Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs views of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new customers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The publication is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please have notice at the office.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Young Men Meet and Resume Their Task of Self Improvement.

MEETING FOR MONDAY EVENING

It Will Be Made of Special Interest and Young Men Are Invited to Attend It—Funeral of Mrs. Alfred Lewis, of Hampton Street—Services Held at the First Welsh Baptist Church—Shorter Paragraphs.

The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society opened its second season last evening at its rooms on South Main avenue, under the most favorable circumstances. The outlook for the ensuing term is exceedingly bright. The attendance last evening exceeded all expectation, about thirty members being present, and nearly all took an active part in the discussions of the evening, making the meeting very interesting and instructive.

Resolutions were drafted expressing the regrets of the society for the loss of so valuable a member as Philip J. Davies, who leaves for college next Monday. Mr. Davies was one of the founders of the organization and an active member. It was unanimously decided to make the meeting next Monday of special interest, to which all young men are invited. The following programme has been prepared for the occasion: Musical selection; address, President Edwards; declamation, Emerson Owens; address, Charles E. Daniels; declamation, D. J. Davis. This will be followed by three minute talks by the members.

The officers for the coming three months are: President, John Elmore; vice president, Charles H. Jones; treasurer, Howard Davis; secretary, Wallace Moore; critic, Philip Davies; executive committee, W. A. Price, D. J. Davis, John York. An invitation is extended to all young men interested in self-improvement to attend next Monday's meeting.

LITTLE WEST SIDE NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. J. O. Morris and family, of South Main avenue, have returned home from a trip to Wales.

Tom Beels, of North Hyde Park avenue, is recovering slowly from a severe attack of typhoid malaria.

The Hyde Park Choral society will meet for rehearsal at the residence of H. D. Jones, on South Hyde Park avenue, this evening at 8 o'clock sharp.

Complaints have been made of boys who nightly haunt the corner of Sumner avenue and Lafayette street. Officer Jones dispersed a large crowd last evening.

Last evening at Meers' hall the Sir Knights of Pleasure dancing class opened its season. The hall was crowded. Professor George Taylor instructed the pupils and Mrs. Davis presided at the piano.

Miss Mary Davis entertained friends at her home on North Lincoln avenue last evening. The lawn was tastefully adorned with Japanese lanterns. Games were indulged in a late hour when refreshments were served.

The funeral of Mrs. Zilla Lewis, wife of Alfred Lewis, occurred yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The remains were borne to the First Welsh Baptist church, where Rev. D. C. Hughes, D. D., of the Jackson Street Baptist church officiated. Interment was made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

The funeral of Edward Eshara, who died on Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Michael McAndrew, of North Filmore avenue, will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. A solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Patrick's church. Interment in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

NORTH END BRIEFS.

The infant child of John Stafford, the barber, died yesterday morning.

Miss Mamie Thomas returned to Bloomsburg yesterday to pursue her studies.

The North End Choral union will hold a concert in Archibald hall next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lawrence Moran, of West Market street, has returned after a visit to Clinton, Mass.

Misses Dillie and Ethel Jackson, of Montrose avenue, are visiting friends at Brooklyn, N. Y.

The employees of the Leggett's Creek and Marvins mines received their pay yesterday.

Miss Sarah Llewellyn, of Pittston, is visiting her friend, Miss Lizzie Davies, of Margaret avenue.

The Sunday school of the Welsh Baptist church will hold a basket picnic at Laurel Hill park on Sept. 12.

John John, who spent two days' fishing vacation, returned home with a tangible token of his piscatorial abilities.

Rev. J. B. Barry, of Barreley, England, preached an eloquent sermon at the Welsh Congregational church last evening.

Charles Thomas, of McDonough avenue, is now on his way to this country on the Germania after an extended visit to his fatherland.

Fred C. Roberts, of Summit avenue, formerly of New York city, has been employed as assistant operator at the Delaware and Hudson's new depot.

A prohibition mass meeting was held at the corner of Dickson avenue and Green Ridge street last evening, which was addressed by Rev. W. G. Watkins and others.

A large number of friends called on Miss Mary A. Davies, of Wayne avenue, last evening to wish her farewell on her departure for Stroudsburg tomorrow, where she will attend a normal school.

Complaints are made by residents of Parker street, notably Hy Williams and Thomas Harris, of the freaks of a gang of rowdies who smash the windows at night. The presence of a band of these fellows would be appreciated by the residents.

A large crowd is interested in the jumping seed or living bean on exhibition in the window of the drug store. The beans are claimed to be the only animated vegetable and to appearances there is nothing to account for the moving of the bean, until, however, on a minute inspection the bean is found to enclose a minute insect.

The North End Choral union held an open air rehearsal last evening on the lawn of John Lynch, of Margaret avenue, at which time the piece, "The Song of the Lark," by Mendelssohn, which is the chief piece for competition at the state festival to be held in Laurel Hill park, tonight will be given.

The appointments in the new establishment will be made in every detail, and will fully meet the requirements of a practice which had far outgrown the limited space in the old office.

WAS THE SALE LEGAL?

M. B. Simrell Is Trying to Have It Set Aside.

Attorney C. W. Dawson, sitting as referee, heard testimony yesterday in the case of F. M. Aylesworth against M. B. Simrell. The proceedings are for the purpose of having set aside the executor's sale of a farm in Scott township.

Mr. Aylesworth purchased it for $1,500, but it was contended by the defendant that the land was worth at least $2,000. At the time of the sale Mr. Simrell was contesting in the supreme court certain points in the will of Phoebe Ann Simrell, under which the executor was acting.

Mr. Simrell won and hence is now making an effort to have the sale set aside, claiming that the executor had no right to make the sale. The case was closed yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney C. B. Gardner and the plaintiff by Attorneys Hurlander & Vosburg.

CAUGHT on the Fly.

H. E. Carroll, of Sanborn, Ia., was a visitor in the city yesterday after an absence of twenty-two years. He came to this city for the purpose of calling on his sister, Mrs. Joseph M. Carlton, of Schnell place, whom he has not seen for years. Mr. Carroll was astounded at the wonderful change that has taken place here since he last saw Scranton. He left it a village and returned to find it a big, thriving city.

"I believe that party lines are being obliterated at Dunmore," said Dr. Winters yesterday. "I went to the primaries on Saturday and saw exercising their rights as Republicans many men in former years were staunch Democrats." This shows that the citizens of Dunmore are beginning to realize that their place is with the party that leads by American industries and institutions.

Professor George A. Taft, of New York city, was the guest of his brother, Dr. Taft, of this city, yesterday.

Conductors on the cars of the Scranton Traction company had no little difficulty in enforcing the rule against smoking on closed cars. This rule requires that the conductor shall prohibit any one from smoking on the platform of cars. In enforcing this rule conductors frequently have unpleasant experiences, for the lovers of the weed are prone to enter decided objections against abandoning their cigars or pipes.

Samuel Hudson, of Philadelphia, who, on Sept. 17, will become editor of the Times, was in the city yesterday looking over the plant of the paper and carefully surveying the field in which he is in future to labor for Democratic success. Mr. Hudson was pleased to keep in touch with the leading citizens of the city. Mr. Hudson says that the Times will be enlarged as soon as Mr. Bell and himself become its owners.

The Republicans of the Fourth Legislative district have not yet decided when they will hold their convention, but it is not improbable that it will be held one week from tomorrow.

Griffith Jones, of Harrison avenue, has a son in the Hawaiian army who frequently sends him Honolulu papers to keep him posted on the progress of affairs in the island republic. THE TRIBUNE has been favored with a copy of the Hawaiian Star, which contains a proclamation setting forth that a republic was established. The same issue contained the constitution adopted and was printed in red and blue on white paper. The proclamation reads: "God Save the Republic" closes as follows: "Auspiciously inaugurated, steady on the lines of true and manly inspiration, may the republic continue to grow and develop her citizens until in the fulness of time she shall bloom into the Union of States we all revere."

AT THE THEATERS.

Gus Hill's "World of Novelties" will be seen at the Academy of Music this evening.

In connection with the performance Mr. Hill announces the engagement extraordinary, at an enormous expense, of the latest European importation, Hacker and Lester, the wonders of the world, in their astonishing acrobatic performance on wheels, the only artists to introduce head to head balancing on a bicycle; $1,000 challenge to produce their equal.

The artists have appeared before the crowned heads of Europe. Taken as a whole, the company is one of the best now before the public.

The "Spider and Fly" promised for Friday evening at the Academy of Music, is said to be by far the best attraction of the kind on the road this season. It fairly bursts open with new features, new ballets, new costumes and scenery, new ballets, pretty girls and good comedians, not forgetting some exceedingly popular music.

To enumerate all the clever people in the cast would take too much space at this writing. There are some novel stage transformations, and some remarkably handsome costumes. Much of the play is in "Medley land," where the bottom of the sea, the groupings and marching of the company in the ensembles make beautiful stage pictures. The performance is also excellent. In fact, as a spectacular burlesque production takes a very high rank.

All laughter and no tears is what characterizes Hettie Bernard Chase promises her patrons at the New Frothingham, Sept. 7 and 8. The farce comedy, "1906," was made for laughing purposes only and will

DID NOT SEE THE PLANS.

Statement of a Representative of Pottsville Iron Company.

One of the assertions made during the fight precipitated by certain members of council to have the city clerk solicit competitive bridge plans, which drew from the mayor a veto under date of April 23, was that the plans drawn up by City Engineer Phillips were prepared in part or least with the knowledge of the Pottsville Bridge company.

H. P. Cooper, representing the Pottsville company, specifically denies this assertion. He says neither himself, nor any other official of the Pottsville Bridge company has been consulted concerning the city engineer's plans.

The effort to reopen the question of plans emanated, he believes, from agents of a rival company, and the assertion relating to the Pottsville company is calculated, he thinks, to work it an injustice, by prejudicing councils against it.

VIEWERS FOR DELAWARE STREET.

They Were Appointed Yesterday by Judge Gunster.

Mrs. Christina R. Lindsay, who owns property on Delaware street, Green Ridge, yesterday petitioned court for the appointment of viewers to ascertain the amount of damages done to her property by the grading of that street.

Judge Gunster appointed E. J. McNalley, Charles Koomple and Randolph Clippert a board of viewers. They will meet Sept. 30. Attorney L. H. Burns represents Mrs. Lindsay.

Kicks and Thumps Destroy the Beauty of J. W. Clayton.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

The South Side, It Is Claimed, Is Not Fairly Treated in Regard to Mail Service.

KINDERGARTEN SCHOOL TERM

Will Reopen Monday at the Same Place Where the School Was Conducted Last Term—Officer Boland and the City Line Thugs—Serious Injury to Frank Casper by Falling from a Ladder.

The postoffice department will hear something of interest in a day or two from the business men of the South Side. Select Councilman C. W. Westpfahl yesterday complained to a TRIBUNE reporter of the shabby mail facilities furnished to the South Side as compared with the West Side or North End. Mr. Westpfahl is the manager of one of the largest grocery stores and in his business suffers considerably from lack of mail service. The first delivery in the morning does not come many days until 11 o'clock, and the afternoon mail arrives about 4:30. It is argued that there ought to be a delivery in the morning at 8 o'clock, one at noon and another after supper along with the two that are now in operation.

FELL OFF A LADDER.

A Sixteen-year-old Boy Seriously Injured.

Frank Casper, a boy 16 years of age, living on Mohr's avenue, fell from a ladder against the side of his father's house yesterday afternoon and suffered a very serious injury. His scalp was cut open and the temporal bone of the skull grazed by coming in contact with the edge of a rock. However, the family physician does not think the case hopeless.

The boy was after climbing the ladder and had reached top rung. He lost his balance and fell a distance of twenty feet.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS.

Miss Ida Harris, of South Washington avenue, is visiting in Hazleton.

John Coyne, of Minooka, is ready to accept a challenge from any pigeon shooter in the county for any sized purse.

Rev. F. Holter, of the German Evangelical church, of Cedar avenue, is again at the helm after a pleasant vacation.

The arrangements for the fair in October of the Prospect Avenue German Baptist church are progressing along lines that guarantee its success.

The city line thugs are not getting any case. Officer Boland has made up his mind that these lawless youths must be brought respect for the law. If they were subdued it is certain that there would be fewer burglaries and highway robberies in that part of the city.

The free entertainment last night at the rooms of the Young Woman's Christian association was attended by good audience and was well enjoyed. Refreshments were provided gratuitously and all present entered into the agreeableness of the situation with refreshing informality.

The South Side branch of St. Luke's kindergarten will re-open for the fall and winter term on Monday next, unless some different arrangement is decided upon in the meantime. The success of this school has become so marked that a great demand has been made for admission, greater, in fact, than the capacity of the school can accommodate. Miss Florence Hall, the principal in charge, will continue with the school for the next season.

CHINA HALL

freight from the usage White applied, and it will be at least a few weeks before it is in anything like presentable shape.

A warrant was sworn out yesterday for the arrest of White before Alderman Fitzsimmons and later in the day he appeared, waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $500 to answer at court. John K. Jones became his bondsman.

CITY AND SCHOOL TAXES, 1894.

The city and school tax, duplicate for the year 1894 are now in my hands for collection. Persons wishing to pay can do so now, or any person requiring statements of taxes by giving ward and location of property will be promptly answered.

We are clearing out the whole of our stock of fine etchings. Chicago Art Co., 137 Penn. avenue.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER.

Mr. Philip C. Scherer, who will be a candidate for the office of jury commissioner before the coming Republican convention, has been a life-long resident of the South Side, Scranton. He is a member of the well known firm Scherer Bros., bakers and one of the most popular Germans in this valley; his many friends are earnestly working in his behalf and his nomination is almost a foregone conclusion. Delegates, vote for Philip C. Scherer for jury commissioner.

The $40,000 School House for Columbia avenue has been let and will be commenced immediately. There are still a few lots left at a low price.
