

The Scranton Tribune

PUBLISHED DAILY IN SCRANTON, PA., BY THE SCRANTON PUBLISHING COMPANY. E. P. HINGSBURY, GENERAL MANAGER.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT SCRANTON, PA., AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

SCRANTON, SEPTEMBER 6, 1894.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

- For Governor: DANIEL H. HASTINGS, OF CENTER. For Lieutenant Governor: WALTER LYON, OF ALLEGHENY. For Auditor General: AMOS H. MYLIN, OF LANCASTER.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

- For Congress: JOSEPH A. SCRANTON. For State Judge: ROBERT W. ARCHBALD. For Sheriff: FRANK H. CLEMONS.

It is well to remember, in the words of W. D. Owen, Republican candidate for secretary of state in Indiana...

Warren as League President. The cordial and unanimous selection at Harrisburg, yesterday, of Vice President Everett Warren, of this city...

Asked his opinion of the State league and its work, Major Warren recently said: "It can be made an admirable auxiliary in the education of the younger voters in Republican principles..."

IN PERUSING dispatches from the scene of the Korean war it is not difficult to determine which side frames the reports. In fact the accounts are so directly at variance that many readers are beginning to suspect that the battles between the Chinese and Japs are fought entirely on paper.

THE WASHINGTON Post, during the Pythian encampment at the capital, printed the best souvenir issues we have ever seen; but, then, the Post has fallen so deeply into the habit of excelling that we dare say it cannot stop.

The individual who has not consulted the almanac with regularity can scarcely realize that the summer of 1894 has passed and that autumnal days are upon us.

Through June, July and August the sun has shone in undimmed splendor; the temperature has been high and higher, never, as it is wont in ordinary summers, dropping suddenly down to a point suggestive of rheumatism and winter garments. Throughout the past month there has been no suggestion of the chilling blasts of November save in the mournful song of the cricket at nightfall.

The past has indeed been a golden summer and it merges into the autumnal season with the calmness and grace of the ideal harvest moon that rises majestically in the eastern skies, bathing the hillsides with mellow light

ANXIOUS MEMBERS of the local Democracy who had hoped for an exhibition of wrath at Tuesday's convention and expected to find the streets alive with bolters yesterday have been grievously disappointed.

Whatever may be the truth or exaggeration of the reports to the effect that the citizen soldiery of Pennsylvania was insufficiently supplied with rations, both in quality and quantity, during the recent Gettysburg encampment, the statement suggests additional proof of the superiority and discipline of our National guard, considered in connection with diverse other circumstances which tended to make the soldiers' outing anything but a bed of roses.

During the entire week the commissary department made a miserable failure, the transportation delays were tedious and exasperating, dust and heat greeted the men upon their arrival, mud and grime afterward appeared, and during it all, these soldiers who had had little of campaigning were expected to thrive upon rations far below the standard furnished to Uncle Sam's regulars.

MANAGERS of county fair enterprises are not making much noise this season. The county fair is evidently losing its grip upon the average tiller of the soil, who is beginning to realize that there is not much in modern fairs for any one save the fakir.

LATEST ADVICES announce that the king of Siam is not dead; but it is evident that he is very tired. DEMOCRACY'S FIRST ACT. Hon. W. D. Owen, at Peru, Ind.

NOT DUE TO ACCIDENT. Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed. Men begin to see now that the prosperity of this country was not a matter of course, a thing which happened of itself...

ITS CHARACTER GONE. Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed. Such misunderstandings as these between the president and senate, if Republican, would have caused a sensation as of burned woolen among the people; but the Democracy has limitations as to morality very much enlarged.

The Best of Reasons. New York Herald. Dashaway—Uncle, suppose as you entered the gates of Paradise you should see a watermelon on one side of the road and a nice fat pullet on the other, which would you buy?

SONG OF AUTUMN. Why sing of other months than this, Good bard, when you remember The joys of the spring...

the end of the race after rescuing a number of helpless people from a horrible death. Such acts as these afford a measure of consolation in demonstrating that true heroism still exists in the land.

DISPATCHES from Bluefields would seem to indicate that the festive American and British residents of tropical Nicaragua need a little correction from home governments.

IN HIS speech at Peru last week, formally initiating the Indiana campaign, Hon. W. D. Owen elucidated one point in this "tariff reform" campaign that is frequently overlooked.

TEACHER—Why did you put that pin in my chair? BAD BOY—Boo-hoo! How do you know I put it there?

TEACHER—Because you were the only boy in the room who was hard at work studying when I sat on it.

Why sing of other months than this, Good bard, when you remember The joys of the spring...

ALL THOSE who think the dry spell we have had this year the longest ever known will do well to read the following: In the summer of 1621, 24 days in succession without rain; in 1630, 41 days; in 1657, 75 days; in 1674, 80 days; in 1674, 43 days; in 1680, 81 days; in 1694, 62 days; in 1705, 40 days; in 1724, 61 days; in 1728, 61 days; in 1730, 82 days; in 1741, 72 days; in 1749, 108 days; in 1758, 42 days; in 1760, 122 days; in 1783, 80 days; in 1791, 93 days; in 1802, 33 days; in 1812, 23 days; in 1856, 24 days; in 1871, 42 days; in 1875, 30 days; in 1876, 37 days.

IT WILL BE SEEN that the longest drought that ever occurred in America was in the summer of 1762. No rain fell from May 1 to Sept. 1, making 121 days without rain. Many of the inhabitants sent to England for hay and grain.

NOT QUITE. Judge. Marie—Do you believe silence gives content? JACK—I did until Jessie sent me to get her father's consent.

AT THE THEATERS. Hettie Bernard Chase and her farce company of thirty people will present "1904" for two nights, Sept. 7 and 8, at the Frothingham, and her standard mirth-provoking comedy, "Little Coquette," at the Saturday matinee.
