Scranton's Numerous Errors Aid Springfield in Winning a Game.

FIRST WON AND THEN LOST

The Leaders Suffer Defeat at Syracuse—Wilkes-Barre Wins a Game from Erie and the Bisons Lose to Yorkers—National and State League Summaries—General Sporting News.

WITH the end of the Eastern league season fast drawing to a close, interest in the game is waning, as Providence can not be ousted from her strongly entrenched position at the head of the list in the table of percentages. In the games played yesterday Syracuse defeated the coming champions, Wilkes-Barre took a game from Erie, passing Buffalo and going into fifth place; Kelly's Yorkers aggregation defeated the Bisons and Scranton spoiled her chances of bettering the position she now holds by almost "giving" a game to the Maroons of Springfield.

The following table gives the percentages of the clubs, the number of games won and lost by each and their standing in the championship races:

LOST IN THE SEVENTH

Scranton Had the Game Well in Hand Until That Fateful Inning.

The Scranton club, after practically winning the game from Springfield yesterday, lost it in the unlucky seventh inning, when by grievous errors on the part of the home team, the Maroons were enabled to score eight runs.

The game was marked by some very brilliant as well as bad playing on the part of the home club. Among the brilliant features was Johnson's running catch, stopping what appeared to be a base hit and afterward throwing to a runner who had made second base and was unable to get back to first base; and a double play in which Cahill, Patben and Lehane figured, putting men out at home and first bases. The score:

GLINTS FROM THE DIAMOND.

The New Yorks have arranged to play a game in Toledo on Sunday, Sept. 30. According to the Baltimore Sun Anson has offered to trade Hutchinson for Staley, of Boston.

Sullivan and Cappy, of the Clevealand, use a glove on the left hand while sitting so as to handle hot grounders with safety. Denny Lyons will not be able to play again this season on account of a sprained ankle. Denny has signed a St. Louis contract and will be with the team next season.

Jack Stivetta's biceps measure seventeen inches. His arm is muscular, mostrosity, and physicians who have examined him say he will last longer than any pitcher in the game. Stivetta, however, is not in love with his work. He says that he prefers to forget the cut and throw the ball. In the New York-Cleveland game of last Thursday, in the fifth inning, McAleer tried to imitate McCarthy's famous trap ball trick in the outfield, and made a mess of it. Clark was on second and Tiernan on first, with one man out, when Davis sent a short fly to McAleer. The latter, instead of "trapping" the ball, hold it momentarily, and then dropped it. He then threw to Child, who touched Clark and the bag and made a claim of two out. Horst, however, declared Davis out, as McAleer had held the ball momentarily.

JACKSON REFUSES.

He Positively Will Not Accept the Terms Offered by the Sioux City Club.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—The conference today between Mr. Edward Lloyd Webster, of the Sioux City Athletic club, and Peter Jackson, the object of which was to have Jackson sign the articles of agreement for a fight with Corbett, which articles have already been signed by the latter, ended in the refusal of Jackson to put his name to a written agreement.

"I would not sign those articles if $50,000 were at stake," said Jackson. "They are too vague. I will fight Corbett within three months for our side stake and any purse you offer, providing you name the positive date and location of the fight before signing the articles, or I will fight him before the National club of London, on precisely the same conditions."

Jackson held that the articles were not honest and that they were drawn up in Corbett's favor, without consideration of himself. "You do not specify where the fight is to be held and may compel me to fight in the woods or in a large in some river." He expressed his doubts as to the existence of the Sioux City Athletic club. The weight of the gloves, he claimed, was also favorable to Corbett and unsatisfactory to him.

HENRY SCHEENHALS, foreman Henry Krug Packing company, St. Joseph, Mo., uses Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil with his men for sprains, bruises, chapped hands, etc. It is the best.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES.

Directum is at Hartford, where he will go in training for the great stallion race at Mystic park, Sept. 28.

An earth coating is being placed on the cinder filling of Franklin field, the new athletic grounds of the University of Pennsylvania.

This week's trotting meeting at Fleetwood park will probably be the last big meeting at that place, as the ground will be cut through before next year.

Coxswain G. H. Perkins, of the University of Pennsylvania crew, and Captain M. C. Conroy, of the track team, are members of an exploring party now in the wilds of Labrador.

A match has been arranged between the American middle-weight, Frank Craig, and the Welsh champion, O'Brien. The fight will take place in October in the arena of the National Sporting club, London, Eng.

George Green, a young boxer whom Champion James Corbett brought out some time ago, won the championship of the Pacific coast on Thursday night by defeating "Spider" Kelly in fourteen rounds at Comco, Cal.

It is proposed that at its next annual meeting the Entomological Athletic Association send a challenge to Oxford-Cambridge for an annual meeting between the winners of the Berkeley Owl meet and the American college championship.

Four six-round glove fights have been arranged for the opening athletic club, Schookill Navy, boxing entertainment on September 27; Black and Foley are matched at 150 pounds; Leonard and Moore at 125 pounds; Bachman and Hanson 118 pounds; and Burke and Boyle at 108 pounds.

Fred Woods has written to the New York Sun, challenging Jack Dempsey, Frank Craig, the Harlem Coffee Cooler, Mike Dunn or any 150 to 154-pound man in the country. Woods can get a match nearer home, as the Cuban Wonder will meet him in any kind of a contest.

EVENTS IN GRAND CIRCUIT RACES

The Opinions Upon the Norwood Gelding So Favorable That His Price in the Pools Was $55—Scranton Belle Was Second Choice—The Wonderful Work of Major Wonder, Who Won the Turf Club Stakes.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.—EADLINE, race goers were attracted to the second day's grand circuit races and the events were more interesting than were those of yesterday. Foreman, of the Toledo, almost started a riot at Grand Rapids by throwing a ball into the grand stand at a boy who had gazed him. The ball narrowly missed a lady, and almost in an instant a rush for the field was made by a number of men bent on teaching the irate pitcher a lesson. Before they could get too far, however, they were pacified. The spectators did not forget the cut, notwithstanding, and a mob waited for Foreman after the game. It might have gone hard with him if the Toledo players had not left the park by a roundabout way.

WONDER'S WONDERFUL WORK.
With Paul S. Scranton in the 2:10 pace, the field brought $85, and a Guinote $20. The latter was distanced in the first heat, and then Vitello commanded $25 against $13 for the field. Prima Donna's victory in the second heat caused Vitello to drop to $15, the field being $7 higher. Vitello won the third heat and his price went up to $25, while the field dropped to $12. Major Wonder upset all calculations by winning the fourth heat and pools sold thereafter at $25 for Wonder and $13 for the field. Wonder won the fifth and sixth heats and the race.

Out of thirteen entries in the Philadelphia Tattersall state race for two-year-olds, but two appeared—Shadow and Hilda King. The former led all the way around by 100 yards or more, and easily distanced her competitor. It was Shadow's first race, and the time, 2:28, is her record.

FINE CARD AT GRAVESEND.
Dominio Draws Away from the Field After a Bad Start.
GRAVESEND, Sept. 11.—A mmmoth card and the slightest weather brought here to-day the largest attendance of the meeting and some of the best racing of the season was witnessed. The principal event of the day was the race for the Culver stakes, in which the cracks Dominio and Stonelle clashed. The two-year-old Lisak was the other candidate, Dominio was in bad temper and refused to get away, but after several breaks the flag finally fell, Lisak took the lead, Dominio kept close up and when the stretch was reached took charge of matters, had everything his own way the rest of the 3 murray hand and won in a gall by an open length. Stonelle all but beat Lisak eight lengths for the place.

Another big event on the programme was the Brees' stakes for 3-year-olds, which was captured by Galileo. The handicapper race for 3-year-olds and upward was won by the old campaigner, Barquist, who easily drew away from Saragossa in the stretch and won without any apparent effort by a length.

WANTS THEM ARRESTED.
Judge Dupps Charges Grand Jurymen Concerning Corbett's Fight.
NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 11.—Judge Dupps, in his charge to the grand jury today, directed a searching investigation into the fight which took place between Champion Corbett and "Jack" Courtney before the kinetoscope at Elihu's laboratory, Orange, on Thursday last. The charge was very specific and declared that an indictment be found against the principals and spectators, if the facts as published were correct. The evidence could be procured, he said, from newspapers and who are not amenable and consequently would not be incriminating themselves.
