CITY NOTES.

The police were paid yesterday.

The city officials received their pay yesterday.

Peter Umbersidge and Joseph Green, charged with larceny, were released from the county jail yesterday on bail.

Miss Cora Leach leaves this morning for a three weeks' sojourn in New York city, Long Branch and other points of interest.

The diagram for the sale of seats for Hill's Novelty company opens at the company of Music box office at 9 a. m. today licenses were granted yesterday to Archibald E. Hazlett and Kattie Scranton; Joseph Christian and John Mosakoskow; Scranton; Sylvester and Antonia, Mataleik, Peck-banking, of Hyde Park, who came to Lackawanna hospital to have an operation, died there at 11 o'clock. Her friends were con-to be a game of football today on the grounds on Quincy street between Vine and Olive streets. The Crescents and a picked team. All desiring to play are requested to be on the grounds.

The exchanges at Scranton Clearing houses during the week were: Monday, $180,007.30; Tuesday, $137,365.34; Wednesday, $129,207; Thursday, $110,480.83; Friday, $90,550.10. Total, $594,755.05. Clearances for the month, $3,184,017.71.

Treasurer R. G. Brooks has acquiesced in the action of the city council extending the time for the payment of city taxes without penalty until January 1, 1895. As today is a legal holiday the city treasurer's office will be closed.

Samuel E. Bailey, of Baltimore, yesterday began suit against B. H. Demorest and Dr. William Haggerty to recover $2,080, with interest thereon from Feb. 10, 1894, which he claims is due him on a note he holds against the defendants which they allowed to go to protest. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney C. H. Walls.

The Central Prohibition league will present a course of four lectures in the Frothingham beginning Sept. 21, with Colonel Bain, of Kentucky. Their other dates and attractions are: Oct. 1, Rev. C. H. Head and the Silver Lake quartette, of New York; Oct. 15, Professor Samuel Dickie, of Michigan; Nov. 1, Rev. Dr. Joseph Cook, of Boston.

The Democratic senatorial committees will meet this afternoon in the rooms of the Central Democratic club, to fix a date for a convention. In explanation of the various calls that have been issued, it is stated that some doubts existed as to the proper person to call a committee meeting, and to avoid a mistake they have all been asked to meet tomorrow.

The board of directors of the second district of the Catholic Total Abstinence union, last evening decided to request the societies of this locality to call a special meeting on Sunday and to elect three delegates to meet in St. John's hall, South Side, on Sunday evening Sept. 3, at 6:30 o'clock for the purpose of making arrangements for a reception to be tendered Rev. P. J. McManus on his return from Europe.

COLORED CITIZENS MEET.

Spirited Addresses Before the Keystone Republican Club.

In point of political enthusiasm no other assemblage of Republicans held this campaign has exceeded the meeting of the Keystone colored club of 250 members, held last night at 416 Oak street. The meeting was presided over by Secretary Samuel Porter in the absence of the regular chairman, George W. Brown. The club decided not to send any delegates to the State convention of league clubs, but took steps to bring out the united support of the colored voters of Scranton for the Republican State and county ticket. The club wisely decided to identify itself with no political faction, but promised to let every man use his judgment and abide by the decision of the convention.

Another point that special stress was laid upon was the registering of the colored voters. The executive committee of the club will look after that and see that the next election will remain unregistered when the time expires.

Speeches were made by Jackson Merryweather, Samuel Porter, Lewis Morton, John Bell and Isaac Morton. The meeting ended with an eloquent exhortation by Mr. Porter to the members, bidding them to cast their votes at the primaries today for the best interests of the colored people.

THE DIRTIEST MAN ON EARTH.

He Was in Cell No. 3 at the Central Station House Yesterday.

"Too dirty to walk the streets" is the charge written on the police docket after the name of Abraham Smith, a tramp of the name pronounced type whom Lieutenant Williams picked up on Main avenue early yesterday morning.

A peep into cell 3 where the vagrant was incarcerated proved beyond doubt that the dirtiest man on earth was not far from the truth. A dirtier, more degraded or disgusting looking specimen of humanity would be hard to picture.

When asked if he had been sleeping about a culm pile since the deluge and hadn't had a bath since. It was decided to clean him up with the aid of an axe and a hose and set him to work on the chain gang.

THE DEVIL HAD HIM.

So David Bowen of Harrison Avenue Said and He Was Afraid He Would Commit Suicide.

"Officer, lock me up; I am going crazy and I feel that if I am not taken care of I will commit suicide." These words were addressed to Officer Feeney on Lackawanna avenue yesterday afternoon by David Bowen, of Harrison avenue, a very nervous looking man, apparently well educated man of middle age. He was very nervous and his face was fiery red, as if he was afflicted with a rash of blood to the head. He talked rationally and acted like a perfectly sane person, and if he did not make known his ailment no one would be led to suspect that there was anything peculiar in his condition.

The officer granted Bowen's odd request and fixed him up as comfortable as possible in cell No. 2 of the Central station house. He was seen here shortly afterwards by a TRIBUNE reporter and told the following story:

"I have been out of work for many months and I cannot get a job. I have family troubles and financial troubles and between them all I am on the verge of insanity. This morning the devil got the best of me and I started towards the railroad with the intention of throwing myself in front of a train, but something stopped me and I ran away. When I cooled down I determined to give myself up as to prevent myself from taking my life. I have always lived a good life and I am not afraid to meet God, but I am afraid that I will do away with myself. Oh! It is only a short step to insanity."

His relation of this pitiful story was in broken sentences and was given with mental exertion, just as if he was being shot. Largest of insanity, he held his hands to his temples and frequently exclaimed, "My head will burst!" "My hair is on fire!" and the like.

The police will have a medical examination conducted to determine what is the best method of dealing with his singular case. Bowen did not have the signs of liquor about him, and it is said that he is a very temperate man in every respect.

Shopping in Business Colleges.

Shopping in Business Colleges has been unknown in Scranton. On Monday all the youth with clerical tendencies will be on the qui vive.

Remember—That Wood's College of Business and Shorthand has been placed among the first as to financial responsibility.

WOOD'S COLLEGE

Of Business and Shorthand.

We are not stupid.

We have given Scranton the best business college in the past, we shall give her the best business college in the future.

Run your eyes down this:

First week in 1891, 123 students.

First week in 1892, 154 students.

First week in 1893, 104 students.

First week in 1894, 222 students.

How success brightens and cheers. Next week will be almost as good. Students will come on the trains, persons from a distance and a splendid company from the city.

Short-hand school, three teachers, Business school, four teachers, Academic school, two teachers.

Office and boarding department, two people.

Remember there are only fifteen business schools in the United States that have a hall for credit. Wood's college leads in Pennsylvania.

AT THE THEATERS.

The attraction for Monday at the Frothingham is "Shaft No. 2" which will be seen for the first time in this city. The scene is laid in the mining regions which will make it of special interest to local theatergoers. The company that produces it is a strong one and the display of scenery and mechanical effects will surpass anything ever seen here. Appearances to be found only in a mining shaft, are to be seen in realistic action during the progress of a majority of the acts. Mr. Dixie, the author, has devoted much of the dialogue to bring out in a true manner, the everyday man and everyday woman. Sale of seats now progressing.

THE HILL'S NOVELTIES

will be the attraction at the Academy of Music for one night, Tuesday, Sept. 4. Manager Hill has carefully selected the artist composing his company this season, and probably has the largest aggregation of novelties and variety talent ever organized. It is one of the most expensive attractions on the road, and is pronounced one of the best of the season. Gus Hill, the champion club swinger of the world, is one of the principal cards, and promises an act that fairly teems with new and novel features. Mr. Hill is one of the most remarkable athletes in the world, his feats in club swinging have amazed the crowned heads in Europe. He swings clubs of enormous weight with astonishing ease and admirable grace, and performs a number of tricks that are highly sensational, in fact Mr. Hill is regarded as an all-round athlete, and has made a world-wide reputation as a club swinger. He challenges the world for $10,000.

WILL SPEAK ON HIDDEN DEPTHS.

Evangelist E. W. Bliss at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday Afternoon.

The subject of the address by Evangelist Bliss at the mass meeting in Young Men's Christian Association hall to-morrow afternoon, will be "Hidden Depths." Mr. Bliss is peculiarly a young man's evangelist, and is all the more successful because of his power of interesting men in the Gospel he presents. Preceding Mr. Bliss' address there will be a half hour's service of song, conducted by the Young Men's Christian Association Glee club, assisted by Mr. Davis, of the Moody quartet.

THE BRIDGE INSPECTOR.

A Few Words About the Man the Mayor Has Selected.

Benjamin F. La Rue, the mechanical engineer whom the mayor has selected to examine the bridge plans prepared by the city engineer, is one of the faculty of the Colliery Engineering School of Mining and Engineering, holding the position of inspector of the school of mechanics. He is a resident of this city, coming here from Philadelphia about one year ago. It is the opinion of all who have given the matter consideration that no more competent or impartial man could have been selected.

The Scranton Business College.

Day and evening sessions will positively open Monday afternoon, Professor Yoder came yesterday. Those who intend to take shorthand should meet him this evening. Our new furniture is much admired. Start packing to-day. Put up today. So many desire to inspect the interior of our building that we have decided to open the doors from 7 to 9 o'clock this evening. All are invited to call. We are kept very busy.
