is conclusive upon all other persons; and that a militia man who refuses to obey the orders of the president calling him into the public service is liable to be court-martialed. In the opinion of Mr. Justice Grier, delivered in the celebrated Prize cases, 2 Black, 635, it is emphatically said that "the Constitution confers on the president the whole executive power. He is bound to take care that the laws be faithfully executed. He is commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States and of the militia of the several states when called into the actual service of the United States. He has no power to initiate or declare war either against a foreign nation or a domestic state. By the acts of Congress of February 28, 1795, and 2d of March, 1807, he is authorized to call out the militia and use the military and naval forces of the United States in case of invasion by foreign nations, and to suppress insurrection against the government of a state or of the United States."

AT THE Pie Counter. The impressions of a tenderfoot with reference to the anthracite industry are graphically depicted in the August McClure's in an article by Stephen Crane. This is his idea of the so-called pickers: "In a large room sat the little slate pickers. The floor stank at an angle of forty-five degrees, and the coal having been magistered by the great teeth which he grabbed deftly at the piece of coal. There were five or six of them, one above another, over each trough. The coal is expected to be fairly pure after it passes the final boy. The howling machine very was above them. High up dim figures moved about in the dust clouds. These little men were a terrifically dirty band. Through their ragged shirts we could get occasional glimpses of shoulders, black as stoves. They looked precisely likeimps as they scrambled to get a piece of us. The man who remains behind that he controls them came and harangued the crowd. He talked to the air. The slate pickers all through this motion are yet at the spanking period. One continually wonders about their mothers and if there are any school houses. But as for them, they are not concerned. When they get time off they go out on the main level and play base ball or fight with boys from other breakers or among themselves, according to opportunities. And before them always is the hope of one day going to be done down in the mines and, later, to be boys and yet later, laborers and helpers. Finally, when they have grown to be great big men, they may become miners and go down and get 'squeezed,' or perhaps escape to a shattered old man's estate with a mere case of 'minor's asthma.' They are very ambitious."

FOR DELEGATE ELECTIONS. Apportionment of Republican Representatives Among the Various Districts Pursuant to a meeting of the Republican County committee held on July 14th, 1894, the County Convention will be held on Tuesday, September 4th, 1894, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the court house at Scranton, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following named offices, to be voted for at the next general election to be held November 6th, 1894: Congress, Eleventh district; Judge, Forty-fifth Judicial district; sheriff, treasurer, clerk of courts, prothonotary, district attorney, recorder of deeds, register of wills, and jury commissioner. Vigilance committees will hold delegate elections on Saturday, September 1st, 1894, between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m. They will also give at least two days public notice of the time and place for holding said elections. Each election district should elect at the said delegate elections, two qualified persons to serve as vigilance committee for one year, and have their names certified to, on the credentials of delegates to the County Convention. The representation of delegates to the County Convention is based upon the vote cast last Fall for Fall, candidate for judge of supreme court, he being the highest officer voted for at said state election. Under this rule the several election districts are entitled to representation as follows, viz:
