The Crystal Literary club social, held in Company H. armory hall Thursday night, was a great success, over 250 couples being in the grand march, which was led by Thomas F. Healey and Miss Mary A. English. The music was furnished by Miss Kate Saltry.

The Green Ridge branch of the Women's Christian Temperance union will meet at the League rooms at 615 Green Ridge street next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at which time it will be decided whether or not the union will send a delegate to the county convention to be held in Moscow next Friday.

Scranton's Business Interests.

THE TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will be sent at the rate of $1.00 per copy, including postage and advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please leave notice at the office.

THERE WAS NO CHOICE

Prize for the Hunting Song Divided Between Scranton and Forest City.

WATKINS' CHOIR SUCCESSFUL.

Captured the Two Hundred Dollar Prize for the Best Rendition of the Gloria—Fully Four Thousand Persons Attended the Festival Last Night—Results of the Competitions at Morning and Afternoon Sessions. Officers of the Sessions.

The second day's proceedings of the Laurel Hill staideddd opened yesterday with delightful weather. Judge Edwards in felicitous terms introduced as conductor of the morning session, Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons, who made a stirring speech.

In the first contest one competitor only appeared, viz.: John W. Jones, of Bellevue, who was awarded $12. Dr. Parry reiterated his regret at the lack of competitors which had been so conspicuous. Two competitors entered the Welsh recitation contest, "Concetta's Soliloquy," and John H. Powell divided the prize of $12 between the two. David Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, and Ben Griffiths, of Hyde Park.

Thomas Darlington, of Dulwich, London, was introduced by Judge Edwards and addressed the audience upon the Welsh nationality and remarked that wherever Englishmen went they organized horse racing, but Welshmen erected chapels and promoted education.

Judge Edwards, speaking in Welsh, in referring to the address, jocularly remarked that Welsh was spoken in the Garden of Eden until the tempter came upon the scene and brought the English language with him.

COMPETITION ON MADELINE.

Four parties competed in the quartette "Madeline," prize $20, viz: Miss Lydia Saylor and party, Hyde Park; North End quartette; David Elias and party, Plymouth, and John T. Watkins and party, of Hyde Park. The prize was divided between the first and third parties. The morning session concluded with the singing of the Welsh national anthem, "Hen Wlad fy Nhadau."

In the absence of Mr. Beestem, Herbert Y. Reese, of the Wilkes-Barre Record, was elected president, and introduced A. J. Colborn, jr., the conductor of the afternoon session, who delivered a magnificent oration on "Music and its Charms," at the conclusion of which he was vociferously applauded.

Again but one competitor appeared, namely, in the German party contest of "Waldmorgen," and the prize of $100 was awarded to the Scranton Liederkrantz through its leader, Professor Kopff. Dr. Parry extolled their singing and stated that they were highly deserving of the prize.

In the oration on "Daniel Webster" two contestants endeavored to secure the $25, which Judge Edwards awarded to Owen L. Evans, of Wilkes-Barre, and paid a warm tribute to the grace which was exhibited by both orators.

SOPRANO COMPETITION.

Six ladies contested the honors of the soprano solo, "The Promised Land," and after a keen competition the prize of $12 was divided between Mrs. David Lewis, Providence, and Mrs. Frank Brundage, of Hyde Park.

The contest in the rendition of the contralto solo, "Guard My Beloved One," attracted six ladies who struggled for the honors of the contralto championship. Mrs. Mary J. Boston Williams being the successful one. A prize of $5 was privately handed to Annie Morgan, of Providence, a very little girl who displayed wonderful qualities and the promise of a brilliant voice during the contest.

The chief interest of the afternoon attached to the male chorus contest, the test piece being "The Martyrs of the Arena," prize $150. The following three choruses competed: The Druids, of Hyde Park, thirty-eight voices, conductor, Lewis Watkins; Wilkes-Barre male chorus, twenty-seven voices, Thomas C. Lewis conductor; the Gents of Edwarsville, thirty-seven voices, conductor, Oliver Pryderch; and thirty-seven voices, Dr. Parry in giving his decision stated that the first choir started well; their recited good and dramatic; voices rich and fine; quartette good. Second choir, intonation not so fine as first choir; their recitative not so effective; quartette good. Third choir, the recited passages fine and dramatic; tenor recital good; quartette beautiful and most devotional. The prize was therefore awarded to the Edwarsville choir.

A BIG CROWD AT NIGHT.

All Scranton seemed to be gathered together last night at the Laurel Hill staideddd at the closing session. Fully 4,000 persons were assembled in the huge semi-circle when Llew Herbert opened the meeting with the old Welsh song "Edwars y Nain." Judge Edwards officiated and discharged the duties of president and received a most enthusiastic reception from his fellow-countrymen.

Four soloists entered the lists in the tenor competition, "Orpheus and His Lute," and the various efforts to capture the $12 prize were highly appreciated by the audience. Edwars Bowen, of Bellevue, was declared the winner.

The Catholic choir's contest interested a large section of the audience. The test piece selected was "The Gloria" from Mozart's Twelfth mass, the sum of $200 being offered for the best rendition of the musical drama. Forest City choir led by John L. Morgan; Father McMurray's choir, Dunmore, led by David John, and Scranton United Catholic society, led by John T. Watkins.

In the case of the Dunmore choir a protest was lodged against the members on the ground that they were not members of a Catholic choir. It was found when the members were counted by Judge Edwards that fifty-five were on the stage and in compliance with his request five members were withdrawn. A protest was also entered against the Watkins choir on the ground that they also were not members of a Catholic choir.

WATKINS' CHOIR THE WINNER.

Dr. Parry gave an elaborate adjudication amounting to a possible 100 granted the following marks: Forest City, 76; Dunmore, 88; Watkins, 94. Miss Gwen Williams, a visitor from Wales, sang "When the Heart is Young," and was highly appreciated.

The great event, however, of the whole festival was the great choral competition in which the committee had offered the handsome prize of $600 for the best rendition of the "Hunting Song" (Mendelssohn). Elaborate preparations had been made by six choirs which sang in the following order: Forest City, united choir, conductor, John L. Morgan;

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Emil Fritterer, a Pittston Avenue Baker, is Missing.

CREDITORS WANT TO SEE HIM

Funeral of Thomas Collins Will Take Place Tomorrow Afternoon—South Side Barbers Want Shorter Hours. New Building and Loan Association Organized—Services at Young Women's Christian Association Rooms—Apron Social in Cavanaugh's Hall.

In totaling up the ballots at the November general election the count in the Nineteenth ward will not include in the first list the vote of Emil Fritterer, lately of 725 Pittston avenue. Nor perhaps will Mr. Fritterer's name be among the voters in that district at any election for years, and maybe forever.

He conducted for four months the bakery at the above number, having bought out the baker shop and good will of John M. Linder, who owns the premises, and from all accounts he appeared to do a thriving business. Early yesterday morning he packed up his trunk and told Mrs. Linder he was going to New York on a short trip.

The Linders thought it quite strange that Fritterer would start on a junketing trip while he might better be engaged in tending to business, especially when his debts amounted to $500. But he went, and yesterday Constable Woelker was at the shop with executions from different creditors amounting altogether to the sum named.

He "struck" Linder for $375, Stowers Packing company for a small amount, one of his employes to the amount of a month's wages, and several sundry bills on the South Side are yet to be cancelled.

SOUTH SIDE JOTTINGS.

The Mozart Glee club will positively hold a home meeting Monday night.

The Germania band has been engaged by the Crystal Hose company for Sept. 24 and 25.

John Killenoff, of South Washington avenue, returned yesterday from New York.

John Fickus, of Cedar avenue, announces himself as a candidate for delegate to the Democratic county convention from the Second district of the Eleventh ward.

The funeral of Thomas Collins, the boy who was killed yesterday morning at the steel mill, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, from his father's home, 1,018 Stone avenue.

The South Side barbers will meet next Tuesday evening at John Zang's barber shop, on Birch street, to combine in the matter of early closing. They propose to close their shops hereafter at 8 p. m., except on Wednesday and Saturday nights.

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Maloney arrived at the residence of her son, Thomas Maloney, corner of Hickory street and Fifth avenue, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Interment will be made this morning in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. At 9 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's cathedral.

A merry time was spent at Cavanaugh's hall on River street, last night. The numerous lady and gentlemen friends of Misses Jessie McElrick, Bridget Judge, Lillie Keenan and Winnie Mohan attended an apron social by the above ladies. McDonald's orchestra furnished the music and the evening passed away entrancingly.

A new Building and Loan association was organized Thursday night at Moeller's hotel, Prospect avenue. The following officers were elected: President, Frank Kilschrodt; vice president, Michael Judge; treasurer, John Millar; secretary, John Gibbons, jr.; directors, Thomas J. Coyne, M. Snyder, M. J. Donohoe, John Gibbons, sr.; Fred Kloss, Herman Schaffer and Frank Moeller. M. J. Donohoe was engaged as attorney and instructed to procure a charter.

As announced before, but which is repeated by request, the Sabbath exercises at the South Side Young Women's Christian association begin each Sunday at 3:45 instead of 4 o'clock, which was the hour during the summer months. After usual song service Miss Ethel Finnigan will address the young ladies. "Rejoice" will be her subject and her talks are always interesting. On Monday evening a "towel social" will be held and a most engaging programme of music rendered. Refreshments will be served and everybody is invited and will be welcome. A very modest request to the well wishers of the association is that the donation of a towel be made as an offering.

CITY AND SCHOOL TAXES, 1894.

The city and school tax applicants for the year 1894 are now in my hands for collection. Persons wishing to pay can do so now, or any person requiring statements of taxes by giving ward and location of property will be promptly answered.

R. G. BROOKS, City Treasurer. Municipal building, Washington avenue. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., except Saturday, this office will be closed at noon.

At the recent drawing of the Mt. Pleasant Bonds association No. 436 won the sum of $100.00. The holder of the ticket will please call at 1,066 Sweetland street.

GROCERS and butchers' pass books. PRATT'S BOOK STORE.

RESTFUL to tired toilers, bread made from Pillsbury's Best.

MARRIED.

GILES-LEWIS—At the parsonage of the Scranton Street Baptist church, Sept. 6, by Rev. T. J. Collins, Philip Giles and Miss Cassie Lewis, both of Scranton.

The attention of the Fifteenth ward councilman is called to the dangerous crossing at the intersection of Hampton street and South Main avenue.

The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society will have a special programme of Monday evening, which will consist of a literary and musical festival which has been carefully arranged. We regret to note that Emerson Owen, who was expected to recite "The Miser," will be unable to do so on account of his eyes, which are now being treated.

The vacancy of principal at No. 14 school, caused by the inability of Prof. W. George Powell to teach on account of a severe affection of the eyes which makes it impossible for him to read, will be filled by Prof. H. L. Morgan. Mr. Morgan has been among us for a long time and is ably fitted for the position. He recently held a responsible charge in Wyoming Seminary and was last year's principal at No. 23 school.

This evening a farewell reception will be tendered to Evan R. Williams, of Scranton, who has decided to accept a ministerial course, and will leave the city next Tuesday for Marietta college, Ohio. Mr. Williams will begin his career in this line with the best wishes of his numerous friends. The reception will be held at the home of Miss Della P. Evans on South Main avenue. Mr. Williams will be accompanied to the college by John W. Davis who is visiting his parents here.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Seldon Polhamus, of Winchester, Va., is visiting his brothers Sam and Niles.

Within the last three days business has increased almost double on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western.

Engineer Sam Polhamus says he wants to sell his place west of Green and come to Scranton to live among the people.

Complaint was made by the express company that peaches were carried and sold by railroad employees, thereby saving express charges. On Thursday Detective S. B. Stillwell was ordered to investigate. The result was 150 bushels were found on one train and now the conductor has a vacation.

Seasonable Suggestions.

Perhaps you may not realize it, but autumn is here. Within the next few weeks a change in the elements must necessarily take place. It behooves all good people to prepare for cold weather during the busy days of Indian summer when shopping is a positive delight. Fall house cleaning and house replenishing is as necessary as the springing of the beds which has been the cause of many an epic upon the dust cloth and stove pipe.

Do you intend to replenish any of your furniture or other articles this season? In case you do, the Economy Furniture Store has anticipated your wishes and is prepared to assist you in every way possible.
