CITY NOTES.

There will be a regular meeting of the board of control Monday evening. The time of registering voters expired yesterday and registry lists must be hand-ed in to the county commissioners today. The diagram for the sale of seats for "The Rising Generation" opens today at the Academy of Music box office at 9 a. m.

The second anniversary of Thomas Fitzgraid will be celebrated at the Rescue mission this evening at 8 o'clock. A re-ception will also be given to Joseph Foin who has just returned from school.

George E. Giles and Patrick F. Mofilt yesterday filed a practipe in ejectment against E. E. Hendricks for a lot of land situated on Lincoln avenue in Carbondale township, the right and the title of which they claim is vested in them.

For the fireman's parade and celebration at Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 13, the Central Railroad of New Jersey will make a rate of one fare for round trip from sil sta-tions. Tickets good to go Sept. 12 and 13, and good to return until Sept. 14.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Maloney widow of the late John Maloney, will take place at the residence of her son, Thomas aloney, 519 Hickory street, Saturday Jorning. A solemn high mass will be cel-brated at St. Peter's cathedral at 9 o'clock. The remains will arrive at 3 o'clock this afternoon from Spring Lake, N. J.

Anthony Hermanski, a Polander, who shot in the foot his boarding house keeper, Karwoski, a fellow countryman, during a brawl on Aug. 18 at the Continental mines, was last night arrested by Con-stable Patrick Roche, of the Seventh ward, and confined in a cell at the central sta-tion. He will be given a hearing this morning. morning.

A quiet wedding took place at Elmira yesterday, the contracting parties being Miss Lettie Polhamus, of that city, and Robert Taylor, of Scranton. Both the young people are well known in this city and very much esteemed by their wide cir-cle of friends. After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will make their home in this city.

Marriage licenses were yesterday grant-ed to Philip Glies and Cassie Lewis, of this city, Ewan Rupka, of Mayfield, and Fannie Drozdak, of New York; Anton Saraski, of Pocono, and Catherine Kazmarek, of this city: Thomas Twaddle and Julia Fadden, of Olyphant; John E. Evans and Kate Powell, of Taylor; Keese Albert Price and Annie Minuie Ogborne, of Carbondale.

the land of your forefathers she may ap-propriately inseribe on her roll of honor, among the noblest of her defenders, the name of Rev. P. J. McManus. As an instrument emblematic of the position you now hold in the Catholic Total Aberiance union of Amonie Lace evening at St. Mary's hall, Providence, for the purpose of instituting a branch of the Emerald Beneficial association, a national Catholic literary and beneficial organiza-tion, branches of which exist in nearly all towns and cities. The meeting was called to order by P. H. Kelly, of Altoona, Pa., national organizer of the society, who ex-plained fully the objects and benefits of the Emerald Beneficial association. After Total Abstinence union of America I now present you with this gavel. We prize it, not for its intrinsic value, but for its his-tory and the story it might unfold could it but speak. The wood from which it is manufactured was taken by a member of the Emerald Beneficial association. After a large number of members had been enrolled and the preliminary work had been finished, the meeting adjourned Inabilitactured was taken by a memoer of the Thitteenth regiment from the "Bloody Angle" of Seminary Ridge on the battlefield of Gettysburg. The tree from which it was cut has been succored in its growth by the life's blood of many a patriotic soldier that the Union might be memorated So also had been initiated, the meeting adjourned in order to give those present an opportu-nity of participating in the reception ten-dered Father McManus, of Green Ridge. The work of perfecting the branch will be completed on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Branch 141, of Providence, the Union might be perpetuated. So, also, will our Total Abstinence union be kept intact by the able assistance that will be rendered by you in the future as in the will be enrolled in the ranks. At that meeting the officers elected will be mpast. In conclusion, I reiterate the words of one of our total abstainers uttered at a convention held in this city: stalled by the national organizer, who goes to Plymouth this morning to insti-tute a branch at that place. Man who make money by the grace of God, boast of it. Now if I give a beggar a loaf of bread, he doesn't boast of it. Will any man boast over the privilege of being admitted to the kingdom of God? No, be admitted to the kingdom of God? No, be-cause it is simply by permission-grace. To get this gift, it is not necessary to be worked up to a pitch. It's offered you; all you must do is to take it; it's yours. One of the greatest flocks to Christianity is the multitude of "border Christians."
