BIG CLAIMS BY BOTH MEN

Mr. Scranton Says He Has Twice as Many Delegates as Mr. Fellows.

LATTER DISPUTES THE CLAIMS

His Friends Declare That He Will Be Nominated and Have a Half Dozen Votes to Spare—Manner in Which the Candidates Figure out Their Majorities—Congressional Fight is Overshadowing Everything.

There were many interesting contests for delegates in the various election districts of the county Saturday. The fight between J. A. Scranton and J. H. Fellows for the Republican nomination for congress overshadowed all else and the candidate for the different county offices threw their influence and efforts with the Scranton or Fellows forces just as it suited them so to do.

In nearly every district in the county sets of delegates representing the opposing candidates were in the field and made royal battle for the privilege of casting a vote in tomorrow's convention.

So close was the struggle that in several districts the vote is a tie for the opposing candidates. From 4 until 7 o'clock there was one long sustained effort to get every Republican voter to the polls, and hacks and carriages of every description were pressed into service to carry the much sought voter to the place where the balloting was being done.

ON THE WEST SIDE.

Some of the most interesting fights took place on the West Side, which is the home of Mr. Fellows. Mr. Scranton has many warm political friends there and they did gallant service for him Saturday.

After the balloting was over Saturday evening, both Mr. Scranton and Mr. Fellows claimed a majority of the delegates and they were making the same claim last evening.

Mr. Scranton was seen at his office by a TRIBUNE reporter. He was discussing the situation with several friends in a happy, confident way that would indicate that his mind was at ease concerning the outcome of tomorrow's convention.

"What is the situation, did you ask?" queried Mr. Scranton after the reporter had stated his mission. "Well, I have two delegates to Mr. Fellows' one taking county as a whole. To begin with Carbondale will give me a practically solid delegation and the same is true of the districts between this city and Carbondale. I will have a fair share of the delegates from the county districts east of the mountains and a practically solid delegation from north of the mountains and from Old Forge and Lackawanna. I have seventeen of the thirty-three delegates from the West Side, and a majority from the South Side, central city and Dunmore."

If these figures are correct, there is every reason why Mr. Scranton should view with complacency tomorrow's gathering.

WHAT THE OTHER SIDE CLAIMS.

Mr. Fellows' boomers are not dismayed by the claims of Mr. Scranton, and confidently assert that the ex-mayor will be nominated and have at least half a dozen votes to spare.

They do some figuring that is entirely different than that indulged in by Mr. Scranton. For instance, they claim that Mr. Fellows will have twenty-two of the thirty-three West Side delegates with him in the convention.

Mr. Scranton claims that fifty-one delegates in this city were elected for him. He says his nomination is assured if the delegates obey the instructions they received from constituents at the polls.

George O'Neil says that he will be nominated, George E. Watson declares that he will be elected and a practically solid delegation from north of the mountains and from Old Forge and Lackawanna is of the opinion that he will be one of the strongest men in the convention. Other candidates express similar sentiments.

VERY NARROW ESCAPE.

Edward Price Almost Succeeded in Committing Suicide in the West Side Station House.

Edward Price, a young man residing on Sherman avenue, was arrested at 12.30 o'clock Sunday morning by Lieutenants Williams at Main avenue and Jackson street. He was very drunk and was taken to the West Side station house. Officers Charles Neuls and John Moir came from the central city about 8 o'clock yesterday morning with the patrol wagon to take Price over to the mayor's court.

Officer Neuls went to the young man's cell and endeavored to wake him. He was unable to do so, and discovered that Price had endeavored to hang himself in a most peculiar manner.

Our Marksman Won All the Matches at Mt. Gretna and Broke All Records.

YOUNGS AGAIN STATE CHAMPION

In the First Shooting Over the Range on Tuesday He Made the Remarkable Score of 98—It Was Not Equalled During the Week—Members of Thirteenth Who Will Go to Sea Girt on State Team.

The victorious riflemen of the Thirteenth regiment team returned from Mount Gretna Saturday, where they won every match. That is no small distinction when it is considered that they were pitted against the best marksmen of every regiment in the state.

It was the Thirteenth that won the skirmish match on Friday, instead of the Sixteenth regiment team as at first reported. Tuesday and Wednesday were allotted to preliminary or practical shooting, and in these matches the members of the Thirteenth did not exert themselves, as it meant nothing.

The scores in these preliminary matches were given to the public and led many to believe that the local marksmen were being defeated. Such was not the case. They kept in the background, so to speak, until Thursday when the shooting in the matches began and then they proved invincible.

SOME GREAT SHOOTING.

The following are the scores made by the members of the Thirteenth team in the regimental match on Thursday.

Reese Watkins—200 yards.....3, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
300 yards.....4, 5, 5, 5, 5, 5—33
400 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
500 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
600 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23

Total.....92

Henry Cullen—300 yards.....4, 5, 4, 4, 4, 4—29
400 yards.....5, 4, 4, 5, 4, 4—33
500 yards.....5, 4, 4, 5, 4, 4—33
600 yards.....5, 4, 4, 5, 4, 4—33

Total.....91

G. W. Stout—300 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
400 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
500 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
600 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23

Total.....90

W. W. Youngs—300 yards.....3, 4, 5, 4, 4, 5—31
400 yards.....5, 5, 5, 5, 5, 5—35
500 yards.....5, 5, 5, 5, 5, 5—35
600 yards.....5, 5, 5, 5, 5, 5—35

Total.....94

Grand total.....367

That is the best score that has ever been made at Mt. Gretna in such a match. In 1889 the Thirteenth regiment team made a score of 380. In the practice shoot Thursday afternoon for a position on the brigade match a total score of 370 was made, which was three points better than their big score in the regimental match. In the brigade practice shoot the following scores were made: Watkins, 94; Cullen, 89; Stout, 88, and Youngs 94, making a total of 370.

On Friday the Thirteenth team won the skirmish match by a total score of 394, the best ever made at Mt. Gretna. It was the first time the members of the team shot in a match of the kind.

YOUNGS AGAIN THE WINNER.

The state championship match is open to the entire week, the winning of the highest score being declared the winner. Private Youngs, of Company D, Thirteenth regiment, won the match, making the remarkably high score of 98. This record was made on Tuesday during the first shooting over the range. The score was as follows:

200 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
300 yards.....4, 5, 4, 5, 4, 4—33
400 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
500 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23
600 yards.....4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4—23

Total.....98

This score was not equalled by any other marksman during the week. Mr. Youngs also won the state championship in 1890, 1891 and 1892. Last year the Thirteenth regiment did not send a team to Mt. Gretna but instead its marksmen shot against the famous Twenty-third regiment team of Brooklyn and the Seventh regiment team of New York, the Thirteenth winning both matches.

At Mt. Gretna sixteen marksmen were selected as a state team to shoot at Sea Girt. The following members of the Thirteenth were honored with positions on the team: Reese Watkins, field and staff; Captain F. W. Stillwell and private E. Chase, Company A; First Lieutenant Frank Robling, Company C, and Privates G. W. Stout and W. W. Youngs, of Company D.

A COMPLIMENT TO THE THIRTEENTH.

It is no small tribute to the marksmanship of the members of the Thirteenth to have six men on a team of sixteen from the eighteen regiments of the state.

At Sea Girt today there will be a preliminary shoot and a team of twelve will be selected from the sixteen to enter for the Hilton trophy and the interstate match tomorrow.

TWO THIEVES CAUGHT.

They Broke Into the Depot and a Store at Parsons Last Wednesday Night.

Special Officer Crippen, of the Delaware & Hudson company, last night captured two men who are undoubtedly the ones who broke into the Delaware & Hudson depot and an adjoining store at Parsons last Wednesday night.

Both are tramping-looking fellows and had a large quantity of jewelry and other articles in their possession. They were trying to dispose of the jewelry in Olyphant when arrested. Officer Crippen brought them to this city and locked them up in the central station house.

BIG DEMONSTRATION.

Rev. P. J. McManus to Be Given a Royal Reception on His Return from Europe.

The societies of the second district of the Scranton Diocese union sent their delegates last night to the hall of St. John's Total Abstinence Benevolent society, of the South side with the purpose outlined by the board of directors of the district to formulate a programme for the reception of Rev. P. J. McManus, on the occasion of his return from his European trip.

At a recent meeting of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, Father McManus was elected second vice president of the union. The convention was held during the first week of August in St. Paul, Minn., while Father McManus was in Europe.

At last night's meeting J. C. Gallagher, president of the second district, was in the chair. He gave the particulars of the resolution of the board of directors in preparing a reception. The ship Euratica, on which Father McManus sailed, is expected to reach port Wednesday, and he, it is thought, will arrive in Scranton on Thursday night.

The board recommended that all the societies of the district take part on Thursday night in full uniform, meet at Father McManus at the depot and escort him with a parade to his residence. On motion of delegate J. H. Brown the recommendation of the board was concurred in.

In the meeting there followed a discussion of the arrangement of a programme. Each society will be imprompted by the secretary to turn out in full force with a supply of fireworks.

The programme to be carried out is as yet not definitely settled; but this much of it will no doubt take place. Rev. J. L. Deane, pastor of St. Peter's church, of Green Ridge, of which Father McManus is pastor, will leave tomorrow morning for New York and meet Father McManus on his arrival.

He will explain the arrangements and detain him in New York, so that by leaving there on Thursday evening the train will arrive in this city on Thursday night at 8.40. All the societies will have assembled at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot, and having been formed into line, will be ready to escort Father McManus to his home.

The society of the district will be called in special session on Wednesday night to arrange for attendance in the parade.

Chairman Gallagher was appointed by the board of directors to engage the Lawrence band to head the parade, leading the St. Peter's society of Green Ridge, which will act as honorable guard to the carriages. C. B. Boland was unanimously chosen marshal of the parade.

One of the members of the Thirteenth regiment brought a piece of white oak from the battleground of Seminary Ridge, and J. H. Devins intends to carve it into a gavel and present it to Father McManus with an address. The meeting will be held after the parade in St. Paul's Parochial school, Green Ridge. After the convention of delegates an entertainment was held in the hall, beginning at 8 o'clock. S. G. Kerr delivered his lecture on "A Trip Through Ireland" and was frequently applauded.

LABOR DAY AT MOUNTAIN PARK.

General Coxe's Delivered a Very Fatiguing Address.

The Labor Day exercises held at Mountain Park on Saturday, by the Knights of Labor for the Lackawanna and Luzerne counties did not attract a very large assemblage.

General Jacob Coxe's address, which was billed as the star feature of the day, was a disappointment. His text was "Good Roads and Non-Interest Bonds." Before Mr. Coxe had been long orating his auditors discovered that his ideas did not possess cohesive qualities and at times it was difficult to understand just what the ex-commander of the Army of Peace was driving at.

There were ample opportunity for the sons of toil to enjoy themselves and, barring Coxe's address, which lasted an hour and a half, the day was unmarred by any wearisome feature.
